“Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; for He has visited and redeemed His people, And raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David; as He spake by the mouth of His holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember His holy covenant; The oath which He sware to our father Abraham, That He would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him, all the days of our lives.” Luke 1: 68-75;

AWAKE, AWAKE O AMERICA!

You Are In The Bible! Pt 2

by Pastor Pete Peters

Joel 2: 1 “Blow a trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm on my Holy Mountain.”

Isaiah 52: 1 “Awake, Awake ...O Zion ...O Jerusalem the Holy City.”

Zechariah 2: 1-8 (KJV) “I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand. Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof and what is the length thereof. And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, and said unto him, Run, Speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein: For I, saith the Lord, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the Lord: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the Lord. Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon. For thus saith the Lord of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the APPLE OF HIS EYE.”

We see this Jerusalem of prophecy cannot be the ancient city of Jerusalem which is about 20 miles by 15 miles for this Jerusalem was a LAND having towns without walls, having a multitude of people and cattle. The “towns without walls” indicates that this is not the old Biblical lands, for their towns have walls.

Unwalled cities indicate a place that was at peace, not preparing itself for a military siege. Also note, God said He would be a wall of fire about her. The multitude of cattle indicates great agricultural wealth. Can you think of a nation with peace and great prosperity that fits this prophetic JerUSAlem?

Many people would long to be born in such a place just as Psalms 87: 5-6 says, “But of Zion it shall be said, ‘This one and that one were born in her’; and the most High Himself will establish her. The Lord shall count when He registers the peoples this one was born there.” (NAS)

Isn't it interesting that right now pregnant Mexican women break the law and risk health and limb to get across the Rio-Grande in order to give birth to their children in the USA?

In Zechariah 2: 1-8 we see that this Jerusalem land, this nation called Zion, was special to God and was called the APPLE OF HIS EYE and that something would happen to it. It would be captured by Babylon for verse 7 says, “Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.” Verse 8 shows that Zion was being made a spoil or was being plundered by the other nations. This fits Isaiah's description of Zion forsaken and desolate prior to the marriage and the Revelation description of mourning, crying and pain prior to the marriage.

Why would this happen to this prophetic nation? Isaiah. 51: 23 and 52: 1 gives the answer. Verse 23 describes a forsaken, painful plunder situation when it speaks of Zion's tormentors sent by God, “And I will put it in to the hand of your tormentors, who have said to you, Lie down that we may walk over you. You have made your back like the ground, and like the street for those who walk over it.” The next verse gives the answer why this happened to Zion, “Awake, awake, clothe yourself in your strength. O Zion; clothe yourself in your beautiful garments.”

Three things had happened to Zion that caused her problem.

(1) She had gone to sleep, that is; she had not been alert. It was a wise American who said ‘eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.’ It was a fat communist butcher named Nikita Khrushchev who said “You Americans are so gullible. No, you won’t accept communism outright, but we’ll keep feeding you small doses of Socialism until you’ll finally WAKE UP and find you already have communism.” It is interesting that books have been written with such titles as WAKEUP AMERICA and WHILE YOU SLEPT.

(2) Zion had lost her strength and needed to be clothed again in such strength. Jesus indicated He was our strength when He said in John 15: 5, “I am the vine, you are the branches; he who abides in Me, and I in him, he bears much fruit for apart from me you can do nothing.”

(3) Zion had lost its righteousness. The Bible teaches that there is no righteousness outside of Jesus Christ. Galatians 3: 27 says, “For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourself with Christ.” Is it possible that the Scriptures are describing an end time nation that began as a Christian nation and then because of peace, prosperity and neglect becomes captive oppressed and nearly destroyed?

History tells of a French political philosopher who visited America when she was a young nation. Alexis de Tocqueville said he came to the United States to learn what magic quality enabled a handful of people to defeat the mighty British Empire twice in 35 years. He looked for the greatness of America in her harbors and rivers, her fertile fields and boundless forests, mines and other natural resources. He studied America’s schools, her Congress and her matchless Constitution without comprehending America’s power. Not, he said, until he went into the churches of America and heard pulpits “afire with righteousness” did he understand the secret of her genius and strength. De Tocqueville returned to France and wrote: “America is great because America is good, and if America ever ceases to be good, America will cease to be great.”

The remainder of Isaiah 52: 1 and 2 indicates what this Zion needs to wake up or to become aware of, “For the uncircumcised and unclean will no more come into you.” The terms ‘uncircumcised’ and ‘unclean’ are Bible terms for people other than the Israel people of the Bible. Evidently this nation was being overrun by another people.

Verses 2 and 3 of Isaiah 52 say: “Shake yourself from the dust, rise up, O captive Jerusalem; loose yourself from the chains around your neck, O captive daughter of Zion. For thus you were sold for nothing and you will be redeemed without money.” With some analysis of these two verses one begins to recognize the nature of Zion’s Babylonian captivity. The terms “sold for nothing” and “redeemed without money” indicate an economic captivity. To be sold, to be captive and to have chains around one’s neck is to be a slave. Proverbs 22:7 indicates such slavery can come about through economics; “The rich rules over the poor and the borrower becomes the lender’s slave.” The founding fathers were well aware of the insidious enslaving nature of debt that could happen so slowly as to never awaken the people.

Thomas Jefferson wrote the following to a friend in 1816, “...If we run into such debt that we must be taxed in our meat and in our drink and in our necessities and in our comforts, in our labors, in our callings and in our creeds. Our people must come to labor 16 hours of the 24, give our earnings of 15 of these to the government, have no time to think, no means of calling our mis-managers to account, but be glad to obtain sustenance by hiring ourselves out to rivet their CHAINS ON THE NECK of our fellow sufferers. And this is the tendency of human government until the bulk of society is reduced to mere automatons of misery and the fore horse of this frightful team is PUBLIC DEBT. Misery and taxation follows that and in its train wretched oppression.”

Isn’t it interesting how America’s decline has been in proportion to her debt and she has become a debtor nation with literally trillions of dollars of debt, more than all the money and all the property in America several times over. Notice verse 3 says Zion was “sold for nothing”! The meaning of this becomes evident by considering the present end-time monetary system which America has mortgaged all its property and people to.

Speaking of this type of money system, Horace Greeley once boasted with the following words. “We have stricken the (slave) shackles from four million human beings and brought all laborers to a common level, not so much by the elevation of former slaves as by practically reducing the whole working population, white and black, to a condition of serfdom. While boasting of our noble deeds, we are careful to conceal the ugly fact that by our iniquitous money system we have nationalized a system of oppression which though more refined, is no less than the old system of chattel slavery.”

That system is today called the Federal Reserve System. It is a non-government equity, a privately owned corporation that controls the volume of money in America. President James A. Garfield once said, “Whoever controls the volume of money in any country is absolute master of all industry and commerce.” With the present day money system there is really no money, only debt. (We already have a cashless society!! Ask to see our videos MONETARY REALISM [CI-19] or the series FOR RICHER FOR POORER [CI-03 to 07] CIM.)

After disarmament ... PEACEFUL CO-EXISTENCE?

(6) In that day, declares the Lord, I will assemble the lame, and gather the outcasts, even those whom I have afflicted. I will make the lame a remnant, and the outcasts a strong nation, and the Lord will reign over them in Mount Zion from now on and forever. And as for you, tower of the flock, hill of the daughter of Zion, to you it will come - even the former dominion will come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem."

These verses teach that Zion would be made into a strong nation by afflicted outcasts. The King James translation speaks of the outcasts as those cast afar off. Such terminology indicates the people came from far away. It is no coincidence that America was founded with the outcasts called immigrants from faraway lands. Even the Statue of Liberty, standing at a once major harbor for

More than a hundred years ago John C. Calhoun said that we had given the banks the government credit for NOTHING, only to borrow it back at interest. Every dollar is a dollar of debt created out of nothing (except paper and ink or a ledger entry) and is backed by nothing. For these nothings all assets in America have been mortgaged, thus the scripture says, "you were sold for nothing." (The same applies to Australia!)

Since America has given up everything (mortgaged) for nothing, it would only be just that everything be gotten back (un-mortgaged) for nothing thus the scripture says, "You will be redeemed without money." Could this mean all debt in Zion will be cancelled in accordance with God's Law on the Jubilee of release? (Write for our Bible Law Course, CIM)

America is presently in Babylonian debt bondage and stands only as a shell of her former grandeur, but such hasn't always been so. This fact is also in keeping with the Zion described in scripture and found in the book of Micah.

Micah 4: 1-2, 6-8 says of Zion (NAS): "And it will come about in the last days that the mountain of the house of the Lord will be established as the chief of the mountains. It will be raised above the hills, and the peoples will stream to it. And many nations will come and say, come and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord and to the house of the God of Jacob, that He may teach us about His ways and that we may walk in His paths. For from Zion will go forth the law, even the word of the Lord from Jerusalem." immigrants has the inscription "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed to me."

The earliest settlers of America, called the Pilgrims and Puritans, were outcasts from England. Both groups were considered "fanatics" by the Church of England. The Puritans were people who wished to purify the church from within and were thus dubbed Puritans. They were tolerated but always held suspect. The Pilgrims felt the Church of England was corrupt beyond any possible purification and thus, they separated themselves from it and were called Separatists. These people were persecuted by church Bishops who had been given a free hand by Queen Elizabeth to suppress them. Both groups came to America to establish the Christian faith and they were the forerunners of the greatest mass migration in history, wherein the Nordic race of people known as the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian, Celtic and kindred people came from their respective European nations to form the United States of America. These people were often poor and homeless, matching the description in scripture of lame, afflicted, and outcasts.

The early writings of the Pilgrims and Puritans show they knew themselves to be God's people Israel and they called the land of America "the city of God", "the Promised Land" and "new Israel." They called themselves Abraham's seed, Jacobites and Israel. They seemed to consider their coming to America fulfilment of prophecy. This last point can best be seen by considering a farewell sermon preached by a Puritan minister named John Cotton in the fall of 1629 just prior to the departure of 1,000 puritans to America. Samuel Eliot Morison later described the sermon as follows: "Cotton's sermon was of a nature to inspire these new children of Israel with, the belief that they were the Lord's chosen people; destined if they kept the covenant with Him, to people and fructify this New Canaan in the Western wilderness". (From page 25 of John Winthrop and the Founding of New England in Colonial America.) The sermon text John Cotton used was 2 Samuel 7: 10 concerning the future home land of God's people Israel.

2 Samuel 7: 10 says, "I will also appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, that they may live in their own place and not be disturbed again, nor will the wicked afflict them any more as formerly."

To understand the meaning and significance of this prophecy we must consider the time and place it was spoken in light of God's covenants with Abraham the father of the children of Israel. God had promised Abraham in Genesis 12: 2 that He would make of him a great nation and then in Genesis 17: 1-7 that his seed would even form a multitude of nations. When 2 Samuel 7: 10 was spoken the Israel people had formed the old nation of Israel and were in the old land of Palestine with David as their King, but if they are to form a multitude of nations and a truly great nation called ZION, then there must be more land.

The great and rich geographical land mass called the North American Continent was and is that land and was so recognized by the Pilgrims and Puritans. The settling of that land and the forming of the nation called the United States of America was done by the Nordic race called the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian, Celtic and kindred people. They were and still are today the Israel people of Scripture. They had once had a nation or kingdom but lost it and now it was being restored in America.

This restoration was foretold by the prophet Micah who said in 4:8, "And as for you tower of the flock, hill of the daughter of Zion, to you it will come even the former dominion will come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem." On July 4, 1776, when the Declaration of Independence was signed by 56 men, all of one race, the Israel race, it is recorded that Samuel Adams then said "We have this day RESTORED the sovereign, to whom alone men ought to be obedient. He reigns in heaven and ...from the rising to the setting sun, may His Kingdom come."

As the news of the signing of the Declaration of Independence reached the people of the new born nation, church bells were rung, cannons fired and Americans delirious with joy waved and cheered in the streets. Samuel Adams wrote: "The people, I am told, recognize the resolution as though it were a decree promulgated from heaven."

History shows that for a short time greatness came upon the nation of America. Her economy was the soundest in the world, her morals the most Christian, her technological advances the greatest, her citizens the healthiest, her armies the mightiest, but then something happened. Morals declined, military ventures failed, money became debt and paper, the economy became erratic and school children failed to learn to read. America's category of problems now include drugs, pornography, materialism, promiscuity, illegal aliens, farm crisis, unemployment, weather, disease, trade imbalances, etc. Truly she fits the description by the prophets as "forsaken, afflicted, and tormented".

This state is described in the next three verses of Micah 4: 9 (NAS) "Now, why do you cry out loudly? Is there no king among you, or has your counselor perished, that agony has gripped you like a woman in childbirth; for now you will go out of the city, dwell in the field, and go to Babylon. There you will be rescued; there the Lord will redeem you from the hand of your enemies. And now many nations have been assembled against you who say, 'let her be polluted and let our eyes gloat over Zion.'"

These scriptures describe problems that would come upon Zion as a result of going to Babylon, and match the prophecies of Zechariah 2 and Isaiah 52. Revelation 21: 10 reveals the end-time difficulties to be so severe that they cannot save themselves without their God's intervention.

Let's search the scriptures to determine what those problems were. Micah discloses that they would be like pains of childbirth. This could mean that they come on ever harder with one leading to another in ever closer succession. Such seems to depict America's present plight. Micah 4: 11 shows many nations would turn on her. Zechariah 2: 8 said the nations would plunder her.

This plunder is described in Isaiah 62: 8, "The Lord has sworn by His right hand and by His strong arm, I will never again give your grain as food for your enemies; nor will foreigners drink your new wine, for which you have labored."

Isn't it interesting that this sounds like the foreign aid policy of the United States Government? Isn't it true that in reality the plains of America such as Kansas have become the bread basket of the Soviet Union, her arch-enemy? Ezekiel also speaks of this plunder. Ezekiel, chapters 35 and 36, speaks concerning Edom the enemy of Israel at the end time of the punishment of Israel (Ezekiel 35: 2).

In Ezekiel 35: 12 God says to Edom, “Then you will know that I the Lord have heard all your revilings which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel saying, ‘They are laid desolate; they are given to us for food.’” Ezekiel 36: 5 shows Edom and other nations were taking God’s land of Zion, “...therefore, thus says tile Lord God, ‘Surely in the fire of My jealousy I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, who appropriated my land for themselves as a possession with whole hearted joy and with scorn of soul to drive it out for a prey.’” Such events described by Ezekiel match the words of Jesus in Luke 16: 16 when He said men would force their way into the Kingdom of God.

We shall go to some more Scripture concerning taking the land of Zion and feeding upon Israel, but let’s first comment about Edom, which means Red, and the Edomites or Reds were always the enemies of Israel. They were the descendants of Esau. Abraham’s son of promise was Isaac who had twin sons Esau and Jacob. Esau lost the birthright (this was in part his inheritance to the Kingdom of God) to his brother Jacob whose name was changed to Israel (meaning ruling with God) and he fathered twelve sons who in turn fathered the thirteen tribes of Israel. Esau, (Edom) always wanted back the birthright.

Psalms 137: 7-8 is one of the many places in Scripture that teaches the connection between Edom and Babylon, and their end time hatred and attempted destruction of prophetic Jerusalem. “Remember. O Lord, against the sons of Edom the day of Jerusalem, who said ‘Raze it, raze it, to its very foundation!’ O daughter of Babylon, you devastator! How blessed will be the one who repays you with the recompense with which you have repaid us.”

Isaiah 63: 2 says Edom’s apparel is red and Jeremiah 50: 16, 23 say Babylon wields a sickle and is the hammer of the whole earth. Isn’t it interesting that America’s enemies at her birth were the RED coats and her enemies in these last days are RED communists whose emblem is a HAMMER AND SICLE? Isn’t it interesting that the earth is threatened to be swallowed up with a one world government and to become ONE.

This was the ancient goal of the builders of the Tower of Babel. The word ‘Babel’ is the same word translated in the Bible as Babylon. It is time to sound an alarm in Zion just as the prophet Joel has commanded. The reason for the alarm is described in Joel 1 as it tells of a land invaded by people described as a devastating locust, feeding on and devouring the land of Zion. Isn’t it interesting that America is being invaded by illegal aliens coming in to partake of the welfare system and thus feeding off God’s people Israel?

Like the locust of Joel, today where communism goes it devastates the land so as to not even be capable of feeding itself. The Ukraine of Russia was once the bread basket of Europe and Cuba was once called the pearl of its area and now both areas, under communism, must import food. The locust of Joel has devastated the land (Joel 1: 7).

Note Joel 2: 17-20 (NAS) “Let the priests, the Lord’s ministers, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, ‘Spare thy people, O Lord, and do not make Thine inheritance a reproach, a byword among the nations. Why should they among the peoples say, where is their God? Then the Lord will be zealous for His land, and will have pity on His people and the Lord will answer and say to His people, “Behold. I am going to send you grain, new wine, and oil, and you will be satisfied in full with them; and I will never again make you a reproach among the nations. But I will remove the northern army far from you, and I will drive it into a parched and desolate land, and its vanguard into the eastern sea, and its rear guard into the western sea. And its stench will arise and its foul smell will come up, for it has done great things.”

From Joel 1: 17 we see the situation became so serious God’s people must pray not to be totally destroyed. Today In America the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian, Celtic and kindred people, God’s Israel people are about to become a byword in their own nation as they are being overwhelmed with blacks, asiatics, cubans, and hispanics.

Joel 1: 18 shows God will be jealous for His land and hear His people when they cry to Him; verse 19 shows He would restore their once great wealth; verse 20 teaches He will remove an invading northern army and push them into the eastern sea and the western sea. From this we learn that prophetic Zion has an eastern and a western sea just like the United States of America. Isn’t it interesting, that many military experts maintain that if the Red armies of

101 THE BIBLE SAYS: RUSSIA WILL INVADE AMERICA AND BE DEFEATED

Russia invade America that a major invasion route would be from the north; from the Baltic Sea into Alaska, Canada and America?

Joel 3: 9-11 say there will be a war with nations called surrounding nations. Micah 4: 11 spoke also of nations assembled against Zion and Revelation 20: 8-9 speak of nations surrounding the beloved city for war only to be devoured by fire. Zechariah 2: 5 teaches that God would be a wall of fire around Zion. Jesus said in Matthew 11: 12 "...the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence and violent men take it by force."

This surrounding of Zion fits with the long standing plans of Communism announced by the beady-eyed murderer Vladimir Lenin. "After Russia we will take Eastern Europe, then the masses of Asia, and then we will encircle the United States which will be the last bastion of Capitalism. We will not have to attack. It will fall like an overripe fruit into our hands."

Ezekiel 38 also speaks of an end time battle to take place upon the mountains of Israel by a northern army. Verses 8, 11 and 12 describe the land, "...After many days you will be summoned; in the latter years you will come into the land that is restored from the sword, whose inhabitants have been gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel which had been a continual waste; but its people were brought out from the nations, and they are living securely, all of them."

(11-12) "...And you will say, 'I will go up against the land of unwalled villages. I will go against those who are at rest, that live securely, all of them living without walls, and having no bars or gates, to capture spoil and to seize plunder' to turn your hand against the waste places which are now inhabited, and against the people who are gathered from the nations, who have acquired cattle and goods, who live at the center of the world."

From these verses we learn the land was inhabited by people gathered out of many nations to a land that had been a continual waste. America was settled by immigrants from many nations who came to change a land, that had lain idle and for centuries gone to waste, into a great nation. In the process they had to fight for it. They fought Red Coats, Indians and Mexicans. Verse 11 shows the inhabitants of the land (rich in cattle and goods) were living at peace in unwalled villages unsuspecting of any danger.

America should not forget the statement made years ago by the Soviet official, Dimitri Manuilski, "War to the hilt between communism and capitalism is inevitable... The bourgeois will have to be put to sleep. So we will begin by launching the most spectacular peace movement on record. The capitalistic countries, stupid and decadent, will rejoice to cooperate in their own destruction. They will leap at another chance to be friends. As soon as their guard is down, we shall smash them with our clenched fists."

What is the outcome of these great end time events in store for the great nation Jesus said would receive the Kingdom? Remember Daniel 2 teaches the stone kingdom would crush and put an end to the kingdoms headed by the gold kingdom of Babylon. Jesus said the Kingdom of God would be given to a nation, and that on whomever the stone falls it will scatter him like dust.

This is all in keeping with the words of Micah who explains the outcome of Zion's Babylonian captivity. Micah 4: 11-13 says, (NAS) "And now many nations have been assembled against you, who say, let her be polluted, and let our eyes gloat over Zion. But they do not know the thoughts of the Lord, and they do not understand His purpose; for He has gathered them like sheaves to the threshing floor. Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion, for your horn will I make iron and your hoofs I will make bronze, that you may pulverize many peoples, that you may devote to the Lord their unjust gain and their wealth to the Lord of all the earth."

Note that the nations who planned to destroy Zion did not know God's plan was to destroy and pulverize them. Yes, the great nation of America was known to Jesus Christ and is in His Word, the Holy Bible, even though the religious leaders of her land still adamantly deny it. Rightly did Isaiah prophesy of such ministers when he said in Isaiah 56: 10-11 (NAS) "His watchmen are blind, all of them know nothing. All of them are dumb dogs unable to bark, dreamers lying down, who love to slumber; And the dogs are greedy, they are not satisfied. And they are shepherds who have no understanding; they have all turned to their own way, each one to his unjust gain, to the last one."

Zion was to be called by a new name which is America meaning "Heavenly Kingdom" in the Gothic language and it is time for her to awake. It is time to "blow a trumpet in Zion and sound an alarm." It is time for our religious and civil leaders to obey the instruction of Joel 1: 13-15 (NAS) "Gird yourselves with sackcloth, and lament, O priests; Wail, O ministers of the altar! Come; spend the night in sackcloth, O ministers of my God. For the gain offering and libation are withheld from the house of your God. Consecrate a fast, proclaim a solemn assembly; gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of the Lord your God, and cry out to the Lord. Alas for the day! For the day of the Lord is near, and it will come as a destruction from the Almighty."

"And it will come about that whoever calls on the name of the Lord WILL be delivered; for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who escape, as the Lord has said, even among the survivors whom the Lord calls." Joel 2: 32 (KJV)

SILEVEN SEZ SEAT BELTS

There is now a large body of evidence suggesting that the use of seatbelts may increase deaths and injuries rather than decrease them. One study shows that in the first month of New Jersey's mandatory usage of seat belts, the highway death toll increased by a staggering 42%.

TO FIGHT COMMUNISM

Western bankers are on the march to Moscow. Credit Lyonnais of Paris has opened a branch office there. Chase Manhattan Bank was the first US bank to win permission to do the same. Frankfurt's Dresdner Bank AG was West Germany's initial entry. Now the Deutsche Bank, a veteran in East-West transactions, is following suit.

Franz Heinrich Ulrich, a Deutsche Bank official, says the Russians are determined to have at least 20 Western banks represented in Moscow as soon as possible. But West German bankers add this word of caution: Reasonable profits for the Westerners will show up only if they can line up financing on terms that fit Moscow's rigid system of economic planning.

In the meantime, the U.S. Congress has appropriated large sums to fight communism in Nicaragua.

THAT OLD SERPENT, CALLED THE DEVIL AND SATAN - REVELATION 12. Part 7

We are reading Revelation 2: 26-27 and this is Jesus speaking to the churches: "And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works to the end, to him will I give power over the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father."

So you see we have a two-fold revelation here that it is Jesus who will rule the nations with a rod of iron, but it is also true that Jesus' followers, the overcomers will rule the nations of the world with a rod of iron. There are other things in Revelation 12 which also reveal that the man-child here is not Jesus Christ. We've already seen that the Bible does say the overcomers will rule the nations with a rod of iron. Revelation 12: 2 says, "...And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered."

Earlier I identified the woman as Israel; the sun, moon, and stars are symbols of the nation of Israel according to Joseph's dream in the book of Genesis. But the question is, Did Israel travail when Jesus was born? The answer is, No! Most of Israel didn't even know what was happening and in fact the word 'travail' is never used in the Scripture in relation to Jesus' birth. However, there is a birth in Scripture which is supposed to produce a man-child, and is supposed to produce it with pain and travail.

Let's have the Bible itself identify what this man-child is. Turn to the last chapter of the prophet Isaiah. The last half of the prophet Isaiah is almost completely about the Zion of Bible prophecy, and so are so some of the other prophecies in the Old Testament; and yet we seldom hear an explanation of what the Zion of Bible prophecy is. Well, generally speaking it is related to Jerusalem and to a redeemed Israel ruling over the earth in the Kingdom. In other words, the word 'Zion' fits the Kingdom of Jesus Christ upon the earth. Starting in Isaiah 66: 5,

"Hear the word of the Lord, ye that tremble at his word; (This is addressed to believers, people who tremble at God's Word.) Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the Lord be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed." (He is referring to someone who is cast out by their brethren, but God will appear to the cast out ones.)

"A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the Lord that rendereth recompense to his enemies. Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came she was delivered of a man-child. Who hath heard such things? Who hath seen such a thing? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once?" What was born? What is the man-child? The man-child is a nation, a nation born at once!

“For as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. Shall I bring to birth and not cause to bring forth, saith the Lord: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb, saith thy God.” God is going to bring something out of this thing called Zion. And the thing born called a ‘man-child’ in prophecy is a nation.

Turn to the prophet Micah 4, and this is obviously a prophecy of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ upon the earth. The first part of it is literally word for word with Isaiah 2; Micah 4: 1 “But in the last days it shall come to pass that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.”

As we saw earlier, the word ‘mountain’ stands for ‘nation’ in Bible prophecy. The nation of the Lord is going to be established as the chief among the nations, on top of the nations:

“And people shall flow unto it. And many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain (or nation) of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth from Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.”

Now we have a cassette tape just on that subject explaining the difference between the law going forth from Zion and the word from Jerusalem. (Tape #71105, $3 posted from Christian Identity)

“And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore.”

This has to refer to that great prophesied time of peace, the Kingdom upon the earth.

“But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the Lord of Hosts hath spoken it. For all people will walk everyone in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the Lord our God forever and ever. In that day, saith the Lord, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted.”

All kingdom people know that the one driven out, the one that halted, and the one that was afflicted is the Nation of Israel, driven out of old Palestine 700 years before Christ.

“And I will make her that halted a remnant.” (The Hebrew word translated ‘remnant’ means literally ‘the turned ones’. It is too bad that the word ‘remnant’ means a ‘small number’ nowadays; it did not mean that, it meant ‘the turned ones.’ So, this would mean the ones turned to God), and her that was cast off a strong nation:”

Here is a prophecy, that God who has cast off Israel, would re gather Israel and make her a strong nation.

“And the Lord shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even forever.”

What is that nation made up of reconstituted Israel? Well, in Bible prophecy it is called Zion. And it is out of Zion, or in Zion that the man-child is born according to Isaiah 66.

“And thou, O tower of the Flock, the stronghold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.”

Not the old mother! Not that filthy little old city back in Palestine, but the New JerUSAlem, the new nation called Zion and Jerusalem, that was born in a day, and which the dragon in Revelation 12 was attempting to destroy. Still in Micah, verse 8b,

“The kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem. Now why dost thou cry aloud? Is there no king in thee? Is thy counsellor perished? For pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.”

Here is that birth again. Something is coming to birth in this nation of reconstituted Israel.

“Be in pain and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the Lord shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.”

And we’ve shown this in other sermons on prophecy, that this nation, this great reconstituted nation of Israel was to be born in a day, was to become the chief among the nations of the world, and then was to go into captivity under an entity called Babylon. Remember Revelation 17, it is Mystery Babylon that rules over all the nations of the world, and fights against Christendom. This is the same Babylon that we read here, and then God says, at that time; ‘there shalt thou be delivered.’ There the Lord shall redeem thee from thy enemies.

“Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.”

What did we read in Revelation 12 in the first part of verse 4: “The dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.”

What do we have? We have a nation born out of reconstituted Israel and this confederation of nations in Revelation 12 wants to destroy it. Where has that ever happened in history? Most of you (Americans) are living in that nation that was born in a day on July 4th, 1776. The Nation of reconstituted Israel which the 'dragon', the enemy, the antichrist has been trying to destroy for centuries. This is not a recent battle; this battle has been going on for years. We find that the man-child is really the nation of re gathered Israel. It is not Jesus Christ and as we showed earlier, all of the visions in the book of Revelation have to take place after John saw the vision. That is made very plain in the first verse of Revelation 1, in the 1st and 3rd verses of Rev. 4. These are not things that happened before.

SODOMITES AND OYSTERS

QUESTION: What do sodomites and oysters have in common?

ANSWER: Neither can decide whether they are male or female.

The oyster is one of nature's more prolific creatures. The mollusc is ambisexual. Young oysters begin life as males. Later they become females. As a female, an oyster may produce as many as 500 million eggs a year. After laying eggs, the oyster again becomes a male. It makes this change many times during its lifetime. It is hard to guess what goes through a sodomite's tiny little brain, but in light of the above facts one might wonder if they are emulating oysters.

Let's see now, since oysters seem to have the technique of "AC-DC" perfected better than today's Gay Libbers, could it be that oysters are actually above the sodomites in the chain of evolution? Yes, that must be it. Oysters evolved from Primordial Homos!

NO ONE COULD OBJECT TO A HUG (Sophistic disarmament)

Once upon, a time all the animals in the zoo decided they would disarm and they arranged to have a conference to arrange the matter. So the Rhinoceros said when he opened the proceedings that the use of teeth was barbarous and horrible and ought to be strictly prohibited by general consent. Horns, which were mainly defensive weapons, would, of course, have to be allowed.

The Lion and the Tiger defended teeth and claws, which they described as honourable weapons of immemorial antiquity. The Panther, the Leopard, the Puma and the whole tribe of small cats all supported the Lion and the Tiger.

Then the Bear spoke. He proposed that both teeth and horns should be banned and never used again for fighting by any animal. It would be quite enough if animals were allowed to give each other a good hug when they quarrelled. No one could object to that.

SUMMIT UP

Top corporate executives, Ronald Reagan and Mikhail Gorbachev, met recently in Reykjavik, Iceland to discuss relations between the two super corporations which they represent (United States Inc., and the U.S.S.R. Inc.). Summit meetings are usually held for the purpose of "bargaining" and "compromising," and this was no exception. It may be years before the public knows just how much was bargained away and what was compromised at this summit. One thing is for sure, both Reagan and Gorbachev went there with a list of items with which to bargain and negotiate.

With the talks over, many of us wonder what all they had in common to talk about. Perhaps they discussed plans for a merger of the two super corporations. If Reagan were an honorable man he wouldn't compromise national standards for the sake of striking a bargain at the summit meeting with America's enemy.

Nehemiah, an honorable leader in Israel 2,300 years ago, was approached by his nation's enemy who tried to talk him into a summit meeting. Nehemiah was busy with the rebuilding of the Jerusalem wall. His response was: "I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?" (Nehemiah 6: 3).

Again, the enemy sent messengers to try to get Nehemiah to meet with them so they could "bargain" and "compromise." Four times more they tried threatening Nehemiah with blackmail, saying that they knew secrets about him which they would expose if he didn't meet with them. But Nehemiah's response was: "There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart." (Nehemiah 6: 8).

Nehemiah refused their proposal of a summit meeting and went ahead with building the city's defense. It's too bad we have no more Nehemiah's as leaders in government these days.

It seems the main item Reagan was unwilling to compromise was his so-called "Star Wars" program: Strategic Defense Initiative. While SDI is an expansive program for supporting the war industry, it probably holds little if any, worth as an effective defense for America considering Reagan's declared plans for it. Reagan's idea is to build an impenetrable curtain of orbiting laser weapons and missile launchers in outer space to shoot down intercontinental missiles. He goes so far as to promise to give the technology to Russia once we have mastered it ourselves. He claims it will be strictly defensive and will stop any advancing nuclear missiles before they reach our continent.

Personally, I tend to see it as mostly an attempt to divert the public from the real issues. Any military man, any school child for that matter, knows that bullies are not stopped by walls, nor thieves by locks. A bully is stooped when his nose gets punched, and a thief when he is shot. Communism cannot be stopped by building bigger walls. In fact, wasn't it the Communists themselves who have been the wall builders thus far? And those walls weren't for keeping enemies out; they were for keeping people in!

Even when they are built for the purpose of keeping others out, walls only keep out non-aggressive people. They can't stop bullies, thieves, and murderers. There is always a way to get over or around any wall. Good walls can reinforce an otherwise sound defense system, but they, alone, cannot protect you.

Imagine, if you can, a small child telling the class bully, "If you hurt me I'm going to lock myself behind a door where you can't reach me." Will that stop the bully? Of course not. In fact, it will encourage him. The child will sit behind the locked door cringing as he listens to the bully rattle one key after another until he finds one that fits the lock.

This, in essence, describes Reagan's SDI strategy. It is inefficient, super expensive, and technically unproven at best. Plus, it couldn't be deployed for many years even if it did work. It is simply impractical as a defense. Rather than building bulletproof shields to hold in front of ourselves, we should teach the Communists to not shoot in our direction.

BEWARE OF AIDS: It appears that even going to the dentist can be a hazard now. What if the previous patient had AIDS? It also appears that a lot is hushed up about AIDS. It appears that several people have been told not to open their mouths, in case the public became "worried". There are ever more cases of women getting AIDS after blood transfusions.

PRESCRIPTION VITAMINS: Will legislation be introduced to allow the sale of vitamins and minerals only on doctor's prescription? Probably. For those who want to know more about "drugs" and "sorcery" get our video on "THE DRUGS PROGRAM."(CI-21).

Some time ago it was rumoured that Jack Mohr would come to Australia to speak. This is not the case as certain problems prevented his doing so. However, if you would like to both see and hear this ex-military Christian Patriot, we now have several videos with him on them. This old war-horse has a lot of behind-the-scenes knowledge and deserves a wider hearing.

I hope that all who ordered material have received what they wanted. If anybody is still waiting on anything please let me know. At present there are quite a large number of tapes outstanding. It would help us to help others if people did not keep them longer than necessary! Please, return your tapes as soon as possible. Thank you.

Thanks for the many letters received again over the past month. Especially to those who wrote for the first time. We appreciate being able to add new names to the mailing list. Also thanks to those who have helped financially. We are thankful for those whose regular support helps to keep this work going. We need to increase not only our stock of books, but also the range of literature. If any feel that they could give some assistance, it would be a great help.
