"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." and that
OLD-TIME RELIGION

BY PASTOR PETER J. PETERS

"The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and the little child shall lead them." Isaiah 11:6

While the scripture speaks of a coming unusual, peaceful co-existence of some type most are unaware that past history has been one of government persecution of the Godly. Accurate history reveals a beast type governmental system continually pursuing and tyrannizing God's people. America was initially settled by people such as the Pilgrims fleeing such persecution.

The conflict of government and the old-time religion, however, goes much further into the past than the Pilgrim days. It can be seen in the days of King Herod as his government murdered the helpless male children in Bethlehem (Matt 2:16) or in the days of Diocletian as his government hunted Christians, in the days of Nero who's government framed them and in the days of Marcus Aurelius who's government robbed and plundered them. One can look back even further to the Egyptian government in the days of Pharaoh which economically plundered, oppressed and discriminated against God's people, forbidding them to worship their God. (Ex 1:14 and 5:1).

A study and consideration of accurate history only verifies the validity of the Hebrew writer's description of government persecution against the Godly..."who by faith conquered kingdoms, performed acts of righteousness, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. Women received back their dead by resurrection; and others were tortured, not accepting their release, in order that they might obtain a better resurrection; and others experienced mockings and scourgings, yes, also chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were tempted, they were put to death with the sword; they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated (men of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in desert and mountains and caves and holes in the ground." (Hebrews 11:33-38)

Rightly did George Washington say, Government is not reason, it is not eloquence, it is force! Like fire, it is a dangerous servant and a fearful master. Understanding this truth, Thomas Jefferson wrote, "In question of power then let no more be said of confidence in man but bind him down from mischief by the chains of the Constitution."

WHY ISN'T TODAY'S MODERN BRAND OF JUDEO-CHRISTIAN RELIGION PERSECUTED? Not only is it not persecuted, it is rewarded with government granted tax-exempt status. The answer cannot be that government has become more Godly. King Herod, the baby murderer, would blush at the amount of abortion blood that presently stains Uncle Sam's hands, and Pharaoh's river Nile never flowed with the number of babies as now flows in the sewer lines of abortion clinics. The annual forceful plunder which occurs every April 15th (due tax day) would embarrass even Marcus Aurelius. The present government sanctioned affirmative action program used against whites, makes Pharaoh's oppression look like a political asylum and today's modern anti-Christian Supreme Court rulings would please even old Caesar himself.

Could it be that the modern brand of Christianity existing in America is not the old-time religion of history and Scripture? Could it be simply old-time Baal worship? The Bible describes the Baal religion as one in alliance with ungodly government teaching the people blind submission and obedience.

TRUE AND UNDEFILED RELIGION is described by James, "This is pure and undefiled religion in the sight of our God and Father, to visit orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world." (James 1:27). The King James translation uses the term "fatherless" rather than "orphan."

Some religious groups interpret this verse to mean they should establish orphanages and widow funds which is certainly good and honourable- to a point! The good and honourable, however, ceases at the point of refusing to acknowledge and treat the source and cause of the widow and orphans' plight. To do this is to be an accomplice and a hypocrite. Then such benevolence becomes whitewash on the level of Government agencies helping the homeless and poor, when in reality government taxation and monetary policies create the homeless and poor!

To practice that pure and undefiled (old-time) religion requires one to ask who and what is responsible for creating widows and orphans? Who oppresses the widow and the fatherless and deprives them of justice? The foundational source of all knowledge, the Bible gives us the answer. In Isaiah 10:1-2 we read:

"Woe to those who enact evil statutes, and to those who constantly record unjust decisions, so as to deprive the needy of justice, and rob the poor of My people of their rights. In order that WIDOWS may be their spoil, and that they may plunder the ORPHANS."

Isaiah tells us it is those who enact evil statutes and record unjust decisions that are responsible. This could mean King's decrees, Caesar's edicts, Congress' legislation and President's executive orders, (and Acts of Parliament, HR). If here today Isaiah would be forced, with old-time religious convictions, to point his righteous finger at Congress, the President and the Supreme Court, (at Parliament and the Queen). Yes, at Government!

Who has caused more widows and orphans than ungodly government? How many orphans and widows did it create in the no-win wars of Vietnam and Korea? The King James translation uses the term "fatherless" rather than "orphan" and in that context are not the unborn babies in their mother's wombs FATHERLESS? Who has passed evil decrees (falsely called "laws") depriving those helpless fatherless of their God given right to life and who has enforced and financially supported those decrees? GOVERNMENT!!! Try to tell those pure, innocent and Godly little babies as their limbs are sucked from their bodies (and their heads are crushed like egg-shells, HR) into the sewers that there is no Government persecution.

For a further illustration and as a case in point, consider the so-called laws that government has passed and which the courts have promoted concerning probate. The late Robert Kennedy while Attorney General of the United States, once called probate "a political toll booth exacting tribute from WIDOWS and ORPHANS." Many a dead man has had the estate he built and saved for, stolen from his surviving widow and fatherless children through taxes, lawyers and court probate costs. Yet the same men who promote such robbery have their own holdings in trusts exempt from such theft.

Lawyers love and prosper from the enactment of such evil statutes and guess who predominately makes up Congress and the Supreme Court? LAWYERS!!!

A government composed of such men does not like a religious movement that would make such an exposure. This is not new for the Pharisee lawyers of Jesus' day didn't like the old-time religious teachings of Jesus. In Matthew 23:14 Jesus said, "Woe to you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you devour widows houses." In Luke 11:43-46 we read, "Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the front seats in the synagogues, and the respectful greetings in the market places. Woe to you! For you are like concealed tombs, and the people who walk over them are unaware of it." And one of the lawyers said to Him in reply, "Teacher, when You say this, you insult us too." But he said, "Woe to you lawyers as well! For you weigh men down with burdens hard to bear, while you yourselves will not even touch the burdens with one of your fingers." Notice how well the leaders of the day appreciated Jesus' old-time religion. "And when He left there, the Scribes and Pharisees began to be very hostile and to question Him closely on many subjects, plotting against Him, to catch Him in something He might say." Luke 11:53-54. Is it no wonder that with false witnesses they framed Him and hauled Him before a court of Caesar's with charges amounting to Sedition? (Luke 23:1,2).

EXAMPLES OF MEN PRACTICING THAT OLD-TIME RELIGION are so numerous that as the Hebrew writer stated (Heb. 11:32), time would fail us if we told of them all.

THE UNKNOWN PROPHET related in 1 Kings chapter 13 was a man who courageously carried out his Godly responsibility and rebuked in the name of the Heavenly Father, an ungodly king and denounced his reign. The response was typical of a politician bureaucrat who violated God's laws. "Now it came about when the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar in Bethel, that Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar saying, SEIZE HIM..." (1 Kings 13:4) One would wonder under what jurisdiction and on what authority the king would arrest this man and what the charges would be. Rest assured the charges would be made to sound good to the public. In this case through God's intervention the prophet was spared.

The Prophet MICAIAH wasn't as fortunate. In 1 Kings 22 we find him imprisoned for exposing and denouncing the unscriptural, unholy alliance between King Jehoshaphat and the King of Israel. No doubt the alliance was not nearly as ungodly as that presently between the USA and the Christless government of Israeli, but then one could soon find himself in the same trouble as Micaiah if he became too vocal on the matter.

MOSES is an example worthy of notice. He was grieved when he saw his people physically and economically oppressed by the Egyptian government. What would this make Moses by modern standards? Well if Moses and his people were black he would be considered a great Civil Rights leader. But if he and his people were white (and they were) he would be a filthy, racist, "white-wing" extremist.

In his younger and more foolish days it is recorded that Moses intervened with physical violence in an attempt to help his people. It was wrong (Matt 13:28, 29) and there is no evidence his fleshly actions were sanctioned by God. As a result Moses was, in essence, punished with a forty year sentence of hard labor in the wilderness working as a sheep herder. Pharaoh's government no doubt considered him a criminal and maybe scum of the earth, yet God never turned His back on him and eventually selected Moses as the leader and hero of His people.

JOHN THE BAPTIST was also selected for a special job and was praised and honored by Jesus Christ (Matt 11:11) yet imprisoned and executed by the government. He had the old-time religious philosophy that government was to be held accountable to God's Law thus, John publicly rebuked King Herod. For this he was made to appear as a common criminal as he rotted in jail without bail awaiting an execution.

THE MESSAGES OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD as preached by Jesus and the Apostles never condemned the deeds and actions of such Bible greats as John the Baptist, rather only reinforced them.

JOHN THE BAPTIST GOES TO PRISON

THE BIBLE EXPLAINS WHY:

For when Herod had John arrested, he bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias the wife of his brother Philip for John had been saying to him, "it is not lawful for you to have her" MATTHEW 14:3-4

WINNER SCORNER FOR AMERICA

Describing his Christian mission, Paul wrote in Ephesians 3:8-10, "...to preach to the Gentiles the unfathomable riches of Christ.. in order that the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known through the church to the rulers and the authorities in the heavenly places." To set "in the heavenly places" applied not to some spiritual or demonic realm, rather to a position of authority. Ephesians 1:20,21 describes Jesus as being in heavenly places as he is above rule and authority. "...and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places far above all rule and authority and power and dominion..." Caesar and Pharaoh sat in "heavenly" places as congressmen, judges, sheriffs, etc. (representatives and senators) do today. That is, they were and are in positions of authority and power.

The message of the Gospel of the Kingdom taught the people that such men are not sovereign or above the law and there is ONE over them who is the "...ONLY SOVEREIGN, THE KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS." (1 Tim 6:15). It is Jesus Christ who is above all rule and authority and He and His law must be obeyed by all those in authority. This message was not happily received by Caesar's ungodly government and those who controlled it, but it was proclaimed with an old-fashioned religious fervor by those Christians who believed it; Christians who themselves had been set free and were themselves placed in a position of responsibility in the heavenly places (Eph 2:6).

No longer was there a so-called "divine right" of kings and no longer was an ungodly government over Christians and their God because Christ their King (1 Cor 15:25) is in His Kingdom. This had the effect from the perspective of those on top of turning the world upside-down but from the Christian perspective it was turning it right-side up, where government was now answerable to Jesus the King and the people His subjects.

THE GOOD NEWS is that soon the lion and the wolf will dwell with the lamb. This will happen when Christians once again get that old-time religion and demand government to be Godly and accountable. The prophetic terms of lamb and sheep refer to God's people Israel. Jesus described His people as sheep (Matt 24:15). The lion and the wolf are symbolic terms describing government, politicians and bureaucrats. "Her princes within her are roaring lions. Her judges are wolves at evening.." (Zeph 3:3). The governments of Babylon and Assyria are described as lions in Jeremiah 50:17, "Israel is a scattered flock, the lions have driven them away. The first one who devoured him was the king of Assyria and this last one who has broken his bones is Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon."

When this Bible symbology is understood, the passage in 1 Peter 5:8 can be better understood. "Be of sober spirit, be on the alert. Your adversary the devil, prowls about like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour." Remember at the time this letter was written, the government was persecuting Christians and could intercept mail as can be done today. Thus Peter used symbolic language where needed. The word translated "devil" is a Greek word meaning "false accuser." Who was hunting and seeking out Christians? Who was falsely accusing them? Nero accused them of burning Rome and told the people they were atheists (because they did not believe in the many Roman gods) and even cannibals (because they partook of communion). Here Peter wrote in the same prophetic language of the prophets and the people who read the prophets then understood what he said. Unfortunately most Christians today do not because most Christians do not read the Prophets.

Christians often speak of Lordship. They say Jesus should be Lord of your life, but seldom does the old-fashioned concept cross their mind that He should be Lord of Congressmen, Judges, Presidents, (Queens, Parliamentarians, HR) etc. Not until Christians demand that He is Lord, will the lion and the wolf lie down with the lamb.

As the prophet Isaiah says, "...a little child shall lead them." (Is 11:6) Jesus has told us in Matthew 18:3 and 4, "...truly I say to you, unless you are converted and become like children, you shall not enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever humbles himself as this child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven." Until such time as God's people repent and turn from their wicked ways they deserve to be robbed, plundered and oppressed, and never shall the child lead. It won't happen until our people once again get the humility, trusting faith, and purity of a child that comes only through the power and the saving blood of Jesus Christ. (Acts 2:38, and 22:16).

TODAY IN AMERICA history seems to be repeating itself. As of this writing (March '88) the United States Government is trying fourteen men in Fort Smith, Arkansas in what is being called "The Great Sedition Trial."

It is a difficult trial to address and report on because the government has thrown 14 separate men, many of whom do not know one another and who are charged with separate government accusations, into the same trial to be judged by one jury. It appears this has purposely been done to cause confusion as a few of the men have previously been convicted while others never have. Such a tactic of confusion was used when Jesus was hung between two thieves.

The men range from a Pastor to a farmer, from Vietnam war hero to a pagan KKK leader, and from patriot to mechanic. Some are Christians, some obviously are not. Two of the men I've gotten to know personally and thus feel I understand why they have been put on trial. They are simple farmers from Arkansas who were voted one year as "Arkansas Farm Family of the Year." They are both Christian men and are Choctaw Indians who have uncovered and worked tirelessly in exposing the cold-blooded government murder of Kahl and Matthews. I met these two men in August 1987, as I accompanied a group of law enforcement men to Arkansas. The law men at the urging of these two farmers, were acting as private citizens investigating the Kahl-Matthews murder and later prepared a report recommending a local Grand Jury be convened to indict the individual murderers involved. Authorities in high places (or heavenly places) have thus far prevented such a Grand Jury.

Strange things have happened to some of the men involved in this citizen investigation. Retired Phoenix law enforcement officer Jack McLamb who headed the investigation team and heads the Christian Citizen and Lawmen Association (P.O. Box 8712, Phoenix, Arizona 85066) was immediately hit by the IRS and lost his disability retirement. Retired U.S. Marshall H.C. "Bud" Warren was also falsely accused of some type of violent conspiracy and the two Arkansas farmers were indicted in a so-called conspiracy to murder a federal agent. Such an accusation appears to not only be false, but falls into the realm of George Orwell's 1984 "thought crimes." The real reason these two men are on trial is because of their old-time religious conviction which has driven them to courageously expose and hold the government accountable to God's Law!

I do not know the others personally, but several of them have written to me. I also received a letter from the wife of the Vietnam hero telling of her and her husband's brutal arrest and treatment. Her husband has been vociferous in exposing the discrimination against his race and has never been convicted of a crime, yet he sits in jail without bail.

I do know that, as a group most of them have been falsely portrayed by a strongly influenced Jewish media and thus misunderstood by the people. I could never give a blanket endorsement to this group as a group, for some appear to be justly reaping what they sowed and are common criminals. One of them, in my opinion, deserves the death penalty (Deut 19:11-13). At the same time I cannot turn my back on them as a group, for this trial has all the earmarkings of an unjust beast system attempting to confuse and persecute and use as a stepping stone this situation for future persecution of a faith, a people and free speech itself.

Christians need to be in prayer for the jury of this trial which is scheduled to last until about May 1988, so that Godly justice might be wrought. Patriots need to wake up to the fact that George Hansen is not America's only political prisoner and we should all be aware that the First Amendment right of freedom of speech is at stake. Understand too that a government win here will bring about more trials in the future. The next trial could well be yours if you are an old-time Christian, then who will pray for you and counter for you the lies of the Jewish controlled media?

In conclusion it should be noted in this trial there are interesting Bible similarities. For example the Jewish ADL has in print braggingly taken credit for this trial, and a predominantly Jewish media has painted these men a color they are not. Acts 21:27-28, "...the JEWS from Asia...began to stir up the multitude and laid hands on him, crying out...'This is the man who preaches to all men everywhere against our people'..." (This is another way of crying ANTI-SEMITISM and trying to make that a crime), Acts 17:5 and 7, "But the Jews, becoming jealous and taking along some wicked men (you ought to see the character and the criminal records of the key government witnesses in the present trial) from the market place...they began dragging Jason and some brethren before the city authorities shouting, 'these men who have upset the world (it is always very upsetting to wicked men when they lose their hold and deception on society) have come here also; and Jason has welcomed them (notice how they attempt to make Jason guilty simply by association) and they all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar (notice how they are considered criminals because they refused to obey some man-made edicts be it on abortion or throwing the first-born into the river Nile) saying that there another King, Jesus.'" (To some Jews, this is a crime called sedition.)

Could it be that Zionist Jews fear losing control of our nation and government. Our government is supposed to be for the people and by the people, but is it? The Roman government in ancient Palestine was supposed to belong to the Romans, yet the Bible reveals the Jews controlled and manipulated it just as they did Pilate himself. Could it be that someone fears the revival and spread of that old-time religion, thus, the present sedition trial in Forth Smith, Arkansas? "Therefore the chief priests and the Pharisees convened a council and were saying, 'What are we doing? For this man is performing many signs. If we let Him go on like this, all men will believe in Him and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.'" (Jn 11:47,48)

LONG LIVE THAT OLD-TIME RELIGION!!!!!!

Note: The above contains an error, in that those described as common criminals, were in fact not. It appears they have been lied about with most being afraid to speak out in their defense. It needs to be said that those particular men, who are now painted as villains may some day be described by historians as just the opposite once the truth is known.

* * * *

The "NOT GUILTY VERDICT" in the Fort Smith sedition trial was indeed a blessing and victory for America. The Jewish controlled media hushed it up but would have broadcasted it nation wide if it had been a "guilty" verdict. It appears the anti-Christ Jewish forces are not only livid about the verdict but are bent on turning up their propaganda machinery. The big push now is to implement laws for the Genocide Treaty which would eliminate free, open speech concerning the Jewish issue.

ABRAHAM: FRIEND OF GOD

For those interested in Israel history,
Romans 4:3 provides us with this gem, "For what saith the scriptures? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness." During the intervening years, and in spite of that shining example by their called out progenitor, the children of Israel have often descended into apostate, backslidden and unbelieving condition until today when unbelief predominates and many denominations, sects and groups fragment society with a few chapters and verses of the scriptures, torn from their context, in an attempt to make them conform to the traditions of men, rather than the national message of the Bible.

Isaiah describes the situation succinctly in chapter 1:3, "The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his masters crib, but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider."

It is recorded in Genesis 35:9-15 that God manifested Himself to Jacob and assured him that, "a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee" by natural descent. Today the theologians have coined the expression "spiritual Israel" to cover their unbelief in the above promise, and that in spite of the fact that this promise was fulfilled when the Statute of Westminster came into effect during the life time of the older members of our communities.

The title deed to the territories necessary for the expansion of Israel into a "Nation and Company of Nations", is given in 2 Sam. 7:10 and Deut. 32:8, "When the most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel."

This statement ensured that North America, Southern Africa, and Australia remained completely unused until occupied by Israel. It is a modern miracle indeed that Australia, so close to the teeming millions of Asia, should remain so completely unused during nearly six thousand years of recorded history, that is, until two hundred years ago.

Few prophecies are provided with a definite time factor, leaving the fulfilment to supply the time. But it is interesting to note that Jacob, in blessing his sons for the extremely long period of nation building did include a time factor. In Gen 49:1 he is recorded as saying "Gather yourselves together that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days."

The apostle Peter, in his address recorded in Acts 2:14-onwards, in quoting the prophet Joel in verse 17 said, "And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God," surely a significant time factor setting the Gospel age as a period of fulfilment.

And what is the answer of our religious world to these miracles? The vast majority ostracise the holders of such ideas while a few of the more gracious may attempt to point out the error of our ways, but their opposition is adamant nevertheless. Truly Isaiah 42:19 states: "Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the Lord's servant?"

A healing work yet to be achieved by the Holy Spirit.

by Ralph Harris, Wubin, WA

"This is why I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.

For this people's heart has grown dull, and their ears are heavy of hearing, and their eyes they have closed, lest they should perceive with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn for me to heal them." Matt 13:13,15

Bible Symbolism

Contrary to popular belief, the parables of the Bible are not given to make the understanding of the Scriptures easier; they are meant to hide certain messages and prevent the identification of certain people.

The same applies to the Biblical symbols which are used in those parables, and also separately. If you study the following list of symbols and their meanings, which are used unchanged throughout the Scriptures, you will see that by getting to know them even the book of Revelation will become much easier to understand.

TREES

symbolize nations (Ezekiel 31, Daniel 4).

The Fig Tree

represents the house of Judah (Jeremiah 24).

The Olive Tree

is the whole house of Israel. This symbolic tree will produce olives which when crushed will produce the oil to feed Israel's candlestick that will enlighten the inhabitants of the earth (Zechariah 4:14) are also symbols for the people of Israel (Isaiah 5 and Matthew 15:24 and Ezekiel 34:31).

The Vineyard and Sheep

Clay represents Israel to be moulded by her God (Isaiah 18 and Daniel 2).

Mountains

are big nations (Ezekiel 33:28).

Hills

are smaller nations (Ezekiel 34:6).

The Sea, Waters, Iron, Goats, Dogs, Swine represent the heathen nations.

The Lord's Wife

There is another important symbol in the Bible and that is the symbol of the WOMAN, which represents Israel in her function as the wife of God. She received her name IS-RA-EL (this means: "rule with God" or "helpmeet of God") through her marriage to the Lord. But although this woman has such a striking name, she is not a good woman: Even while married, she often visits other men. In other words: The members of this people Israel, WHO BELONG TO THE LORD by marriage; have intercourse with the members of other nations and mix with them. However, when this WOMAN does that, our Lord calls her a HARLOT, she whores away from Him, while He wants her to be His very OWN. We find a clear example of such a situation in Ezek 16, where our Lord addresses Israel's capital. Biblical history clearly tells us that her fornication with other people was the cause of her being sent into captivity, far away from the Lord and His temple. Josephus, the well-known historian at the time of our Lord's life on earth, tells us that the bulk of Israel had migrated into Europe far beyond the Euphrates at the time of his writings. (Book 19, chapter 5, -an immense multitude - not to be estimated)

Babylon, The Harlot

The WOMAN of Revelation 12 for instance clearly refers to Israel. (please read the passage) [regarding this passage, it is recommended that you obtain a copy of THAT OLD SERPENT CALLED DEVIL AND SATAN, @ $1.50 posted from Christian Identity]. We find an extra pointer to this truth in Joseph's dream, where the ancestors of Israel are being compared to the sun, moon and twelve stars, bowing before him, Joseph, in Egypt. Out of this people Israel our Lord was born. He is the Manchild, who is to rule the nations with a rod of iron (Rev 2:27). This child has been taken up to God the Father by His ascension. But the WOMAN went into the wilderness of Europe, where she has a place prepared by God until the end of time.

We find the WOMAN nation again in Revelation 17, but there she is called "Babylon the Great, Mother of HARLOTS"! That part of Israel has apparently fallen into her old sins and mixed with other nations. (As a matter of interest: Daniel 2 also describes the feet of the image of Nebuchadnezzar's dream as having feet of IRON mixed with potter's CLAY mixing of Israel with heathen nations). Let us see in what way this has come about:

Israel in Rome

Babylon, the harlot, according to the last verse of Revelation 17, also represents a city. It is a name for the city that "reigned over the kings of the earth." Rome, at that time the capital of the Roman Empire, was built on seven hills (verse 9).

But at the time of the fulfilment of this prophecy Babylon also represents a religious system, with priests dressed in purple and scarlet (Rev 17:4). Rome sits upon many WATERS (Rev 17:1), the symbol for nations. The Roman Catholic church is the largest so-called Christian church on earth, spread out over all the nations of the earth.

Mystery

The HARLOT'S name is "Mystery Babylon, the great Mother of harlots and abominations of the earth." And John, when he recognized her was greatly astonished (as you probably also will be) about her identity: It is a secret and a mystery, and few people know why the Roman Catholic church is called "the Mother of harlots": One has to know the secret of the Biblical symbols to be able to understand. If she is called a harlot it must be because she advocates the racial mixing of people, which in the Lord's eyes in an abomination. And her followers are "those, whose names are not written in the Book of life from the foundation of the earth" (verse 8) (see also Exodus 32:32; Rev 20:12 and 22:19). They are the people who strongly promote racial integration, while God created every thing AFTER ITS OWN KIND (Gen 1) Surely this Biblical language is clear?

Missionary Work

Jesus gave a specific order to His disciples not to go to the Samaritans, but to go only to the LOST TRIBES OF THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL (Matt 15:24), who had been taken from their country into captivity and had migrated to the West. In those days they mainly lived in Asia Minor, where Peter addresses them as the "EXILES of the DISPERSION in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithnia, chosen and destined by God the Father..." Our Lord in Revelation 2 and 3 walks amongst them in the same area (look up an old map) and surprisingly so does Paul, who, I am sure you were told was the so-called apostle to the gentiles. If one believes that Paul was sent to the heathen the question arises why Paul was expressly forbidden in Acts 16:6 & 7 to go and preach the gospel in certain areas. In accordance with the above quotation of Matt 15:24, the areas that were mentioned in 1 Peter 1:1 all contained dispersed Israelites. These people eventually became the Christian Western nations of the world, (see our tract CHRISTIANITY, RELIGION OF THE WEST @ 25 for $3 posted from Christian Identity) because they were Jesus' SHEEP, who followed Him! Lamentations 4:7 describes some of those Israelites in a way which cannot possibly be misunderstood.

One of the unbiblical statements made by this harlot church is that anybody can become a member of God's church in this dispensation regardless of colour or race. That is why the church does missionary work amongst all the heathen nations. Verse 15 especially states: "The WATERS that you saw, where the harlot is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues."

Now you will probably ask: "But what is wrong with that? Did not Jesus say, 'go into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation?'" (Mark 16:15) No, He did not say that! This and other Biblical texts have been "adapted" to the dogmas of the Roman Catholic church, who preaches a "spiritual" Israel which is assembled out of all nations, completely contrary to the overall theme of the Scriptures (e.g. Matt 15:24). We get some more of those "adaptions" in the Bible, for instance the word "gentiles", which in the original simply means (Israel) nations. (write for a copy of A STUDY INTO THE MEANING OF 'GENTILE' AS USED IN THE BIBLE, @ 80¢ each posted from Christian Identity), Let us delve into this problem a bit more:

Emperor Constantine and the Council of Nicea.

The roman Emperor Constantine wanted to become a Christian. But he had one great difficulty in trying to do so: He was not an Israelite but a Roman!!! He did not belong to the "lost tribes of the House of Israel" and so it was impossible for him to join the Christian church. But, being an emperor he eventually succeeded via the church-father Augustine and the council of Nicea in 325 AD in having his membership of the church declared "valid", with the declared "adoption" of non-Israel people into the church. From then on everyone was permitted to become members of a so-called "spiritual" Israel.

In place of the New Jerusalem with its twelve Israel gates, a "holy catholic church" is now generally accepted as the bride of Christ.. This is completely against God's Plan as revealed in His Word. The church actually "took God's Wife away from Him" and replaced her with "an abomination"! That "the elders", by doing so, made the Word of God completely of none effect by their (now) tradition (Mark 7:13) does not seem to have bothered them at all. Not even when they declared the important place which the bride Israel holds in God's Plan of salvation as being abrogated. The INTERNATIONAL freedom, equality and brotherhood church has taken over the function of God's chosen people. And the most important aspects of this problem is that this false dogma has also been accepted by all the Christian churches even after the reformation of the time of Luther.

Challenge

We challenge anyone to prove to us from the Bible that the Bible preaches a "spiritual" Israel. (write to address on the end of this article!!) If YOU CANNOT FIND IT IN THE BIBLE and YOU STILL BELIEVE THIS, then you believe (and preach) an UNBIBLICAL DOGMA and then you are going to be destroyed together with the HARLOT before our Lord returns. We don't state that, our Lord does so. We hope and pray that anyone who does not agree with the text of this article, will be inspired to pick up his or her Bible to search for what God Himself has to say about this subject. Have you also preferred the traditions of the elders above the Word of God? Do you also make the Word of God "powerless for us" by doing so, just like the Pharisees?

Swine and Dogs

The Lord emphatically warned His followers not to throw the valuable pearls of the Gospel to the SWINE. And He also forbid us to give the Holy bread of the Word, (which is meant for the children out of His marriage to Israel) to the DOGS, lest..."they trample them underfoot....and turn to attach YOU." (Matt7:6) WHAT A WARNING! Ant good concordance can tell you that the word HOLY means: "to be separated for a special purpose." This gospel has been set aside by our Lord for certain people only. Are there perhaps some learned people amongst us who can tell us where to find these SWINE nations? As you will appreciate, it is of vital interest to know this, in the light of Jesus' warning.

Is it at all possible to identify these people? How about trying to find them the other way around? Let us look at the results of our ignorance as concerns the identity of the SWINE and the DOGS. (Remember, we don't call them by that name, but our Lord does). If the words of our Lord's have come true (and who would dare doubt that?) then we must be able to find these people, who have rejected God and His gospel. We should also find them busy trying to attack those "pearlthrowers." Can you find them? We can! Everywhere where countries have been given independence, missionaries have been evicted and killed. And today, in South Africa, where the White race has done everything to bring the Bible to the blacks, a racial struggle is developing. Our existence as a nation seems to be in the balance because of that. The adversaries, to be sure, are delighted about our ignorance in connection with Jesus' words, because now they can create lots of confusion and uncertainty amongst God's people, (by the way, Babylon means 'CONFUSION').

With enormous sacrifices the Western nationa tried to "convert" Asia and Africa. But what happened? Remember the Congo, Kenya and Rhodesia? If you don't, there are some missionaries who have fled from there now living among us. It is interesting to listen to them in connection with these things. Our "throwing od pearls" has not worked with the blacks and if we are not very careful, then our churches and our country are also going to be torn to shreds by conflict. Have you noticed that especially those "ministers of religion" amongst them are the cause of most of our troubles? There is no need to mention names; we know them all. Our Lord makes His Word come true, and even when we don't want to listen to Him, then He will MAKE us listen to Him the hard way. Remember the other African nations. Remember our very neighbours! (for more on Africa, Ask for the loan video AFRICA ADIOS, from Christian Identity).

The people in South Africa have never had this integration problem before. They kept the people of other colours in their place. Race mixing and social mixing never occurred like it does now. Why does it happen? Because the churches and the government are under pressure of the WORLD (adversaries). Are we giving in to this race-mixing-business? Is the world (system), to which we do not belong more important that our God ('s Law)? If that is the case then we deserve to be destroyed.

Destruction by Racial Mixing

In what other way does the attack by the SWINE destroy the Israel people? The answer is simple: If one believes that God will accept a "spiritual" Israel, then the inter-marriage between members of that "people" follows as a logical consequence. "Spiritual" Israel knows no racial borderlines. But our God does not know "spiritual" Israel. If we step across the racial borderline then we commit ADULTERY in God's eyes, now as much as in the past. Israel has been banished from God for thousands of years for doing so.

Our characteristics are very different from the characteristics of other races and "mixtures." Our adversaries want us to get rid of those characteristics and that is why they advocate united worship, united sports and united BEDmates. And if we allow this "trend" to proceed, then we soon will be, just as the HARLOT, an abomination before our God.

Now What About Other Races?

By incessant propaganda our people have become very much concerned about the blacks and coloured and their spiritual well-being. Do non-white races have a Biblical future at all? They have, but not in the manner as proclaimed in our churches today. They are not the wife of the God of Israel and they never will be! They never received God's marriage Law at Sinai so they will never take over Israel's task as God's Helpmeet. This task is for Israel alone. Don't forget that the same Israel will in the future become the medium in God's hand to be a blessing for "all families of the earth." Isaiah 28:6 says, that those, who believe (really believe) SHALL NOT MAKE HASTE (with other races). There are many examples in the Word of God that state that EVERYTHING that God created in ITS OWN PLACE and AMONGST ITS OWN KIND is VERY GOOD, provided, that it can live according to the RULES of God's creation. That is still impossible today, because we are all still suffering under the curse God put on His creation after Adam's sin. Revelation 22:3 will however still come to fulfilment, just like Genesis 12:3. The task of being a blessing to all families of the earth as given to Abraham and his descendants has never been abolished by God. It will still have its perfection in times to come. But in this dispensation we had better work amongst our fellow-Israelites and try to get them on the right track to God's Kingdom on the earth. There are still far too many "heathen" among them.

May the God of Israel give us all the indispensable blessing to help us understand more of the things that He has written down for us, also for today's circumstances. And may He give us the courage and the strength to act accordingly. As you may have gathered, our only chance is to accept that we are the literal descendants of the people of Israel, the lost tribes our Lord was sent to. If we can accept that, then He has given us the KEY to unravel all our problems through all ages. We ARE His very OWN!

THE LAST STRAW

by Richard K. Hoskins

Alien rulers make demands not palatable to conquered subjects. They make demands which their god approves, or else they would not make them. To avoid punishment, conquered subjects do all in their power to humor the rulers and their god.

The demands, however, continue to come. To keep peace, concessions continue to be made. But nothing is ever enough. In time the ruler will demand something that his conquered subjects cannot do without being damned by their own god. Then, the hard choice must be made. Obey the alien's god or obey one's own God.

In ancient days our God was called God the Word. He had 10 rules dealing with murder, theft, adultery, etc. Under these 10 rules were statutes and judgments. His people were expected to follow them. Then, as now, the disobedient used every argument not to obey. But God's people esteemed it a privilege to obey.

The Apocrypha lists some of their stories. Following are three (much abbreviated because of space). The first is about Susanna. The elders, or priests, referred to in the story were the usual politically approved establishment types.

SUSANNA

"Jocam....took a wife, whose name was Susanna...a very fair woman, and one that feared the Lord.

"Jocam was a great rich man, and had a fair garden...when the people departed...Susanna went into her husband's garden to walk. And...two elders (who hid behind) saw her...so that their lust was inflamed toward her....they were ashamed to declare their lust...Yet they watched diligently...to see her...

"She was desirous to wash herself in the garden: for it was hot...She said to her maids, Bring me oil...and shut the garden doors, that I may wash...when the maids were gone...the two elders rose up...saying we are in love with thee; therefore...lie with us. If thou wilt not, we will bear witness against thee, that a young man was with thee...

"Susanna sighed...if I do this thing, it is death unto me; and if I do it not, I cannot escape your hands. It is better for me to fall into your hands, and not do it, than to sin in the sight of the Lord..."

History of Susanna, from the Apocrypha. (read this yourself to discover the proper way to examine a witness in a court of law.) [This story is contained in lesson 12 of the Bible Law Course, H.R.]

Susanna was willing to obey God, refuse these evil lying elders, and be put to death for adultery, rather than actually commit adultery.

The next story comes from the time of the Maccabees - the time to which I believe we have returned today. The land had been occupied by Alexander in his pursuit of the Persians. Greek generals ruled and Greek soldiers and their mixed Arab-Syrian wives were the aristocracy. These rulers demanded the conquered peoples do what their own alien god approved. As time went on the people began to resist. Small things became a test, much as "God save the King" became a life or death test to our own forefathers in the 1600's. One did what was demanded or died. The following is the story of a mother and her 7 sons.

The Mother & Her Seven Sons

"Seven brethren and their mother were taken and compelled by the king against the law to taste swine's flesh, and were tormented with...whips. One of them....spake...We are ready to die, rather than to transgress the laws of our fathers...

"Then the king...commanded...to cut out the tongue...and the outermost parts of his body...he commanded him yet being alive to be brought to the fire, and to be fried in a pan (and this he did to each of the six brothers). "Whilst the youngest was yet alive (the king said that) he would make him both a rich and happy man, if he would turn from the laws of his fathers...But...the young man would in no case hearken unto him... the king called the mother, and exhorted her that she would counsel the young man to save his life....

"But, shespake...Fear not the tormentor, but being worthy of thy brethren, take thy death, that I may receive thee again in mercy with thy brethren...The young man said...I will not obey the king....but I will obey....the law... I, as my brethren, offer up my body and life for the laws of our fathers...and that by torments and plagues confess, that he alone is God:...

"So this man died undefiled...last...the mother died." 2 Maccabees 7:1-41

But, there comes a time when a man, somewhere, refuses to do one more thing that will violate his God's Law. He will not be content to be imprisoned and die there from maltreatment and mistreatment from other prisoners to show love for his God. When the establishment asks this man to turn against his God there will be an explosion. The next is the story of such a man.

Mattathias

"The king's officers,...came into the city.. to make them sacrifice....Then answered the king's officers, and said to Mattathias...Thou art a ruler, and an honorable and great man in this city...Now...fulfill the king's commandment ...and thou....shalt be honored with silver and gold...Mattathias answered... Though all the nations...fall away everyone from the religion of their fathers...Yet will I and my sons...walk in the covenant of our fathers. God forbid that we should forsake the law and the ordinances ...Mattathias...was inflamed with zeal,.. therefore he ran and slew him upon the altar. Also the king's commissioner, who compelled men to sacrifice, he killed at that time,...Thus dealt he zealously for the law of God, like as Phinees did unto Zambri the son of Salom. And Mattathias cried...Whosoever is zealous of the law, and maintaineth the covenant, let him follow me. So he and his sons fled into the mountains, and left all that ever they had in the city." 1 Maccabees 2:1-27

This act of Mattathias and his sons started the Maccabean revolt. It continued until the false priests, and the strangers and their allies, were banished from the land.

These are three examples of people willing to give their all for their God.

The Law

Who is one's god? Is he tall or short? Does he have curly hair, a "godly look", and is he filled with "love"? What's his name? These words have no meaning. No living man has seen God.

A god is known by what he demands. Many gods allow their followers to do practically anything they like and proclaim "the law is done away with." Our God has given 10 commands and expects us to obey them. Jesus confirmed it again - "If you love me, OBEY."

The west is living on a powder keg. As in the days of Susanna, the Mother and her Seven Sons, and Mattathias, the law once more is being flaunted and violated.

Across the West live tens of millions of Law Christians who are as willing as their ancestors who ventured on the crusades to die for God's Law. It only remains a question of time until the establishment does as the Greeks did, and demands that one of the faithful do that which his God declares "unlawful." When they do - the answer will be NO!

A Susanna will refuse and throw herself on the mercy of a corrupt court stacked with lying witnesses. A mother and her 7 sons will die one at a time, in a frying pan or in a prison at the mercy of savage inmates loosed on them. But a Mattathias will fight! and die like Mattathias and each of his sons died, one at a time. BUT, die in the process of destroying law breakers. The murderers, rapists, and homosexuals, and those who approved their acts, were punished when Mattathias and his sons, "the Maccabees", came down from the hills. The story says that Mattathias' last son lived to see the heathen and their lawless allies banished.

Those who believe that tomorrow will be the same as today are in for a rude awakening. There is only one standard that the faithful can live by - the 10 commandments.

The new god brought into our land is demanding that his alien laws be enforced. Open immigration, tribute to foreign nations, heavy taxes, forced busing (integration), coddling communists, coddling criminals, corruption, favoritism (jobs for the boys, HR), Hollywood morals, the Bakker/Swaggart establishment approved Samaritan Christian substitute religion, etc. This confronts the 10 commandments of our God.

There is friction. Both laws can't rule at once. It is certain that a Mattathias will refuse. If the establishment does not stop him he will force everyone to choose. On that day this land will fragmentize.

It comes as a shock for the average citizen to realize that at this moment thousands of people are in prison in America for obeying a law that was lawful yesterday but today has been declared unlawful. Hundreds were jailed in Atlanta alone this past month. The month before hundreds more were jailed in New York. The establishment becomes more oppressive as it demands that its god be obeyed.

Summary

Another back-to-back drought year could create a food shortage. A food shortage could result in uncontrrollable political conditions. People may opt for change if they come to believe that conditions will not get better and that they have nothing further to lose. Yesterday's Mattathias could be tomorrow's George Washington.

Tomorrow's investment decisions will be made in changing times. They will not be simple. Don't complicate matters by going into debt.

If events become unhinged, remember, that where your people are, your God lives. There, His law rules. You and your property will be safe. Only there.

What a Great Celebration?????

This little item comes from the Queensland Right To Life Newsletter, June '88.

The feedback as a result of newspaper and television advertising by TOWNSVILLE branch was very positive. Since the opening of the abortion facility in Townsville five years ago, combined Church/Prayer services take place on a regular basis. Such a service was held during 'CELEBRATE LIFE WEEK' on Sunday 17th April at the Central Uniting Church to gather together in thanks and to Celebrate Life, also to acknowledge with sadness the death of the unborn in the clinic and the grieving of the other victims of abortion, the mothers, the fathers and the families.

As a symbol of the continuation of life, seedlings were distributed to be taken home and planted in gardens.

A silent procession followed to the abortion clinic where flowers were laid upon the steps in remembrance of the lives lost there. Participants shared a most enjoyable supper afterwards.

What a Great Celebration!

Seems to me that OUR GOD said THOU SHALT NOT KILL, and that "HE THAT SMITETH A MAN, SO THAT HE DIE, SHALL BE SURELY PUT TO DEATH. In case of any doubt, BUT IF A MAN COME PRESUMPTUOUSLY UPON HIS NEIGHBOR, TO SLAY HIM WITH GUILF; THOU SHALT TAKE HIM

FROM MINE ALTAR, THAT HE MAY DIE. (Ex 21:12, 14). For any who have trouble understanding exactly what the Law of Our God is, WHOSO SHEDDETH MAN'S BLOOD, BY MAN SHALL HIS BLOOD BE SHED: FOR IN THE IMAGE OF GOD MADE HE MAN. (Gen 9:6). If the Jewish Defense League could firebomb the Institute for Historical Review in California in 1984, it seems to me that our people could do more that place flowers on the steps!!! I am sure Mattathias would have done more.

I recently received a copy of Walter P. Johnson's book A STUDY INTO THE GOSPEL OF SAINT SAUL. I recognized it as an attempt to discredit Paul as apostle. I have filed in in appropriate company of Jarah Crawford's LAST BATTLE CRY, and Dan Gayman's THE TWO SEEDS OF GENESIS 3:15!!!

THE LAST TEMPTATION OF CHRIST

The clever Jew movie moguls through the use of dialectics have used the Christians to help promote and make this film a box-office hit.

The stronger than usual protest of the Christian community against this film indicates people are getting their bellies full. Many have begun using the term Jew in a more negative sense. By showing this film the anti-Christians are becoming more brazen. They are sticking their heads and necks out further and further which is analogous to the tares crowding out the good seed. This means the harvest is not far away. (Matt 13:37-50)

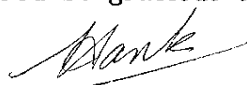

The Jewish movie and television industry has for a long time been vomiting their anti-Christian talmudic filth into the towns, homes, and minds of Christian people. It is time it stopped!!

Who is Dukakis?

"He is not an ethnic. What he really is, is a good little Jewish boy from Brookline. The first one in with his homework; the first one with his hand up..." His wife, Kitty is also Jewish. On looking up his name in Strong's Concordance, we find DU- is a prefix from DUO #1416, 1417; and KAKOS (#2556) or KAKIA (#2549) is the root. His name means either DOUBLY DEPRAVED or TO SINK INTO DEPRAVITY. (bad, evil, harm, ill, noisome, wicked).

Many thanks for all the mail received! Some will be delayed getting answered, as I now have some of my late father's correspondence to take care of as well. I'll do what I can. May our God be gracious to His true Israel people,
