"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For he hath visited and redeemed his people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us; To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he swore to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives."

by Pastor Peter J. Peters Introduction

This book is not for the squeamish. It is not for those who cannot or will not face the fact that we are a nation of whores. Your first reaction to the title and subject matter may be one of revulsion, however, you recognize that this nation is in serious trouble, and perhaps Biblical whoredom is an answer you had not considered or you do not understand it as well as you would like to.

When we study the sin that the Bible calls "whoredom," or "harlotry," and we examine the history of America's decline, it becomes increasingly clear that we have become bigger and better whores than our forefathers were. The importance of recognizing our sin as harlotry began to crystallize into this message. It is perhaps the most important subject I have ever exposed as a minister.

Have you ever heard a minister preach on the subject of whoredom, or harlotry, as the Bible defines it? Have you ever had the meaning of whoredom explained from a Biblical perspective? Take a concordance, look under the word "harlotry," and notice how often the writers refer to it, and the prophets preach against it. Hopefully, before you finish reading this book, you will be able to understand it and relate it to our world today.

1. The most commonly understood definition focuses on "one who offers her body for the purpose of sexual relations in order to obtain financial gain."

2. A whore is also anyone who performs any service for an unworthy purpose in order to gain financially or to gain an advantage or superior status.

3. Biblically, it refers to idolatry which means putting other gods before the Creator God.

You should notice that there is no coercion involved in these definitions. The services of a whore, be it male, female, or collective, are offered. This is Israel's trademark, we do it willingly.

If you are honest with yourself as you read this book, you will discover we, as individuals, and we, acting corporately as a nation, have been harlots in many areas. America has become a whore of the first magnitude, and it is important to recognize that a nation is only as godly as it's individual members. Will we be honest enough to examine these principles of harlotry in our own lives?

At one time or another, have we offered our services for an unworthy purpose because we expected some financial gain?

Have we tithed to a 501(c)3 [tax-exempt] church because our donation is tax deductible?

Perhaps we place unfettered trust in our benevolent government, the Constitution, our doctor, our minister, our insurance, or our policemen to "protect and serve us all the days of our lives." Have we not forgotten that we have a loving, caring, and protecting God who gave His life for us?

As you read this book, look at your own life and the life of this nation. Only by recognizing our whoredom can we humble ourselves before our God and begin to heal. May that day come quickly, Lord Jesus.

Chapter One Israel In The Wilderness

The Bible is specific about the harlotry and whoredom of Israel throughout her history. Scripture defines whoredom as a spiritual sin. It should be no surprise to us that we would come upon whoredom in our land when we find a regathering of the house of Israel and the house of Judah in America. The problem is that most people cannot identify it nor do they understand it from a Biblical perspective. As Hosea said the spirit of harlotry hangs over us. It blinds our eyes, and it prevents us from turning back to our God, I believe with all my heart that if the prophet Hosea were here today, he would say to America as he said to the house of Israel:

"...for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD." (Hosea 1:2b KJV)

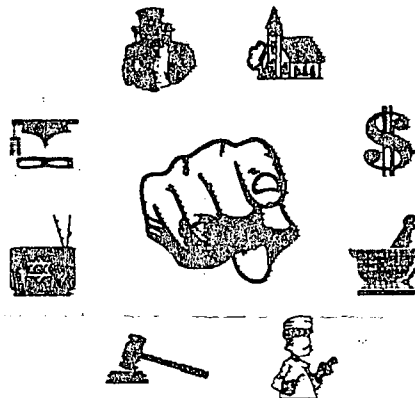

"...for the land commits flagrant harlotry, forsaking the LORD."

(Hosea 1:2b NAS)

"Their deeds will not allow them to return to their God. For a spirit of harlotry is within them, and they do not know the LORD." (Hosea 5:4 NAS)

Regardless of which translation we choose, the message is clear. As we look around us today, it is apparent that Israel continues to practice whoredom. Thus it makes sense why the prophets Isaiah, Ezekiel, Hosea, and others spoke vehemently against this sin. Until the people understand what harlotry is all about, our nation will not repent and turn back to God. As one who labors in God's vineyard, I want there to be a national turning back to God. I long for it, I labor for it, and I will do whatever I must to help our people understand how we became a nation of harlots. The Scriptures

WHORES GALORE

by Peter J. Peters

graphically narrate that it was this same sin that sent Israel into captivity of old, and by reading the history of Israel we can see that whoredom is once again the cause of our captivity today. Therefore, we must search back through the centuries to the time of the prophet Micah who prophesied of a nation that was to be formed out of the Israel people by the providence of God:

"In that day, I declares the LORD, I will assemble the lame, and gather the outcasts, even those whom I have afflicted, I will make the lame a remnant, and the outcasts a strong nation....." (Micah 4:6,7a)

Does that nation which was formed exist today, and if it does, can it be identified? Notice that it is not just a nation. Micah prophesied a strong nation. The Bible does not use many adjectives, but those it does use should be heeded. This passage also points out another key which helps us verify that this nation still exists today. God tells Micah that it will be formed by outcasts. In the excellent history book The Light and The Glory, (available from CIM #710, $15.50) page 101, authors Peter Marshall and David Manuel confirm God's hand in the forming of America by observing the following:

Clearly God had moved to save Virginia when men had abandoned her. And though more ministers were beginning to draw the analogy of a new Promised Land, none had quite the temerity to suggest that the mixed bag of convicts, down-at-the-heels Gentlemen, professional soldiers without a war, and slum orphans (for the City Fathers in London had hit upon a unique solution for doing something about the swarming bands of street urchins) were a new Chosen People. Certainly they did not regard themselves as such - chosen for hell on earth would have been how they would put it.

The authors are pointing out that at the time the colonists were settling the area of Virginia, the ministers were thinking of these colonists as God's Chosen People coming to a new Promised Land. It was difficult for the ministers to understand why God would deem them as "a chosen people," but that is how Micah described them. The outcasts and the lame would gather to become a remnant and form this strong nation.

"...and the LORD will reign over them in Mount Zion from now on and forever" (Micah 4:7b)

Notice Micah says, "The LORD will reign." The LORD is Jesus Christ. Again we quote from The Light and The Glory, page 309, where it speaks of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. After he had signed it, Samuel Adams said:

"We have this day restored the Sovereign, to Whom alone men ought to be obedient. He reigns in heaven and ... from the rising to the setting sun, may His Kingdom come."

In Micah 4:7, God tells Micah that He, Yahweh, would reign in Mount Zion, and in vs 8 He expands that prophecy:

"And as for you, tower of the flock, hill of the daughter of Zion, to you it will come -- even the former dominion will come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem." (Mic. 4:8)

We need to center in on verses 9 and 10:

"Now, why do you cry out loudly? Is there no king among you, or has your counselor perished,..." (Verse 9a)

They began with a King; the LORD reigned in Zion. He was the Mighty Counselor Jesus Christ. Nevertheless, problems began to come upon them. Notice how God phrases His question through Micah in the last half of this verse:

"...that agony has gripped you like a woman in child birth?" (verse 9b)

God was telling Micah about the Problems that were to come upon this newly formed nation. These problems would bear down and come close together as the pains of a woman in childbirth. In every area, in every facet of our national life, we can see that this has happened.

"Writhe and labor to give birth, daughter of Zion, like a woman in childbirth, for now you will go out of the city, dwell in the field, and go to Babylon... (Verse 10a)

Note the prophet said this newly formed nation would "go to Babylon." We will focus our attention in this book to our living in Babylon. We know that Babylon is an order that is out of order with God. However, for the purpose of this study, think of it as it is described in Revelation 17:

"And one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, 'Come here, I shall show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, with whom the kings of the earth committed acts of immorality, and those who dwell on the earth were made drunk with the wine of her immorality.' ...and upon her forehead a name was written, a mystery, 'BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.'" (Revel.17:1,2,5)

Micah prophesied that this newly formed nation would go to this Babylonian mother of harlots. Has the Creator God Almighty, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob ever accused any people other than Israel of continually being whores? No, He has not, because it was Israel whom He loved, married, and who betrayed Him to become a whore.

This is verified when you read the inspired prophets Ezekiel, Jeremiah, and Isaiah who continually accused Israel of whoredom. God sent no other people into captivity, to labor under conquerors because of their whoredom. It is one thing to be blamed for conditions we did not create, but it is time we in Israel began accepting the responsibility for those conditions which we did create. Ours has been the greatest whoremongering people in recorded history. If America is, indeed, a regathering place of the Israel people as we maintain that it is, then it stands to reason there are whores galore in our land today.

When God began revealing this concept of whoredom to me, the many gods we worship in this land began to come into focus. We have set them up gradually, and we have been unaware of the nature and gravity of our sin. We have served them unknowingly. Sometimes it is not easy to face what we have been doing. A man called the other night and said he thought the tape series of this message was really hitting below the belt. It may feel that way because when we contemplate our own lives in retrospect, we may find a whore in the mirror in the morning when we shave. Nevertheless, that is the purpose of this message. It is time that we awaken to our whoredom and return to the God of the Bible.

It was not unknown to God that we would be whoring after other gods. Yahweh God prophesied to Moses what our conduct would be and how we would conduct ourselves in the distant future:

"And the LORD said to Moses, 'Behold, you are about to lie down with your fathers; and this people will arise and play the harlot with the strange gods of the land, into the midst of which they are going, and will forsake Me and break My covenant which I have made with them.'" (Deu.31:16)

"For I know that after my death you will act corruptly and turn from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days, for you will do that which is evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger with the work of your hands." (Deu. 31:29)

This prophet Moses knew that even in the latter days the children of Israel, those Germanic, Scandinavian, Anglo-Saxon, and kindred peoples who settled the shores of America, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, would go whoring after other gods. If there is an effective method whereby one can prove that we are those Israel people, just look at our traits. At the top of the list is "whoring after other gods." Moses elaborated on our harlotry by saying the following:

"But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked -- you are grown fat, thick, and sleek -- then he forsook God who made him, and scorned the Rock of his salvation. They made Him jealous with strange gods; with abominations they provoked Him to anger. They sacrificed to demons who were not God, to gods whom they have not known, new gods who came lately, whom your fathers did not dread. You neglected the Rock who begot you, and forgot the God who gave you birth." (Deuteronomy 32:15-18)

Thus we have read of Israel's whoredom in the wilderness, and we have been warned by Micah and Moses that we would again forget our God and turn to the Baals. Exactly why was Israel likened to a whore, and how can we recognize her whoredom today?

CHAPTER FIVE

Twentieth Century Gods: Pimps in the Pulpits and Prostitutes in the Pews

On a one-day round-trip flight to Spokane, Washington, I was unable to get home after the night which necessitated my staying overnight in a motel. The next morning, I flipped on the TV, and there, in living color, was brother Oral Roberts. As I watched the program, I could see clearly the whoredom operating in the churches: Brother Oral was telling his viewing audience how they needed to "give of their needs." He explained that if you need $150 to pay the rent, give of that $150 to the Lord. Brother Oral called that "giving of your needs," and if you give it to Him, it will all come back to you. The TV then focused on a woman from Arkansas whom the studio had pre-recorded as she worked in her upholstery shop. She was saying that her upholstery business had not been doing well. The phone had not been ringing with business, and also her son had injured his lower back and was unable to work. Frankly, she did not know how she was going to make it.

However, one morning she turned on the TV and saw brother Oral as he was talking about giving of your needs. She sat down immediately and wrote a check to brother Oral for $35. She said she could not afford to send that amount but on faith she sent that check to brother Oral. She said that before brother Oral even received her check, her telephone began ringing, and it practically rang off the wall. She began getting more business; and, praise the Lord, her son's back improved. This all happened because she learned to give of her needs.

That is whoredom. Give your love, your life, and your money to Jesus because it pays! Whores galore in America! A lady wrote to me of the following incident. She had been listening to Dr. Dobson on the radio, and he announced that he was a tax-exempt 501c3 organization and therefore could not comment too much politically. I thought that was interesting because he is one of the better ones out there. Nevertheless, it is whoring when you refuse to serve God in certain areas because the gods in power would take away your tax-exempt 501c3 status. Why do you suppose that Jerry Falwell went from the Moral Majority back to concentrating on winning souls for Jesus? He was getting too political, and they threatened to remove his 501c3 status. Whom does he serve, almighty God or the almighty dollar? By this example, we can see that the Babylonian whore dictates the way and manner in which you may love Jesus. If Big Babe says, "Do not become too, political," those behind the pulpits today respond with, "Yes, madam." Do you suppose Isaiah and Jeremiah would have knuckled under to any king who would have threatened to remove their tax exemption status? How can we be indignant about the immoral men and women who satisfy their alley cat sexual appetites on TV, while we satisfy our lust for money by tithing to tax-exempt churches because it is tax deductible? When you give of your tithe to Jesus for the sole reason that it pays in tax-deductible terms, you are just as big a whore as the one who receives it. People call up and ask, "Are you a 501c3 church?" When I reply, "No, I am not," and they say, "Well, I cannot send any money," I say, "Fine, there are plenty of whores out there to whom you can send it." Scripture says, "Like people like priest." In other words, you have the big "he-whores" on TV urging you to give of your needs, and the little "he-whores" sending it to them so they can get their tax deductions. If you do not understand the problem here then perhaps you had better search your motives for giving in the first place and get on your knees in repentance before your God.

With the foregoing in mind we should begin to wonder why many people attend church. One answer comes from the following article that appeared in Newsweek several years ago, inside cover: For Young Movers The New Direction Is Back To The Pews:

Having transformed America's society as they march toward middle age, the nation's 75 million baby-boomers are leading a return to organized religion. They are picking among congregations as if they were restaurants. Accordingly, the clergy are tailoring their services to meet the under-45 crowd's taste. What the boomers seem to like best are mall-like mega-churches offering exercise equipment, sports teams, and above all, a wide range of self-help groups. To keepers of the faith, the trend is both troublesome and hopeful. (Emphasis added)

Notice that there is no mention of a need to repent, a need to be filled with Spiritual truth, or a need to increase one's faith. These people attend church to be entertained, and entertainment is just what they get. Christianity in America is not what it was even two centuries ago. Paul's instruction to Timothy was an accurate prophecy of church conditions today:

"For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled they will accumulate teachers in accordance to their own desires; and will turn away their ears from the truth, and will turn aside to myths." (2 Timothy 4:3,4)

As the baby-boomers are doing their smorgasbord shopping for religious tastes, are they making truth the priority? No, they are not. Paul goes on to say:

"But you, be sober in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry." (2 Timothy 4:5)

Notice that the baby-boomers are not choosing evangelists. In these days it is not easy for those who want to be evangelists. Note that the boomers' choice is tailored to how it benefits them. What they want. And the preachers how accommodating they are. Just like whores, these churches say, "Hey, John, come on over here. Tell me what you want. I'm here to please. After all, you are the one who puts the money in the offering plate." We do not call it "whoring" or "turning a trick." We call it "church growth" and "soul winning." Do not blame the baby boomers because they are just a product of their idolatrous parents who told them to get a good education so that they could get ahead, get a good job, and make lots of money. Never did their parents tell them, "Son, put truth and righteousness first, even it costs you. You stand for what is right even if a socialist professor in college gives you an 'F' and flunks you. You are never to compromise," instead, dad told his son: "Roll with the punches, do your own thing and watch out for number one."

Who is it that decides right and wrong for you? Who is it that sets your boundaries as to what you shall and shall not do? Who is it that sets your parameters as to what you shall and shall not preach? Is it not God? If you are a minister and you have allowed the state to set the parameters as to what you will or will not preach, then you have gone whoring after another god. If you are a churchgoer and you do so because God will bless you on April 15, you are a whore.

I know a Methodist preacher who has discovered the Christian Israel truth. He understands it, and he believes it. However, he has said to others who also understand this truth, "You know, I have only eight more years until retirement. After I retire, I am going to begin preaching the Christian Israel message." He did not want to lose that retirement and position. As it is, he has something a lot more important to lose.

It should not surprise us that Judeo-Christianity honors whores because 'Judeo-Christianity' is a contradiction in terms. There can be no blending of these opposites because one strives diligently to destroy the other. Judaism hates Christ, it hates Christianity, and it promotes the destruction of Christian values and Christian morals wherever it can gain a foothold or a listening forum. They have been tremendously successful in removing Christ from publicly funded programs. They are now attacking privately funded programs where Christ is worshipped, and they work with zeal to rewrite our reference works. Our Bible, our history books, children's books, books used in the seminaries, books found in libraries across this nation have all come under the scrutiny and editing pen that has removed all mention of Judah's malevolent deeds. They have been the engine behind the creation of the Christian apartheid in this nation.

The American Jewish Committee alone has scores of people and departments working on removing from printed and filmed material any mention of the facts concerning their violent hatred of Christ and Christians, their cruelties, their greed, and their injustices. They loudly cry, "anti-Semitic," "racist" and "bigot" at anyone who dares expose or oppose their programs. Those segments of Christianity who have fallen for and promote this blending of Christ-haters with Christianity are the mothers of all whores.

It is easy to slide into the shoes of a whore because it feels good. It is easy to allow others to dictate what you should preach when there is a monetary reward or ego-satisfying power as bait. A close friend of mine, who is a doctor, told me that doctors and pastors should not allow themselves to be put in the position of god. A lot of preachers today have set themselves up in the position of god, or they have allowed the people to set them up as gods. The people today want a "holy man." He is the man they call on to dictate their lives. They want another god, so they make him into one. Unfortunately, there are plenty of men willing to oblige them. The people want their man-god to be very pious, they do not want him to ever say "phooey" even if his mouth is full of it, and he must have all the answers. The preacher, on the other hand, enjoys the adoration, the homage, and the power. Jeremiah has something to say about this:

"An appalling and horrible thing has happened in the land: the prophets prophesy falsely and the priests rule on their own authority; and My people love it so! But what will you do at the end of it?" (Jeremiah 5:30,31)

Notice how the religious leaders were ruling on their own authority and the people loved it. The prophets and priests were giving the people what they wanted. I have been through some church battles in years gone by and in going through the ranks a little bit, I have observed how the system works. I used to think that the churchgoers wanted the truth. No, they want a nice, cozy little organization (a religious 'country club' CIM), and they are more than happy to have a man, whether they call him "reverend," "pastor," or "preacher," to act as their own little god. They will let this man decide right and wrong for them, draw their boundaries, be a dictator, and have the power of heaven and hell. In one church I observed, the preacher was teaching that salvation was only through his church. He told them they could not be saved outside the body of believers in his church because his church was 'the body of Christ.' Salvation was there and only there.

Some of these concepts are correct, but our concept of the word 'church' is wrong. The body of believers, wherever they may be, is the 'ecclesia,' (more correctly translated as 'self-governing Christian community,' a place where Christians live and work together under God's Laws. Something we should all work towards. Try and move to an area with like-minded people! CIM) However, the people were thinking of "church" as the four walls of their building with people inside. This man had developed the power of heaven and hell over those people. If you did not stay in line, he could see to it that you were disfellowshipped.

These Baal priests tell you what you can do on Wednesday night, what you can do on Sunday night, how many soul-winning groups you can have, how many Scripture verses you must memorize, and all the other activities you should participate in, and do you know what? The people love to have it so! Have you wondered when you ask the average preacher, "What does this mean?" That he dare not say, "I do not know."? Have you ever wondered why a preacher has difficulty saying, "Well, I made a mistake, I was wrong."? He has trouble admitting error because god is supposed to know everything, and he must never be wrong. If he does not know the answer, he will make up one if he wants to retain his god-like status.

The responsibility, or job, of a preacher is different from other jobs. Each of us functions in different areas in the body of Christ because God gave each of us a different gift. The Bible speaks of holding in high esteem those that labor over you:

"But we request of you, brethren, that you appreciate those who diligently labor among you, and have charge over you in the Lord and give you instruction, and that you esteem them very highly in love because of their work. live in peace with one another." (1 Thessalonians 5:12,13)

Notice that it says we are to esteem those who are in a position of laboring for the ecclesia. Paul is talking about those who have charge over the people in the Lord, meaning those who give the people instruction. We are to esteem those workers in love. However, notice the key words are that you esteem them very highly because of their work. You do not esteem them because of their position, but because they are doing the Lord's work among the people. I have no trouble giving high esteem to the doctor whom God has gifted to perform good work with his hands, and I render him due esteem because of that gift. However, I do not render him esteem because he holds the title of doctor. Can you see the difference?

As I close out this section of whoring in the churches, I think of the man who called after hearing this message on tape. He was sincere when he asked, "Well, what does this have to do with salvation, brother Peters?" Unfortunately, many people think that personal salvation is the only message in the Bible. How do you begin with someone who has had a spiritual lobotomy performed on them? How do you teach them that God did not give us this entire Bible just so that we could have our own limited personal salvation? Christians, we are to be the salt of the earth. As the salt, we have a job to do. We are here for a purpose.

By way of illustration, my wife pointed out something from her cookbook. The effect of too much salt causes leavening to be ineffective. In Scripture, leaven symbolically represents evil. "Purge out this leaven that is amongst you," as the Bible says. The point is that we are to be the salt of the earth, and the reason there is a leavening influence of evil in these days is because we have not been functioning as salt. If we, as the salt, had been doing our job, the evil influence of the leaven would not be spoiling the world. There is more to Scripture than our personal salvation. The major portion of Scripture focuses on what God has planned for this earth. It certainly would be safer for me to talk only about salvation, but I tell you there is a God in heaven to whom we must render accountability. For each of us there is always a day of reckoning. It is time we go beyond our personal salvation and find our responsibilities to God and His Kingdom. We cannot render this service if we are a nation of whores!

Fifteen Years on the Front Lines!

by Lt. Col. Gordon "Jack" Mohr, AUS Ret.

Last summer (1995) I celebrated my 15th year in the Kingdom Identity Movement. It has been a time of wonderful fellowship with God's people, and a time of tremendous spiritual enlightenment for me. I have met some of the most wonderful Christian people in the world, and after looking back on sixty years spent in relative spiritual darkness, I would not return to the "weak and beggarly elements" of Judeo-Christianity for anything you could offer me. During these years, I learned an important lesson. That I was not to be a persuader. That is the task of the Holy Spirit. But for some reason unknown to me, and which I can't fathom, God picked an old reprobate rebel like Jack Mohr, and made him a watchman on the walls of Israel-America. It has not always been a pleasant task, for the vast majority of our White Christian people do not want to know, or even hear the unpleasant truth! I also learned that once I had given my people the warning of danger ahead, it immediately became a personal matter between God and them, and He will hold them personally responsible for the truth they have heard, even when they refuse to accept it. Remembering that I am not a prophet nor ever pretended to be one, let's look back over the past fifteen years and see what has happened, and what I have spoken about. (Not what I predicted, but what God's Word said.)

In 1965, long before I received Israel Kingdom truths, I was warning Americans about things I had experienced first-hand under Communism in Korea (tape #M-001, $4). Things I had seen during those terrible days when I was a prisoner of the communists in the fall of 1948 still haunted me, as well as the promise I had made to God when I thought I was about to die at their hands: "God, if you get me back to the people I love, and the country I love, I will do everything in my power to see that the terror that came here, will never invade America". This promise was the drive that kept me busy in the King's service, and has been my driving force ever since.

I began my mission a year after I retired from the Army in September of 1964, from a little trailer nestled on the shores of Lake Hamilton in Hot Springs, Arkansas. For several years I served on the American Opinion Speaker's Bureau of the John Birch Society, and at the same time was a "lay" evangelist for the fundamental Baptists, speaking in some of their largest churches and seminaries. From 1964 to 1980, I criss-crossed the country, speaking in over 3,000 communities and every state but Maine. My message was essentially the same as that of Jesus in Luke 13:3 "Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." It was not a pleasant message and was not received well by many Christians.

Since I began this ministry in 1965, I have seen vicious crimes and murders escalate in the streets of America, which make those of heathen Korea pale by comparison. I have been in the Black "republics" of Africa, and have seen them first-hand. I served four years in Eritrea, Ethiopia, in the Army, (1958-62), and traveled all over eastern and central Africa. Many of these countries were supposed to have been Christianized by missionary activity! (One night on the Trinity Broadcasting System, I heard evangelist Benny Hinn, bragging about the eleven African nations he had "led to the Lord". One of them was Rwanda. Just a few weeks later they began hacking themselves apart with their pangas.)

Today, America is ripe for the same excess of violence we have seen in Bosnia and Rwanda. This is not a prediction, but a probability, brought about for the most part by the refusal of White Christians to obey God's law.

Today, the dangers of a race war that would make Korea look like a Sunday School picnic in comparison looms larger every day, as the minorities in America are being deliberately groomed by our enemies, for the move which they hope will sweep them into power. As early as 1902, the Jewish author Israel Cohen predicted: "We will use the Negroes as cannon fodder to bring us into power!" Today the sad news coming from every gulag in America, (and I am in touch with over 160 of them) seems to be that there is a deliberate attempt by prison authorities to escalate problems between the 80% Black majority and the 20% White minority. From prison after prison the message is the same. Big racial trouble is in the offing.

I said in 1965, and I repeat now: I get furious when I see our nation's leaders, taking us down the same path which will lead to the atrocities I saw in Korea. Only this time, it will be our people who suffer... Unscrupulous leaders, down through history, have often used terror against their own people, in order to control them (beware Howard's stealing the people's guns! CIM). Now we have reached the point where terrorism, either government or otherwise, is out of control and are willing to murder thousands of our people to get their way. But is this so strange?... after what we saw Jewish-led Communism do in Russia and China where they murdered over 140-million of their own people, millions who were Christians.

Now we are confronted by the terror of the Oklahoma City bombing. I can assure you, that in spite of what the media and government investigators may tell you, the Murrah Building was not destroyed by an ammonia nitrate fertilizer bomb. I was a trained demolition expert in WW II, and my first view of the destroyed building on TV showed me that it was an inside bomb that caused the damage. Fertilizer was used in Oklahoma City, all right, but it was not on the Federal Building, but in the media and government handling of the case, where they were knee deep in the "smelly stuff."

When I carried my message of physical and spiritual warning to the church folks of America I was often confronted by those such as one dear old sister who told me: "I believe what you said about the Communists, but I'm saved, you know, and we don't have to worry about the communists, since Jesus will come back and rapture us out of this mess before it gets all that bad!" Talk about being wrapped up in a sheet of self righteousness, that old girl was wrapped up in a shroud! There are millions more like her, who have been sucked in by this Jew-inspired theory, to where they have become foxhole dwellers, instead of "occupying," as the King told them to do. I wonder how many Russian Christians were fooled by this hoax, and then had to stand helplessly by, while their families were brutally slaughtered by Jewish-led Communism? There was no rapture for them! Yet here we have a vivid example of a professing Christian who believes that it is not necessary to become involved, because Jesus will handle the dirty work. He gave them to do! How very sad and tragic!

Today in America, in the face of unparalleled calamity and disaster, the Christian church for the most part has retired into its comfortable, air-conditioned spiritual foxholes while the battle rages for their survival. They hope that Jesus will rescue them from the results of their Christian apathy. Yet a little serious study will show that no rapture is taught in the scriptures, and that it is a Johnny-come-lately teaching that was unknown in the Christian church before 1832. Today, this Satanic doctrine is neutralizing millions of Christians, causing them to turn from being "front line soldiers" of the King, into cowardly "foxhole dwellers", worthless in the fight for right.

As many of you know, I was a member of the John Birch Society in the 1970's, and was on their American Opinion Speaker's Bureau. I resigned in the fall of 1979, after Robert Welch (deceased), head of the Society, and John McManus his "right hand yes man" refused to let me answer questions pertaining to Jews, Judaism, or Zionism during my talks. I felt, quite strongly that if I could not speak the whole truth about such an important issue, my presence was needed elsewhere. Prior to that incident, I never had a quarrel with the Society, for I learned much from them.

In the spring of 1980 something happened which broke up the "hardened Baptist cement", which had accumulated around my mind for almost sixty years. I like to call it the "dynamite of God," for it literally blew my spiritual life apart revealing truths I had never been exposed to before. It woke me to the accumulated falsehood which had been allowed in the church, and for the first time in my life, I could read the Word of God and see what it really said, rather than what my pastor or some church scholar said it said!

For months prior to this incident, common sense made me question the blind allegiance that the Judeo-Christian church paid to the antichrists of Judaism. Yet, when I questioned my pastor or church leaders about the meaning of Christ's words to the Jewish Pharisees in John 10:26, where He said: "Ye believe not; because YE ARE NOT OF MY SHEEP," they had no satisfactory answers. This seemed mighty clear to me! I was told to sit down and shut-up and

"don't rock the boat!" ...or in some cases was accused of standing on the edge of apostasy.

When I asked these scholars how the Jews could be God's Chosen when Christ accused them in Matt. 23: 15 of turning their converts into "two-fold more a child of hell than themselves," they became angry and I was never given an answer. In fact, during the fifteen years I have been in the Kingdom Identity Movement, none of the Baptist preachers who have severely criticized me have ever tried to show me where I was wrong. This ought to speak for itself!

My reasoning was: How can a sincere Christian support an antichrist people, who have over and over again openly declared their hatred of our Lord and have shown by both their words and actions, that their main goal in life is to destroy White Christian civilization. This seemed to be on the verge of committing spiritual suicide!

When Jerry Falwell stated that God had blessed America because we had been good to the Jews, I could see the falsity of this statement. For the time of America's greatest debacle in every area of our society, has come since we recognized that state in the Middle East in 1948. Perhaps our Judeo-Christian pastors need to look at a scripture found in 2 Chron. 19:2, which says "... Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord; therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord".

When you stand up for the Jews, you are doing just that "loving them that hate the Lord." In sixty years in the Judeo-Christian world, I never heard a pastor preach on that verse. I wonder why? Could it be possible that God is punishing us because we are giving aid and comfort to His enemies? That is what His Word says will happen if we do!

That same summer, I began an in-depth study as to why Judaism was without fail - the strongest supporter of Communism, and why their leaders indicated a virulent hatred against Christ and His church, which had to be personally encountered in order to be understood! I wonder why every time I spoke about communism, the media labeled me as anti-semitic, when I had not mentioned Jews, Judaism or Zionism.

I used the Holy Bible as the source of my study, and went to Jewish sources to find out what they said about themselves. I even studied their forbidden holy book, the Babylonian Talmud, which modern Jewish leaders claim is the "the heart blood of Judaism." It is a direct continuation of the "tradition of the Pharisees," who were Christ's most bitter opponents.

As I studied, I began to understand the falsity of Jerry Falwell's statement made to Menachem Begin, the terrorist leader of Israel, when he visited America a number of years ago. Falwell told him: "The fundamental Christians of America will back you Jews in anything you seek to do, since we know you are God's Chosen People." This can be proven false, both from the scripture and from history. Falwell then went on to proclaim that he was "proud to be a Christian Jew." (You can't be both!)

I soon found from study of Jewish authors that Jewish Zionism, the political arm of Judaism, is the worst enemy of the Christian church. Their leaders openly brag about how it was their brains and money that made the Russian revolution a success, and how what they did in Russia, through Jewish-brains and money, they would accomplish in America.

While we are continually mentally harrassed with media hype about the Jewish holocaust, which was supposed to have taken place in Germany during WW II, hardly a word is ever spoken of a much greater holocaust where over 140-million people were murdered by Jewish-controlled Communism - millions of whom were Christians. Yet I never heard a Judeo-Christian pastor mention this,, all the while he cried crocodile tears from his pulpit over the Jews who had been murdered in Germany.

Are our pastors today so naive, or uninformed, that they believe the Jews of today can be traced back to Jacob-Israel? Even Jewish writers refute this falsehood. They admit they are of mixed khazar, Turco-Mongol stock with an admixture of Edom. That these Edomites are hated by God can be seen in Mal. 1:2-4, where we read: "... Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD (Yahweh); yet I loved Jacob, and I hated Esau and laid his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness. Whereas Edom saith, we are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places (what are they doing in Palestine today, if not that?): thus saith the LORD (Yahweh) of hosts, they (the Jews) shall build, and I will throw down; and they (true Israel) shall call them, the border of wickedness, and the people against whom the LORD (Yahweh) hath indignation forever." Do you want to argue with God?

The renowned Jewish author and statesman, Alfred Lilienthal, in his book, What Price Israel?, on page 215 said: "The Jews have intermingled most. Until the middle of the Fifth century, BC intermarriage was a normal phenomenon in Jewish life, and the ensuing proselyting over the globe, brought many different peoples into Judaism of all races." He went on to say: "Here is a paradox, a most ingenious paradox. In anthropological fact, many Christians have more Hebrew-Israelite blood in their veins, than their Jewish neighbors."

I took these facts about Jews and Judaism before my fundamental Baptist pastor. He and I had been close friends, and I had helped him out financially on several occasions, like covering funeral expenses when his youngest son was killed in a car accident. I asked him to sit down with me and let me show him what I had found out during my summer of research. But when he found that it was critical of Jews, he began to scream: "You can't show me anything about the Jews in the Bible or anywhere else, I already know what the Bible says about them." Needless to say, we parted company, and he immediately began a campaign of falsehood against me so that within two weeks, not a Baptist minister in the state of Mississippi, would give me the time of day. Many of these were men I had held Revivals for and considered my friends.

One of the most prominent men in Moral Majority told me: "I can't understand why, after all the support I have given them, the Jews are my worst opponents in this city." This poor, intellectually lazy minister couldn't understand what Jesus meant when He said: "As they (the Jews) have persecuted Me, so will they persecute you." When I asked him why he didn't tell his people the truth about the Jews, he acknowledged that he owed $1.5 million on his church property. He said: "The Jewish bankers hold the bonds, and if I said anything derogatory about them, they would foreclose on me and I'd lose the church buildings." (what did Pete Peters say in the previous article about whores? CIM)

After completing my study in the fall of 1980, I sent a letter to 200 fundamental leaders showing them what I had found. Within a month, 14 week-long revivals I had scheduled for 1981 were cancelled - not because I had changed my preaching, but because I would no longer accept these antichrists as God's Chosen.

Typical of the letters I received are the two following. One came from the Pensacola Christian College, in Florida, and said: "Recently I have received information concerning your position concerning the Jews. (It was the letter I had sent him). Unfortunately, this position is one we most definitely cannot support. Therefore we are going to have to ask you to cancel your fall meeting." SIGNED: A.A. Baker, Vice President.

Another came from Fairhaven Baptist College; Chesterton, Indiana: "I received your letter regarding the Jewish Question. I am going to have to ask you to cancel your meetings scheduled for November 15-20. Although I realize that you would do nothing to embarrass the church or school, if you believe as strongly as it came over in your letter, you are going to preach what you believe to be the truth regardless." SIGNED: Bill Behrens, Vice President. (I had held several successful revivals in this church).

Notice the similarity between these two letters, written by God-fearing pastors. Nothing is said regarding the truth of my findings. Their refusal to have me speak in their church is based wholly on whether I accept the antichrists of Judaism as God's Chosen. Because of my unbending stand, people who were once my friends, now attack me and call me "apostate." This is to be expected of one who follows the King without question.

Can you explain to me how a religion such as Judaism, which is so violently antichrist, could be the source of the Christian religion,, as many of us have been told? Of course you can't! Can you explain why the Apostle Paul warns Christians against Jewish trickery in Titus 1:10-11. Here he calls them: "vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision (Jews) .. who subvert (trick, brainwash) whole houses, teaching things they ought not, for filthy lucre's (money's) sake." In vs 14, he warns Christians not to "give heed to Jewish fables, and commandments (Laws! CIM) of men, that turn from the truth." How can these be God's Chosen, regardless of what Jack Van Impe says to the contrary.

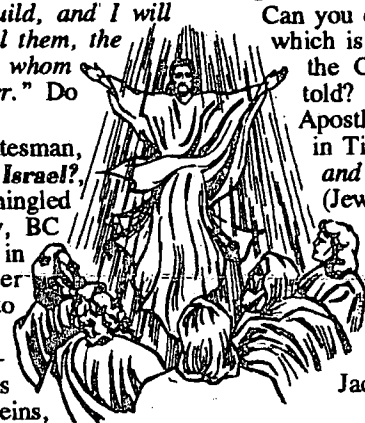

The Apostle John gives us a clear definition of an antichrist in 1 John 2:22-23 when he says that "Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father ... he is antichrist." There are no people anywhere in the world, who are so vehement in their denial of Jesus Christ as the Jews. Then in 2 John 10-11, John tells us how Christians must react toward antichrists. He says very clearly: "If any come unto you, and bring not this doctrine, (that Jesus is the Son of God), receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed (give him no aid or comfort in any way): for he that biddeth him Godspeed is partaker in his evil deeds."

How many of you Christians who support the Jews, will be willing to stand before God and answer for the 2 million unborn babies (US; Aust. about 100,000; CIM) who are murdered every year in mostly Jew-run, Jew-owned abortion clinics? How many of you will be willing to answer for the millions of our youth who have gone to hell (I suggest Sheldon Emry's tapes on "The Burning Hell," CIM) because of pornography, abortion, rock music, dope, alcohol (and TV? CIM) all promoted mainly from Jewish sources? You may not like to think about this, but the Bible says you will be held accountable if you support them!

Ask yourself: Who is it that blasphemes God on the TV shows and in the media? Who has spread lies about Christians who love their God, their people, and their country, and who are willing to place their life on the line because of it? You will find that most of this persecution comes from Jewish sources, such as Morris Dees, from Atlanta, who has made millions turning Christians in to the government for what he calls "hate crimes." Check for yourself and see who owns the media, the TV networks, the Hollywood studios who blaspheme God and harass His people. Almost 100% of these are Jews.

Use your head and think for yourself for a change, without letting your pastor do it for you! I'm not saying that all pastors have been "brainwashed," because that is not true. (I suspect that a number of them are really Jews, CIM) And even some who back the enemy know they are doing wrong, but because of economic and peer pressures, they refuse to tell the truth. God will hold them accountable! But something is definitely wrong with the preaching we hear, for in Jer 23:22, we are told that if the pastors will preach the whole counsel of God, the people will turn from their wicked ways. This hasn't happened, and is a blot on our preaching!

Taking a stand for God and righteousness will always make you enemies, both on the "left" and on the "right." In the Kingdom Courier of September 1988, you can read this statement about me, written by a so-called Identity preacher. It said:

"They (Identity) claim the Jews are the children of the devil (John 8:44; where Christ said to the Jewish leaders: "Ye are of your father the devil") [note: this is the 'seedline' doctrine which CIM does not teach, ask for appropriate tapes to study this subject], but they do not have the intellectual capacity to discern who Saul of Tarsus (the Apostle Paul) is. Then there are the likes of Jack Mohr, the Baptist reject, who authored The Hitler Cult. In my understanding, this 'phony' general is an 'establishment glich' (I wonder how he came up with this Yiddish term - JM) designed to derail the Identity Movement. (You who have known me for fifteen years can laugh over this one! - JM) Beware! We have a wolf in sheep's clothing in our midst!" SIGNED: Dr. H. Graber of the Church of Christ in Israel.

It appears that this diatribe was the result of my publishing a pamphlet, The Hitler Cult, where I had chided those in Identity who had been sucked in by "Neo-Nazi's" deification of Hitler. One of them even calling him "greater than the Holy Ghost." (some even used to go in for baking cakes on 'Hitler's birthday', CIM) I received a number of hate letters over this, plus one threat that they were sending an "elimination squad" to Mississippi to "wipe me out as a race traitor." Here is another I received in April 1986:

"I have your little flyer, The Hitler Cult. You must be getting your information from either the ADL or the JDL. Let's look at Jack (me) and see. 25 years in the service of ZOG (he says so in his book). [Is every serviceman a flunky of the Jews, just because our government sent us into several wars fought exclusively for the benefit of the International Jews? I didn't know it at the time, and neither did a great majority of the men who fought and died, believing they were serving the American people. - JM] Who's horn will he be blowing! It's not hard to figure out! " [I'd be willing to bet that this character never served in the Armed Forces for any reason: very probably cowardice! And he is blaspheming every man who died for our country since 1918. -JM] SIGNED: Glen Nowlin.

In 1988, after I had spoken at the Aryan Nations Conference at Hayden Lake, Idaho, - disregarding the warning of a number of people in Identity that this would place me with the "extremists," - I went because some in the AN said: "Brother Mohr, we need your Christian emphasis in our meeting!" Like Paul, and his vision of the man from Macedonia, I went. The theme of my message was that "Obedience to God must Come Before we Can Have Victory!" I received this 'gem' from a Don Zinn of the Elijah Foundation:

"I understand you gave a brilliant speech at the Conference. So you still have credibility as a champion of our cause, on the one hand, while those who invited you to speak offer the poison from the other side of your character, for a nominal fee of course. [I did not even receive traveling expenses - JM]. this makes as much sense as paying heed to the ADL's blacklist of its most hated enemies, which is put forth to enhance the credibility of its agents." [I had been on that list the previous year. -JM]

As if to back up such types as Zinn, the ADL in their Special Civil Rights Edition, October 1990, under the title: GORDON "JACK" MOHR, OFFICER AND "HATE MONGER" said:

"For many years Mohr has been a strident promoter of antisemitism, anti-Zionism and White Supremacy. [Those who know me and have read my books know this is a lie!] At Hayden Lake, Idaho, in July 1988, he said: "There's a false Israel in the world today ... those who say they are Jews, and are not, but are of the Synagogue of Satan." [The ADL is careful not to tell you that this saying is not original with me, but are the words of our risen Christ as he spoke to the Apostle John on the isle of Patmos in Rev. 2:9 and 3:9].

They quote me in Feb 1988 as having said: "Do you suppose God had a reason for banning interracial marriage?" But they did not bother to show how I had proved this from the Bible and history! Then they quote me truthfully as saying that in my quarterly, The Christian Patriot Crusader of Sept 1989, (now published by pastor James Bruggeman under the title Kingdom Journal) I said: "There are probably no other people on the world today who could be so successful in pulling off a gigantic hoax such as the Holocaust. They have milked the Christian world for hundreds of billions of dollars over the years." (I have never denied that Jews died in Nazi concentration camps, but that the figure of six million deaths is grossly exaggerated as Jewish census figures for those years show there were never more than 3.7 million Jews in all the territory occupied by the Nazis (Jewish maths: take 3.7 million, subtract 6 million dead, and the answer comes to over 4 million 'survivors' who are claiming "reparations" - CIM). Furthermore, hundreds of thousands of them escaped, mostly to the United States, where they have been for the most part an albatross around the neck of the American people") (This is not allowing for the thousands who were in Poland in 1945 and set up the Office of State Security which was responsible for the atrocities, torture and brutal murder of between 60 to 80,000 Germans, as described by Jewish author John Sack in his well-researched and documented book An Eye For An Eye, © in 1993, and published by Basic Books, a division of Harper Collins Publishers, Inc. CIM)

In the June 1989 issue of the Crusader, they accuse me of taking the "Conspiracy Theory to hysterical heights" by stating: "... Socialism is Jewish! National Socialism is Jewish! Communism is Jewish! It is all part and parcel of the Zionist plot to control the world, which is clearly taught in their Talmud." If this statement is not true, then why do Jewish authorities openly admit that their goal is "world wide domination, and the destruction of White Christian civilization?"

In the summer of 1984 I was scheduled for a three-week lecture tour in British Columbia under the sponsorship of the Canadian League of Rights. It began rather auspiciously when the Canadian Border Patrol confiscated a Ford vanload of books and tapes valued at over $5,000 under a Jewish accusation coming from Ontario, that these were "hate literature." I never received any of these back. From the beginning of my tour in British Columbia, I was harassed at every meeting by combinations of the Jewish Congress, the Communist League, and the United Church of Canada. They made life miserable for us at every stop and on several instances brow beat motels into cancelling our reservations at the last minute. In Vancouver, we were met by a mob of mostly non-Canadians, led by the number one Communist in Canada, who exhorted them over a bull-horn. It was only good police action that kept them from halting the meeting.

Maurice Silberberg, executive director of the Canadian Jewish Congress, was allowed into the meeting. He was quoted in the Vancouver Sun, Tuesday Aug. 7, 1984, as saying: "Mohr is a specialist in twisting antisemitism into a patriotic duty. He did it, and he did it well, and he did it with the blessings of the Canadian League of Rights. (Of course, he did not explain to Sun readers, that 90% of those who call themselves Jews are not Semites at all, but come

We appreciate very much those who have called in and visited with us over the last few months! Come again! from a Turco-Mongolian background and their ancestors never set foot in ancient Palestine. These are the Ashkenazi Jews).

They quoted from one of my pamphlets, The Brainwashing of Christendom (available from CIM), which was the speech I delivered at the International League of Rights conference in Calgary, Canada, in October 1983: "White Christian nations, those known as Christendom, especially the English-speaking nations, are under a vicious mental attack which threatens White Christian civilization and the White race. These are the only people in the world who have openly accepted the teachings of Jesus Christ."

Silberberg, like the "neo-Nazi" Dr. Graber, called me a "wolf in sheep's clothing," because of the way I preached what he called 'racism,' in the guise of Christianity. Nothing was said in the Sun, of course, about Silberberg's open hatred of Christ and Christians.

Most Judeo-Christians believe that Jews follow the Old Testament teachings of Moses, but Jesus exploded this argument in John 5:46 when He said: "If ye had believed Moses, Ye would have believed Me: for he wrote of me." Listen to this quote from the lips of the prestigious Rabbi Emil Hirsch:

"They tell you Moses never lived! I acquiesce (agree)! If they tell me that the stories that came from Egypt are mythology, I will not protest, for it is mythology!" [not according to the chariot wheels and bones found by Ron Wyatt and Jonathan Gray on the bottom of the gulf of Aqaba, they are not mythical! CIM]

Yet in spite of declarations by Jewish leaders, and the testimony of Christ Himself in John 10:26 (previously quoted), the pastors in Judeo-Christianity have been so sloshed around in Jewish mind-detergent, (a mixture made up of an ounce of fact dissolved in a gallon of hogwash), that they believe the Jews follow the Old Testament. Yet Jewish leaders are quick to point out that their holy book is not the Books of Moses, but the ungodly Babylonian Talmud, which Jesus called the "tradition of the elders." In Matthew 15:9 He said: "In vain do ye (Jews) worship Me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men" (pushing man-made law, like today? CIM). The same thing is true in many Judeo-Christian churches where "traditions and church doctrine" take precedence over the Word of God (and where the people are misled by the preachers' misuse of Romans 13, to teach for doctrine the commandments of men, i.e. "obey the government." CIM)

Dr Joseph Kastin, an eminent Jewish religious authority, says regarding Jewish history (they should really call it Israelite history since no people called "Jews" were ever in Egyptian captivity): "The Egyptian captivity, the slaying of the first-born, the exodus from Egypt, and the conquest of Canaan, [all carried out by Israelites - not Jews, JM], are all myths." He goes on to say that this "ancient history was invented by Hebrew priests, and the messages of vengeance against the 'goy' [Yiddish for 'non-Jew animals' JM] (actually from the Hebrew - for "nations" CIM), were for the purpose of affecting their dealings with the Gentiles forever.

An enlightening look into Judaism can be found in the book Jews Must Live! written by Jewish author Samuel Roth in 1934. Here is what he says about his own people:

"Our major vice of old, as of today, is parasitism. We are a people of vultures, living off the labor and good nature of the rest of the world. But despite all our faults, we would never have done so much damage in the world, if it had not been for the genius of our evil leadership ... The shame of Jewry comes not from its being the "bankers" and "old clothemen" of the world. It comes rather from the stupendous hypocrisy and cruelty imposed by us through our fatal leadership."

"Read for yourselves the progress of Jewry throughout Europe and America. Wherever Jews come, they are welcomed and join in the general business of the community. But one by one, the businesses close to them because of their unfair practices ... until it is impossible to longer hold in check the wrath of a betrayed people. There is violence and invariably an ignominious rejection of the whole race from the land. There is not a single instance when Jews have not fully deserved the bitter fruits of their persecutors."

[The following is a partial record of the countries and dates of the Jews' expulsion from various European countries:

"Our disease is a sort of moral gonorrhea known as Judaism, and it seems incurable. The results... are invariably, treacherous and unhealthy."

"If you are in doubt, take a look at any Jew-ridden country in Europe. Then, if you need further convincing, take a look at what is happening in America."

[Remember, this book was written 50 years ago, JM].

"It is my belief that nothing the Jew does in America, is essential for its welfare! On the contrary, a great deal of what the American Jew does is subversive of America's best interests." (unq. Jews Must Live!)

Contrast these truthful confessions of a Jew with the moral and spiritual "pabulum" dispensed by such men as Baptist Evangelist Jack Van Impe, who claims all the Jewish persecution comes because Satan hates them as God's Chosen! Before this country comes to an ignominious end, even the pro-Jewish, Judeo-Christian leaders will be forced to admit that Roth was right in his evaluation of the Jewish people, and that they are indeed the worst enemies of Christ and His church. The sad thing is, it will be too late then, for the antichrists will be in charge, and those the Judeo-Christians attempted to help, will be the ones who destroy them. Christians cannot support both Christ and the antichrist, and the time is close at hand when they will be forced to make a decision!

What will change this condition of "fear" and "chaos" which today is sapping the strength of Christians, to where they have become "savorless salt?" Salt that has lost its ability to hold back corruption is worthless and good only for the garbage heap. What is needed to bring to the front White Christian leaders of moral and spiritual strength and righteousness, who will lead millions of our people back in obedience to our God and to victory over the forces of evil which now control us? It will come, my Christian friend, when Christian leaders have the "intestinal fortitude," we used to call it 'guts,' to "preach the whole counsel of god's Word," not just that part which makes their people feel good and puts money in the collection plate!

If fingers are to be pointed, and names named - and they need to be - then our spiritual leaders must be indicted first, for if our people had been given the truth for the past fifty years, we would not be under Jewish domination today. If our people were made to understand the truth, that they were to be the 'light bearers' to a lost world; the thing which made us a great country in the first place. If we had been taught God's truth about our people, then the truth of 1 Peter 2:9 would have been made known to our White Israel people: "For ye are a chosen generation (bloodline), a royal priesthood, an holy (set aside for a special purpose) nation, (notice that it is a 'nation' not a 'church' as we have been taught), a peculiar (Strong's: eis peripoiesis - for acquisition) people..." This is our calling!

The last of this marvellous verse shows the reason we exist: "That ye (true Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Germanic-Scandinavian & kindred - ISRAEL) should show forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness, into His marvelous light!"

This is our Israel heritage; our blood line to Abraham, the "friend of God," the heritage that the fake "Jews" of the "synagogue of Satan" (Rev 2:9 & 3:9) would wrest from us if we let them. We must remember, though, that the Jew and alien who have been "thorns in our side" are not the cause of our problems; they are the effect of our disobedience to God. (study Deut 28 and find out for yourself - 2nd witness Lev 26). If you are a complacent Christian who is content to sit in your comfortable, air-conditioned spiritual foxhole while the battle for righteousness rages outside, you need to look in the mirror, for you will be looking at the problem!

As I enter my sixteenth year in the Kingdom Movement, I have now become octogenarian on 1/1/96. This old chassis has had many hard miles on it, and has developed many "squeaks and rattles," until at times I have thought it was ready for the "junk heap." But for some reason unknown to me, it appears that the King has called me back into "active duty," after sitting on the side-lines for almost two years. I'm "back in the saddle again" and praising God for it everyday! (pray for Brother Jack to be able to continue! CIM)

We have a "Formula for Survival" which will work. We know it will, for God has said so! In 2-Chronicles 7:14, we read this promise: "If My people, which are called by My Name (Christian), will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways (repentance); then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." But we must remember, before our prayers can be heard, we must be in a right relationship with God. We cannot expect Him to listen to us, if we are disobedient! Our "Formula for Survival" will work when White Christians in particular once more turn to our God in obedience and repentance, and only then will He heal our land, and forgive our sin. May Yahweh God, the God of our Israel fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob give you courage and strength, so that we, His people, may survive to carry out His plans.

THE CHILDREN'S AND FAMILY HAVEN OF DALEEN JOUBERT.

by Jaap Versfeld.

The commendable Daleen Joubert Children's and Family Haven (shelter), on May 11th of this year, held a special promotion music concert to enable their work to carry on. The concert was held at the Kruinsig primary school, in Glen Marais, Kempton Park, South Africa.

Daleen Joubert began the Haven for children, and extended it to include families, back in 1993 to help kinsfolk who were made homeless by having their birthright given to an alien folk. South Africa's affirmative action laws are designed to strip the descendants of those who built the land of their God-given birthright, in a system of legalised national theft. The outcome of all this is that great numbers of Israeli South Africans have no work, no home. In a land where there is no dole (not for whites anyway), the effects hit frightfully hard.

Daleen's plan was to help her brothers and sisters of the flesh (as the Apostle Paul puts it) by offering them shelter and to give them strength to find a place again in the world. The task is by no means an easy one and is a daily struggle. At the last tally there were 15 children and 13 adults using the shelter, needing to be fed, clothed, and educated. The haven cannot ask the state for funds lest it be forced to yield to the melting pot extremist conditions set by the state. To do so would end the aim of helping fellow Israelites. Other shelters taking state hand-outs such as the Louis Botha Children's House is typical of melting-pot favouritism.

The first thing one is taught at the haven is to stand on ones own two feet through self-employment. Although those seeking shelter are basically refugees in their own land, they are treated here as dwellers, thereby giving them some respectable status. Dwellers of course, then look after and clean their living-quarters as they would do at home. Adults are expected to work 4 hours a day for the benefit of the Haven. The women carry out needle work to make wares to be sold at market stalls. The money raised helps to cover some of the Haven's costs. The men and boys tend to the greens patch to grow vegetables and greens for the Haven. The organization has recently been given permission to use a neighboring block of land to start a car repair workshop. The workshop is run by a Ben Gouws who is training 2 assistants for full-time work. All workers of course are Israelite kinsmen. His team will also carry out panel beating and upholstery work for the Pretoria area.

For now the Haven hires the land it uses, but its limited size does not allow for the badly needed growth. It is hoped that a larger block may be found which can be rented, with maybe a view to buying at a later date. The haven has been given help in the way of extra land to the size of one hectare, which can be used until needed for development by Kleinfontein Developments. It seems that not all churches are bad. The Afrikaans Protestant Church of the Pretoria east congregation supports the Haven with monthly gifts of R450 (about $140 Aust) to boost the Haven's small income. They seem to understand that the food for the 'children' must not be given to 'dogs.'

May the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob bless such a church; and all those who help a brother or sister in need. To help a 'dog' in preference is to be worse than an infidel,

The Biblical Truth About

By Pastor John Weaver

"The biblical doctrine of vengeance" is a phrase that sounds exceedingly strange to our ears, yet it is taught throughout the Word of God - very clearly and definitely. When we think of vengeance, we most often think of the perverted and wicked revenge that proceeds from our own sinful hearts. Vengeance, however, is not only closely related to God's righteousness and judgment, it is also a corollary to salvation. Just as it is impossible to have righteousness and justice without vengeance, so it is impossible to have salvation without vengeance.

Heretical Baptism

by R.J. Rushdoony

By the third century AD, baptism had become a subject of bitter controversy, and yet, curiously enough, both sides were commonly intensely orthodox in their intentions. The main area of dissent was over baptizers: could one hold that baptism by a heretical clergyman was valid? Should children be baptized by a man who was later revealed to be a heretic be rebaptized? On what did the validity of baptism depend?

Tertullian dealt with this issue in On Baptism, ch.15. Heretics have no true fellowship with us, he stated, and we do not have the same God nor the same Christ. Because their baptism seems the same as ours does not make it valid, because it is not the same.

The Roman bishop, Stephen (253-257) took the opposite view. For him, baptisms by heretics were valid if they were in the name of Jesus Christ, or, in the name of the Trinity. Cyprian took a similar view, while not sacramental in his doctrine as was Stephen. Protestants have mainly taken the same view, that baptism does not depend on the man performing it but on the validity of the act, i.e., in the name of God (Matt 28:19). The Baptists have denied the validity of any other form of baptism than immersion. For most Baptists also, baptism is not, as with some, a regenerating ordinance but rather a sign that regeneration or conversion has already taken place, and baptism is a public witness to that fact.

Since some churches, including Protestant bodies, have held to baptismal regeneration, this Baptist position has had an obvious strength. Of its weakness, we will see more later.

The view of Tertullian had a serious weakness and fallacy, because the validity of baptism was made to depend upon a man, a clergyman, and not God. The implications were serious. If church rites, ceremonies, or ordinances could be invalidated if the man performing them were later shown to be a heretic, then marriages performed by such a clergyman were invalid; also, and the children born thereof were bastards! To make the validity depend on man was to undercut God's work. It was one thing for an avowed heretic, for example, to perform a service with pagan forms and meaning, another for the service to be held in orthodox fashion. Who could know the mind of the man presiding at baptism, communion, or at a wedding? And who is efficacious here, God or man?

As a result, in virtually all circles, the validity of ordinances rests on God, and the faithful use of Biblical and Godly forms. This whole issue is important now precisely because theological ignorance has led to a serious loss of awareness and discernment.

Another area of unclear thinking has had to do with baptism and salvation. Who regenerates man? The answer is obvious: God does. Does the person regenerated have to be old enough to understand, or can God regenerate us as little children? Obviously, God can do anything. If God's election can be evident in a child, what does baptism signify? Some hold to baptismal regeneration, others to regeneration as preceding baptism. But baptism has been seen also as giving a child or one's mature self to the Lord and invoking His reign in one's life. Infant baptism is then a surrender of the child to God. Hannah took the little boy Samuel to Eli, saying, this child was given to me by the Lord; as long as he lives, he shall be given to the Lord (1 Sam 1:28). We are God's property, His possession, and, in baptism we give our children and ourselves to the Lord. We are not our own: we are the Lord's, and, in baptism, we acknowledge His ownership of ourselves and of our children. In giving ourselves to the Lord, we give Him all that we have and are, so that we are now committed to His use and service.

We are no longer our own possession but the Lord's, and this means that baptism covers us, our children, our house, farm, or business, because we cannot surrender our lives and withhold anything else.

The church's earliest baptismal confession, the ancient records indicate, was taken from Phillipians 2:9-11, "Jesus Christ is Lord." A lord, sovereign, or God, for such is the meaning of kurios, is total owner and controller of us, and baptism means that god is now our Lord, our owner. Nothing can be withheld from Him.

Disagreements over the form and age of baptism have obscured its lordship connotation. To be baptized means that we are not our own, for we have been bought with a price (1 Cor 6:19,20).

We have too long stressed the forms and forgotten that baptism testifies to our ownership by the Lord Jesus Christy. The greatest heresy is to overlook His ownership. ■

SHOULD CHRISTIANS SUPPORT A WOMAN FOR THE OFFICE OF CIVIL MAGISTRATE?

By William Einwechter

Recently in Pennsylvania we had a woman seeking the office of governor. Due to her conservative stand on the issues and her definite opposition to abortion, many Christians enthusiastically supported her candidacy. But not all Christians were so confident that they should back a woman for the position of Governor. I myself was asked numerous times what I thought about her and whether I thought believers ought to support a woman for the office of civil magistrate. This brief essay is my response to this question.

First, we need to agree that this question can be answered only from the Scripture. Mere human opinion or reason is not sufficient for the Christian. The Word of God is the only infallible standard for directing us into the paths of righteousness; only the Bible has the power to equip us for every good work (2 Tim 3:15-17). The duty of every true follower of Jesus Christ is to obey His commandments (Jn 14:15), and, in fact, the sign that we are really His disciples is that we continue in obedience to His Word (Jn 8:31; 1 Jn 2:3-5). So then, if we are to be faithful to Christ, we must search the Scriptures to see what the Lord says in regard to the acceptability of Christians supporting a woman for the office of civil magistrate. [Christian patriots, take NOTE! of this in relation to voting for women candidates in elections. Study this and act accordingly! CIM.]

Second, we must make it crystal clear that the issue here is not the character or ability of the woman seeking office; nor is it her spiritual condition, her views on the issues, or even if she is the "best" available candidate. The point in question is this: Does the Word of God give us the liberty to place a woman into a political office where she will in some sense bear rule over us in the civil sphere? or, to state it more precisely, Is it biblically proper for a woman to hold political office and thus rule over men? Has God ordained women to be civil leaders, or has He reserved this authority for men only?

I believe that the Bible gives a clear and definite answer to this question: women are not permitted by God to hold political office and rule over men in the political sphere. There are four well-marked lines of evidence in the Bible that establish that women are not to hold political office. I will set forth the Biblical evidence which prohibits a woman from bearing rule; then I will deal with the example of Deborah which is often cited as proof that it is permissible for a woman to hold public office.

The Biblical Doctrine of the Headship of Man Disqualifies a woman for Civil Office

The Scriptural revelation of the creation of man and woman, and the Scriptural commentary on their creation, establish the headship of the man over the woman. Gen. 2:7 and 2:18-24 teach that man was made first, and the woman was made to be the man's helper and companion. The Bible instructs us that this order of creation was by God's design and that it establishes the positional priority of the man over the woman in regard to authority and leadership. In setting forth the authority of the man over the woman in terms of the local church, Paul appeals to the creation order saying: "For Adam was formed first, then Eve"

(1 Tim. 2:13). In another passage Paul states what the divinely ordained order of authority and headship is: "But I would have you to know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God" (1 Cor 11:3). Therefore, Paul teaches that God had decreed that the order of authority be as follows: God-Christ-Man-Woman. Each one in this "chain of command" is under the headship over the woman. He says, "For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man. Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man" (1 Cor 11:8-9). The Bible explicitly states that the man has headship over the woman, and that this headship is not based on cultural factors, or even the Fall; it is based on the created order established by God Himself.

Now, it is also plain in the Bible that God has ordained the order of the headship of man be maintained in each institution set up by God. There are three primary institutions established by the Lord for the ordering of human affairs. These are the family, the church, and the state. Each of these institutions has authority to govern within its appointed sphere. We could say, then, that there are three "governments" in the world: family government, church government, and state government. In each of these governments God has commanded that men bear rule. The man has headship in the family (Eph 5:22-24), the church (1 Tim 2:11-14; 1 Cor 14:34-35), and also by clear implication and command, in the state as well (1 Cor 11:3; Ex 18:21; also see the second below). Could it be that the man has headship only in the family and church but not in the state? No, this could not be, lest one make God the author of confusion, and have Him violate in the state the very order He established at creation and revealed in Holy Scripture! If one is going to argue for the acceptability of women bearing rule in the civil sphere, then to be consistent, he also needs to argue for the acceptability of women bearing rule in the family and church. Now it is true that some attempt to do just that; but their denial of male headship for the family, church, and state is really a rejection of the Word of God and a repudiation of God's created order.

The Biblical Qualifications for Civil Office Require Civil Leaders to Be Men

Every time the Scripture speaks to the subject of the necessary qualifications for those who will rule in the civil sphere, it always speaks in terms of men and never in terms of women. This is significant, and based on the point above, it is not hard to understand. The consistent assumption of Scripture is that men are to be the civil magistrates; and as we have seen, this is not based on culture but on created order. Since God is both Creator and Lawgiver, there is never any contradiction between the created order and the Law of God. And as creation establishes the headship of the man in the civil sphere by means of man being created first and the woman being created for the man, so the law of God sets up the headship of man in the civil sphere by means of the stated qualifications for civil rulers.

God set forth the necessary qualifications for civil magistrates for all people and all time when He spoke through Jethro to Moses: "Moreover, thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers..." (Ex 18:21). And Moses himself said to the people as they were about to choose their civil magistrates, "Take you wise men, and understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you" (Deut 1:13). Importantly, the word for "men" chosen by the Holy Spirit in both of these texts is the Hebrew word for man, i.e. a male as opposed to a female. Furthermore, the directions that God gives concerning the establishment of a king in Israel require that a man, and not a woman, be chosen (Deut 17:14-20). The king was to be a "brother," and he was not to "multiply wives to himself!" Clearly a man is in view. The Law of God commands us, therefore, to choose men to be our rulers! Likewise, in every other passage dealing with the civil magistrate and his qualifications and duties, men are in view (2 Sam 23:3; Neh 7:2; Prov 16:10; 20:8, 28; 29:14; 31:4-5; Rom 13:1-6; etc).

Therefore, the standard of God's law fully upholds the order of creation. God has spoken to us in His Word, and there He commands us to set men and not women into positions of civil authority. To consider these texts (Ex 18:21; Deut 1:13; 17:14-20) in regard to what they say about setting men in civil office as being irrelevant, would logically require us to consider the other qualifications listed as being unnecessary as well. The rejection of these Scriptures would leave us with no Biblical standard for citizens in choosing their rulers. This may suit some, but for those who love the Law of God, it is foolishness of the highest degree.

The Biblical Picture of a Virtuous Woman is against a Woman Holding Civil Office

In Proverbs 31:10-31 we are given the Biblical picture of a woman who fears God and walks in His will. The passage begins with the question: "Who can find a virtuous woman?" The question implies that such a woman is rare and to be highly valued, just like rubies. The description of the virtuous woman shows her to be an industrious, loving woman who who devotes herself to the well-being of her husband and children. The center of her interest and the place of her ministry is her home. God has called her to be a "keeper at home" (Titus 2:5), and she willingly and joyfully fulfills her calling to the great blessing of all who depend on her piety, wisdom, and homemaking skills.

Of great importance to the issue before us are these words concerning her husband: "Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land" (Prov 21:23). the "gates" in Old Testament times referred to the place where the leaders of the city (i.e. "the elders of the land") would gather to discuss community affairs, administer civil law, and judge in criminal and civil cases. The 'gates' therefore, is a reference to the 'city hall' the 'capitol building,' or in short, to the seat of civil government. The key for us to note is that in the case of the virtuous woman it is her husband who is active in the gates; the virtuous woman is not herself seated in the gates - she is active in her home. Again, this should not surprise us, for the order of creation and the Law of God have already established the fact that men are to bear rule in civil government. The virtuous woman understands this and takes the vital place that God has assigned her in the home and with her family.

However, we need to note that the virtuous woman's works are praised in the gates (Prov 31:31). Her works are not in the gates; but they are to be praised in the gates; that is, those who are leaders in the community ought to recognize the great work that she is doing in support of the community by faithfully fulfilling her duties as a wife and mother (1 Tim 2:15; 5:10,14; Titus 2:2-5). [She is busy raising her family, and homeshooling them to the glory of God, and the furthering of His Kingdom! She is not one to put off having children to further her own career! CIM] This is her great work for the Lord. It is of the utmost importance!

Furthermore, it should be noted that the virtuous woman does make her presence felt in community concerns. But it is through the cooperation and consultation that she has with her husband and the influence on her children that her wisdom and knowledge help to direct the affairs of the community. Yes, it is the husband who sits in the gates, but his renown and ability as a magistrate are due, at least in part, to her help and support. Yes, it is the husband who in accordance with 1 Tim 3:4-5, is the person fit to speak and judge in the gates, and his godly and wise wife acts as his counsellor.

Let no one speak lightly or disparagingly of the woman's appointed role, and her service to Christ and His Kingdom - see 1 Tim 2:15! And let no woman set aside the example of the virtuous woman and seek to sit in the gates with the rulers of the land. AND LET NO CHRISTIAN HAVE ANY PART IN PUTTING HER THERE!!

The Biblical Lament that "Women Rule Over Them" Confirms the Error of a Woman Holding Civil Office

In Isaiah 3:12 the prophet, as the representative of the Lord, laments the condition of the covenant nation, saying: "As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them ..." There is some debate as to the precise meaning of this verse. Some would contend that actual children and women were ruling, while many would see this verse teaching that those who were in authority were completely unqualified for such a position - as we have today - as unqualified as women and children.

Whatever the exact denotation is here, one thing is clear: women ruling over men in any sphere, but particularly in the civil sphere, is put in the most unfavourable light possible. The fact that Israel has women reigning over them is seen to be the result of sin and a part of God's retributive justice; it is certainly not considered a blessing in this text! The most likely interpretation is that Israel has weak and incompetent leaders (perhaps too young and inexperienced, CIM) (cf., Isa-

3:4; Ecc 10:16) who are being controlled by women (unable to rule even their own house? CIM). Now if it is a sign of weakness for men who are civil rulers to be ruled by women, what is it but a sign of feebleness on the part of men actually to seek to have women rule over them? It is weakness because it is an abdication of their responsibility to be the leaders God has called them to be. No people ought to rejoice in women rulers, for this situation is a sign of confusion and judgment. It is also a sign that the men have utterly failed to exercise the leadership required of them.

The Biblical Account of Deborah Does Not Imply that Women Should Hold Civil Office

Those who believe that it is biblically permissible for women to hold civil office look to the account of Deborah (Judg 4:1-5:31) for their main support. They must hope for support for their view in this account because there is surely no explicit teaching anywhere in the Bible that establishes the position that women should bear rule in the civil sphere. But does the account of Deborah in the book of Judges really support their view? I believe that it does not, and I will seek to show that the example of Deborah is certainly not of sufficient weight to overthrow the four-fold cord of evidence that has been weaved above.

First of all, it would be very unwise to cancel out the Biblical teaching on the headship of man, the clear statements of the law, the picture of the virtuous woman, and the lament over women ruling, on the basis of what took place in Israel in admittedly the most confused period in Israel's history. We must remember the admonition of the Westminster Confession of Faith: "The infallible rule of interpretation of Scripture is the Scripture itself: And therefore, when there is a question about the true and full sense of any Scripture (which is not manifold, but one), it must be searched and known by other places that speak more clearly." We contend that the Biblical teaching presented above speaks far more clearly to the issue of women magistrates than does the account of Deborah. It is a serious hermeneutical mistake to use the account of Deborah as the standard Biblical text for determining the propriety of women rulers.

Second, the judges during this period were more military leaders or "avenging deliverers" than they were civil magistrates (cf., Judg 2:16-19). Because of this we must ask ourselves if we can even consider Deborah to be a "judge" in the same sense as the other judges in the book. The account of Deborah is unique in that she did not lead Israel into battle herself (as did the other judges in the book); rather, the Lord chose Barak to be the military commander. Would it not be more accurate to say that Barak was the true "judge" here (cf., Heb. 11:32 where Barak alone is mentioned) and that Deborah's role was that of a "prophetess" who gave divine guidance to Israel?

Third, the Song of Deborah and Barak gives some important insight into Deborah's actual position in Israel (Jud 5:1-31). In verse 7 she claims to be a "mother" in Israel, not a father. Additionally, verse 9 indicates that there were yet "governors" (lit. lawgivers, or leaders) in Israel. This would refer to the elders of the people and the rulers of the tribes. This further supports the idea that the judge was not a civil magistrate in the usual sense, but rather a military leader and deliverer. Also, in verse 12 of the song, Deborah is exhorted to awake and sing, but Barak is exhorted to arise and "lead," indicating that Barak is the military leader. Additionally, the "dominion over the mighty" in verse 13 is either a reference to Israel's victory over Sisera and the Canaanites, or to the gathering of the people to go up to battle. Whichever it is, it does not mean that God has appointed Deborah to the position of civil magistrate.

There is no question that Deborah was a great and godly woman who had considerable influence in Israel. But in the light of evidence, it is highly questionable to build a doctrine of women rulers from the case of Deborah. Deborah's role in Israel was that of a "prophetess" and not that of a civil ruler or military leader. The text does not support the idea that she was a civil magistrate. She judged Israel (Judg 4:4) only in the sense that she was sought out by the people for advice and judgment because of her wisdom from God. Perhaps the priests of the Lord were so corrupt that the people had to seek wisdom from this godly woman. But let us not seek in Deborah a doctrine of women rulers, and thereby become guilty of setting aside the definite precepts and commandments of God which forbid women magistrates (or politicians).

Conclusion

In view of the Biblical evidence presented above it can only be concluded that women ought not to be civil leaders; only men have been called of God to exercise rule in the civil sphere. For those who believe in the full inspiration and authority of the Bible, how can there be any other verdict than this? To assert that it is permissible for a woman to hold civil office and that Christians have the liberty to support a woman for the position of civil magistrate means that one has to deny the biblical teaching on the headship of man; that one has to reject the qualifications for civil rulers set down in the Law of God; that one has to ignore the Biblical picture of the virtuous woman; and that one must close his ears to the lament of women ruling over men. Also, it has been shown that Deborah does not give sufficient evidence to overturn the Biblical doctrine that men ALONE are called of God to the office of Civil magistrate.

Therefore, Christians MUST NOT support a woman for the office of civil ruler. It is imperative that Christians labour to restore God's order for the family, the church, and the state. If we violate God's order in any way or in any sphere, we will have confusion and will invite GOD'S JUDGMENT on us; God forbid that we would be so foolish. ☐

So take note, you new political groups: do not field any women candidates; and you CHRISTIAN voters, do not vote for any woman, no matter how much better she may be than her opponent. Vote right, or not at all - but don't vote for the lesser of two evils, because that is still a vote for evil. Remember that the state of the nation today was brought about not by Jews and bankers and UN treaties, but by God Almighty as a punishment on His Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Germanic Israel people because of our disobedience and transgression of His Law. Many people have quoted 2 Chron 7:14 as the answer. But first you must read vs 13, to see that it is God who brings the punishment! Only a turning to Him in repentance will alleviate our captivity!

Hoskins Report

Bits and pieces

INDIANS: "Dear Mr Hoskins; This month's issue of "Beautiful BC" contained something that may interest you-an 1860s picture of some BC Indians. The Indians in the picture had primitive features, considerably different from today's Indians. That may explain why we are having so much trouble with the Indians today. The Israelites broke God's Law and intermarried with them. Now they have the get-up-and-go to become politically active, and are pushing for all they can get. Once again we are paying for our sins." R.K. - Canada.

WHITE OFFICERS ORGANIZE: Sgt Kirste with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department has organized the Association of White Male Peace Officers whose goals are to protect the rights of white male law-enforcement officers. Sgt Kirste undertook the organization after the Black, Asian and Female peace officers had formed their own organizations. The White group came under immediate criticism from racist minority groups.

SEL-ESTEEM: "An American Association of University Women's study done a few years ago showed adolescent girls are suffering from a near-terminal meltdown of their self-esteem. White high school girls came in at the bottom, followed by white teen-age boys, then African-American girls. The highest scores were posted by African-American boys," (4/14 H. Times) The self-esteem scores were roughly the reverse of those groups' actual achievement measurements. In international comparisons, American students have the highest perception of their abilities-and the lowest scores. Murderers, rapists, and terrorists often have qualities associated with high self-esteem - 'egotism,' 'arrogance,' 'conceit,' and 'narcissism.'" Calvary Contender, 1800 Sparkman Dr., Huntsville, AL 35816 USA.

TERRORISM: "President Clinton can maybe fool some, but not all. We know that the Government of America has been, and continues to foment TERRORISM HERE IN AMERICA and around the world! Who precipitated the Randy Weaver massacre, the Waco Holocaust, the Oklahoma City Holocaust, the New York Trade Center fiasco and multiple scenarios of murder in the name of law and order? Directly or indirectly the US Government agents perform all these wonderful services." KC, 5393 Carleton Rd, Mariposa CA 95338, USA. May 1996.

CRIME: According to the most recent FBI crime report, the black minority (12%) is responsible for 70% of all murders. Whites are now statistically combined with Hispanics, Asiatics and other non-black races. This was not true in 1986. The 1986 FBI report revealed that Hispanics commit 3.2 times more murders than Whites. If this ratio is still true and has not increased, the combining of Black and Hispanic murder totals reveal that they commit 90% of all murders in the US. To put it another way, without Blacks and Hispanics, murders in the US would drop by 90%! Now think! If the politicians REALLY wanted to stop the high US murder rate - what would they do? Right! They would lengthen prison terms, build bigger prisons, hire more guidance counselors, and teach higher self-esteem to the populations producing the murderers. Yeah, sure. [how about enforce God's Law?]

CONFISCATION: "Americans have lost their mental capacity to evaluate reality. ... Propaganda in our time is super powerful. We are all inclined to believe that highly educated and professional people should be expected to have more reasoning ability than street people. But when presented with questions about their basic beliefs they all have the same 'conventional wisdom'... just one example: The US Supreme Court in a four-to-three decision ruled that your property can be taken away from you even if you had nothing to do with a crime or were not even charged with a crime. What do you imagine that the implications and conclusions of this verdict are in your life? Any level of law enforcement can seize your property without a pretext. In 80% of asset forfeiture cases, the property owner is never charged with a crime. This unashamed display of raw power should have been front page news on every paper in America. Your financial assets are subject to confiscation at any time. This is the US in 1996. It will take the wisdom of Solomon to navigate through the months ahead. Think of the millions who don't know that they don't know. If this is freedom, what is slavery?" The Bob Livingstone Letter, PO Box 110013, W. End Station, Birmingham AL 35211. What good are Magna Carta, and Bills of Rights, if corrupt judges choose to ignore them, and enforce their own will on the people? All that will happen in mounting challenges, is that lawyers will get rich, the people will get poor, and the judges will rule like they have done for a long time. Australians, read the above - it will be the same here, soon!

As part of the way back, when you have gotten used to having the plug-in-drug (TV) unplugged for a while, why not consider trading it in on a piano? We are losing our heritage and culture to become one-eyed zombies, programmed by the nightly programs. Will our people ever produce another Bach, Handel, etc? You'll be amazed at the time you will have for useful things, like praying and Bible study! If you have not listened to any of our 'loan' tapes, why not try some! You'll be amazed at what can learn, that you thought you knew, but didn't. Still using the old 1992 catalog.

We appreciate very much the times of fellowship we had with those who called in - come again! Thanks also to those who continue to support this ministry. We appreciate the many letters constantly coming in. I think most queries have been dealt with. Sorry if it takes a while sometimes. May Yahweh bless and keep you in His gracious care,
