"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." COME OUT OF JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY AND MULTICULTURALISM by Pastor Dave Barley

I will try to word the following as nicely as I can, but the reality of our present national situation is that the time for pretending our nation can keep going in a co-exist multicultural format must stop. We are being lied to in and through Judeo-Christian wording and concepts that are pure deception. We often hear, "well, I don't want to rock the boat or ruffle anyone's feathers," and this in many ways has been a problem. There is probably no greater illustration of the present situation we face as a people and as a nation than the lie of Judeo-Christianity which I shall try to make abundantly clear to you in this article. Let us begin with the race issue.

The Word of God absolutely deals with and pertains to race, that is, the White, Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Germanic and Scandinavian kindred people. In today's era of multiculturalism comfortability, to claim that the Bible is not multicultural and does not endorse race-mixing, pluralism, homosexuality, paganism, open borders, or basically any form of antinomianism (meaning any form of anti-Bible Law), would appear insane and woefully out of date. Well, though it is woefully out of date and politically incorrect, to believe that the Bible teaches against such things, it certainly does. This must be thoroughly understood, believed and taught with great fervor!

THE WORD "TRIBE"

Christians, we have a Biblical duty to stand for Bible Truth, which includes having a Biblical Israelite tribal family cohesive originally were twelve tribes of Adamic Israelites. The word "tribe" in Hebrew means: "rod, staff, or tribe." The Bible word "tribe" literally means being joined to God's Law Word. That we (the Adamic Israel people) are quite literally and figuratively tied to God's Law, and that we are to be an extension or staff of His Law. This is what the New Covenant is all about, it is about Jesus (the Anointed writing His Law within the heart and mind of His people Israel.

"For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah: Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they (Israel) shall be to me a people." Heb. 8:8-10.

First of all this may be a point understood by most of the readers, but the only people being addressed in these verses of the New Covenant are the people of Israel. Secondly, note that God's Law and His Covenant people go hand in hand. In other words, and I want you to understand this, that the people of Israel and the Laws of God go together. If you could somehow remove God's Covenant people Israel, you in essence would also be removing God's Laws. We see this visibly in the world around us, that whenever God's people (White Israel leadership) is removed, the very semblance or measure, no matter how watered down it may be, of God's Divine Principles will not last very long.

Righteousness exalts a nation, which means, the righteousness of God's Law is how things are to be defined and resolved. Righteousness is not produced from man's carnal mind or thoughts, it is the result of man (Adamic-Covenant-Israelite man) obeying the righteous principles of God's Word.

Adamic Caucasian Covenant Israelite man is the God-ordained, purposed, covenanted people to carry out national and even international “garden of Eden” restoration through the leading of holy spirit direction of King Jesus and His New Covenant. In other words, God Almighty did not make a mistake in choosing Adamic Israel to be His Covenant people. We are the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob who have God’s Word written upon our hearts by the power of holy spirit through Jesus (the Anointed who is the author and finisher of our faith). We will fulfill our calling and purpose because we have God’s Word upon us. When or how is up to Him, but please read the following verses, because no matter how scattered, multiculturalized, or paganized we may be, God’s Word will not return void:

GOD KNOWLEDGE

“Come, and let us return to the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. After two days he will revive us; in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth. O Ephraim (the Northern House of Israel), what shall I do unto thee? O Judah (the Southern Kingdom of Judah), what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away. Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth; and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth. For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.” Hosea 6:1-6.

What is God’s purpose for His Covenant People? To teach and impart God knowledge as verse 6 declares, but not to pagan heathen people or their territories. The whole book of Hosea is about God’s relationship with Israel. It’s about Biblical HOPE, that Israel, after their period of judgment, would again know that they were God’s Covenant People and that He loves them.

God knowledge is not for awakening the world, but the world of Adamic Israel. Does anyone really think for instance that we can go over to the dark areas of Africa, impart God’s Word to them, and they or the Chinese, or the Hindus will ever fulfill what God has called His Adamic Israel people to do? Only in Judeo-Christianity or Spiritual-Israel fantasy land.

JONES-TOWN NIGHTMARE

The reason Israel is not awakening is because they are being lied to and they are still sipping on the Jones-town Kool-Aid. Do you remember the sad but true story of a Dr. Jones? Jim Jones was a Spiritual-Israel proponent, quite literally. The history of Jones-town will verify the fact that Jim Jones was originally seen helping minorities and working against racism. A movie was made about this tragedy back in the 80’s called Guyana Tragedy: The Story of Jim Jones. The tragedy is about how Jim Jones rose to power among his followers, moving his church to the Philippines, I’m sorry, I meant from San Francisco to Guyana, where eventually, he presided over the mass murder/suicide of hundreds of his followers in the drinking of poisoned Kool-Aid. Jim Jones was a huge proponent of multiculturalism, and it is the real Kool-Aid he was feeding his followers.

THE RESULT OF MULTICULTURALISM

The truth presented in Hebrews 8:8-10, is that God’s Covenant Israel people and the Laws of God are both deemed and redeemed for the Divine Purpose of Restoration. If you separate the Law from the Covenant People you have no restoration. America, Britain, Canada, Europe, Australia, New Zealand, and other Caucasian kindred nations do not and cannot have restoration without both the Covenant People (Israel) and the Laws of God upon their heart or mind. If you try to remove and replace God’s people with another race of people, and/or mixed multitudes trying to have restorative results, you are violating God’s Old and New Covenant Purposes and His Laws of separation. The results will be Judeo-Christian multiculturalism, where His Law is diminished and His Word perverted.

When the Word of God says, “Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.” (Proverbs 14:34). The word “people” literally means “nation” and its context clearly appoints the word “nation” to Israel. The Word of God does not happenstance speak of Israel for they are the directed purpose of God’s Covenant Word. No other people are the directed purpose of God’s Word.

THE JEWISH DILEMMA

Judeo-Christianity would have Christians falsely directed to the Jews as being God’s Covenant People, and that if you bless the Jews (the Edomites and Khazars) as John Hagee and his cohorts admonish people to do, then you are following “the great commission.” This of course is patently false, and without getting into great detail, it is false simply based upon the fact that Christians are to have no fellowship with antichristism (Judaism/Talmudism).

THE GREAT COMMISSION

What is the so-called great commission? It would be best described in the following verses:

“Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Unto you first God, having raised up His Son Jesus, sent Him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.” Acts 3:25-26.

Many of you will no doubt notice the words “unto you first,” believing this is a good opportunity to call my attention to your understanding that this would mean “unto Israel first and then the rest of the world.” But this is not the correct interpretation at all. “Unto you first” simply means unto you Judeans (here present at that time) has He (Jesus) come; then unto the rest of the dispersion of the House of Israel. The very people of the Abrahamic Covenant, the very people God Almighty gave His Laws unto, (Psalm 147:19-20) the very people Jesus the Anointed came to redeem and turn away from their iniquities, for it is unto them He hath given His Laws and therefore the burden of sin is upon Israel. The Laws of God were not given in a marriage covenant to any other people.

Thus when we read in vs 26, “... every one of you (Israelites) from his iniquities,” and verse 25 states “... in thy seed shall all the kindred of the earth be blessed,” does not mean all races of the earth shall be blessed. It means all thy kindred of the earth shall be blessed. The word “kindred” is the Greek word “patria” which literally means “family, kindred, or lineage.” (where the word ‘patriarch’ comes from) As much missionary work as there has been over the centuries to all kinds of people, when the White man leaves, his Christian faith leaves with him. The blessing is and has mostly been upon White Adamic kindred people and nations.

Can you truly say lasting blessings have been upon Africa, India, Mexico, South America, China, and so forth, apart from pockets of corrupt banking-money which is superficial, but more pertinent to our conversation, Christianity that generally does not last when the White man and his missionary money leaves? Think about Ferguson, or similar areas. Think about South Africa today, and other places of dark Africa. Where would they be without a certain amount of White leadership or control? Certainly the Obama administration is pouring money into Africa, and you can point to areas of “prosperity” (most ‘aid’ comes from the poor in rich countries, and finishes in the pockets of the rich in poor countries), however this is not Christianity, and without the White man and his Bible, there will be sinking sand foundations. You may say, why that’s “racist thinking,” to which I would respond: “Yes, you are correct.”

Some of you may say, “Pastor Barley, you seem to have changed some of your previous Biblical views.” To which I would respond: “Yes, I have changed a few of my formerly wrong opinions, because they were just that. Opinions. What I did was stop drinking the Jones-type of Kool-Aid and started drinking the Word of God for what it truly does declare.” (The ‘Exclusiveness of Israel’ #714 @ sug don $23.95, will help open your understanding).

THE TREE OF THE KNOWLEDGE OF GOOD AND EVIL IS THE SAME AS JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY

Which brings me to my next subject, Judeo-Christianity and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. God told Adam and Eve not to partake of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. They, of course, did not listen and the fall of Adamic man occurred. That the fall was the result of disobedience is without question, but the understanding of what this forbidden tree is, that is the question. The tree was the knowledge of good and evil, implying that such a tree held both “good and evil.” Judeo-Christianity is both good and evil knowledge, celebrated today in most churches as true Christianity, but is in fact a lie.

As we should all be aware, Judaism is not simply Old Covenant worship or belief. Judaism is Babylonian Talmudism. Please feel free to fully research this subject matter out all you wish with whatever resources you can access. you will soon discover that what I am telling you is the absolute fact. Judaism is antichristism or Talmudism and is not merely Old Testament worship or values promoted in Synagogues. In fact, the Babylonian Talmud, is a vast collection of many volumes of books which are heavily inspired by the Kabbalah (so called hidden traditions of the elders, which are not of Yahweh, but are of pagan origin). Modern efforts by Jewish sources do their best to depict the Talmud’s critics as “anti-Semitic,” but that is mere Jewish tactics. The real point that they cannot ignore, and that is indefensible, is the fact that Talmudic Jews and their religion of Judaism is absolutely anti Jesus the Anointed. Christians should never attach the term “Judeo” to Christianity and it’s about time this dichotic relationship is fully tried, convicted, and sentenced to death.

Judeo-Christianity does worship and lift up the Lord Jesus Anointed to which many would say absolutely, and we should applaud them for this. But the Word of God also warns Christians that there will come those who will say, “Lord, Lord,” and pervert His Word in a host of worldly endeavours. To list a few, we find:

- Red Santa Claus Christmas
- Easter-Egg Ashtoreth merriment
- The joy of the Tooth Fairy
- Halloween
- Race-mixing or miscegenation
- Homosexual tolerance
- Multiculturalism open-mindedness
- Judaism unquestionability
- Political-correctness
- The Rapture
- That all races descended from Noah’s family after the flood.

• The eternal burning hell and so forth.

“Enter ye in at the strait gate for wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves (Fabian Society emblem). Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit (i.e.

kind after kind). Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity (lawlessness).”

IN CONCLUSION

We are not at the point of no return. We are at the point of “turn” which means repent. We are not at the point of there is nothing we can do. We are at the point of pray, tell the truth, and be about our Heavenly Father’s business.

Common sense is not a gift. It’s a punishment because you have to deal with everyone who doesn’t have it!

BRITISH-ISRAEL DOCTRINE PROBLEMS

Arnold Kennedy

There does not appear to be a single reference to any other nation than Israel to whom the Redeemer would come. He is always The Redeemer of Israel and it is, as stated, to be forever. Jesus came to “visit and redeem His People” - Luke 1:68. Jesus is the Kinsman-Redeemer of Israel. There is never any suggestion of any others than Israel being redeemed. From which broken Law-covenant would the other races need redeeming? Recall again how only Israel was given the statutes and judgments and only Israel needed redemption from that Law they had broken.

We see that the covenant is for all generations to seed’s seed of Jacob, and it is to those who turn from transgression in JACOB whom the Redeemer saves. Here again we have the spirit that is of the anointed race. Israel has, “My Spirit which IS upon thee.” This is not commonly taught today. We will see that this is the same presentation as that in the New Testament, believe it or not. This Scripture is not acceptable to tradition. Guess why? It is because racial Israel stays exclusive as being “Jacob’s seed.” Of the end of this age we read:

“In those days, and in that time, saith the Lord, the Children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the Lord their God.” [Jer. 50:4]

A much talked about subject is the regathering of Israel which is supposed to be presently taking place in Palestine, but “and at that time” is not the present activity in the Israeli state. What is being established is just who is to be regathered. Is it a multi-racial church, or is it only the House of Israel and the House of Judah [that is, the Twelve Tribes of Israel]? The latter is the consistent and frequent Biblical presentation, as it is in the verse above [see also Ezekiel 37:15-28 in particular]. The picture painted is always of a still very exclusive Israel. The house of Israel and the House of Judah are exclusive from the heathen races all around. This shows that at the end of the New Testament age they are still exclusive. So they must be exclusive through the New Testament age, even until the regathering. Note that there is no pattern of prophecy that presents any non-Israel content in the regathering, so something must be wrong with the traditional teachings.

“The portion of Jacob is not like them [that is Babylon]; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of His inheritance: the Lord of Hosts is his name.” Jer. 51:19.

This completely excludes “Babylon” from God’s inheritance. The timing of this event is at the end of the New Testament age. Again, national Israel must go through the age. Israel is to be the rod over the other races to rule with God. If Israel means “Ruling with God,” we need to ask how all races could be Israelites, if all races are the same!

“Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them it shall be an everlasting covenant with them ... and the heathen shall know that I the Lord do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.” Ezek. 37:26-28.

This shows that God’s covenant is with Israel alone, and that the other races will be aware of this when God comes to dwell with His People Israel. The timing again, is the end of the age at Jesus’ return and when God’s sanctuary is in the midst of Israel and nowhere else.

“Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together....” (Hosea 1:11).

This and other quotations from the Minor Prophets are included to show the “unity of the Scriptures” that always presents the exclusive nature of Israel. Hosea again defines who is regathered, and also the timing. We will see that the children of Judah and the children of Israel are not united until this time. There is no suggestion of there being any other race, or of a multi-racial “Church” comprising of “Jews and Gentiles,” as being part of the regathering of the remnant of Israel in these minor prophets. It is always the two Houses who are regathered and come together.

“O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God I will be as the dew unto Israel....” Hosea 14:1-5.

This is at the time of the regathering when Israel as a nation returns to The Lord Thy God. [v. 9, Who is wise ... he shall understand these things]. No other race is being asked to return to Israel’s God.

“And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel....” Joel 2:27.

“I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.” Joel 3:2.

Again, there is no change prophetically about which nation God is in the midst of at this future time.

“You only have I known of all the families of the earth: ...” Amos 3:2.

The word for “known” cannot be treated fully here, but it does not mean to acknowledge. It is used more as “to recognise as a fact, revelation knowledge” or “to discern” in an intimate and chosen way. Here, there is the complete isolation of Israel from the other races.

Note: This is important when we come to the New Testament where it refers to those who were foreknown of God. This identifies the people as being the same nation in both Testaments; those who were foreknown in the New Testament are those who were known in the Old Testament.

“I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel: ...” Micah 2:12.

Are there still any lingering doubts that no other races are ever mentioned at this time of regathering?

“Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy People,...” Hab. 3:13.

“The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, ...” Zeph. 3:13.

There are a host of other Old Testament Scriptures that could have been quoted.

GOD PLACES HIS NAME ON ONE PEOPLE

Numerous references refer to “My Name” as being placed upon the children of Israel. For example”

“And all the people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the Lord; and they shall be afraid of thee.” Deut 28:10. [probably more correctly rendered: “... that thou art the people upon whom the name of the Lord is called...” - as in 2 Chron 7:14, a reference to Numbers 6:27]

“And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them.” Num. 6:27.

“And to make thee [that is, Israel] high above all nations which he hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honour; and that thou mayest be an holy [separate] people unto the Lord thy God, as he hath spoken.” Deut. 26:19.

The name of Jehovah [AV the Lord] is exclusive upon Israel as a race. “All the people of the earth” then does not include the Children of Israel, in this case. The name placed upon the Children of Israel who obey God is that of Jehovah Himself. God Himself decides just where He will place His Name, whether it be on a people or a place [Deut 26:2, “which the Lord THY God shall choose to place His Name there”]

This separation of Israel from all the other races is always distinct, but their blessing is conditional upon their obedience. We can now look at the New Testament in the light of what we have seen in the Old Testament.

The New Testament Scriptures show no disharmony or change of position from that which is written in the Law, the Psalms and the Prophets. In view of what has been written and shown from the Old Testament, this might be seen for the first time with new eyes. It will come as a shock for some people to realise that Exclusiveness of Israel continues throughout the New Testament, because this cuts across the traditional doctrine that Israel is now "The Church" and that this Church is multi-racial. Redemption from the broken Law-covenant can never be multi-racial or universal, since only Israel was given the Law as a covenant. That is why this foundation has to be shown in detail in the last chapter.

In the quotations made from the New Testament you will note many references to "the fathers" referring to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. The people addressed in the Acts and the epistles are the children (descendants) of these fathers, the fathers of Israel. It is not just to Abraham in isolation in the way most use this to try and say Abraham's seed is a spiritual seed. The harmony mentioned concerning the law being given to Israel is amply confirmed in the New Testament.

"... who are Israelites, to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;" Rom 9:4

So, the promises, and the placing as sons (adoption) do not apply to any but Israelites!

EACH BOOK IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

The New Testament Scriptures below are in direct contrast to the way, "Go into all the world," is interpreted as a doctrine. This may be a shock and so we will look through some of these. We will quote from Gospel selections to save repetition and then comment from each book of the New Testament in order. Please note carefully the emphasised words, because this will help understanding.

"And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God." Luke 1:16.

There is no suggestion that any other than the Children of Israel will be turned to God. The "many," rather than "all," is found a number of times within the New Testament.

"He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest, and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David; and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever..." Luke 1:32,33.

Jesus is always spoken of as being the ruler of Israel nationally, the "House of Jacob" includes all the tribes. The House of Jacob is still the very same entity in the New Testament as it was in the Old Testament. This Throne [indicating Kingdom] is to be restored TO JACOB. God's promises will be fulfilled in those to whom they were made. Everything that offends will be gathered OUT of the Kingdom [Matt. 13:41]. Jesus tells us:

"He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy; as he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed forever." Luke 1:54,55.

Mercy is always spoken of as being to Israel only. This promise of mercy was to The Fathers and to their seed of Israel only. Israel is the servant race as this verse says. "The Fathers" were not the fathers of all races. Scripture does not present God as being the father of all people. Is there any record of any other seed to whom God spake other than to the seed of Abraham? Some want to take the traditional position that the seed is now spiritual and not racial. Accordingly this can be looked into further in my paper entitled: "Seeds, Natural and Spiritual." But there is no suggestion of a "spiritual seed" in all of these Scriptures. They are too precise and specific! When we see that they are fulfillment of the Old Testament prophecy we have harmony.

"Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he hath visited and redeemed his people." Luke 1:68.

There is never any mention of redemption for any outside of Israel. Here they are described as His People. Jesus is always spoken of as being The Redeemer of Israel. Israel in the Old Testament is a precise racial term. None of all these Scriptures provide any evidence of any change in that fact in the New Testament.

"The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, that he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear," Luke 1:73,74.[see our masthead on pg.1.]

As in all Scripture, the pronouns cannot be generalised. We and us contrast with enemies as two defined groups. Here the pronouns define a racial origin. There is much more about this through the New Testament as we will see.

"To give the knowledge of salvation unto his People..." Luke 1:77

Again, is any other race included in the giving of the knowledge of salvation? Is it possible for any race but Israel to know salvation from the sin of breaking the Law since the Law was given specifically to Israel alone? This confirms the Old Testament prophetic Scriptures. This is a very specific statement of God's purpose. Dare we meddle with God's stated purpose?

"...this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel;..." Luke 2:34. There is no mention of races other than Israel.

"... and thou shalt call his name Jesus, for he shall save his people from their sins." Matt. 1:21.

This again is confirmation of the Scriptures already quoted and is just as specific as to who would be saved. One of the major problems traditionalists have is to find any continuing pattern of prophecy in the Old Testament that would back up their position that His People now includes all races. As pointed out earlier, the people Jesus saves from their sins here are already His People before they are saved.

"...for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel." Matt 2:6.

This defines the people of whom Jesus is the Lord and the race of which He is King. This is a straight statement of the fulfillment of prophecy made many times.

"I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt. 15:24.

It is impossible for the followers of the present traditional teachings to cope with this Scripture so it is ignored. There is a translation difficulty in this verse also, the word but meaning if not and therefore it includes the House of Judah as well. Jesus was then in the coasts of Tyre and Sidon but, as He says, He had other sheep which were not of the fold within Palestine. He dispatched His disciples to the House of Israel, the bulk of whom were scattered outside of Judea, mainly about Northern Greece and parts of the old Grecian empire. Note that Jesus even confirms the separation between Galilee and Jewry [John 7:1, and John 11:54].

Why should we not do the same instead of calling both parties "the Jews"? This is an error of tradition. The House of Israel were not so "lost" that the disciples could not find them, were they?

"... and they glorified the God of Israel." Matt 15:31. This is a clear statement of whom He is the God.

"... in the regeneration ... ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel." Matt 19:28.

Dare we say "The Church" has taken the place of the Twelve Tribes of Israel at the Time of the Regeneration, which is yet to come? The "Church" is not what we have been led to believe, as we will see.

"The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord;" Mark 12:29.

Is anyone other than Israel requested to "hear"? Only Israel can "hear." Remember how Jesus said in John 8:33 to the Edomite leaders of Jewry, "Ye cannot hear my words"? There is still the synagogue of Satan who call themselves "Jews" or Judeans [Rev. 2:9, and Rev. 3:9] who cannot "hear." These could not be of the House of Judah, as they claimed to be. Could this part of Jewry possibly be part of the Church of God or of the Israel of God? It is common to hear that the Israel of God is the multi-racial church, and then to use this statement as the basis of argument! It is easy to say anything without backing it up and especially without the full Biblical basis of argument.

"He came unto his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become sons of God,..." John 1:11-12.

Jesus came to His own territory, wherein was the temple, but all of His own people there did not receive Him as having any authority over what was His. Those of His own who believed, received, accepted and recognised Him were given the authority to once again become placed [that is, reinstated; AV: adopted] as the sons of God.

"... but that he should be manifest to Israel..." John 1:31. Can we find reference to Jesus being manifest to others than Israelites? That is all men of Israel.

"Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?" Acts 1:6. The restoration of the Kingdom to Israel is a subject which the traditional teachings refuse to emphasise, despite Jesus' instruction that this must be our priority prayer and the time to look forward to when His Will will be done IN EARTH, as it is in heaven. This instruction is a statement of the Will of God. Instead of preaching the Kingdom, and the remnant out of Israel who will find it, traditional teaching preaches that the "Church" will be raptured away from Earth! But, the saints [separated ones] are to reign on earth when the Kingdom is restored to Israel.

"... your sons and your daughters shall prophesy ..." Acts 2:17. The specific your refers to the children of those being spoken to and again there is, as usual, no mention of any who did not have the Fathers as their progenitors being able to prophesy! The people being addressed are described in vs 22 as being men of Israel. And Joel's prophecy which is the basis of this verse was only to Israel!

"Ye men of Israel, hear these words, ..." Acts 2:22.

"Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? ... the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers ..." Acts 3:12-13. Can we pretend these men of Israel were from other racial stock?

"Therefore let all the house of Israel know ..." Acts 2:36. This is specifically limited to Israelites.

"For the promise is unto you [men of Israel], and to your children, and to all that are afar off [subsequent generations], even as many as the Lord our God shall call." Acts 2:39.

Please note that this verse is post-Pentecost and again isolates to whom the promise is made. The many of Israel are called, but few of Israel are chosen. Those of Israel who were afar off and not dwelling in Judea, and generations to come, were not excluded. It is still our God, the God of Ye men of Israel [v22] who were being addressed.

"Ye are the children of the prophets and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, ..." Acts 3:25.

Since every one of the prophets were Israelites by race, their children must be of the same race. [Note: Nationality must not be confused with race. This is a mistake often made by traditional teachers who try to prove non-Israel stock by nationality or place of domicile].

"Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, for to give repentance to Israel, and the forgiveness of sins." Acts 5:31. Yet again, we have definition of race that is post-Passion and post-Pentecost. It is a definition which carries on through the New Testament.

"... A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me, him shall ye hear." Acts 7:37 The question that has to be asked here is, "Were Moses and Paul both wrong?" This is what the traditional teachers are saying when they say Jesus was not raised up "UNTO YOU," but unto all races. Their teaching is a blatant denial of Scripture and of what Moses and Paul have said. The of your brethren fixes very firmly to whom Jesus came as being to Israel only.

"The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ ..." Acts 10:36. This confirms the Old Testament teaching that God gave His Word only to Israel, as a race. The peace was proclaimed to those who were near [Judeans] and to those who were afar off [the dispersion - called Grecians in Acts]. This is still no different from Psalm 147:19-20, he showed His word unto Jacob, or unto all Israel.

"... I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart ... of this man's seed hath God according to his promise, raised up unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus ..." Acts 13:22-23. Is there any record of the promise of a Saviour being raised up to people other than Israel? All the references refer to the promise that is made to Israel only. This again shows this fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy unto Israel.

“And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children...” Acts 13:32-33. Note to whom Paul was speaking and that he was speaking in Antioch. This apostle to the ‘Gentiles’ [nations] was still speaking to Israelites, to those among the stock of Abraham who feared God [v26]. For a long time it has been a traditional belief that the word “Gentiles” refers specifically to non-Israelites, but it cannot be avoided that the stock of Abraham is specifically mentioned in verse 26 of this passage! The word for “stock” is genos [race and offspring]. The children are shown in relationship to “The Fathers.” The “us their children,” is too explicit to bend to fit the mould of tradition. There is still no change in the New Testament as to the Exclusiveness of Israel.

“And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers.” Acts 26:6. This is a typical example of a Scripture that is commonly generalised to say that the promise made to “our fathers” is now made to everyone of every race. The promise spoken of here is made to Israel alone.

“Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night hope to come,.” Acts 26:7. Some might not like having this Scripture pointed out, along with others in the New Testament that present the fact that the Twelve Tribes still feature in the New Testament, after Pentecost. The time of this quotation is about 59AD. All these Scriptures quoted from Acts onwards are post-Pentecost, after Jesus had fulfilled the Law of Sacrifices. In traditional teachings the people being addressed are supposed to be a multi-racial church as presented in the popular teachings. Again this promise of the resurrection is still made to Israel. Remember that Jesus had already been resurrected so this particular promise of resurrection could not refer to Jesus. This promise of the resurrection is here shown as being made unto the Twelve Tribes. Can we find, in specific direct statements anywhere at all in the Bible, where this promise is shown to be made to non-Israelites?

“For this cause therefore I have called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.” Acts 28:20. This verse, together with the previous one, speaks about “hope.” The subjects of this hope are stated to be Israel or the Twelve Tribes. Hope is sometimes connected with election [for example, 1 Thess. 1:4] and this is connected with Israel in other passages, particularly in the book of Hebrews where Law and Hope are contrasted [for example, Heb. 7:10, for the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did].

“To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called [to be] saints,...” Rom. 1:7.

“... brethren ... and ... even as among other Gentiles.”

Rom 1:13. The people Paul is addressing in Rome are defined as those who are, “beloved of God and called saints” [‘to be’ was added by the translators and is in italics in most Bibles]. The emphasised words can so easily be explained as Israelites are sometimes called Gentiles. These pin point the racial identity of those Paul was addressing. Called is kletos or appointed. These words cannot be found identifying non-Israel races.

“Now we know that what things soever the Law saith, it saith to them who are under the Law: ...” Rom. 3:19. The Law is not saying anything to anyone else but to Israel. It is not said to others who were not under the Law. This whole epistle is written to Israelites in Rome at that time.

“But for us also to whom it shall be imputed, ...” Rom. 4:24. In context, for us does not refer to non-Israelites, but to Israelites who believe, as Abraham did, that the Law of Faith in the Atoning Sacrifice superseded the Law of Sacrifices contained in Ordinances.

“Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law), how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?” Rom 7:1. The symbolism here is that of marriage under Israel’s law. When we consider this in light of the Law having been given to Israel only, we can see that Israelites are those being addressed. Paul confirms this by calling them “my brethren” [adelphos] or “kinsmen of the womb.”

“Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but in Isaac shall thy seed be called.” Rom 9:7. The seed, [zera in Hebrew or sperma in Greek], refers to semen product, that is, it refers to a line of people genetically. Through the New Testament, the sperma is used this same way. The much-used expression The Fathers both implies and emphasises the genetic line.

“And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them ...” Rom. 11:17. Could other than Olive stock be grafted into an Olive tree? This was part of the House of Israel which had “become as aliens” [or as heathen] rejoining part of the House of Judah under the New Testament. The house of Israel had become as “wild” Olive trees. This is in full accord with the Law, the Psalms, and the Prophets. The popular teaching cannot be found prophetically on a proper foundation, or in fact.

“Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God to confirm the promises made unto the fathers.” Rom 15:8. Here we have a statement that is important, because it tells us the people to whom Jesus came, and why He came. These promises were not made to any but to Israel and this seed of Israel. The exclusive Israel content of this chapter (Romans 15) is extensive, as shown below. Verse 9 is a quotation from Psalm 18:49 which shows David praising God within Israel.

“And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.” - v.9.

“Rejoice, ye Gentiles, [with] his people, comes from

Deut 32:43 where the people [called Gentiles by the translators] are Israel. With his people is all the Israelites together - the dispersed Israelites together with the Israelites in Judea. [Note that in Deut 32:43 the word with is in italics, meaning it was added by the translators. The Dutch translation uses 'heathen' instead of Gentiles, which is actually quite appropriate when you think about it. Can you think of a more heathen people, than Israel today? They celebrate Christmas, and Easter, and Halloween, they interbreed with the heathen, and love to have it so, even thinking they are doing God service]. - V 10

"Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles [heathen] and laud him, all ye people. Psalm 117 from which this quotation comes, again refers to Israel. - V 11

"Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles [heathen]; in him shall the Gentiles [heathen] trust. Isaiah was talking to Israel. The only nations (translated as Gentiles) who could trust God were Israelites. -V 12.

"That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles..." Paul confirms the statement in Romans 11:13 that he is a minister to Israel. [i.e. heathenised Israel].

The word "Gentiles" in this section is a Latin word (apparently only used in English translations - I have not seen it used elsewhere) that is given a manufactured meaning; so do not be misled by it. It can be shown that the word "Gentiles" often refers to the House of Israel as opposed to the House of Judah. Again, there is no prophecy for the traditional view that arose from the Latin Vulgate and has carried on ever since. Rome made the word "Gentile" to support the Roman church word meaning because they were blind to their identity as part of Israel, and they thought that they might be missing out on God's blessing. This word "Gentile" is mined in detail in a paper, "Gentiles" by this author, AK. (#624 @ $4.95)

VALENTINE'S DAY WHAT'S WRONG WITH SHOWING LOVE?

by Dan Dowd

Valentine's Day has long been hugely popular as a romantic tradition despite its ancient and unseemly origins. So what's wrong with celebrating this holiday?

Valentine's Day is all about showing "love," giving a card or flowers or chocolates to a loved one. All of that's good, right? Wrong.

Valentine's Day is big business. According to the National Retail foundation, Valentine's Day for 2012 added around $17.6 billion to the U.S. economy—making retail spending for this day the second-largest behind Christmas.

For a lot of people it's the holiday to express your love to someone special. According to Kemberley King, a business instructor at South University, young adults ages 25 to 34 spend the most on Valentine's Day gifts. Interestingly, men will outspend women—almost 2 to 1—with the biggest categories for all spending being restaurants, candy, romantic getaways and flowers.

A quick Web search for the origins of Valentine's Day will give you the basics of the accepted history of the day. A deeper search will acknowledge its pagan origins. The Good News has published a variety of articles on both of these aspects of the holiday (just do a search for "Valentine's Day" at www.GNmagazine.org).

While Valentine's Day is the most promoted holiday after Christmas and Easter even among traditional Christian churches, it is definitely not a holiday with true Christian values.

HOW CAN "LOVE" BE WRONG?

There's nothing wrong in showing love to others—after all, isn't that the most valued Christian characteristic? but what's been lost is how we go about it, and how we worship God for that matter, is whether we are actually following what God teaches in the Bible.

It's like an automobile manufacturer telling you to put only gasoline in the fuel tank, but then you decide that diesel fuel is just as good. It just won't work! Here's a quick review of the background of Valentine's Day — before exploring a deeper point about this holiday.

By most accepted historians, Valentine's Day was an adaptation by the Catholic Church of the ancient pagan Roman celebration of Lupercalia, a fertility festival. The Catholic Church updated and connected it to a "Saint" Valentine sometime late in the third century AD (though there is some confusion as to who this person actually was). It really took off commercially as a holiday in the late 1800s, promoted as a day to show your "love" to others—especially romantic love to your special someone.

So what's wrong with that? Here's the problem: Lupercalia was an immoral fertility festival also featuring gluttony and drunkenness. At the end of the festivities young men would draw the name of a young lady from a box, and the two were considered a pair (sexually and otherwise) for the coming year.

As a festival, Lupercalia was dedicated to the Roman god Pan, recognised as the god of fields, groves and wooded glens—and pictured as having the hindquarters, legs and horns of a goat. This pagan deity was connected to fertility and the season of spring. None of what is connected to the least of Lupercalia is worthy of a Christian's observance.

BUT WHAT'S WRONG WITH A LITTLE PAGANISM?

What about showing love on Valentine's Day if I'm not doing it for pagan reasons? Isn't that okay? No, because the expression of that kind of "love" is still rooted in a former pagan holiday. True Christians must NOT adopt pagan festivals as holidays, for they are to strive to please God in everything they do.

Even when you think you're innocently observing a holiday like this, you're still advancing the origins and meanings of the day—especially from God's perspective, as He certainly knows where it came from. God said not to do this. He told the Israelites entering the pagan land of Canaan:

"When the Lord your God cuts off from before you the nations which you go to disposses, and you displace them and dwell in their land, take heed to yourself that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed from before you, and that you do not inquire after their gods, saying, 'How did these nations serve their gods? I also will do likewise.' You shall not worship the Lord your God in that way; for every abomination to the Lord which He hates they have done to their gods."(Deuteronomy 12:29-31, emphasis added).

When we merge pagan teachings with what God instructs through the Bible, we weaken the truth and violate God's clear command.

GOD'S WAY IS TRUE LOVE

Showing love as God instructs is not wrong—romantic love included. It's a good thing to express your love toward others through a card, flowers, dinner out or any number of other ways. But don't do it under the trappings of a pagan holiday like Valentine's Day! If someone is special to you, then do those things throughout the year rather than waiting until February 14th.

Our worship of God must first and foremost be according to His truth (John 4:24). Carry-overs from pagan worship don't honour Him!

God is personified by the characteristic of love (1 John 4:8). Godly love is genuine outgoing concern for others as God would love them—not a selfish love. Divine love is reflected in keeping God's commandments (1 John 5:3), including the Ten Commandments and instruction like that in Deuteronomy cited above. True Christians should desire to faithfully observe God's own Holy Days found in the Bible. Celebrating holidays like Valentine's Day in opposition to God's instruction does not honour or obey Him—no matter how well-intentioned or innocent we believe it to be.

It does matter to God how we worship Him. He expects us to understand the difference between what He has declared holy and the profane teachings, customs and traditions masquerading as godly worship (Ezekiel 22:26).

HIDDEN HISTORY, OR BIBLE HATERS?

by Lucien De Bruin

As you read this, it is 222 years ago since the first SCHOOL for children started in a church building at Circular Quay in NSW, Australia. It was started by the Rev. Richard Johnson, the first chaplain in the colony, and the building had a dual purpose: it served as church and SCHOOL. I am talking way back in 1793 and as far as schools are concerned, the rot set in very early!—(references out of "HIDDEN HISTORY - A chronological resume of the book 'Australia's First 100 years'." by Dr. Allen Roberts).

No doubt you have heard of Gaius Julius Caesar? Yes, he was an autocrat and autocracy is DESPOTISM. If there is such a "thing" as Fabian autocracy, we surely have it in Australia where everyone in "duly elected" government has a Caesarian, unbelievable, arrogant, contemptuous attitude towards the "common" people, the so-called constituents, and in Australia even some Constitutional lawyers believe with millions of Aussies that a piece of paper called 'constitution' says who can make the laws, and what laws can be made; and that it (the constitution) therefore controls our lives, instead of a book called BIBLE. THE BOOK OF LIFE!

See chapter 1, part 5, sections 51 and 52 of this man concocted law, and you will know that "Caesar" has given himself "power" to make "laws"! Is that what Isaiah 33:22 says? NO!! "FOR THE LORD IS OUR JUDGE, THE LORD IS OUR LAWGIVER, THE LORD IS OUR KING; HE WILL SAVE US."

We have a centralised power (grab) by "Caesar" in our beautiful island continent, but the constitution and voting scams are only there to make you believe that you have an active part in governing the affairs of the nation, whilst in fact we are "ruled" by decree under "Caesar" and his mates, but not like David told us in 2 Samuel 23:3!! "... he that rules over men must be just, ruling in the fear (reverence) of God." ISRAELITES, WE ARE RULED BY TYRANTS BECAUSE WE ARE NOT GOVERNED BY (our) GOD!

The "law of Caesar" (the constitution) has always been the mysterious preserve of lawyers and politicians with "the media" the king makers and breakers. Of the 88 members involved in Federal meetings (1890-1900) prior to the constitution, 28 were barristers, 6 were solicitors, 20 were pastoralists and 2 were bankers!

That makes a total of 56 "elite"! "Caesar" wasn't doing too bad right from the start. He obviously didn't want men with the knowledge of God and the Bible, but stacked his outfit with "legal-brains" trained in the Caesarian art of power usurping.

(Hidden History) In 1832 the Irish National System introduced Public Schooling in Australia, but Bishop Broughton strongly stood against the government moving in to snatch day schools from independent Protestant groups, and at this time THE BIBLE, OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS WAS THE FIRST TEXTBOOK USED IN THESE DAY SCHOOLS. Who should ultimately educate children and control schools? Bishop Broughton and Rev. Dunmore hang strongly opposed Governor Bourke over the issue. In 1848 the government won the battle over the control of day schools (emphasis LdB).

Have you ever known a barrister in our land to warn the population with the help of God and the Bible? Of course not! "Caesar" has a very tight grip on the legal fraternity. When you make "the law" you have to make sure that you have your henchmen lawyers around you to defend you, don't you? "We the people" will pay for it!

Australia is NOT ruled by just men ruling in the fear (reverence) of God! Apart from the constitution we are "ruled" by thousands of foreign treaties. Do you still feel like voting in the next FAKE election? Wasting your time? Come 1900, the "lawmakers" inserted what I call "the free for all" as far as religion is concerned, when they saddled us with section 116 of the constitution: "The Commonwealth shall not make any law for establishing any religions or for imposing any religious observance, or for prohibiting the free exercise of any religion and no religious test shall be required as a qualification for any office or public trust under the Commonwealth."

Read it carefully and let it sink in, and then ask yourself: "Isn't this the clay telling the Master Potter how it is done?" Was section 116 put there to make sure that every Tom, Dick and Harry could start his own religion, and so perpetuate Baal worship, Satan worship, Caesar worship, Polly worship, and a whole host of other forms of pagan worship with the distinct possibility of destroying true worship of the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—if this section 116 'law' didn't get found out and exposed? See if you can find this section 116 twaddle in the Bible? (U.S. equivalent: Article 1 of the Bill of Rights-to-116 Aust. Con)

At every juncture, at every milestone in our history (NOT HIDDEN!) we must ask: "Are we individually and

Know the Commandments:

THOU SHALT HAVE NO OTHER GODS BEFORE ME

by Ted R. Weiland

Whoever is god in a person's life inevitably determines the laws by which he lives. When Yahweh has been made Lord of someone's life, their innermost desire becomes one of obeying His commandments and statutes. There is no such motivation for the person who rejected Yahweh as his God. Thus, out of all of the Ten Commandments, the First Commandment is the most consequential.

as a nation growing up with THE BOOK OF LIFE* as our main inspiration, our main guide to please our Creator on a daily basis? (* the Bible).

1899 was a crucial year as Australia “adopted” the greatest con ever— “adopted” after the 1899 referendums: the NO vote was 141,386, the YES vote 377,988 which of course constituted majority rule=democracy=mob rule, “Caesar” style! It also made a blatant LIE out of the preamble, for the NO voters DID NOT AGREE “to unite in one indissoluble Federal Commonwealth” with 56 “elite” pushing for centralised powergrab (we see powergrab all around the world!), the NO voters didn’t have much chance did they? This took place more than 100 years ago. That’s right, we have had more than 100 years of this HOAX, and we will have a lot more until we stop petitioning “Caesar” and start petitioning OUR GOD of ISRAEL in earnest.

Don’t confuse Biblical IsraEL with the 1948 concocted, annexed, occupied state of Israeli! It becomes your responsibility to tell your fellow-IsraELite once you know and understand what is going on all around you. “Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should do so in the land where you go to possess it” (Deut 4:5).

On June 15, 1889 in Sydney NSW, Sir Henry Parkes said to Lord Carrington (then Governor) “I could confederate those colonies in twelve months.” Carrington replied: “Then why don’t you do it?” It was the beginning of centralised and usurped powergrab in Australia. The rest is history, but how much of it HIDDEN? Or a nightmare, which-ever you prefer! To confederate means to found upon mutual agreement, and if you think that 11 years later the constitution was founded upon mutual agreement, you’d better think again! The constitution was nothing more than a blatant power grab. It had to be in view of scriptures like Psalms 62:11, “God has spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongs unto God.” Looking for some more REAL POWER? Try Psalms 66:7; Jeremiah 10:12 and 51:15 and Matthew 6:13 and 28:18—John 17:2—Romans 13:1, Matthew 24:29-30—1 Thess. 1:5 and Rev. 4:11 and 19:1. And yet, on a daily basis we hear pollies boast about being “in power” what lunacy! One of the most misused and misunderstood words in the English language is the word POWER. It is worth studying, but not in modern dictionaries. Try 1828 Noah Webster’s American Dictionary of the English Language (#356 @ sug don $185.45). As far as Romans 13:1 is concerned, ask yourself where “the higher powers” come from! The earliest drafts of the constitution were revised on board the Queensland government steamer “Lucinda” during the pagan “feast” of Easter (named after Ishtar, the fertility goddess), 1891 by four BARRISTERS: Griffith, Kingston, Barton (Australia’s first P.M.) and Clark. If you believe that the “revised drafts” were based in the DIVINE LAW OF GOD, you also believe in Santa Claus, and a host of other pagan myths. According to the prophet Isaiah (Isaiah = Yah is helper, or the salvation of God) 33:22 Only the Lord is lawgiver!

Barristers Griffith, Kingston, Barton and Clark apparently did NOT understand this, for they blatantly “drafted” power to make laws for the peace, order and good government of the Commonwealth” (part v/51) of the Australian Constitution. The barristers did not know and understand that Good Government is only possible under the Divine Law.

“Professing themselves to be wise they became fools” (Romans 1:22) Didn’t they ever?! Federal, State and local politicians have so much contempt for Joe Blow constituent, they no longer answer our letters other than with crude one-liners and fob-offs. Time for Imprecatory prayers for the “wise fools” of this nation on a daily basis.

Do you want to be delivered out of slavery and bondage? Try 2 Chronicles 7:14. GET ON YOUR KNEES TO STAY ON YOUR FEET! Only eight words of the Australian man-made “laws” are worth preserving: “HUMBLY RELYING ON THE BLESSING OF ALMIGHTY GOD.”

Back to “Hidden History” 1793

The Rev. Samuel Marsden also wrote in a letter addressed to the Bishop of London: “The future hopes of this colony depend upon the rising generation” (and yes, obviously some could see where it was all going wrong, LdB) because the colony’s first chaplain, the Rev. Richard Johnson’s intention was to “bring those unhappy wretches to a better way of life” and he also wrote to the secretary for the propagation of the Gospel: “If any hopes are to be formed of any reformation being affected in this colony I believe it must begin amongst those of the rising generation.”

During this same period Governor King was so moved by the immoral conditions of the youth of the colony that he founded orphanages and schools from his own finances in which the inmates were taught tailoring, shoemaking and gardening up to the age of fifteen years.

There is also much evidence to suggest that the leaders of the colony in Australia (still late 1700s, LdB) would be an imminent threat to the stabilizing of the colony. Delinquency was becoming widespread throughout the rising generation and if not checked, would be irreversible. In 1866 the Bible is still the first textbook in day schools in Australia, but by 1880 a Mr. Austin writes concerning Victoria’s gold rush immigrants: “Her aggressive, radical newcomers were producing a society which was more irreligious and anti-clerical than any other in Australia.” 1880 The Chief Inspector for the National Board of Education in NSW a Mr. W. Wilkins was a most vocal supporter of the kind of National Education System holding forth a RELIGIOUS NEUTRALITY! (He was getting in first! LdB).

But Archbishop Vaughan during a preaching engagement describes the government system in these words:

“A godless system of education (same as in 2015! LdB) consisting of schools which the church knows from experience will in the course of time fill the country with indifferentists, not to speak of absolute infidels.”

The good bishop added his reasons why he thought religious neutrality would not operate effectively: “There is one greater curse in the world than ignorance, and that is instruction apart from moral and religious teaching. To instruct the masses in reading, writing and arithmetic and to leave out religion and morality is to arm them with instruments for committing crime. A great deal has been said in the colony about the crime that proceeds from want of schools, very little about the still greater amount of crime which is produced by training the intellectual faculties whilst the will and the animal passions are allowed to run loose!”

Archbishop Vaughan also predicted that schools would be: “Seed plots of future immorality, infidelity and lawlessness being calculated to debase the standard of human excellence and to corrupt the political (not hard to do, LdB), social and individual life of future citizens.”

States “Hidden History”: Some would undoubtedly agree with the predictions clearly outlined by Archbishop Vaughan One Hundred and Thirty-Five Years ago! Evidence shows that the Government’s policy on religious neutrality has resulted in a tragic loss of spiritual and moral foundations with a subsequent lowering of schooling standards.”

Archbishop Vaughan’s predictions have sadly proven to be SPOT ON. I wonder how many parents were thinking about home-schooling? When WWII broke out on September 1939 (Germany invaded Holland on May 10, 1940), my father stopped sending us to school (3 children aged 6, 7, 8) There were traitors in Holland who joined the “Hitler Mob,” and more than a few fathers who started home-schooling their children finished up in jail (as did my Dad)! It was a horrible time etched in the minds of those who went through those insane 5+ years of WWII (1940-45). I know we had Yah’s Divine Protection! (Thank You Yah!) and thank you Mum and Dad, you were so brave and strong guiding and protecting us from total starvation through those 5 years of hunger winter’s hell in the middle of the worst war in history.

WHICH WAS THE FIRST TEXTBOOK IN THE FIRST DAY SCHOOLS IN AUSTRALIA? THE BIBLE!

Yes, it deserves repeating many times, and Colossians 2:8-10 strongly points the right way: “Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit after the traditions of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after the Christ.” Read Amos 3:1-3 and thank your Creator and Redeemer Jesus the Christ.

As early as 1848 two religious leaders gave up on fighting to keep independent church schools going, and in 1851 the “government” won the battle for non-denominational day schooling, and pushed hard for control of all day schools! Obviously, there was evil at work in the Colony, and the “cradle snatchers” wanted to get the young generations in the day schools, and brainwash them in the secular (worldly) instead of the spiritual! But truth cannot be destroyed, it always floats to the top! Every knee shall bow (Isaiah 45:23, Romans 14:1). Why not do it willingly, and be malleable in the hands of the Master Potter? It’s HIS CREATION isn’t it? Getting back to the book of life again in this island continent with the spotlight on the Australian Government.

There were/are 28 P.M.s with 10 different “Faiths” from Barton to Abbott, 1901 - 2015, and yes, they “professed” ten different beliefs: Ch. of England, Unitarian, Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist, Catholic, Protestant, Agnostic, Deist, Atheist. One ex-PM is an atheist, she believes in nothing! No prizes for guessing who! But one thing for sure: “For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches [ecclesias=self-governing Christian communities] of the saints [called and separated]” (1 Cor.

How many PMs did have a strong belief in the Scriptures, OT and NT? The March 2008/258-pp book “Australian Prime Ministers” (Revised and updated) and edited by Michelle Grattan doesn’t even have the word “Bible” in it! Nor does it mention God. It mentions Christianity, but they must have forgotten “Judeo”!

As said before, 135 years ago Archbishop Vaughan warned the education system in particular, and the young Colony Australia in general, that a Christian nation cannot be grown upon a foundation of “religious neutrality” i.e. upon “free for all” without the Book of Life (THE BIBLE), without suffering the consequences of CHRONIC GOD-LESSNESS, and self-destruct society hell-bent on mocking the Master Potter who will not work with clay that is not reconstituted and malleable!

On Sunday eve 4 and 11 May 2014 at 6:30pm the ABC’s ‘Compass’ broadcast a program called “God in the Lodge,” and it shows that the kingmakers and the king-breakers (the Media) really believe that God is in the Lodge, i.e., he was/is leading and guiding “our” PMs all the way from Barton to Abbott. If you told me that “Bananas in Pyjamas” are in the Lodge, I would believe you! Australia like the rest of the World is UN-governable, because those who think they can govern have thrown the only book with the only true guidelines for just governing (ruling) in the trash can! (2 Sam. 23:3).

HUMAN OR DIVINE GOVERNMENT?

Individually and collectively the government of Australia is suffering from TOXIC BRAIN SYNDROME. and anybody who doesn’t believe this, has never listened to the gasbagging going on in the so-called House of Reps and the Senate. Do you know why there will be no “opposition” in the Kingdom? Simple: Opposition will not be tolerated!

Remember the House divided? (Matt. 12:25). Isaiah 30:21, “This is the way, walk you in it!” There will be no “Labor” — no “Liberals” — no “Nationals” — no “Democ[rats]” — no “Re[pub]li[cans]” — no “Greens” — no rat-bag parties whatsoever! There will be only a glorious Kingdom ruled by the King of kings: Jesus the Anointed. Just ask yourself: “Do we really have “government” on earth? NO, we don’t, but we have plenty of chaos, extreme violence, barbarism, the worst evil of all kinds, the worst perversion of any description, leaving Sodom and Gomorrah looking like kindergarten!

Remember the “evil reigns” in the Scriptures? The days of Noah all over again? WATCH!! Matthew 24:38-46. Is humanity at large now further away from the Creator than in Noah’s days? It certainly looks like it! The enemies of the TRUTH have been at it for a very long time! Read and study 2 Timothy 3:1-6 and never forget verse 7.

It sums up the “education” and “schooling” systems big time, from pre-school to University! “EVER LEARNING AND NEVER ABLE TO COME TO THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE TRUTH.” Education without THE BIBLE is unbelievably STUPID. Is it any wonder the world is in a horrendous mess? It includes Australia. The “teachers” themselves need to go back to school, to schools with Bibles on every seat, and used everyday!

The individuals who came up with the idea of “fram-

The 4th Commandment REMEMBER THE SABBATH DAY TO KEEP IT HOLY Ted R. Weiland

The divisions over this commandment, almost without exception, have to do with the timing of the weekly Sabbath. More than ninety-five percent of the material that I have accumulated on the 4th Commandment address when the Sabbath is to be kept. There are advocates for Friday, Saturday, Sunday, a rotating Sabbath or any day one chooses, and most make a plausible argument for their case. There are proponents for sunset to sunset, midnight to midnight, dawn to dawn, and noon to noon. Consequently this article will be devoted to how the 4th Commandment should be kept rather than when it should be kept.

ing” a constitution, and thereby mocking our Creator and utterly ignoring HIS LAWS (Isaiah 33:22) really needed renewing of the mind (Romans 12:2). They didn’t care about the will of God, but most certainly were conformed to the world!

The “government of mere mortals” (clay) should conform to the Fatherhood of the Master Potter, not the other way around, nothing else will work. “God has spoken once, twice have I heard this; that power belongs to God” (Psalms 62:11) We live in an evil, war-riddled society—the word evil we find 620 times and the word war 225 times in the Bible, but Hallelujah, we find the Prince of Peace in Isaiah 9:6, and the word peace is written 421 times in the Bible! Once the Prince of Peace has taken over and established His Kingdom [He reigns today, until He has put all enemies under His feet], His people shall not learn war anymore. “Hidden History” proves that Archbishop Vaughan’s predictions of “a godless system of education” down under was on the mark, and this system snowballed from bad to worse in our island continent. 222 years since day schools with the Bible as the No. 1 textbook is a long way back in the past, and Australia has been backsliding since the Australian Government took over Day Schools!

In the past some saw “religious neutrality” as a virtue, but Archbishop Vaughan certainly did not, he saw it as a major threat to Australian Schooling. It was in fact the rot setting in, into the embryonic “education” system in the Colony. It was the very beginning of what could possibly go wrong, and most certainly did go wrong during the years ahead.

And what of 2015 and on into an uncertain future? Really only a remnant, a little flock (Luke 12:32) of believers of the truth, and teachers who know and understand that an education system in what was originally a Christian Culture, cannot be built upon foundations of sand, upon RELIGIOUS NEUTRALITY, without suffering from total rejection of our only hope of salvation and participation in a promised Kingdom, which can surely not be far away, with very serious flashpoints all around the globe, and mere mortals thinking that they can take over and run the show!

Yes! There will be a “New World Order” but it will be called KINGDOM, and it will not be ruled or run or governed by criminals anywhere on earth, (Daniel 2:44) it will be ruled by none other than The King Himself: King Jesus, our favorite Shepherd; “And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore” (Isaiah 2:4)

Archbishop Vaughan predicted (and it needs repeating, LdB) that schools would be the “seed plots of future immorality (look at Schoolies), infidelity and lawlessness being calculated to debase the standard of human excellence and to corrupt the political (never been hard to do, LdB), social and individual life of future citizens.”

Hidden History and Bible Haters will not be tolerated in THE KINGDOM, Praise Yahweh and His Son, our Kinsman Redeemer: Amen.

DELIBERATE DEFIANCE OF GOD'S LAW

Wyoming now marks (at least) the 30th state to allow homosexual couples the “right” to get married, a trend gaining ground in light of the latest Supreme Court decision to reject appeals of several states looking to preserve their bans on gay marriage. This act, or rather inaction, by the Supreme Court virtually made it legal in 30+ states and will lead to more states following suit, according to several media sources. Humanism is now the theocratic influence in America. Apparently man knows better than God and His infinite wisdom, as America’s leaders continue to legislate laws that are contrary to the Law of God. The arrogance of this New World Order that the elitists are crafting is not only sickening, but done deliberately! Welcome to Babylon!

Pastor Peter J. Peters has exposed the plot of the enemies of Jesus in his book, “The Unseen War.” The late pastor made an excellent point in his discourse that essentially stated the enemies of Jesus are found behind everything rotten in this country, because they have an understanding deeper than most Christians do of their own Bible. More to the point, these enemies promote evil to entice the good little Christians to commit sin, because they know that this will bring down God’s wrath upon us, just as the beast did in the Garden of Eden. A diabolical plot indeed, and looking at the evidence it is abundantly clear that this is what is happening.

Antichrist Jews own the vast majority of the mass media, dominate the pornographic industry, have a disproportional representation on the Supreme Court and Congress, and have great influence in the universities. What does all this mean? It means they control and manipulate US policy, and the very minds of the majority of the people. It seems the serpent has once again reared its ugly head as they promote everything contrary to the Word

“Woe unto them that speak good of evil, and evil of good, which put darkness for light, and light for darkness, that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for sour.” (Isaiah 5:2 GNV)

The situation of legalizing gay ‘marriage’ is the latest in the plot to destroy Christianity. Let’s look at some of the evidence. Watching the antichrist-controlled media, one will note that the majority of the exposés only interview “gay” couples; dissents are completely stifled from their op-ed pieces. They paint a picture of victories and monumental occasions each time a state passes homosexual ‘marriage’ laws. In reality, in states like Wyoming where the majority voted to ban same-sex ‘marriage’, it is self-evident that the people are opposed to it; in fact after the recent ruling only a handful of “couples” went out to get licenses. The media, of course, sensationalized it and even echoes the hate crime hoax of the infamous “Matthew Sheppard” case. I might add it has come to light that Sheppard’s death had nothing to do with the victim’s sexuality, but was actually over the sale of illicit drugs. Nonetheless, the media still uses this sodomite as a martyr to advance the Cultural Marxist cause. Their efforts serve as propaganda to pollute more minds into believing that a sexually deviant practice is normal.

Noting the “Naked Communist,” by former FBI agent Cleon Skousen, that one of the Communist goals is to, “Present homosexuality, degeneracy, and promiscuity as ‘normal, natural, and healthy.’” This being of interest due to the fact that Communism is a product of Jewish thought. Further, Edomite Jews have staunchly come against gay ‘marriage’ in their own homogenous state of Israeli. American Jews promote it here, but Israeli Jews condemn it in their own country. (just like they do with multi-culturalism—a tool for destroying Christianity). Now are you beginning to see the bigger picture? It is the same with Inter-racial marriage and mass (foreign culture) immigration. The Jews push for it here and in Europe but condemn it in their synagogues and their own country.

What better way to bring America down and advance the agenda of our God's enemies, than to turn God and His wrath against so-called Christians? The proof of their plan is visible in the current state of our country. Economically we are falling behind, with another great depression or maybe even a total collapse nipping at our heels. Our prisons have the largest populations in the world (per capita). The high rates of drug usage and crime continue to escalate, divorce rates are at an all-time high (even in Christian circles), government scandals, mass corruption, disease on the rise, suicides, terrorism, Ebola ... need I go on?

Are these blessings? Hardly, but the Scripture says if we bless Israel we will be blessed (Genesis 12:3). Oh, how you have been duped.

The IsraelIES (over in the sandbox called 'Israel' today) are not the true people of Scripture. The Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Celtic and kindred peoples are. Until we begin to realize this truth and have another great spiritual awakening and follow 2 Chronicles 7:14, we will continue to go lower and lower (Deuteronomy 48:23). Karl Marx once retorted, "A people without a heritage are easily persuaded." This is their agenda, to strip you of your true identity and demean Christianity until it is no more. Communism never died; its tactics only evolved. The great apostasy of 2 Thessalonians 2 is coming to fruition; and the time of 2 Timothy 4:3 is upon us;

"For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto (Jewish) fables." (KJV)

In recent times the Presbyterian Church has condoned abortion and now allows its clergy to perform homosexual 'marriages.' Pope Francis has endorsed the 'Big Bang Theory' and declared "God is not a divine being." Billy Graham stated essentially that Jesus is not the only way to salvation, which is a direct contradiction of our King's own teaching in John 14:6,

"Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (KJV)

Then there are the many false teachings such as the rap-ture, the belief-only doctrine, and many more lies being spread in the so-called Christian community today that detract from the truth (the 'seedline' doctrine; the "Paul the imposter" doctrine, the 'Jesus came through the line of Joseph' doctrine, etc). The eleventh hour is here. It is high time to wake up and fight back! We must restore the Kingdom of God here on earth before it's too late.

People will continue to look to the false teachers, government and their constitution to solve their problems for them, and the situation will continue to spiral out of control. The only way to have liberty is to seek the Kingdom of God.

"Now the Lord is the spirit, and where the spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." 2 Corinthians 3:17 (1599 Geneva Bible)

To usher in the Kingdom we need to obey the one and only true law and recognize, just like our forefathers did,

NO KING BUT KING JESUS! Secularism will be the death of the nation. Diversity is our greatest weakness, and the Cultural Marxist doctrine of humanism will unequivocally result in the death of America, Australia, Europe, etc. Awake O Israel, and reclaim your great heritage and identity. Let the Lion of Judah roar again!

"But ye are a chosen generation, a royal Priesthood, an holy (separated) nation, a people set at liberty, that ye should show forth the virtues of him that hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light." 1 Peter 2:9. Sent in by an Acres of Diamonds man.

SIN: THE TRANSGRESSION OF DIVINE LAW

by late Chuck Kuhler

Sin is a vital consideration in our imperfect relationship with our heavenly Father, but it is seldom studied and mentioned in the "traditional" churches. Before we can seriously understand "sin," we have to ascertain and understand just what it is. In 1 John 3:4, we are told, "Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law." This quote then requires us to understand just "what is the law." Most Christians consider the law to be the Ten Commandments, but this is only one portion, a summary of the Law, which in total consists of the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments. The only portion of the Old Testament rituals which were done away with were the "ordinances," mostly pertaining to sacrifices, which were eliminated once and for all, by the shed blood of our Saviour Jesus the Anointed.

There are those who claim today that the entire law was done away with and that we are under "grace." But this claim rejects and disregards the words of our Saviour, as found in Matthew 5:17-18, "Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled."

We are all sinners, no matter how we may strive to be free of sin. For those fools who say that they don't sin, and that they lead a normal life within the parameters of human life, I would advise them to read 1 John 1:8-10. According to James 4:17, not doing what you know you should do IS SIN.

In order to determine what sin is, we have to fully understand what the "law" is. In similar mode, if there was no speed limit on a particular road, it would not be illegal to drive at 110 mph, as there would be no law to be violated. If however, the law specified that the speed limit was 55 mph, then doing 65 would be a violation of the law.

I am often asked, "does the divine law apply to every person." The precise answer is, "who was the law given to?" The Law was given ONLY to Adam-man and his descendants, and through the Hebrew and Israelite patriarchs and people. It was NOT GIVEN TO ALL PEOPLES! There was no delegation from China, South America, Africa, etc. at Mt. Sinai. (Psalm 147:19-20). If the Law did not apply to other peoples, then they have been without sin. In Paul's epistle to the Romans 5:13, we read that if there was no law, there would be no sin. Paul further states in Romans 7:25, "... so then with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin." (you may continue reading chapter 8 also). In Romans 3:20-31, we learn that by the Law is the knowledge of sin understood.

Our heavenly Father is a God of mercy and forgiveness. In Proverbs 28:13, we are told by Solomon, “He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsakes them shall have mercy.” There is only one unforgivable sin which can be found in Matthew 12:31-32, “... All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against holy spirit shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against holy spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.”

The word SIN is not just some nebulous term. It is a serious consideration in our interaction with the Father, and should be carefully studied. In Romans 6:23, we read: “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus the Anointed our Lord.” May you continue to strive, with God’s help, to lead a sinless life.

MORE FACTS ON HONEY AND CINNAMON

Insect Bites: Take one part honey to two parts of lukewarm water and add a small teaspoon of cinnamon powder, make a paste and massage it on the itching part of the body slowly. It is noticed that the pain recedes within a minute or two.

Arthritis: Arthritis patients may take daily, morning and night, one cup of hot water with two spoons of honey and one small teaspoon of cinnamon powder. If taken regularly even chronic arthritis can be cured.

In a recent research conducted at the Copenhagen University, it was found that when the doctors treated their patients with a mixture of one tablespoon Honey and half a teaspoon Cinnamon powder before breakfast, they found that within a week out of 200 people so treated practically 73 patients were totally relieved of pain and within a month, mostly all the patients who could not walk or move around because of arthritis started walking without pain.

Hair Loss: Those suffering from hair loss or baldness, may apply a paste of hot olive oil, one tablespoon of honey, one teaspoon of cinnamon powder before bath and keep it for approximately 15 minutes and then wash the hair. It was found to be effective even if kept on for 5 minutes.

Bladder Infections: Take two tablespoons of cinnamon powder and one teaspoon of honey in a glass of lukewarm water and drink it. It destroys the germs in the bladder.

Toothache: Make a paste of one teaspoon of cinnamon powder and five teaspoons of honey and apply on the aching tooth. This may be applied 3 times a day till the tooth stops aching.

Cholesterol: Two tablespoons of honey and three teaspoons of Cinnamon powder mixed in 16 ounces of tea water, given to a cholesterol patient, was found to reduce the level of cholesterol in the blood by 10% within 2 hours. As mentioned for arthritis patients, if taken 3 times a day, any Chronic cholesterol is cured. As per information received in the said journal, pure honey taken with food daily relieves complaints of cholesterol.

Colds: Those suffering from common or severe colds should take one tablespoon lukewarm honey with 1/4 spoon cinnamon powder daily for 3 days. This process will cure most chronic cough, cold and clear sinuses.

Upset Stomach: Honey taken with cinnamon powder cures stomachache and also clears stomach ulcers from the root.

Gas: According to the studies done in India and Japan, it is revealed that if honey is taken with cinnamon powder the stomach is relieved of gas.

Immune System: Daily use of honey and cinnamon powder strengthens the immune system and protects the body from bacteria and viral attacks. Scientists have found that honey has various vitamins and iron in large amounts. Constant use of honey strengthens the white blood corpuscles to fight bacteria and viral diseases.

Indigestion: Cinnamon powder sprinkled on two tablespoons of honey taken before food, relieves acidity and digests the heaviest of meals.

Influenza: A scientist in Spain has proved that honey contains a natural ingredient, which kills the influenza germs and saves the patient from flu.

Longevity: Tea made with honey and cinnamon powder, when taken regularly arrests the ravages of old age. Take 4 spoons of honey, 1 spoon of cinnamon powder and 3 cups of water and boil to make like tea. Drink 1/4 cup, 3 to 4 times a day. It keeps the skin fresh and soft and arrests old age.

Pimples: Three tablespoons of honey and one teaspoon of cinnamon powder, make into a paste. Apply this paste on the pimples before sleeping and wash it the next morning with warm water. If done daily for two weeks, it removed pimples from the root.

Skin Infections: Applying honey and cinnamon powder in equal parts on the affected parts cures eczema, ringworm and all types of skin infections.

Bad Breath: People of South America, first thing in the morning gargle with one teaspoon of honey and cinnamon powder mixed in hot water. So their breath stays fresh throughout the day.

Hearing Loss: Daily morning and night honey and cinnamon powder taken in equal parts restore hearing.
