"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he swore to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." The Cult of Personality

By Ben Williams

The topic of "cults" is a favorite in America. The public has come to think of "cult" as a label for any unorthodox religious group. However, the term itself simply means "a sect"; "a denomination." It also connotes a special devotion between members and especially between them and their leader. That, in itself, is not necessarily bad. But, clearly, an inordinate devotion to a human leader can lead a group into trouble – and has many times in the past. Thus, the term "Cult of Personality" begins to take meaning.

The propensity to follow personalities instead of righteousness has been the undoing of our society. The weaknesses of the people are patronized by themselves and their leaders. The people seek idols who personify their own weaknesses, and the leaders sing whatever tune necessary to appeal to the weak. Thus, they exploit and profit from those weaknesses. No one pursues the strengths. They are out of fashion. Their heroes must be weak and degenerate because that type appeals to the weak and degenerate!

This subject has special meaning for me – a minister. I've been loosely associated with church circles most of my life – unfortunately. As a child, I was raised in a typical protestant, fundamentalist church. As an adult, I accepted a position as pastor over one of that denomination's churches. After serving in that position for about two years, and after attending their North American Ministerial Council and watching their "theologians" discuss matters of doctrine and policy, I realized for the first time that the church was adrift with incompetent leadership. These "leaders" were functioning on a competency level somewhere below adolescence. I was appalled.

STONY GROUND

I had been a fool following fools. I began trying to institute changes. Then I experienced the frustration of trying to teach those who felt no need to learn. Thus, the very institution which taught me the parable of "sowing in stony ground" was, itself, stony ground.

People are drawn to churches not to learn but to affirm their prejudices. I was trying to cultivate a crop in stony ground. I needed better soil in which to labor. In a few months I resigned the ministry, and shortly thereafter left the church entirely.

I knew, then, that there was something intrinsically wicked and destructive about churches. It was more than just error. It was more than just ignorance. It was even more than false doctrine. I was not yet able to enunciate that wickedness, but I felt it nonetheless.

I had been sufficiently brainwashed by the church so that my mind was deficient of necessary data. Ignorance held me captive, but the spirit of God was driving me to break free of those bonds. I knew something was wrong, but I couldn't put my finger on it. I was struggling to get my head above the fog – to rise above the clouds into clear view – but I had not attained it. I did know, however, that I could no longer be satisfied to fly in the clouds with zero visibility. I was tired of being treated like a mushroom (kept in the dark and fed horse manure).

That episode in my life ended when I escaped the church. The fresh air was sweet, and I found that I had developed an insatiable appetite for information. Once I could see above the clouds I realized that I had been cloud-bound due to my lack of navigational skills. Therefore, I began learning how to navigate so I could stay out of the clouds. I'd had enough blind flying!

Recognizing my ignorance enabled me to begin overcoming it. As I grew, I kept watching the churches. They held a particular fascination for me. I knew that in some way they were instruments of slavery, but I still could not fully understand it. I couldn't shake the old feelings of warmth and security that I thought I had known in church circles. At the same time, I was constantly reminded of the hypocrisy and crippling ignorance I had suffered from my association with them. It was like a wool shirt – it felt warm, but it irritated the heck out of me.

It took several years to get rid of enough of my former prejudices and ignorances to see things objectively. But, as the shackles began to loosen, and paganism, superstition and misinformation lost hold of me, I not only saw the truth about the churches, but also their relation to the rest of our society. My former assumption that churches were separate from secular society had been an illusion. I had been a church-goer, and therefore biased toward them. I finally came to realize that churches are unBiblical – along with central government, central banking, and government schools.

Churches are temples of human ignorance and superstition. Churches are at the root of the problem in America!

How does this relate to "The Cult of Personality"? As you continue reading you'll see that personality worship is the leading factor behind the churches in our land.

THE BEASTS

Every society and each generation produces its own unique effects upon the world scene. An objective observation of those effects discloses the nature of the society. Ancient Babylon's theme was the establishment of centralized government and religious unity. Persia produced systematic politics and the war machine. Greece produced aristocracies, monopolies and self-worship. Rome produced bureaucracy, legislators, colonization and taxation.

Modern society seems to be a collection of all the above. Daniel and John, together, tell us as much. In Daniel 2, we read of the prophetic kingdoms of world history: Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome. These are portrayed by a vision of a metallic statue seen by Daniel. He later saw another vision of four beasts, listed in chapter 11, portraying these four future kingdoms.

Many centuries later, John saw another vision of a beast, detailed in Revelation 13, which represented all of Daniel's beasts incorporated into one terrible beast. Again, in Revelation 17, John prophesies of that same beast and calls it "Babylon the Great, the mother of harlots and abominations of the earth."

Daniel shows the succession of world empires through history. John shows the culmination of it all in the form of the most vile and horrible empire (beast) that has ever existed. That beast is upon us today. It has existed for more than a century. It is now coming to maturity and greater domination. It is the composite of the four preceding kingdoms combined. Thus, today we have spawned the worst of all empires - known as The New Order of The Ages (the one-world government, or New World Order - as George Bush puts it).

Thus, our generation has the distinction of having produced the most depraved and sophisticated beast system of recorded history. We are living exciting times. Our technology is the highest ever produced, and our ethics are the lowest ever produced. That is as us the greatest technology with which to pursue our depravities. And, of course, our depravities need regular bolstering by the exploiters.

THE CHURCHES

Nowhere is this more prevalent than in the churches. Religious fetishes have been pursued, explored, glorified and marketed. The "Self" can now be stroked and gratified in dozens of ways to suit almost any personal eccentricity man may have, for any day of the week. Our worship of man has led us to emulate our own worst qualities.

Depraved religion, depraved politics, depraved entertainment, self-gratification, abortion, brainwashing and war are the products of this age. Each facet is a symptom of "The Cult of Personality." Babylon, herself, was the epitome of this ancient "Cult." Therefore, it reaches all the way to the roots of the problem. The beasts of Daniel's vision, as well as those of John's, were born and bred in the temples of "The Cult of Personality." However, it has been called by many different names, and it has branches called many different names. All of them, however, can be attributed to man's basic idolatrous quest for rulers who will take responsibility for him so he, himself, can evade responsibility.

The "Cult" is too big to challenge in its entirety, therefore, we must challenge it in small sections. Expose it and wound it here, and there... wherever we meet it on our level. A million small wounds will drain it of life. But, first we have to learn how to recognize it and guard against being recaptured by it. To do that, we must understand "The Cult of Personality," for man's natural affinity to this cult gives it a tremendous advantage. Honesty and vigilance are the qualities needed to protect us from falling into this "Cult." Without these virtues, we are yet vulnerable to the siren's song of mutual self-admiration and social cannibalism.

MAN IS CULTISH-MINDED

"The Cult of Personality" can be described as the product of man's natural propensity for idolatry. It is selfishness personified. Here is how it is manifested:

a) Man sees himself as the center of his world.

b) Man's natural religion is the worship of that world which is built around him ("of the people, by the people and for the people").

c) As the only important element, man builds institutions around himself which support and glorify him at the expense of all other elements.

d) Thus, the "leaders" and organizations which appear to be the most successful are the ones that facilitate and exploit man's weaknesses - especially idolatry.

e) These organizations are led by men who know how to appeal to the "Self" of its members. The leader convinces the members that he can do something great for them. The leaders, and the organizations, are built upon the principle of upholding and indulging its members, and by personifying and glamorizing the weaknesses and depravities of the society.

f) For this service, the members pay bribe money to the leaders who continue to exploit the members. Both the leaders and the followers are worshipping and merchandising the "Self": the "Personality."

Cultish parents, seeking to re-live their lives vicariously through their children, raise their offspring to think of themselves as the center of their world, just as the parents view themselves as the center of their own worlds. These young products of the "Self Cult" learn to define "honesty" as "that which benefits me." "Success" is defined as "that which glorifies me." "Godliness" is defined as "that which upholds me." "A leader" is defined as "he who promises me more than others."

This "Self" principle is the root and branch of most organizations today - civil and religious. It is the driving force of our society. Thus we cater to "The Cult of Personality." Thus, men are deprived of navigational skills and continue flying blind in the clouds, confined to the limits of their self-inflicted myopia. Like a dog chasing his own tail, many miles are logged but they get nowhere. They have trapped themselves within the carnal parameters of "Self."

PRODUCTS OF THE CULT MIND

We find, then, that "government" has become the result of cult members creating the offices and putting into power the leaders they think will be their personal advocates against other men. Thus, government is designed as a tool to gain a personal advantage over others - a la "The Cult of Personality."

"Church" has been produced out of the need to justify "Self." Church leaders are those who are skilled at justifying their members and affording them an illusion of respectability. Prerequisite qualities of church leaders include the ability to make "idolatry" appear as "godliness." As far as financial rewards are concerned, the sky is the limit for one who is good at it.

By the way, anyone who has not yet been exposed to the amazing truth about the misuse of the word "church" in our English Bibles should inquire with us about our tapes and writings on that subject. Jesus and His apostles never instituted churches! They instituted communities (societies, if you will) of free, self-governing Christians. They were diametrically opposed to centralized government and religious organizations. The religious community, i.e., the church-goers, were the murderers of Jesus and his apostles. There has never been any affinity whatsoever between Jesus and churches. The word is not even translated correctly in most English Bibles.

THE "SELF" GENERATION

Things must apply to "Self" in order to be relevant in today's society. The advertisements, the products, the entertainment, the religion, the government - all of the main elements are direct products of the "Self" syndrome.

HOSKINS REPORT

"War" - Keynes ultimate solution! Billions borrowed into existence to fight the evil empire. Depressed Louisiana, Texas, and Colorado, and debt-ridden 3rd world nations are coming to life. Shed Arab blood would continue the boom for decades.

Men and women seek spouses out of love for "Self" with the intention of using them to facilitate the fulfillment of "Self." Offspring are born so that the "Self" can experience being a parent. Even single women, today, often seek to get impregnated so that they can "experience" birth and thus indulge the "Self." The child also, in this case, is treated as a tool for "Self" fulfillment for the indulgent parent. Families are no longer a God-nurtured unit, but rather a forum for individuals to seek "Self" fulfillment. Every person lives in his own universe with himself as the center.

In this cult society, we have bred, nurtured and institutionalized multitudes of self-centered relationships. Our society exists as a symbiosis of mutual parasites. We cannibalize each other, and thus we mutually limit one another. Like drug addicts, our goals are limited to the pursuit of our next "fix" of indulgence based on the need of "Self" find someone to use and then discard. "No one is important but ME!" "Your only useful purpose is to make a feel good!"

Do you get the picture? We are a society of babies! Irresponsible, spiritual babies! We care for nothing but ourselves and what makes us happy. Thus, we seek idols for our security. We need a "personality" figure all our lives. As a child we have "mama," and that is natural. But, we should be weaned by the time we are grown up. However, most of our society is never weaned. When "Mama" can no longer keep us pacified we progress to "Big Brother" (government), and "Mother Church." In our desperation to find an indulgent benefactor, we find solace in the promises of politicians and preachers who offer us easy lives now and heaven later (the ultimate, eternal, celestial "fix") if we will support them. Thus, we have no men in such a society of "mama" followers and wife worshippers. We have only drones who don't know the meaning of the word "man."

We are babies seeking idols who will nurse us. We accept any person who offers us a bottle. We'll give our kingdom for a pacifier, for we just can't stand the thought of being uncomfortable in the slightest. We want that bottle ready and available to us at our convenience. Any politician who promises to indulge us is our hero and earns our vote and tribute. Any preacher who knows how to justify "personality addiction" and make us feel good is our man! We seek personalities to follow. Therefore, we create a market for charlatans.

We shun reality and seek personalities who will assist us to exist in unreality. We accept lies from politicians who promise us government benefits. We seek out preachers who lie to us and keep our minds in the clouds. This society is a bonanza for con men. We beg to be conned, and then pay the con men for their services.

In "The Cult of Personality," these con men (politicians and preachers) are the personalities who answer the call. We create the market, and they exploit it. We are the idolaters, and they are the idols. We create them, and then we worship them. We mutually suck each other's blood.

Our current political and religious state of affairs has resulted from our idolatry. We have sought men to facilitate our indulgence of "Self": we have sought "Personalities" (idols). We have loved the "Cult of Personality."

AMERICANS DESERVE TYRANTS

Once, I felt sorry for the people who were being preyed upon by the politicians and preachers who are con men. Then, I came to understand that the political and religious "leaders" were not really the cause of the problem. They are only salesmen who discovered a market. Like Aaron who gave the Children of Israel a golden calf when they demanded it of him, modern preachers and politicians only fill the requests of the idolaters. One is as bad as the other. They both deserve each other.

For example, the people of the State of Oregon, in the last few years, have requested (by vote) for government to become more powerful, more demanding and more oppressive. They have voted upon themselves, and their children, laws which prevent them from heating their homes with inexpensive wood stoves. They have asked the police to fine them $50 if they don't wear their seat belts in their cars. They've instructed their government to arrest them, steal their property and possibly shoot them if necessary to discourage them from taking drugs, avoiding taxes or "bucking the system." They want higher taxes. They will soon, almost certainly, vote in a sales tax upon themselves. On top of this, twice in the recent past Oregonians voted in favor of abortion when they could have outlawed it. Oregonians deserve whatever this vile government pours out upon them! The AIDS, the sky-high taxes, the con men in government, the criminal policemen, the false prophets in their pulpits - they deserve it all, and more!

The same applies to church-goers in general. Scripture warns us against false prophets and preachers with bad motives. But, Americans pay for their own religious deception from the pulpits. Here, perhaps more than anywhere else - in terms of reaching ALL levels of society - "The Cult of Personality" is alive and well. The idol is worshipped - whether the pulpit itself, or the man in it; whether the church, or the priests who represent it; whether the sensation of peer approval, or self-righteousness. The people create their own tomb and wrap themselves up in it in the name of church, complete with the preacher showman/entertainer, the membership and baptism card, and the assurance that your tithe will buy you anything the institution has to offer - whether it is social acceptance or eternal life. And there is such a variety of churches available, you can find one to suit just about anyone. Never mind that it, as an institution, is both unbiblical and wrong-spirited. Invest your salvation and well being in the "personality" (man or denomination) and find yourself tied, spiritually, to an idol; a golden calf. Allow him to convince you that it is godly for you to pay him to do your Christian work for you, and you become a valued member of "The Cult of Personality."

A good man cannot survive in a position of leadership in government or church. He'll either be forced to conform to it and become just another crook like the rest of them, or the organization will reject him. Thus, the cult system brings out the worst in everyone.

When the idolaters repent of their need for indulging "Self," then the idol market will dry up and the charlatans will go elsewhere or take up honest work. Until that time, don't expect any changes in American lifestyle.

OUR STRUGGLE

For those of us who have come to understand the problem, and who will be struggling against society as we know it today, it helps to know we are not alone. For us, both the idolatrous masses, and the idolatrous leaders, will be a constant threat. Both will fight to suppress us and eliminate us one way or another. As I've pointed out, the public is every bit as much the enemy

HAMMER PASSES - A KING IS DEAD

"A king is dead - long live the King!" Once again these words ring forth. Unlike the last king who died violently at the hands of an unknown assassin in Germany last year - this one died peacefully.

Armond Hammer 92, son of a founder of the American Communist Party, and himself a long time communist sympathizer, had a near monopoly of U.S./Soviet trade as a result of his influence over Soviet leaders. Trade with the Soviet Union was virtually his private monopoly making him incredibly rich. The trade included everything from pencils to copious oil wells in the Soviet Union to extensive coal fields in China. His private plane ignored red tape and took him straight to Moscow where he was met at the airport by a cavalcade of top communist leaders who bowed and scraped as they jostled each other to pay their respects and seek his advice.

In one instance communist incompetence put the USSR on the road to starvation and a peoples revolt. Hammer arrived in the nick of time with gigantic deliveries of grain which of freedom as are their charismatic idols in the pulpits and in the state houses.

The pressure upon us to conform to society will increase. Our refusal to join the "Cult" will turn them against us. We will indeed be in a struggle to survive. How we will face that challenge is a subject of importance to every one of us who intend to fight for what's right.

The unorganized militia (leaderless resistance) must be considered an essential part of our fight if we are to survive. But, any such effort, in order to be successful, MUST NOT PURSUE CHARISMATIC LEADERS! Bruce Campbell's upcoming book, OUR STRUGGLE, offers some food for thought along these lines. The following is extracted from his chapter titled The Cult of Personality:

"Stalin and Mao Tse-tung were the worst examples of the ultimate horror of the personality cult. They showed what happens when degenerates rise to the tops of political organizations; each was responsible for the murders of at least 100 millions of his own people. Lesser tyrants from Africa to Jonestown have produced smaller amounts of death and suffering but only because they had fewer people under their power. A degenerate politician with total power will kill as many of his own people as possible, regardless of his nationality. He will find a way, whether it be by sending them against foreigners or by civil war, or by mass arrests and secret extermination.

"In 'civilized' England, David Lloyd George and Winston Churchill are perfect examples; how many hundreds of thousands of young Englishmen, Canadians and Anzacs did those two degenerates cause to perish when they sent them to kill Germans, Turks and others? In 'civilized' America, Abraham Lincoln was personally responsible for the deaths of over six-hundred-thousand Americans — and what? To preserve the Union! Is a Union which requires the deaths of six-hundred-thousand men worthy of preservation? Is 'preservation' of a Union so important? It was only because a degenerate politician with total power said it was.

"Woodrow Wilson's moral degeneracy (his marital infidelity) led to the violent deaths of one hundred thousand more young American men, sent to die overseas. He submitted to blackmail by Rothschild agents (Baruch, Frankfurter and Brandeis), rather than resign, and presided over another Destruction and Reconstruction totalling over ten million souls, to the great profit of the international bankers who controlled him.

"Now, it may be asked, can American presidents and British prime ministers fairly be labeled personality cultmasters?

Why not? Don't they always attain their powerful positions due to their personalities? Haven't their arrivals at the pinnacles of Anglo-American power followed lifetimes of marketing their democratic personalities to voters?

"The greatest example of the personality cult in world history was the foul degenerate, Franklin Delano Roosevelt. So tremendous was the power of his personality that he was elected president four times—despite his Wall Street background and partnership with Herbert Hoover; despite his closure of the banks; despite his utter refusal to stop the depression; despite his blatant mongering of another world war the prospect of which most Americans abhorred; and despite the incredible ugliness of his wife! His cult of personality was protected by the press and then especially by the ruthless suppression of his patriotic enemies once his war with Germany broke out (with Japan). He got two hundred thirty thousand Americans and around 50 millions of other people killed during his war. He was directly responsible for the above cited death figures of Stalin and Mao, since they were his boys, as were Tito, Rakosi, Ho Chi Minh and the rest of his NWO (New World Order) satraps installed by his OSS (Office of Secret Service).

"These above listed degenerates are the most spectacular masters of the personality cult in modern history — and modern history is the worst of all history. They were all careful, except Lincoln, to surround themselves with toadies and sycophants. All but Lincoln were allowed to die in bed as rewards for their violent lives, after their dirty deeds were done. These were extreme cases in terms of total power but not so in comparison with thousands of lesser tyrants, right here at home, who would do exactly the same things if given the power.

"What movement in this country (our side) was not ruined by 'leadership'? The original Ku Klux Klan was dismantled by its founder. America First was a good movement but it, too, was dismantled by its leadership. The various Ku Klux Klan namesakes of the original have high percentages of federal agents in their memberships and even in their leaderships. Joe McCarthy had tremendous support but no actual movement, unfortunately for him, and for Jim Forrestal before him. The fact is that a movement has got to have guns behind it in this country. Robert Welch tried to play it safe with his John Birch Society, if in fact he was on the level. Eustace Mullins writes that Welch was a 32° Mason (Murder By Injection). If so, this would explain his refusal to authorize his membership to attack the enemy within. Mason or not, Welch ran a true cult of personality based upon his undeniable ability to write about communists in the Establishment. But he kept around him weaklings and yes-men and always ejected anyone who might make his movement effective, such as by trying to link communism with Judaism. He had to raise over four million dollars each year to keep his movement afloat. Think of that! And for nothing. Maybe it was a Patriots' Tax; it kept all that money from going to a good use.

"Ayn Rand (Alice Rosenbaum) was another classic case of a personality cultist with a case of bigshotitis, as was her protégé, Nathaniel Branden (Nathan Blumenthal). Objectivists who attended their meetings in New York have said they were astounded by the totalitarian nature of the movement, considering it was ostensibly devoted to freedom of ideas. A confused devotee would be ordered out of the movement for asking "a stupid question." The arrogant Jewess calmly announced to her husband and to Branden's wife that since Rand and Branden were the smartest people in the world, they would henceforth commit adultery with each other, any time they felt like it. And off they went, into the bedroom! She even set him up with his own cult, the Nathaniel Branden Institute, but closed it abruptly when she found that her weak protégé had his own protégé! Ayn Rand created a whole school of yuppie materialists and preached hard against nationalism and claimed that racism was the lowest form of collectivism. Objectivism was thoroughly Jewish. I personally have no comment on the question of religion and leadership other than the opinion that Jewish Christianity has been directly responsible for the catastrophe which confronts us.

"A cult of personality must be avoided, be it on a national or local level, for two reasons: first, the sort of man who would encourage a political or religious devotion to himself simply cannot be trusted. Regardless of how well-intentioned he may be at the start, the charismatic leader will eventually depend more and more on his charisma and less on the (perhaps) sound thinking or action which originally attracted his followers to him. He becomes resentful of what he begins to see as "competition" and refuses to train successors, let alone encourage other men to improve on his plans or leadership. In extreme cases, cults of personality may be formally established, complete with inner and outer circles of acolytes, all of whom are chosen for their dependable assurances of the leader's infallibility. Weak men have always been attracted to charismatic leaders, who cannot help but encourage ever more weakness in their followers. Opposed to this is the militia, which is so configured that only strong men are wont to fulfill their duties to it, acting only upon their own consciences, without regard to any personality, with the knowledge that the militia cannot be personalized, or in any way regulated or misled. History has proven this. The militia is blunted the peoples anger and prevented the overthrow of the communist state and saved his profitable monopoly. It has been said that world communism owes as much to Hammer as to anyone in the world.

Hammer was many years the target of barbs hurled by the American right wing. However, nothing the man did offended Washington. America's establishment cast a tolerant eye on one of their own who was doing his thing and doing it well.

His death has caused the establishment to again pull out the stops with the usual extravagances. Hammer's death is front page USA - prime time TV. The establishment salutes the passing of one of their own. The nation watches in awe. A king is dead.

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: Anti-Abortion protestors lined Peachtree Street shoulder to shoulder for 12 miles. Women with babies, boys, old people in wheelchairs. Abortionists drove up and down mouthing four letter words. The protesters ignored them. It was thrilling." H. R. - Atlanta the only paramilitary body which is by its nature immune to the cult of the personality. That is its beauty.

"Second and more importantly, the militia, in all of its state and local components, cannot indulge false leaders for security reasons. The planners of the New World Order welcome the charismatic leader; they know that by his ego and his craving for the limelight he can be controlled, perhaps remotely. He will inevitably have a staff which can be infiltrated or purchased. If the planners so choose, they may themselves call attention to the charismatic leader in such a way which will provide him with even more followers and then, at a certain time, may destroy his reputation with some actual or invented skeletons in his closet. Or they may kill him. Either way, the charismatic leader's followers will be stunned and demoralized. The "resistance movement" will cease to resist. The NWO boys are past masters at this form of destabilization, all over the world and in our country.

"The New World Order demands new thinking to crush it. Our national problem is the dishonesty of the major news media. We cannot match the media's propaganda with our counterpropaganda but occasionally a truthful man will emerge and the things he says make him extremely attractive. His long-suffering listeners or readers invest their hopes and emotions in him and thereby burden him with tremendous pressures to perform regularly and "on time," even if he'd only intended to make a limited number of points. He becomes a celebrity whether or not he meant originally simply to speak the truth. Like it or not he is propelled into the "entertainer" category. Some like it. The wise man, though, will take pains to disarm this potential cult-bomb and this can be done by frequently identifying this very understandable and preventable tendency in our side which is caused by decades of suppression of the truth by the organs of disinformation.

"The great power of the militia is in the decentralization of that power. If the power of a resistance movement is centralized in the personality of a "leader," the movement is vulnerable. Its power is as precarious as the life or reputation of the "leader," and under martial law that is precarious indeed." (end of quote)

WHERE TO BEGIN RECONSTRUCTION

If America is ever to change her course, it will require a general awakening of the people. Public crime is not the problem; it never has been. We have always had crime, and we will always have it. But when we deal with it personally, immediately, at the point of occurrence, it stays manageable. The street criminal is not the problem. He is relatively easy to handle. Besides, most of us have never even seen or experienced actual street crime. On the other hand, every one of us sees and experiences governmental crime on a daily basis. Our real problem is with the criminals in our state houses. We can't seem to escape them. We can't seem to deal with them one-to-one. Organized criminals, called politicians and bankers, are the modern mob from whom we can no longer run. We can deal with the criminal on the street, but the gang at City Hall has chased us until there is no place to hide. The standing armies of policemen and the organized criminals in the legislatures and courts gang-up on individuals and destroy them.

These gangsters are in power because the people first fell into idolatry and wanted a king (or central government) to rule over them and take responsibility for them. Again, this is the "Cult of Personality" syndrome. America is still in this mode. We, as a people, are still asking government to kill us, ruin us and pervert us. We seem to like it. Have we all become masochists?

By the same token, Americans are still voluntarily building and supporting churches and preachers whose purpose is to keep the people brainwashed and subservient to these gangsters in government. These churches, and their preachers, are kept in place by people who fall for "The Cult of Personality." The preacher/actor is the personality, and the church members pay him to keep them pacified and entertained. Americans MUST be pacified and entertained! To be deprived of their pacification and entertainment is "cruel and unusual punishment" for Americans today.

If America is ever to see Christian liberty again, we must, one-by-one, personally begin backing out of "The Cult" in every area of society. We must stop subscribing to the cult brainwash. We must abandon the false hope of finding a messianic personality, among men, who will rule over us beneficently, take responsibility for us and protect our interests.

Whether we have voluntarily supported the gangsters in government, or the brainwashers in the pulpits, we must personally unplug ourselves from charismatic leaders of the "Cult." Whatever section of society we consider, whether current or in the future, if it is to redeem itself it must find a way to function other than to follow centralized charismatic personalities. If we, as a race, are to survive, we must stop seeking human kings (personality idols)! True leaders cannot be created by votes and titles. True leaders appear naturally of God. We can recognize them; identify them; respect them; learn from them. A godly leader will NOT seek personality worship. We have, in the past, attempted to create them like golden calves. If we don't grow out of this frame of mind soon, we will cease to exist as a people! □

"Dear Dick: I was a captain in the navy for many years. Crew members would ask permission to marry. This was fine in Germany, Australia, or Britain, they are our people.

"I prevented my crew from marrying orientals by talking to them. I just told them that before they got married that I would give him leave to go meet his future in-laws. I told him that his bride-to-be would look just like his bride's mother when she reached the same age. Oriental women are generally ugly as sin as they get older. I never had a crew member make the trip, take a look at his future mother in law, and then come

(This is reproduced from an official document issued to American troops stationed in Saudi Arabia - Operation Desert Shield. Its purpose is to prevent American soldiers from getting into trouble with their Saudi hosts. It shows the disgusting state of American morality. While working with the Saudis, the American soldiers must literally be prevented from doing things that they normally do in America: it exposes America's shameful condition! Activities and attitudes considered acceptable in modern America are offensive and forbidden in Saudi Arabia. No wonder Arabs think of Americans as degenerates and devils.)

CULTURAL SENSITIVITIES FOR U.S. MILITARY PERSONNEL IN SAUDI ARABIA

WELCOME TO THE UNITED STATES CENTRAL COMMAND AND THE KINGDOM OF SAUDI ARABIA. WE'RE HERE AT THE DIRECTION OF OUR PRESIDENT TO ASSIST IN THE DEFENSE OF THE KINGDOM. ACCOMPLISHMENT OF OUR MISSION DEPENDS UPON MAINTAINING THE CLOSE FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN OUR TWO NATIONS. SAUDI SOCIETY, WHICH IS GOVERNED BY TRADITIONS AND ISLAMIC LAW, IS VERY CONSERVATIVE AND POSSESSES MANY CUSTOMS DIFFERENT THAN OUR OWN. AS GUESTS OF THIS COUNTRY, IT IS CRUCIALLY IMPORTANT THAT ALL U.S. MILITARY PERSONNEL RESPECT OUR HOSTS' CUSTOMS AND ESPECIALLY THEIR RELIGION, ISLAM. THE FOLLOWING "DOS AND DON'TS" ARE PROVIDED TO ENHANCE THE CULTURAL AND PERSONAL AWARENESS OF EACH U.S. SERVICE MEMBER IN SAUDI ARABIA. READ AND MAINTAIN THIS GUIDE FOR PERSONAL REFERENCE.

- 1. ISLAM: THE ISLAMIC RELIGION IS THE SINGLE MOST IMPORTANT FACTOR IN SAUDI ARABIAN LIFE AND CULTURE. ISLAM IS BASED ON THE WORD OF GOD AS REVEALED TO THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD. ISLAM'S REVERED PROPHETS ALSO INCLUDE ABRAHAM AND JESUS. ISLAM'S HOLY BOOK, THE QURAN, IS THE BASIS OF ALL RELIGIOUS THOUGHT AND PRACTICE. NO PUBLIC WORSHIP OF ANY OTHER RELIGION IS OPENLY PERMITTED. DO NOT DEFACE ANY RELIGIOUS OBJECT OR INSULT ANY PORTION OF THE ISLAMIC RELIGION; THESE ARE THE TWO MOST SERIOUS OFFENSES UNDER ISLAMIC LAW.
- 2. ALCOHOL AND DRUGS: THE POSSESSION OR CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOL OR NON-PRESCRIBED DRUGS IS ILLEGAL. DRUG PARAPHERNALIA AND EQUIPMENT TO MAKE ALCOHOL ARE ALSO STRICTLY FORBIDDEN IN THE KINGDOM. THE PENALTIES ARE QUITE SEVERE.
- 3. INDECENT MATERIAL: MATERIALS WHICH WE VIEW AS RELATIVELY INNOCENT IN THE UNITED STATES, SUCH AS THE SPORTS ILLUSTRATED "SWIMSUIT EDITION", LINGERIE CATALOGS AND SOME WOMEN'S FASHION MAGAZINES ARE CONSIDERED PORNOGRAPHIC IN SAUDI ARABIA. SEXUALLY EXPLICIT LITERATURE, SUCH AS PENTHOUSE OR PLAYBOY, AND VIDEO TAPES OF SEXUAL CONTENT AND NUDITY ARE ABSOLUTELY FORBIDDEN. IF YOU HAVE SUCH MATERIALS HERE, TURN THEM IN TO YOUR SENIOR NCO (NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICER) FOR DESTRUCTION IMMEDIATELY.
- 4. SAUDI WOMEN: ISLAM TEACHES THAT WOMEN HOLD A POSITION OF SPECIAL HONOR AND DIGNITY IN SOCIETY AND SHOULD BE CLOSELY PROTECTED. WOMEN IN SAUDI ARABIA, EVEN FOREIGNERS, ARE NOT PERMITTED TO DRIVE VEHICLES. SAUDI WOMEN DRESS VERY CONSERVATIVELY, AND DATING IS NOT ALLOWED. DON'T STARE AT OR ATTEMPT TO STRIKE UP A CONVERSATION WITH SAUDI WOMEN. ANY DISHONOR IS CAUSE FOR SEVERE PUNISHMENT.
- 5. U.S. MILITARY WOMEN: THE INFLUX OF AMERICAN MILITARY WOMEN WITH OUR DEPLOYMENT MAY RESULT IN SOME REVERSE CULTURE SHOCK FOR OUR SAUDI HOSTS. UNLIKE ANY OTHER WOMEN IN SAUDI ARABIA, OUR FEMALE SERVICE MEMBERS ARE AUTHORIZED TO DRIVE MILITARY VEHICLES WHILE IN FULL UNIFORM, INCLUDING HEADGEAR, IN THE COURSE OF THEIR OFFICIAL DUTIES. IF THEY ENCOUNTER RESISTANCE, THE PROBLEM SHOULD BE REFERRED TO THEIR SUPERVISOR IMMEDIATELY.
- 6. CIVILIAN DRESS: AMERICAN MEN AND WOMEN MUST DRESS CONSERVATIVELY, PARTICULARLY IN PUBLIC. MEN SHOULD WEAR TROUSERS, AND SHIRTS WHICH ARE NOT OPEN BELOW THE COLLAR BONE OR SLEEVELESS, I.E., TANK TOPS. FOR WOMEN, SKIRTS SHOULD BE WELL BELOW THE KNEE; NO PANTS OR PANT SUITS. GENERALLY, CLOTHING SHOULD BE LOOSE FITTING AND CONCEALING RATHER THAN REVEALING—NO SHORTS, NO EXPOSED SHOULDERS, NO PLUNGING NECKLINES. LIKEWISE, T-SHIRTS GLAMORIZING ALCOHOL OR OTHER SENSITIVE SUBJECTS MAY NOT BE WORN. RELIGIOUS JEWELRY SHOULD BE KEPT HIDDEN BENEATH YOUR CLOTHING. MEN SHOULD NOT WEAR EARRINGS.

"Dear Dick: Your article on dating left out one thing - kids should follow parents selection of mates. Parents know what to look for and many tragic matches could be avoided if their advice had been sought and taken." A. W. - South Carolina

ED: I brought my dates home because there were records, piano, photo albums, books, guns, singing, other kids - entertainment. My folks met them all. I really didn't understand that dating led to marriage. I had no intention of marrying at that time. I also wanted to avoid parental criticism of certain of my friends, so I concealed facts about them. When I was 22 I actually asked my folks to pick out a wife for me. The only girls my age they knew were the girls I had brought home. I hadn't been upfront enough for them to really judge.

It is the parents job to tell their kids that life is no popularity contest, the gameplan is - marriage for keeps! There is no such thing as a careless "just for fun" date. Every act in this world is set in concrete - from a "good morning, Sir", to a blow. Singles dating is to be avoided, but groups doing things together under proper supervision is fine. Older teens should be trained to bring these groups home on some excuse or

7. MALE-FEMALE RELATIONSHIPS: ANY PUBLIC ASSOCIATION BETWEEN MALES AND FEMALES IS CONSIDERED INAPPROPRIATE. TOUCHING, HOLDING HANDS AND KISSING MEMBERS OF THE OPPOSITE SEX IN PUBLIC IS CONSIDERED TO BE BAD TASTE AND COULD BE VIEWED AS OBSCENE. ANYTHING MORE INTIMATE IN PUBLIC IS ILLEGAL AND IS DEALT WITH SEVERELY.
8. PRAYER TIME: MUSLIMS PRAY FIVE TIMES EACH DAY. RESPECT THEIR RELIGIOUS CONVICTIONS AND GIVE THEM PRIVACY. YOU'LL HEAR THE CALL TO PRAYERS FROM THE MINARETS ON THE MOSQUES. ALL BUSINESS AND COMMERCIAL ESTABLISHMENTS ARE REQUIRED TO CLOSE DURING PRAYER CALLS. RESTAURANTS MAY SUSPEND SERVING MEALS. LEAVE POLITELY AT THESE TIMES IF ASKED.
9. MUTTAWWA: THE MUTTAWWA (MAH-TAH-WA) ARE "RELIGIOUS POLICE." THEY ENFORCE MUSLIM RULES INCLUDING THE DRESS CODE, PRAYER TIME, ETC. SOME ZEALOUS MUTTAWWA WILL CONFRONT AMERICANS. IF CONFRONTED BY A MUTTAWWA, ATTEMPT TO QUIETLY SLIP AWAY. IF THEY TRY TO TAKE YOU INTO CUSTODY, INSIST ON THE PRESENCE OF A UNIFORMED POLICE OFFICER. WHEN HE ARRIVES, SHOW HIM YOUR ARMED FORCES ID CARD. YOU MAY BE RELEASED AT THIS TIME. ACCOMPANY THEM TO THE POLICE STATION WHERE YOU WILL EVENTUALLY BE RELEASED. REPORT THE INCIDENT TO YOUR COMMANDER.
10. PHOTOGRAPHY: WHILE PHOTOGRAPHY IS NOT ILLEGAL IN SAUDI ARABIA, AVOID PHOTOGRAPHING MILITARY OR CIVILIAN INSTALLATIONS AND EQUIPMENT, PLACES, MOSQUES, MILITARY AND CIVILIAN POLICE, OIL FIELDS, SAUDI WOMEN, ETC. DO NOT PHOTOGRAPH PEOPLE AT CLOSE RANGE (PARTICULARLY WOMEN) WITHOUT PERMISSION. CONSIDER PURCHASING ONE OF THE MANY FINE PICTORIAL GUIDES OF THE KINGDOM INSTEAD.
11. VEHICLE ACCIDENT: IF YOU ARE INVOLVED IN A VEHICLE ACCIDENT, DO NOT LEAVE THE SCENE. BE POLITE AND COOPERATIVE, BUT BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU SAY. CONTACT YOUR UNIT COMMANDER (TELE: _____)
12. TIME: DON'T BE IMPATIENT WITH LOCAL PEOPLE. IT'S INTERPRETED AS A SIGN OF INSINCERITY OR A LACK OF SELF CONTROL. IF YOU HURRY, THEY MAY TAKE OFFENSE AND LITTLE WILL BE ACCOMPLISHED.
13. DISTANCE: ARABS STAND CLOSE TOGETHER WHEN TALKING. AMERICANS MAY FIND THIS UNCOMFORTABLE AT FIRST BUT SHOULD AVOID BACKING AWAY.
14. FEET ON THE GROUND: NEVER SIT AND EXPOSE THE SOLE OF YOUR SHOE OR BOTTOM OF YOUR FEET TO AN ARAB—IT'S AN INSULT.
15. PATRONIZING: DON'T TALK DOWN TO SOMEONE WHO DOESN'T SPEAK ENGLISH WELL.
16. CONVERSATION: GENERALLY, TAKE THE LEAD FROM WHAT YOUR SAUDI HOSTS WISH TO DISCUSS. AVOID ASKING QUESTIONS ABOUT THE WOMEN OF ANY ARAB FAMILY—IT'S IMPOLITE. POLITICS AND RELIGION ARE SENSITIVE TOPICS IN ANY CULTURE AND NORMALLY SHOULD BE AVOIDED. DON'T DISCUSS ISRAEL AT ALL. OUR GOVERNMENT POLICY TOWARDS ISRAEL IS COMPLEX, AND ANY DISCUSSION MAY CREATE MORE MISUNDERSTANDING.
17. PROFANITY: FOUL LANGUAGE IS PARTICULARLY OFFENSIVE TO THE SAUDI PUBLIC.
18. PERSONAL POSSESSIONS: DON'T EXPRESS ADMIRATION FOR ANY OF A SAUDI'S POSSESSIONS. BY ARAB CUSTOM, HE MAY PRESENT IT TO YOU, AMID MUCH EMBARRASSMENT. HOWEVER, NEVER REFUSE AN ARAB'S GIFT—THIS IS ALSO CONSIDERED INSULTING.

DON'T BE MISLED, SAUDI ARABIA IS A FASCINATING COUNTRY, AND ITS PEOPLE ARE FRIENDLY AND GENEROUS. IN MANY CASES, YOU MAY BE THE FIRST AMERICAN SOME SAUDIS HAVE MET. THIS IS A TERRIFIC OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW THEM HOW REALLY WONDERFUL AMERICANS ARE. DO IT!

WELCOME TO THE UNITED STATES CENTRAL COMMAND AND SAUDI ARABIA! OPERATION DESERT SHIELD

other and be upfront with their parents in discussing each individual afterwards. Kids and parents must put their cards on the table and talk. Parents must be wise enough to listen well and careful in criticizing. I was 27 before I found a wife on my own. I was lucky.

"I pledge allegiance to almighty God, and to the Word which is his name. One nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

SINGLES: ATTENTION!!!!!!!

Cheri Peters, in her lecture, Dignified Daughters of Deborah, was asked by the audience if anyone was making any attempt to acquaint SINGLES with each other throughout the Christian Identity Movement.

April Barnett of Phoenix was there.

She has offered, through the columns of Destiny Digest, to pick up the ball and run with it.

"Send in your name, address and phone number. This will NOT be published," she writes, "We will list only your first name and the personal information you supply. Tell us what kind of person you are looking for, and any of your interests."

"Then when we get an inquiry about you, we will send you their name and address. It will be up to you to take it from there."

So writes April. If you are interested in making the acquaintance of other Singles of like mind, drop April a note through Destiny Digest, 1501 W. Peoria, Phoenix, Az. 85029 and we will see to it she gets it. A small gift to help defray her mailing costs will be appreciated.

Japanese minister offends U.S. blacks

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

TOKYO — Japan's justice minister compared prostitutes in Japan to U.S. blacks who move into white neighborhoods and "ruin the atmosphere," but later said he regretted the remark.

prophets. If the prophets were just to read a few of America's newspapers they would call it exactly what it is, whoredom!

The main point of the proceeding article has been missed by most. What Japan's justice minister was trying to say was, whores ruin the neighborhood. This is exactly what the prophet Isaiah said concerning the national neighborhood "How the faithful city has become a harlot, She who was full of justice! Righteousness once lodged in her, But now murderers. Your silver has become dross, Your ruler diluted with water. Your rulers are rebels, And companions of thieves; Every one loves a bribe, And chases after rewards. They do not defend the orphan, Nor does the widow's plea come before them. (Isaiah 1:21-23)

The prophets of old had much to say about Israel of old's continual whoredom and were none too popular for what they said. The history of the covenant people of scripture was always one of whoredom and eventually repentance after punishment for their sin. Thus, it should not be surprising to us that their descendants in America are at it again. Except they have chosen to call their sin in different terms than the

AMERICA DOESN'T SEE ANY WRONG IN WHORING

"This is the way of an adulterous woman: She eats and wipes her mouth, And says, 'I have done no wrong'" (Proverbs 30:20). Just as a whore sees no wrong in her deeds, so is America today. In fact, she, nor her prophets, seem to be able to recognize her prostitution racket. "So you will stumble by day and the prophet also will stumble with you by night... For a spirit of harlotry is within them and they do not know the Lord." (Hosea 4:5 and 5:4)

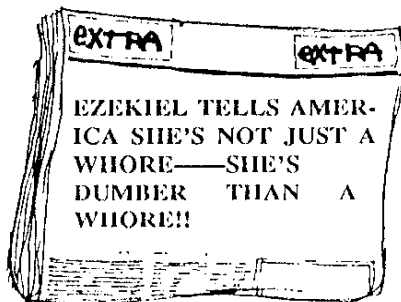

The second definition of WHOREDOM in Webster's 1828 Dictionary is "In scripture the desertion of the worship of the true God for the worship of idols". People can see this terrible wrong in the old Bible days when the Israelites of old would take gold and silver and make gold and silver idols and then worship those idols and look to those idols for protection. Then when their enemies would conquer them and take their gold and silver they would still continue their

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: Re your Vigilante chapter on Haiti. In Haiti today all forest and vegetation are cut away. There is no wild life and few birds. The land appears to be poor and very dry. Poverty is the norm. Voodoo priests are without Hollywood feathers and bones in the noses. They look like anyone else. In their homes is a altar on which is a skull and often a picture of the pope. Crime is severely punished with prisoners being beaten at each meal time, consequently, there is little crime and few jails. Repeaters are killed. Whites are hated in places and the wise few who visit are careful where they go." A. J. - Illinois idolatry by cutting down trees and carving and decorating them into some sort of totem pole to worship. Today their descendants in America have taken the gold and silver and put them into coins, called it money and worshipped it. Then after their enemies took their gold and silver, they cut down trees and sent them to be carved and ground into pulp at the paper mill and to be made into paper. Then they decorated the paper with numbers and green print and the words "Federal Reserve Note" and worship, sacrifice, and serve their paper "GOD" with all their heart, mind, and soul.

Whoredom violates the greatest commandment of, "LOVE the Lord thy God with all thy heart, all thy soul, and all thy mind." (Matthew 22:37) A whore doesn't love her husband. Her love, devotion and body are given for monetary consideration and gain. "For their mother has played the harlot; She who conceived them has acted shamefully. For she said, 'I will go after my lovers, Who give me my bread and my water, My wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.'" (Hosea 2:5)

Whoredom violates the first command of, "thou shall have no other Gods before me." The whore puts other lovers, called idols, before God because it pays in vanity, self gratification and monetarily. Colossians 3:5 teaches that covetousness and greed is idolatry. "So kill (dead, deprive of power) the evil desire lurking in your members..., and all greed and covetousness for that is idolatry..." (Colossians 3:5 amplified)

TO SEE THE WHOREDOM IN AMERICA—COMPARE BIBLE SCRIPTURE TO OUR PRESENT DAY DEEDS

A WHORE FORGETS "...the adulteress who flatters with her words; that leaves the companion of her youth, and forgets the covenant of her God;..." (Proverbs 2:16,17)

Hosea described the forgetfulness of Israel the harlot. "For she does not know that it was I who gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil, and lavished on her silver and gold, which they used for Baal,..." (Hosea 2:8) America has forgotten from whence came her blessings and that she was once a Christian nation. She has, in fact, left the companion of her youth, Jesus Christ.

WHORES DO THEIR OWN THING "...so as to do them (commandments) and not follow after your own heart and your own eyes, after which you played the HARLOT,..." (Numbers 15:39) In America it's called, "humanism", "do your own thing", or "not being bound by that old puritan ethic". Each person becomes a god unto themselves and collectively these little gods form the state which then becomes everyone's Baal god but it's never called for what it really is. Whoredom!

In Psalms 106:39 we read "Thus they became unclean in their practices, and played the harlot in their deeds." The deeds are described in the proceeding verses and can be seen in whoring America.

WHORES ARE NOT TOO DISCRIMINATORY ABOUT THEIR LOVERS .

"They did not destroy the peoples, As the Lord commanded them, But they mingled with the nations, And learned their practices, And served their idols, Which became a snare to them." (Psalms 106:34-36) Of course, just as a whore prefers to be called a professional who just does her job, we prefer to call such acts, "cultural exchange", "integration", "interracial marriage", "affirmative action" and even "progress". But never WHOREDOM.

A WHORE IS INTERESTED IN BREEDING but not REPRODUCING! "They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to the demons," (Psalms 106:37) This act of whoredom which eliminates reproduction is not called whoredom in our land but rather "pro-choice" or "abortion".

A WHORE IS NOT A GOOD MOTHER. "And shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons and their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; And the land was polluted with the blood." (Psalms 106:38) Again we don't call this whoredom. We have other terms for it such as "Korea", "Vietnam" and now the "Middle East". We don't call it sacrificing to the idols of Canaan. We call it foreign wars. Regardless of what it's called, the innocent blood of our sons (and now daughters) is sacrificed for foreigners (and the buck).

WHORES LIKE TO THINK THEY ARE PROVIDING A SERVICE. So it is in America. We like to call our whoring HUMANITARIANISM or even CHRISTIAN. Perhaps nothing can illustrate the point better than the following news article.

Soviets will get emergency help

In Washington, U.S. officials said the Bush administration is developing contingency plans to provide emergency food and medicine to the Soviet Union to tide it through the winter.

Few are the people or the pulpits that recognize the evil act of whoredom involved in such a so-called humanitarian act of the government and fewer yet who, after recognizing it, have the guts to call it what it is. Rest assured, the prophet Ezekiel would call it what it is.

"You built yourself a high place at the top of every street, and made your beauty abominable; and you spread your legs to every passer-by to multiply your harlotry. You also played the

ED: Kuwait itself is a strategic terminal of the trans-Turkey railroad and is a valuable seaport, besides a source of oil. It became a British Protectorate in the middle of the last century to deny local Middle East powers use of its strategic location. Arabs resent it. On at least two other occasions Britain has had harlot with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors, and multiplied your harlotry to make Me angry. Behold now, I have stretched out My hand against you and diminished your rations. And I delivered you up to the desire of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd conduct. Moreover, you played the harlot with the Assyrians because you were not satisfied; you even played the harlot with them and still were not satisfied. You also multiplied your harlotry with the land of merchants, Chaldea, yet even with this you were not satisfied...Men give gifts to all harlots, but you give your gifts to all your lovers to bribe them to come to you from every direction for your harlotries. Thus you are different from those women in your harlotries, in that no one plays the harlot as you do, because you give money and no money is given you; thus you are different." (Ezekiel 16:25-29 and 33-35)

Note; in essence Ezekiel told them that they were dumber than a whore. Whores at least charged and did not pay.

Isn't it now common practice for America to actually pay her lovers, even though most whores get paid by their lovers? America not only pays Russia but pays great sums to her so-called middle east allies, so they will love us and to the Christ-hating Israelis, so they will love us.

The act of sending aid to Godless communist Russia is equivalent to that described in II Kings, which God considered whoredom. "Pulking of Assyria came against the land, and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver so that his hand might be with him to strengthen the kingdom under his rule. Then Menahem exacted the money from Israel, even from all the mighty men of wealth, from each man fifty shekels of silver to pay the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria returned and did not remain there in the land." (II Kings 15: 19 and 20)

Some would wonder why Ezekiel would call giving aid to Russia HARLOTRY. Perhaps a true story I know will help you understand. Many years ago while going to Bible college I supported myself, my wife and my children by working nights as a welder in a factory. I got to know a fellow worker and began having Bible studies with him during a couple of breaks, we were working the night shift. It turned out the man was married to a beautiful Indian woman who periodically would just up and leave her family and go out on the town to party and drink. One night she did this until she was near broke and her and her friends (her lovers) went to a drive-in restaurant to order chicken in the basket dinners. She paid for her and her lovers meals by giving the proprietor her beautiful diamond wedding ring set. I remember how hurt her husband was when he told me the story. He had given her that expensive diamond because he loved her and she was his wife. She in turn, squandered it upon her lovers. She was dumber than a whore, for most whores get paid by their lovers but she paid for her lovers, with the wealth given to her by her loving husband.

So it is in America. The prophetic land, the regathering place for the House of Israel (2 Samuel 7:10, Amos 9:15) the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian and kindred people who settled the land and formed the nation in keeping with Bible prophecy (Micah 4), are the covenant people, the descendants of the Israelites of old and like their forefathers, they have gone a whoring. Micah 4:9,10 describes the process as that of leaving their King and Counselor (i.e., Jesus Christ the God of Israel) and going to Babylon. (Babylon is described as a great whore. Rev. 17:1,5)

As a covenant people who proclaimed

Christ and sought His Kingdom, Americans were showered with material wealth. "But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added to you." (Matthew 6:33) "But you shall remember the Lord your God, for it is He who is giving you power to make wealth, that He may confirm His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day. And it shall come about if you ever forget the Lord your God, and go after other gods and serve them and worship them, I testify against you today that you shall surely perish." (Deut. 8:18,19) Then as people dumber than whores, we have given the wealth given to us by our God, to nations who hate our God. Such nations as Communist Russia and the Communist state of Israel, where it is actually against the law to pass Bibles out in public or evangelize on the streets for Jesus Christ. Then, after committing such an act, our Government like a whore wiping her mouth, says, "I've done no wrong. It's a humanitarian service". And the spiritual whores called Judeo-Christian churches with their Babylonian pimps called preachers, not only fail to condemn such an act, but rather call it a Christian act of love. It is no wonder the prophets are seldom read there and rest assured the prophet Ezekiel could not preach there.

The ancient Israelites (not Jews) were sent by God into captivity for their whoredoms. (I Chron. 5:25,26) Today their descendants in America (not Jews) have been put into a Babylonian captivity for the same reason. To such a people the prophets say "REPENT". REPENTANCE will come! It will happen! What has to happen to us before it comes to pass may not be pleasant but the prophets have told us we will to come to Kuwait's defense against Arab fundamentalist invaders - which is evidently part of an agreement. Bagdad, on the other hand, considers this territory in her sphere of influence and this claim goes back to the Persian Empire. She also considers British dominated Kuwait and Saudi-Arabia to be British pawns. Islamic followers pay little heed to national boundaries. That is a Western concept. To them there is Islam - and nothing else. Islam will be the long-term winner in the present confrontation game. The Israeli country to them is a minor enemy. Islam looks on the the entire West as a single devil. Islam's energies will be focused on the task of its destruction from now on. The U.S.'s Arab allies will last as long as the pay holds out - no longer. The "wild card" is the Arab leaders. Most are unbelievably corrupt. But, one day a Saladin will arrive on the scene.

repent and return to our God. To that end this ministry labors. The national neighborhood will be cleaned up.

"Zion will be redeemed with justice, and her repentant ones with righteousness. But transgressors and sinners will be crushed together, and those who forsake the Lord shall come to an end. Surely, you will be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired, and you will be embarrassed at the gardens which you have chosen." (Isaiah 1:27-29)

"Therefore, behold I will hedge up her way with thorns, And I will build a wall against her so that she cannot find her paths. And she will pursue her lovers, but she will not overtake them; And she will seek them, but will not find them. Then she will say, 'I will go back to my first husband, For it is better for me than an now!'" (Hosea 2:6,7)

"Writhe and labor to give birth, Daughter of Zion, Like a woman in childbirth, For now you will go out of the city, Dwell in the field, And go to Babylon. There you will be rescued; There the Lord will redeem you From the hand of your enemies." (Micah 4:10)

"Awake, awake, Clothe yourself in your strength, O Zion; Clothe yourself in your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city. For the uncircumcised and the unclean will no more come into you. Shake yourself from the dust, rise up, O captive Jerusalem; Loose yourself from the chains around your neck, O captive daughter of Zion." (Isaiah 2:1,2)

Many evils in a society come about with a whore mentality of, "I'm just doing my job."

"Then when Herod saw that he had been tricked by the magi, he became very enraged, and sent and slew all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all its environs, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had ascertained from the magi." MATTHEW 2:16

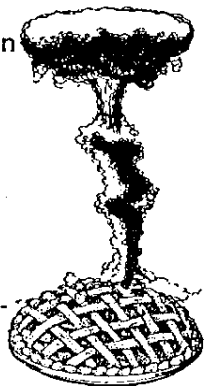

Whores just do their job, but Christians are to do what is right!

- 1 No. 303 can fruity world leaders
 - 1 14 oz. can Moslems
 - 1 3 1/2 oz. can of flaky Americans
 - 1 cup political nuts
 - 1 9 oz. carton frozen brains

Drain the world of all hope and common sense. Mix with fruity world leaders and carton of frozen brains unable to discern truth. Beat the Moslems into a frenzy. Whip up some good Political rhetoric while adding a little religious fervor sprinkled heavily with flaky Americans who think they are fighting for freedom. Bake in a desert-like temperature until fighting erupts.

Serves the whole world a chilling dessert.

THE WIZARD OF OZ: A Political Fable

Most Americans are familiar with THE WIZARD OF OZ through L. Frank Baum's children's books or the 1939 motion picture, but few realize that the story was written as a political fable to promote the Populist movement around the turn of the century. Next time you see it, try interpreting the Tin Woodsman as the industrial worker, the Scarecrow as the struggling farmer and the Wizard as the president, who is powerful only as long as he succeeds in deceiving the people. (Sorry, but in the book Dorothy's ruby slippers were only silver shoes.)

The Wonderful Wizard of Oz

was written by Lyman Frank Baum in 1900, during the collapse of the Populist movement. Through the Populist party, Midwestern farmers, in alliance with some urban workers, had challenged the banks, railroads and other economic interests that squeezed farmers through low prices, high freight rates and continued indebtedness.

The Populists advocated government ownership of railroads, telephone and telegraph industries. They also wanted silver coinage. Their power grew during the 1893 depression, the worst in U.S. history until then, as farm prices sank to new lows and unemployment was widespread....

In the 1894 congressional elections, the Populist party got almost 40 percent of the vote. It looked forward to winning the presidency, and the silver standard, in 1896. But in that election, which revolved around the issue of gold versus silver, Populist Democrat William Jennings Bryan lost to Republican William McKinley by 95 electoral votes. Bryan, a congressman from Nebraska and a gifted orator, ran again in 1900, but the Populist strength was gone.

Baum viewed these events in both rural South Dakota - where he edited a local weekly - and urban Chicago - where he wrote OZ. He mourned the destruction of the fragile alliance between the Midwestern farmers (the Scarecrow) and the urban industrial workers (the Tin Woodsman). Along with Bryan (the Cowardly Lion with a roar but little else), they had been taken down the yellow brick road (the gold standard) that led nowhere. Each journeyed to Emerald City seeking favors from the Wizard of Oz (the President). Dorothy, the symbol of Everyman, went along with them, innocent enough to see the truth before the others.

Along the way they meet the Wicked Witch of the East, who, Baum tells us, had kept the little Munchkin people "in bondage for many years, making them slave for her night and day." She also had put a spell on the Tin Woodsman, once an independent and hardworking man, so that each time he swung his axe, it chopped off a different part of his body. Lacking another trade, he "worked harder than ever," becoming like a machine, incapable of love, yearning for a heart. Another witch, the Wicked Witch of the West, clearly symbolized the large industrial corporations.

...The small group heads toward Emerald City where the Wizard rules from behind a papier-mâché facade. Oz, by the way, is the abbreviation for ounce, the standard measure for gold.

Like all good politicians, the Wizard can be all things to all people. Dorothy sees him as an enormous head. The Scarecrow sees a gossamer fairy. The Woodsman sees an awful beast, the Cowardly Lion "a ball of fire so fierce and glowing he could scarcely bear to gaze upon it."

Later, however, when they confront the Wizard directly, they see he is nothing more than "a little man, with a bald head and a wrinkled face."

"I have been making believe," the Wizard confesses. "I'm just a common man." But the Scarecrow adds, "You're more than that...you're a humbug."

"It was a great mistake my ever letting you into the Throne Room," admits the Wizard, a former ventriloquist and circus balloonist from Omaha.

This was Baum's ultimate Populist message. The powers-that-be survive by deception. Only people's ignorance allows the powerful to manipulate and control them. Dorothy returns to Kansas with the magical help of her Silver Shoes (the silver issue), but when she gets to Kansas she realizes her shoes "had fallen off in her flight through the air, and were lost forever in the desert." Still, she is safe at home with Aunt Em and Uncle Henry, simple farmers. □ extermination camps. This figure was reduced in stages to 32 million, 28 million, 24 million, 22 million, 18 million, 16 million, 12 million, 8 million, 6 million, and now newly released Soviet files show only 72,000 deaths at Auschwitz, and these were caused mostly by disease and malnutrition resulting from disrupted food supply caused by air attacks. It is also noted that Hollywood propaganda still spouts the 6 million figure in their atrocity program which includes the now admitted non-existent Auschwitz 3 million. The exterminationists do have their job cut out for them. When they get around to it they must adjust the Holocaust Hoax to make everyone believe in the Auschwitz 1.1 million and at the same time attack the latest 72,000 figure from the Soviet archives. It seems to be a never ending problem. Poor people. Problems, problems. The multi-billion survivor compensation may be harder to justify in the days ahead. P. O. Box 997, Lynchburg, Virginia 24505

CHILDREN: BLESSINGS OR CURSES?...

Psalm 127:4-5 "As arrows are in the band of a mighty man; so are children of the youth. Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate."

According to our Heavenly Father, we are to count ourselves blessed if we have many children. Most people today think you nuts when you consider having more than two. Isn't it a sad commentary on our society when we consider children curses rather than blessings?

As I observe people I know that have chosen not to have children, I find myself wondering if they realize how much they are missing. In Ecclesiastes 4:8, the Bible describes these people:

"There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail."

Yes, to labour without purpose is certainly vanity. We need to understand that it is not things that enrich our lives. Our relationship with God and our relationship with our families and brethren is what enriches us. Let's not deprive ourselves of blessings because we think we can't afford to have many children. Don't buy into the edicts of Planned Barrenhood!

Matt 6:30 "Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?"

We certainly are of little faith. We need to pray and seek the Lord's Way in every matter and he will provide. Now before everyone runs off to have children, we need to recognize that this is to be from a marriage union. Today we have thousands of children growing up without fathers which is not what God intended. Isaiah 54:1 describes our nation today: "Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD."

I don't know what the statistics are, but we certainly are seeing more and more children born out of wedlock than at any time in our history. I personally know of one old schoolmate whose husband divorced her when she got pregnant (while using birth control) because she wouldn't get an abortion! That really shouldn't surprise us when the media and majority of people (including Christians) talk as if children are a curse rather than a blessing.

As the mother of 4 boys, I get many comments from people when I take them places. Most are negative, such as "Oh gosh four boys!" This is said as if nothing could be worse. I always try to say something positive back, such as "Yes, the Lord has truly blessed me." Not long ago, I was babysitting three boys besides my own and I took all seven to the grocery store. An older couple came up to me and said, "Well, aren't you lucky?" Believe me, I really treasure those comments!

Many older people have expressed to me how they wish they had had more children. I think it's interesting how the older generation seems to value children more than the deceived, public school trained Baby Boomers.

What really surprises me is how much the Christians have bought into the propaganda that children are such a hardship. Most of them fear that they won't have enough money, or that they will be too tied down or that they're too many people already. Are these Biblical fears or man-made fears? The Bible tells us very clearly that we are to FEAR GOD only.

Remember what Isaiah tells us in 8:11-15. (NIV):

"The LORD spoke to me with his strong hand upon me, warning me not to follow the way of this people. He said: Do not call conspiracy everything that these people call conspiracy; do not fear what they fear, and do not dread it. The LORD Almighty is the one you are to regard as holy, he is the one you are to fear, he is the one you are to dread, and he will be a sanctuary; but for both houses of Israel he will be a stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall. And for the people of Jerusalem he will be a trap and a snare."

Jesus tells us in Matthew 18:10, "Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones;..."

If God says children are blessings, guess what? THEY ARE BLESSINGS! Read Psalms 128.

"Blessed is everyone that feareth the LORD; that walketh in his ways. For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee. Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table. Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD. The LORD shall bless thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life. Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Israel."

Let's get back to the Bible. As God promises, when we obey Him we will be truly blessed.

PROPHET

CHURCH MEANING: One who predicts the future.

ACTUAL MEANING: From the Greek - προφητης prophētes (1. προ pro before, and 2. φημι phēmi to make known - i.e., one who explains before.) While the origin of the word indicates "a foreteller," the term actually came to mean "one who speaks for God." Thus, a "prophet" may foretell a future event, deliver a message (admonition) from God, or interpret its meaning.

A "false prophet," then, is one who claims to speak for God but actually speaks for someone else. He may be speaking for a church, for another man, or for himself...while claiming to speak for God. Or, he may just be a fool and/or a liar, misrepresenting God's word with no pattern or apparent motive.

In scripture, false prophets are considered dangerous. God demands the death penalty for them. Thus, to accuse someone of being a false prophet is a very serious charge - no less than murder. Of course, in our society where the system precludes God's law, all we can do is identify false prophets, expose them, and avoid them.

GOD MANIFEST IN FLESH

CHURCH MEANING: God changed Himself into flesh and became a man.

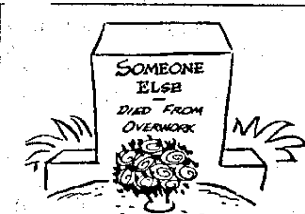

ACTUAL MEANING: "To manifest" means: to show plainly; to explain fully. Therefore, to say that "God manifest Himself in the flesh" is to say that Yahweh used a man (Jesus) to explain Himself to the world. Yahweh projected Himself through Jesus somewhat like a TV studio projects a picture signal through a TV screen. The picture on the TV screen in your living room is a manifestation of the stage set in the TV studio many miles away. The two points of reference (send-and receiver) are distinct from one another. One is dependent upon the other.

Yahweh did NOT transfer Himself into a flesh body. Jesus is NOT just an alternate name for Yahweh. If that had happened, then there never would have been a separate person named Jesus. It would have been Yahweh in disguise. The Bible teaches that Jesus came in the flesh, NOT that Yahweh came in the flesh.

Jesus was the flesh upon which Yahweh projected Himself. They were TWO points of reference; not just one. The special way in which Yahweh put qualities and attributes of Himself into His Son made Jesus qualified to be called "the express image of God." If God had turned into a man we would have had a man-God. A man-God is still God. He could not have been tempted; he could not have died.

To manifest Himself, Yahweh did not change. He used the life of Jesus through which to express Himself to mankind. Jesus was a living epistle sent from God. Yahweh manifested Himself in Jesus the same way Jesus manifested Himself in us: "...that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh." (2 Cor. 4:11)

The Passing of Someone Else

The church was bowed in grief this week to learn that one of our most valuable members, Someone Else, passed away. This death creates a vacancy that will be difficult to fill. Someone Else has been with us for many years. During all these years, he did far more than a normal person's share of the work. Whenever leadership was mentioned, this wonderful person was looked to for inspiration as well as results.

Whenever there was a job to do—a class to teach, or a meeting to attend—one name was on everyone's list: "Let Someone Else do it."

Someone Else was also among the largest givers of the church. Whenever there was a financial need, everyone just assumed that Someone Else would make up the difference.

This beloved church member was a wonderful person, sometimes appearing super-human; but a person can only do so much. Everybody expected too much of Someone Else.

Now Someone Else is gone. Who will pitch in to do the things that Someone Else has done? If you are asked to take a job in church, we hope you won't reply, "Let Someone else do it." Now we need you to pick up where Someone Else left off.

MASTER/SERVANT

CONTROLLED MEANING: Refers to the relationship between a slave and his owner.

CORRECT MEANING: Depending upon time in history, and location, these terms have meant different things. In modern America they are usually considered to mean approximately the same as stated above. However, when these terms appear in historical writings they generally equate to "employer/employee."

In the Bible, the relationship of "servant and master" is commonly sanctioned. Again, this usually speaks not of involuntary (forced) slavery, but rather voluntary servitude (i.e. contractual employment). The "master" did not own the "bond servant" who was bound to him by voluntary contract. Thus it is with contractual employment today. This helps, also, to explain the misconstrued relationships between "master" and "servant" in the "slavery" states during the first half of the 1800's. Many of the Black "slaves" were treated approximately the same as an "employee" today.

The following quote from AMERICAN JURISPRUDENCE gives the official legal definition:

§ 2. Definitions—"Master," "Servant," "Employer," "Employee."—In law, the term "master and servant" indicates the relationship which exists when one person who employs another to do a certain work exercises the right of control over the performance of the work to the extent of prescribing the manner in which it is to be executed. The employer is the master, and the person employed is the servant. The terms "employer" and "employee" are the outgrowth of the old terms "master" and "servant;" they have been adopted by reason of the shift of the relation in general from a personal to an impersonal one, and are the terms now commonly used to describe the relationship...

§ 3. Existence of Relationship.—While it is said that at common law there are four elements which are considered upon the question whether the relationship of master and servant exists,—namely, the selection and engagement of the servant, the payment of wages, the power of dismissal, and the power of the control of the servant's conduct,—the essential element of the relationship is the right of control—the right of one person, the master, to order and control another, the servant, in the performance of work by the latter, and the right to direct the manner in which the work shall be done.

Wasted Years

I looked upon a farm one day, That once I used to own; The barn had fallen to the ground, The fields were overgrown.	The years had passed while I had cared For things of lesser worth; The things of heaven I let go While minding things of earth.
The house in which my children grew, Where we had lived for years— I turned to see it broken down, And brushed aside the tears.	To Christ I turned with bitter tears, And cried, "O Lord, forgive! I haven't much time left for thee, Not many years to live."
I looked upon my soul one day, To find it, too, had grown With thorns and thistles every- where— The seeds neglect had sown.	The wasted years forever gone, The days I can't recall; If I could live those days again, I'd make him Lord of all.
