

Christian Identity Ministries

A member of the Congregations of Israel

PO Box 146, CARDWELL, QLD, 4849, Australia

Ph: 07-4066 0146 (International 61-7 instead of 07) www.christianidentityministries.com - hr_cim@bigpond.com

"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." Luke 1:68-75; the Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Germanic-Scandinavian people are ISRAEL!

#355

Covenant Messenger

December AD2015

(a publication of N.Q. Fellowship of God's Covenant People)

THE BIBLE, RACE AND CULTURE, PT 5, FINAL by Arnold Kennedy

.....continuing.....IN THEE SHALL ALL NATIONS

"Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. And the scripture foreseeing that God would justify the nations through faith, preached (proclaimed) before the gospel unto Abraham: All the nations will be blessed in you. So that those of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham." Gal. 3:7-9.

This verse together with the verses below, are favoured by universalists because they seem to present a universal gospel for all races. "Nations" is sometimes emotively translated as "Heathen" to try to add weight to the universal argument. To understand any passage of Scripture it is necessary to look at it as a whole by going back to the prophecy behind it to see what it is fulfilling.

To Abraham:

"And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing; and I will bless them that bless thee, and I will curse him that curseth thee, and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed." Gen. 12:2-3.

"Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and a mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?" Gen. 18:18.

"And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice." Gen. 22:18.

To Isaac:

"Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath that I swore unto Abraham thy father." Gen. 26:3.

To Jacob:

"And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed." Gen. 28:14.

To Israel:

"All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee." Psalm 22:27.

The "Families of the Earth" Being Blessed in Abraham

The major source of error in these blessing passages is what we mean by certain words. We have different words translated as earth and the ground, countries and the land, as also occurs with the words translated nations, families and kindreds. Although an extensive technical Hebrew language exposition is beyond the scope of this book, there are things that need to be pointed out.

Originally Abraham was told to go from his father's house unto an eretz that God would show him. If eretz here is the whole Earth, then Abraham must have gone to another planet! Abraham was told All the 'Earth' which thou seest, I will give thee. He was told to arise and walk through the earth. Did he walk across the whole globe? So we have to ask: if this 'earth' is the whole earth, or the promised land. It is not all the 'eretz's' of all the races on earth. Abraham was told to get himself out of his present earth and go to THE earth. There are many references which give confirmation of the meaning. THE earth does not mean the whole globe, but rather that portion belonging to the particular area or person under consideration. Contrary to popular presentation, we must note that in Genesis 12:3, the 'them' in I will bless them is plural, whereas the 'him' in I will curse him is singular. The Hebrew allows for two possible translations of be blessed, namely:

may be blessed in, or by, association with thee, and may bless themselves [as the RV footnote says].

Some awkward questions could be posed here if it was to be taken that all nations had the meaning of "every race on earth."

1. If those who curse Abraham are cursed, how could those so cursed be part of all nations which were to be blessed?

IN THIS ISSUE:

The Bible, Race, and Culture, final,	1
Armageddon is coming to an end (new intro on 5)....	6
Heaven, a Literal Place or an adjective?	10
Remember the Battle of Blood River, 18/12/1838 ..	11
Alloyed Loyalties	12
Benefits of Turmeric,	14
No Need for Gas Chambers, use vaccines	14

The views and opinions expressed in the articles herein or herewith are those of the authors and not necessarily those of CIM. They are written by fallible men. You must ask Jesus to guide your studies!

CIM reserves the right to edit submitted or reprinted material in line with CIM editorial policy. CIM does the utmost to ensure that the spirit of articles remains intact at all times.

2. Were the Egyptians blessed or cursed through Israel's presence during their captivity and also in the Exodus?

3. When the Children of Israel went into the Promised Land, they were told to exterminate all the Canaanite nations. Was that an unusual way of blessing the Canaanites? After all, they were supposed to be part of all nations. Likewise Amalek was to be exterminated.

4. In Deut. 23:6, God commanded Israel that they should not seek the peace or the prosperity of the Ammonites and the Moabites [a people born of incest] right up to the end of the age. Ezra 9:12 indicates similar treatment of the non-Israelites in the land. This is hardly a blessing on those nations, is it?

5. When the House of Israel was in captivity in Assyria, did this make the Assyrians blossom?

6. When the House of Judah was in captivity in Babylon, is there any evidence of Israel being a blessing to Babylon?

7. In prophecy why are all the forecasts concerning non-Israel nations always detailing them as being servants to Israel and for them to perish if they refuse this destiny? This is so right up to the end of the age.

8. The promise to Abraham was to "ALL" nations without exceptions. "All" cannot include those who are cursed and those God says that He hates. Hence "all" means all the nations of Israel.

Throughout Scripture, Israel was to dwell alone and shall not be reckoned among the nations [Num 23:9]. Prophecy sustains this to the end.

"And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve Him." Daniel 7:27.

"For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted." Isaiah. 60:12.

"And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came up against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles. And it shall be that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain." Zech. 14:16,17.

Israel and Judah were scattered among all nations, but are these other nations to be blessed? Jeremiah does not agree.

"... though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet I will not make a full end of thee ..." Jer. 30:11.

THERE ARE NOT TWO PROPHETICAL STREAMS

If there were two streams of prophecy, one for Israel and one for non-Israel, a mixing, or a natural Israel and a spiritual Israel, or for both "The Church" and "Israel" as in the popular presentation, all would be there in prophecy. The popular concept of a natural and a spiritual Israel does not exist. As God says He will do nothing without revealing it to His servants the prophets, any change would be found written in the prophets. When God "placed" [=yanach] Adam in the garden it was isolated to him. Yanach is used very often isolating one person or group e.g. Isa. 14:1 "I will have mercy upon Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set [yanach] them in their own land." We cannot pretend that this means that God will place people of every race each in this particular land that was promised to the fathers of Israel, even if popular or orthodox Christianity likes to say so., [or otherwise to say the land is heaven]. They do this because the separation is now supposed to be by belief only for all races, ignoring "seed's seed" and "children's children." The popular concept of "the church" cannot be found in the prophets. We must be prepared to not go beyond what is "fitly framed" -[Eph. 2]- in the Cornerstone with the foundation of the apostles and prophets because this cannot be broken. Jesus says so!

NO DISPARAGEMENT OF NON-ISRAEL RACES

In saying that Israel is still exclusive racially, in covenant terms, it has to be stated clearly that there is no implied disparagement of all the other non-Israel races. Race is a fact of life and it is also an insistent Bible fact that cannot be denied through both Testaments. But, the Bible is primarily a book about the people of the book, Israel. Israel is declared to be a servant race to serve their God, not a better race than others. Israel is presented in scripture as a "stiff-necked" rebellious people. One great difference between Israel and the other races is that God made a covenant relationship between Himself and Israel that He did not make with other races. This made Israel accountable for keeping the covenant relationship. Breaking the covenant brought judgment upon Israel and it was with the same people who had the Old Covenant that God made the New Covenant -[Heb. 8:8]. If God has not recorded in the Bible His purposes for all the other races in the same way He has done for Israel, no one has the right to presume anything about the non-Israel races that is not stated. The sense that Israel are God's chosen people is by covenant relationship and redemption. Israel has a heavy accountability and burden that is not laid upon other peoples.

But, we do have evidence that other races are cared for by God, although there are differences between these various races expressed in scripture. We find a blessing given to Hagar and it is recorded that God heard the cry of her son Ishmael [Gen. 21:17]. We find things like the repentance of Nineveh through the ministry of an Israelite. Nebuchadnezzar had a lengthening of tranquility, a word that does not relate to salvation, through an Israelite man of God. We have Naaman healed through the prayer of a prophet of Israel. Also, within Solomon's great prayer as found in 2 Chronicles 6:32-33 we find Solomon requesting God concerning the stranger "which is not of thy people Israel" and asking God to hear and answer their prayers [much like many 'Christians' might do today]. However, nothing about this is found in God's answer in 2 Chron. 7:13-14 - a telling point! We have expressions of God's hatred for certain races such as Edom being called "the people against whom the Lord hath indignation for ever" - [Mal. 1:3-4].

In the Bible, God has expressed his purposes for both the House of Israel and the House of Judah as a total singular race. One of God's purposes in giving the statutes and judgments to Israel is expressed in Deuteronomy 4:6,

"Keep therefore and do them, for this is your wisdom in the sight of the nations, which shall hear of all these statutes, and say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people. For what nation is there so great, who

New DVD:

THE TRUTH ABOUT CANCER - A GLOBAL QUEST

with Ty Bollinger. There are 5 discs to this set.

with 9 episodes and 2 Q&A sessions

This is part A. episodes 1 & 2

(B,C,D,E, to follow)

Interviews with scientists, doctors and naturopaths. Every 2nd man and 3rd woman will get cancer. Ty tries to find the truth and expose the lies. The medical monopoly promotes petro-chemical drugs. It's all about making money and maintaining a monopoly. Chemo is hazardous and very toxic, and kills the healthy cells with the diseased cells.

almost 3-1/2 hours.

#CI-1006-A @ sug don $8

hath God so nigh unto them, as the Lord our God is in all things that we call upon Him for; and what nation is there so great that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?" (make God your first line of defence-and not a last resort! "We have done everything we could, the doctors have given up, now all we can do is pray" as is the attitude of some.)

This verse demonstrates again the separation of Israel from other races, and also one of the purposes God has for Israel. In saying these things, there is no suggestion of hatred or oppression towards other races, but the practice of reverse discrimination is contrary to the Bible teaching. Reverse discrimination is actually discrimination in itself because it allows for promotion on the basis of race alone without any fair competition on the grounds of ability. Where God says that His people should not allow other races to rule over them, however clever or accomplished they might be, is a statement of purpose, not one of hatred. But keep in mind in keeping with 1 Timothy 5:8, that if you are an employer, you should always employ your own kindred first!

RACIAL IDENTITY

If we try to say there are no differences between races in God's sight, then we are unlikely to discern any answers.

First of all we must believe God's Word, relentlessly consistent as it is. We are told, "By their fruits ye shall know them"-Matt 7:18-20. The popular way of dealing with this is to say that the "fruit" are spiritual manifestations apart from anything else. But Jesus speaks about "good trees" and "corrupt trees" in this passage, and He says that it is impossible for a corrupt tree to ever bring forth good fruit. "Karpos" = 'good' means it is intrinsically good. We have to agree or disagree with Jesus that these differences exist. Fruit is the product of the tree and it bears the same seed as the original tree. The seed in the fruit will produce the same type of tree again!

When the Apostle Paul proclaimed the Message, "as many as were ordained to eternal life believed" -Acts 13:48. What about those who were not so ordained? What was the basis of being ordained before they believed? In the New Testament we have those who God "foreknew." These are the same people as He "knew" in the Old Testament. Romans 11:2 confirms this, "God has not cast away His people which He foreknew." Foreknown and foreordained are the same word. Jesus was foreordained, "before the foundation of the world" -1 Pet. 1:20., so the time of being "known" was back in the past - also with Israel.

We are told that "God knows them that are His" -2 Tim.2:19. It is not the purpose of this paper to detail racial identity because it is doubtful if anyone who does not agree with God about these racial differences would be able to see the difference of say an Israelite and a Canaanite or Edomite. With experience, members of some Biblical races are identifiable today, and some are not. We can see obvious differences between Shemites and some non-Shemites, but not all Shemites are Israelites. Some races exhibit things like shame, and experiencing the grace of God in a way that other races never do. Some races never leave their culture behind and still want to worship God and pray to the dead, or to the spirits of their ancestors, at the same time. Take away the missionary or Israelite influence from some races and they will revert to pagan ways or fall into a Roman Catholic type syncretism. It is not until we accept, "It is written" that we can divide things that differ and do it in a practical way.

This paper has not made any presumption or statement that all other races are lost, damned or anything else; what the Bible says is that they do not have either the Old or the New Covenant relationship that God made with Israel as a race. The Law of God applies to all races and all must benefit from submission; there is not suggestion that this should not be taught. Indeed, Israel is described as God's battle axe -Jer. 51:20 to bring the other races into subjection. The sons of God, out from Israel, will yet be raised "as a standard for the nations."

If someone says something like, "What about the move of God in Africa" suggesting that this contradicts what this paper is saying, it is not so. For instance in Rwanda prior to the killing fields, there was a supposed revival resulting in a reported Christian population of 86%. This did not stop the machete madness very shortly afterwards. There was "another gospel" involved. "Time" magazine pointed out that the massacre leaders were Roman Catholic priests and nuns. We must discern between the parallel that we think we see with our eyes, and "it is written." This is what Jesus referred back to, and we must do the same. Think this through; all we can be sure of is "it is written." As it is recorded of Jesus in Isaiah 11:3, "He shall not judge after the sight of His eyes, neither reprove them after the hearing of His ears." We cannot do better!

COULD ORTHODOX CHRISTIANITY BE CULTISH?

COULD ORTHODOX CHRISTIANITY BE CULTISH?

We need to look at something that might sound heretical to many at first.

1. Could orthodox Christianity be cultish?

2. Could orthodox Christianity be something that refuses to accept all the Word of God? [Primarily from the pre-conditioning of tradition, not necessarily from insincerity].

3. Is the "Go into all the world" doctrine as generally taught really based on the Law, the Psalms and the Prophets, or on valid interpretation of both Testaments? It certainly does not reflect the "As ye go preach, saying, the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand," and restoring the Kingdom to Israel.

4. Has orthodox Christianity a wrong slant because it will not believe the prophetic words of Jacob and Moses for Israel in the "last days"? Jesus says that if any will not believe Moses, they cannot understand His words. In Luke 16:31 Jesus goes further and says people would never be persuaded to believe even if one rose from the dead. Believing Moses and the prophets is essential. For this reason alone, many churchgoers can not fully understand Jesus' words because they will not accept the authority of Moses and the prophets. This is a significant and important issue!

If the "all the world" universalist doctrine is wrong, then that belief is cultish. This is so even if Martin Luther confirmed what he was brought up to believe and introduced into Protestantism and most have followed it since. This one belief is the source of conflict which undermines faith, but it is wrongly inferred "it is what every Christian must believe or he is not a Christian."

The wrong doctrine is summed up in the generalized

New Video:

WITH OPEN GATES: IMMIGRANTS FLOODING INTO AND DESTROYING GERMANY.

Syrians, Pakistanis, Bengladeshis, Afghans, and more. Demanding to be given money and refusing food packages and bottled water which they throw out. No thanks for anything, just more demands. Comments by Donald Trump on Angela Merkel.

also contains comments on the Paris terror attack [Germany is passing laws to house 'refugees' in private houses with Germans who have spare rooms. The police will forcefully come and inspect for suitability, no owner permission is required. - this was from another source and is not on the video] belief, "Jesus died to save the world" and it arises from "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature," and "God so loved the world." These are said to be the best known and the best loved verses in Christendom, but as the "all," "world," and "every creature" are taken wrongly, then Rome has originated the greatest fraud of all time.

CI-1007 @ sug don $8

Part of this fraud is inferring that 'Israel' and 'The Jews' are synonyms. This is false for many reasons. ["The Jew" and "the Jews" do not have the same meaning in the New Testament]. "Jews" is a multi-racial term. It is a lie to say that having a belief makes every one of that belief into a race! It is common to hear people referring to "Jews" when talking about "Israel" in the Old Testament. In the Old Testament the word relates to Judah as part of Israel (the first time the word is used is in 2 Kings 16:6 and the Jews were at war with Israel). The Encyclopedia Judaica makes the claim several times that "Modern Jewry is Edom" or "Edom is in modern Jewry," and that Jewry made no claim to association with Hebrews or Israel until 1860, the time of the founding of Zionism. In saying what has been said in this paper, readers will have no need to doubt the basis of their redemption through the blood of Jesus, because the readers will probably be Israelite Anglo-Saxon, Celtic or Nordic people. Redemption only applies to the race of Israel being the people Jesus came to save - Luke 1:1-77. They alone could be "bought back." But, others can have safety by obedience, just as much as the mixed-multitude travelling with Israel had at the crossing of the Red Sea.

Daniel shows that the nations of the earth symbolized in four world-kingsdoms will be ended and be replaced by the Stone Kingdom. The present madness shown in Nebuchadnezzar's dream will end when Israel rules with Jesus and the Most High will rule in the kingdoms of men. Presently, Jesus is reigning until all His enemies have been put under His feet.

"ANOTHER GOSPEL"?

We can hear things said such as "Nationalism is incompatible with the Gospel," the reasoning being that since "all are not one in Christ," [one in anointing] there is no place for nationalism, and discrimination. This is exactly the position of the anti-Christ world-government which desires to merge all races [and all religions], and so who are those who talk about incompatibility really aligned with? Whether or not there is incompatibility depends on whether or not redemption is universal or particular in application, only one of which can be the true gospel. In scripture we find continuous racial separation until the end of the age. Even after Jesus returns to reign over the nations we find continuous racial separation until the end of the age. Even after Jesus reigns over the nations with a "rod of iron" [Ps. 2:9, Rev. 2:27, 12:5, 19:5], Israel is to rule with God as God's "battle-axe and weapons of war" over the other races which are still separated (as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats).

When we study the teaching of the New Age Lord Maitreya, we can see that he supports universality in his claim that he will inspire all humanity to see itself as one family in his words, "spiritually link all races, cultures and religions into a common cause for global harmony and peace." This is also the doctrine of the World Council of Churches, World Government, Roman Catholicism and Communism.

When we read, "neither is there salvation in any other," and, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," we have statements that declare Christianity to be totally unique and exclusive. There is no room for any mixture of Christianity and other cultures and their gods. Those who want to "spiritually link all races, cultures and religions into a common cause for global harmony and peace" are of necessity preaching what Paul calls 'another gospel.' The great deception is in denying the Bible doctrine that teaches that all races are treated differently by God. God made the vessels for different purposes, He says. God did not give them equal rights, either! Jesus said, "But he that is greatest amongst you, let him be your servant." If even one person is greater than another, then all are not equal. As we have said, there is no equality in natural endowments either.

The deception is a mis-representation of 'love.' Because the Bible deals with truth, it recognizes racial behavioural patterns and intellectual attainment differences rather than covering them up. Indigenous cultures, if left without contact with what has sprung from Israel's inventive ability, remain primitive. If we look at this from the historical viewpoint, the Bible says that God's people were to be colonisers, ultimately to rule over the other nations with a rod of iron, and thus to bless them. The British colonisers with the Anglo-Saxon genius for government were able to demonstrate love in bringing to an end the tribal wars and tribal genius for murder and mayhem. If any want to say that 'love' is ending colonisation and then mixing cultures, then it is not hard to observe the reinstatement of the murder and mayhem following de-colonisation (as can be seen in present-day Zimbabwe and South Africa). The now popular propaganda is that the British stole or destroyed the cultures of other races, and that therefore they have a responsibility to pay heavily to reintroduce and promote these cultures. The false idea is that the world will then have global harmony. The Bible pictures what is now happening and that God's punishment for Israel's failure to teach the Laws of God will be giving their wealth to foreign races. They would become impoverished from within (through thousands of "refugees"?).

Thus we can see the essential difference between the Bible and the International Bill of Human Rights is the uniqueness of the Gospel of the Kingdom of God as opposed to 'Human Rights.' - 'Human Rights' are not equal because they are dispensed or withheld 'according to the principles and purposes of the United Nations,' and not God.

This all leaves Christendom with two differing gospels only one of which is consistent through all scripture. The reader has to admit that only one of these can be the true gospel, and then consider whether or not what is commonly preached so often today is right or wrong in application.

GOSPEL NUMBER ONE

This is that gospel which cannot be found throughout the Law, the Psalms, the Prophets, or through the New Testament. So, it must be false. It says in effect:

1. The Law and the Ten Commandments were give to every race, as a covenant.
2. Jesus gave His life so that He becomes the Redeemer of all races, to redeem them from the curse of that broken Law, even if the other races did not have that covenant-law

SORRY!!

Due to a computer glitch, last month's John Weaver messages had the wrong numbers.

CDs of the Month

J-176 The Christian & Debt, part 1

J-177 The Christian & Debt, part 2

J-178 The Christian & Debt, part 3

J-179 The Christian & Debt, part 4

J-180 The Christian & Debt, part 5

J-181 The Christian & Debt, part 6

J-182 The Christian & Debt, part 7

all pastor John Weaver relationship.

3. God loves all men and every individual member of all the human races, including those God says that He hates.

4. The gospel is for all sinners of every race, [not “the sinners of My people”-Amos 9:10].

5. All are called. There are no Tares or Goats, despite what Jesus says to the contrary.

6. All are chosen. There are no inferior vessels, despite what Paul says to the contrary.

7. There are no Twelve Tribes of Israel any more -[even if they are through the N.T.].

8. All men are supposed to have faith. -[The Bible says “All men have not faith”].

9. The Father gave Jesus to “all men” of all races, not “all men” of Israel.

10. All races are pre-destined -[God must have been wrong to expect Israel to destroy certain mixed races. All are the same now, it is suggested].

11. There are no elect people, nor any election according to grace.

12. God has mercy on everyone, not just on whom He chooses or elects.

13. There are no scriptural differences between men of differing origins.

14. That “men” always includes women as well.

15. That non-Israel races can be “adopted” into Israel, ignoring, “Who are Israelites to whom pertaineth the adoption”-Rom. 9:4, and “of whom concerning the flesh Christ came.”

16. God may be worshipped acceptably within any culture and religion; all being paths to God.

17. All races are the same in God’s sight.

18. It is now up to all sinners of all races to embrace the love of God or to not embrace it. It is up to everyone of every race to either have eternal life, or to perish.

i.e. THIS GOSPEL IS FALSE BECAUSE IT SAYS IT IS MANKIND, IN GENERAL, THAT IS SOVEREIGN, AND MAKES

THE CHOICES. This would mean God is not sovereign in establishing a covenant relationship with Israel. About this we read in Galatians 1:9, “If any preach any other gospel unto you than you have received, let him be accursed.”

(if you are attending a church which teaches the above, you will be accursed - Get out of that Babylonian church NOW)

GOSPEL NUMBER TWO - The True Gospel.

This is the everlasting gospel, the true gospel in which we stand, if we continue in “The Faith” that was once delivered unto the saints, and delivered to no-one else. This says:

1. The Bible does not say anywhere that God loves all mankind, but only the ‘world’ of His elect nation. Election is established before having done good or evil.

2. Jesus came for those chosen from before the “foundation of the world” -[which means the “overthrow of the order”].

3. Jesus is the Shepherd of the sheep only. He said, “I lay down my life for the sheep” -[John 10:15]. He did not add “for the goats and everyone else as well.”

4. Jesus prayed for “them which Thou gavest Me,” not everyone else as well.

5. Jesus came to save His People from their sins. They were already His People. The gospel is for “the transgressions of my people” -[Isa. 53:8].

6. It is the gospel of grace ... “And I will be gracious to whom I will...”

7. It is not of ourselves, it is the gift of God.

8. God is merciful to whom He will -[Rom. 9:18].

9. The sons [huios] of God are adopted out of the Children [teknon] of Israel, not out of others or other races.

10. The Potter makes different vessels according to His purposes, some for glory and some for destruction -[Rom 9:21].

11. All races are not the same in God’s sight.

12. God does not accept mixed worship of Ba’al and Himself.

13. The gift is given only to the elect, through regeneration and efficacious calling of God.

14. Jesus is the Redeemer of Israel [both Houses] only.

I.E. THE TRUE GOSPEL SAYS THAT GOD IS ABSOLUTELY SOVEREIGN AND PARTICULAR!

This is no new doctrine. It can be found through many years of history in the songs of the redeemed from among one people:

*Ye chosen seed of Israel’s race,
A remnant weak and small,
Hail Him who saves you by His grace And crown Him Lord of all.*

Quite some time ago I wrote an article on Armageddon. At the time the invasion that it represents was taking place, but simply as a trickle compared to what is happening now. Nevertheless, even as a trickle over a long span of time (as of the 1950s) our major cities and towns are already places where ‘Saksons’ no longer live or can live. But only a handful of Saksons balked at this. Now the flow is full-on and the invasion is clear to see.

This is the part of Revelation that will be followed by the words, “It is done.” That will be followed by Babylon splitting 3 ways. We need to fully understand that Babylon of old was the taking over of white nations to make them a melting pot. Babylon, Assyria, Egypt and so on, back in those days were WHITE nations, like Holland, Germany and England once were. But whites without God’s Law love to mix with non-whites, and the problem is not new, but the problem has now reached its bounds with nowhere to go but down. That is the Armageddon of Revelation.

So modern Babylon is also the nations of the melting pot. This means ONLY the so-called former white Christian nations. China is not Babylon, nor is India or Japan and so on. These are nothing more than lands in agreement with Babylon by way of treaties and pacts. But Babylon itself is of 3 unified so-called once Christian white nations, and these are: The USA and her main English-speaking Allies (Canada, Australia, New Zealand), the other block is the European Union, and the third block is Russia. This triad empire is now finding itself at odds with itself. Russia is fed up with not having equal say, the EU also, and so the EU and Russian blocks are at odds thanks to the policies of the USA block. Policies of trade, sanctions, and Mid-East issues.

This is seeing a rift and may well spell the end of Babylon, and so at this point it is well worth re-reading my article on Armageddon .. again... AdeW.

ARMAGEDDON IS COMING TO AN END, AND NO, IT IS NOT A THING YET TO COME.

by Adam De Witt

Revelation 16:16 “And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.”

Here is the rub, if the ‘Establishment’ can trick everyone to believe that Armageddon is yet to come and it is to be a ‘this and that’ sort of blitz war, then we the sheeple would never do anything, believing that we are at least safe for now, albeit with some nasty things going on in the world and around us. But what if we were in the thick of it right now? What if we are in Armageddon and have been for some time now? And if so, why don’t we see it? Surely the effects would be self-proving around us?

Could it be that the ‘Establishment’ has tricked us to believe it is something it is not, and that what it is, we thus do not see? Did not the Bible warn us that ‘they’ would put lies for truth, and darkness for light?

The standard meaning of Armageddon (which is the ‘establishment’ one) is summed up by the following found in Wikipedia:

“Armageddon (Ancient Greek: Ἀρμαγεδών Harmagedōn,^{[1][2]} Hebrew: אֶרֶץ מַגִּידוֹן Har Megiddo, Arabic نودج حمره, Late Latin: Armagedōn^[3]) is the site of an epic battle associated with the end time prophecies of the Abrahamic religions.”

And so, with this in mind, nearly everyone in any church, believes in some variation of some never before seen war, involving ultimate good and evil; oh yes, and an anti-Christ or devil creature thrown in for good measure. Seeing that no war has yet fitted these ideas yet, it must surely then be in the yet-to-come.

And then, what with the Mayan calendar and Kosherdale (that’s Hollywood to those who still do not know it is Jewish-owned and run, read “An Empire of Their Own” by Neil Gabler, a Jewish author who shows it is all run by and for Jews), we have a great tale of woe to come, so much so that the bulk of folks who are non-church goers, also believe in this huge war of wars and call it (the Battle of -) Armageddon.

We need to look very carefully at who tells us what!

If all sources seem to tell us that Armageddon is this great battle of battles, then we can draw a closing thought from this; either all of them right in what they say, or they are all held in the sway of one great lie.

So how do we know? Who do we trust? Guess what? The answer is simple. The only bit of literature that can lay claim to bringing the term into the world is the Bible. Thus, it can only be from the Bible that we must seek its meaning. If those who give a meaning don’t know the Bible or ever mock the Bible, then how can one trust their opinion at all? No other book has the term as its own; nor is it in any other religious book of the standard religions. Sure, there are those who stretch terms and overlay these into other literature of other religions, but that does not mean it is in there.

The birth of the whole idea is to be found in the Bible and so, to find out what it means, that is where we must seek for its meaning. And this can be done by delving into the meaning and the context in which it is set and the overall theme of the Bible. Nothing else will do.

It is found only in Revelation 16:16. Strong’s gives a link to “a berg or mountain or hill”, being from ‘har’ and as “a throng or a rendezvous” for ‘Megiddo’, itself from, ‘gedad’, meaning “to crowd, to gather selves together, linking to ‘gash’, hinting that “the gathering is to squeeze together to the hurt of the throng, or by the throng”. Note also the use of the French word by Strong, ‘rendezvous’. It means “an appointed place of meeting, also for troops and ships; a refuge”.

The term is used symbolically; indeed, the book of Revelation explains itself to be written in signs or symbolism. The Bible tells us throughout scripture, the meanings of its given symbolisms. And a ‘hill, berg, or mountain’ represents a ‘nation’ or ‘realm’ when used in a symbolic context.

Through the ages, sayings are often given using symbolic speech, such as, “it’s raining cats and dogs”. The Bible follows the same tradition, or better said: Saxon cultures have followed that tradition.

We all know that “to bring a horse to water” has nothing to do with water or horses, likewise the Biblical saying, “ploughing with my heifer” has nothing to do with ploughing or cows, but instead means, having intercourse with someone’s wife. Likewise, “beast of the field” does not mean cattle, but is an ancient term for ‘hunter and gatherer’. One right-wing group (which is an Edomite-founded one to trick Saxons) makes a big deal about a Biblical saying, “one who pisseth against the wall”, as a good reason to dump the Bible. Yet it fails to highlight how Saxon culture uses ‘piss’ today. “He’s pissed” (drunk), “He’s pissed off” (fed up), “Piss off” (go a way), “Pissing in the wind” (pointless) and so on.

Words too are used in such ways, for instance, a ‘pig’ may not mean a swine, but rather a ‘policeman’ in today’s world.

It is therefore wrong to take words and sayings (used to mean what was then commonly understood) to mean something else in current ignorance. Translating words is all well and good, but one needs also to bring across concepts of the language and time things were written. This has all too often failed the translators who even turned words into names, by not translating some words, and giving the first letter of other words a capital, a hot example is the word

New Video:

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE SODOMITES

Steven Anderson

A hard-hitting message about homosexuality. If you believe it is a normal lifestyle then you have been brainwashed. Sodom & Gomorrah were destroyed because this sin was rampant in these towns. This sin is mentioned more than 54 times in the Bible and sodomites are described as vile, wicked, reprobate, unseemly, and unnatural. What you see in movies and television is that homosexuality is okay and acceptable, and even cool. But the Bible paints an ugly picture of this lifestyle, and condemns those who take ‘pleasure in them’ i.e. ‘straights’ who support homosexuals.

God is not about to apologize over Sodom & Gomorrah!

CI-1002 @ sug don $8

'satan' (but that is something for another day).

Indeed, whole religions and cults have sprung up over mis-translations. Many occult groups, including the Freemasons, make a big deal over this 'Lucifer' name as if it's the name of a super-spook being. Yet it is a word that is in the Bible only ONCE and for that matter, only in certain translations and not in others. Why do we have Latin words in an English translation? It means 'bright' or 'bright and morning star', which is also a title given to Jesus! However, in the passage where the word is 'used', it refers not to a super-spook but to a mere man, the king of Babylon and he's been, "pushing up the daisies" (oh yes, that's a saying to mean, dead) for some three thousand years! Yet so many fear or honour 'Lucifer'. But he's dead; dead as a door nail.

Likewise, Armageddon is mis-applied greatly. Everyone has been taught to dread it, or if you are into warped fantasies, a dreadful time to look forward to. Well let me disappoint you, it will never happen in years or months to come. Why? Because it is not something yet to come. It is here and now and we are in the thick of it.

The Dutch say, "Een mans dood is een ander mans brood". One man's death is another man's bread. What is bad for some is good for others. But the system however tells us, what is good for some is good for all and what is bad for some is bad for all, because 'we' are now deemed all equal. This concept is part of Armageddon in which we are told to stick together; all races, as what is bad for blacks in Haiti is bad for Whites in the West.

Jesus tells us in Matthew that the day will come when all the nations are brought before him, and that they are deemed thus as equal before those who have done this ingathering.

I read the verses in question to a Judeo-Christian (note, I did not say Christian), and added, nations is translated from 'ethnos' and so, before Jesus, the churches have brought all the ethnics. I then read to him, "...and Jesus said, thank you for bringing all the nations to me, now they are all saved". He looked at me contently. So I said, "Isn't that what it says?" He said, "That's what you've just read." I then said, "But I did not read that. I made it up, because that is what you wanted to hear; but this is what is truly written, "...and He shall separate them, one from another". The man was most 'pissed off'.

There are several points here. Folks believe what they are made to believe, or what they want to believe, and gloss over what they don't like. But the other point is, the verse tells of a time in which all the nations are brought together, all pressing together, all in a country or system of gathered together ethnic throngs. Jesus was saying, the day will come when somewhere on earth, and at some time there will be a realm of different races brought together in God's name (name meaning, authority).

When they built the tower of Babel, this was also all the races brought together under one authority, in one name, in one common goal, all under the religious banner of those leading the peoples, all under the name of their spin on God. Babel is a melting pot. The Babel idea appears again in Revelation as hidden (or Mystery) Babylon, namely, Babylon in nature but not understood to be so by the throngs of people. But which people?

Old Babel was not all over the planet, it was a realm (a berg, a hill, a mountain). It was where the offspring of Adam lived and worked, as one with non-Adamites, the 'beast of the field' (hunters and gatherer races dressed up as Adamites). Indeed, the king of Babylon much later on, was king over man and beast (of the field). This was the so-called 'Lucifer' ruling over a melting pot at that time.

Now ask yourself, where in the world today are all races living together under one authority, and for that matter in places that were founded in Jesus' and God's name (authority)? Do we find a melting pot in Japan? Or in Korea, north or south? Or what of the Congo, or Jordan, or Tunisia, or Liberia, or Haiti? No.

But what then of the so-called Western nations, the lands that were ONCE Saxon? Indeed, please find me a Saxon land today that is as ethnically homogenous as Japan or the Congo. Can you find one? I can't. Yet I can find plenty of lands that were ONCE Saxon; Zuid Afrika, Canada, USA, Australia, NZ, Holland, Germany, France, England, Switzerland, Austria, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Denmark, Norway, Sweden and so on.

After WWII things began to change greatly for the Saxon lands and at a swifter rate in the 1970's with the 'boat people' coming to our Saxon shores. In Holland for instance, when the first boat people came, all the church bells rang across the land to welcome them in. To the churches, this was a warped outgrowth of missionary work.

Ah yes, those missionaries. They stepped over the wretched starving poor of their own kind and did naught for them. Rather they happily trundled off to the far reaches outside the 'realm' of Christendom (mountain, berg, hill of Christendom) in 'God's name' (authority) to bring them, 'the beast of the field', to Jesus. That nitwit Dr. Livingstone for instance, converted only ONE 'beast of the field', and it went back to it's gods when it learnt that Livingstone's god (I say 'god' as Livingstone did not represent Our Father at all) would not let it keep all its wives.

The melting pot is a dream come true for the churches. It is the point in time when all those 'ethnos-es' can come together in one realm, the lands of Christendom, the lands of the Saxons, all under one name. Ah yes, and teaching children the song, all the children of the world, Jesus loves them all, red yellow, black or white (but only Israel is precious in His sight!).

At last, all the nations are brought before Jesus as is stated in Matthew. To them, it is quaint. But it is what Jesus warned of. And to those who did this He does not say thanks, instead: "go away you workers of lawlessness, I never knew you."

Now, some thirty years after the boat people's first landings in the realm of Saxondom, the hoards outside are still pressing to get into our realm. They are not squeezing

Old Historic Video: Discovering Australia's Christian Heritage with Col Stringer

Few Australians know anything of their nation's rich Christian heritage and the fact that many of our early explorers, pioneers and politicians were men and women of God. It is unknown and sadly untaught that the first spoken words over this nation by Fernandez de Quiros on the day of Pentecost 1606 not only named Australia 'South Land of the Holy Spirit' but also claimed it in the name of Jesus and for the proclamation of the Gospel.

"He commanded our ancestors to teach them to their children, so the next generation might know them - even the children not yet born - so they in turn might teach them to their children. So each generation can set its hope on God." (Psa. 78:1-8)

A must for all home-schoolers.

CI-239 @ sug don $25 - or LOAN $7 to get into any other realm (berg, hill, mountain) but ours.

Even during the apartheid years in Zuid Afrika, the beasts were squeezing in under a border of razor wire, yes into a land that so-called discriminated against them.

In the USA, beasts pour in from Mexico, in Australia they pour in even if it means coming on rickety boats over thousands of miles of water. In Europe, they pour in, by passing all the lands that have the same culture and religion as they have. Yes, they pour in, and squeeze in into all Saxon lands. (watch the video “With Open Borders.”)

Let me repeat the meanings I gave above for Armageddon: It is found only in Revelation 16:16. Strong’s gives a link to “a berg or mountain or hill”, being from ‘har’ and as “a throng or a rendezvous” for ‘Megiddo’, itself from, ‘gedad’, meaning “to crowd, to gather selves together, linking to ‘gash’, hinting that “the gathering is to squeeze together to the hurt of the throng, or by the throng”. Note also the use of the French word by Strong, ‘rendezvous’. It means “an appointed place of meeting, also for troops and ships; a refuge”.

Armageddon is a refuge for the beast hordes, but death to Saxons. “Een mans dood is een ander mans brood.” (one man’s death is another man’s bread).

Putting it all together: it is to do with a hill, berg, mountain, namely, a realm and it was in old Israel thus it is linked with new Israel (not Israeli, the Edomite enclave in Palestine of today, but rather, mystery Israel as we are dealing with mystery Babylon. The Israeli state is not a mystery; it is in your face, day in, day out.)

It is also a place where throngs squeeze to get in, they gather like an invasion, hence as, troops and in ships (boat people). Furthermore, the throngs are not happy to live in other lands that are non-Saxon, they don’t want to linger in let’s say Indonesia, no, they want to go to America, Australia, England, Germany, France, Zuid Afrika, and so on. These are the ‘appointed’ places which, when boiled down, are one place, former Christendom, former Saxondom. These are all under one authority today, Neo-Babylon. These are Mystery Babylon. These are the places of the gathering of all the nations. These are the places of refuge, yes, of the hoards of refugees.

Revelation 16 deals with the last church age, the Laodicean. It is the one where they say they are rich but are poor. The churches claim they have all the knowledge needed but are the poorest in knowledge, the mateship (society) they have spawned claims that we are the richest nations, yet we are very poor.

The claim is a trick so that we believe we can afford to pay the throngs of beasts abroad and afford their throngs to come into our midst. It is a claim that masks the depth of worklessness (unemployment) so that Saxons do not rise up to save their work places. It is a time when churches are lukewarm.

Whereas in Pakistan blasphemers are executed, here blaspheming is interwoven in daily life and entertainment. Yes, even in the sciences where all weather changes are acknowledged to a heathen mother goddess, Mother Nature; denying Our Father who does all these things. It is not Mother Nature, but Father God.

It is a time of our nakedness and shame. Nakedness means without covering, namely, not covered by God, even though they claim to be Christian. This is because, only in the last church age are Christians transfigured to Judeo-Christians, thereby losing their covering. As things are of the ‘geist’ (spirit, mindset), they are also of the flesh, body, literal; and so we see nakedness everywhere, not just in porn, which is now so ‘everywhere,’ but also in things not deemed porn: adverts, and in beach wear, yea, even street wear. Women today wear tights as a garment showing the full shape of their legs and their rears and the other.

It is also the day of the lay preacher, and thus lay churches founded by any clown with half an idea.

Revelation 16 crosses over with Revelation 13:9 onwards and Revelation 11:7 onwards. These chapters address the 20th century and the 21st century. It starts with the great wars, WWI and WWII whereby the befolkling (population) dances in the streets over the death of the two witnesses (the great street parties at the end of WWII). It speaks of the death of the last Saxon rickes (empires), both British and German.

These chapters also speak of the speaking images of the system (TV) that came after the death of the witnesses, the death of Christendom. The first witness died when Esau took over fully with the Federal Reserve Act and with it came a multi-culturalism leading to multi-racialism and it was born within the Roaring Twenties. It was also known as the Jazz Age. (Jazz being negro slang for ‘semen’). The negro seed, in ‘geist’ (spirit) and body was spreading over the West, fostered by Jewish money and might.

Whites for the first time lived solely for money and entertainment (i.e. ‘bread and circuses’) and the state churches emptied and lay churches rose. Women called themselves ‘Flappers’ as they were able to (being freed from Christian wholesomeness) flap with their mental wings from one man to another, even from a woman to another in loose sexual relationships - smoking and boozing and Voodooing along. This folks, was the Roaring Twenties, your great grannies and great grandpas were there!

It was that generation whose party was pooped on by the Great Depression but worse still, by Hitler who was a real wet blanket on the Melting Pot Party. Imagine the disdain by these ‘modern’ Saxons when Hitler banned lewd entertainment such as Cabaret, as well as Modern Art which he labeled as decadent, and Modern Architecture (which he called ‘Cosmopolitan Rubbish’), but he also banned, modern music (which was basically ancient Voodoo), and yes, he banned race-mixing!

How could the Saxon world, at last free from Biblical rules bear Hitler’s laws that seemed as restrictive as Old Testament laws! Yes, his vision was a witness to Saxondom. But Saxondom had sucked up to Babylon and thus with Edomite leaders declared war on Germany and danced in the streets at its death.

With ‘that’ Germany out of the way, there were no more witnesses left in Saxondom to stand in the way of the Melting Pot. Neo-Babylon was free to begin its long awaited dream of destroying the sleeping true Israelites, the Saxons.

Neo-Babel was from thence free, with the backing of heathen Saxons (that includes Judeo-Christians) who so loved Voodoo (Jazz, Swing, Blues, Pop, Rock, and so on) to bring in the next phase of Babel: Armageddon. The fall of Saxondom began with the Federal Reserve Act. Then

Old Historic Video

1995 Rehoboth Home School Concert
At the end of the year a number of children took part in putting on a concert to demonstrate (in part) what they had learned in singing, memorizing and playing instruments. An interesting interlude from the Roelofs family chapel, almost 3 hours long with a Psalms sing-a-long at the end. Something to encourage your children and grandchildren.

CI-240 @ sug don $17

came WWI, and an attempt at Armageddon that never got far as Hitler got in the way. After WWII, the system worked its way towards it again. By the 1970s, the barrier that split East from West, the 'Euphrates' dried up.

This was not a real river but rather, borders and seas (oceans). These were no longer a hindrance to those of 'the East'. Paving the way was multi-culturalism with the unclean doctrines of the heathen religions working to take over the Western mind. Judeo-Christianity became "the only Christianity in town".

Judaism became seen as the corner stone of all the three big religions, and Islam became the most heard. The heathen were made welcome as the Saxons had become Judaized Whiggers (White-negros) and these were gathered together in a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

Note if-you-will (please), that the text in Revelation stresses, in the Hebrew tongue. Is that not odd when Hebrew was by then a dead tongue? Sure, a form of Hebrew was around at the time, but it was only left as a Rabbinical tongue. The New Testament text was in Greek. This word was placed into the text because it was a saying, one that was understood at the time. It is an idiom for today's saying, the Melting Pot. Melting Pot is a modern term for Armageddon.

Thus, the way was made free to form the Melting Pot, with Saxons having fought for it. Yes folks, the Melting Pot, that is Armageddon! The verse does NOT say, "they were gathered for the battle called Armageddon", it states, "they were brought to Armageddon" - gathered.

This is the greatest achievement of Babylon, the Melting Pot, it is the dream of melting pot lackeys, the Judeo-Christians, it is their ideal. To them, Hitler was a monster, who if alive today would divide the melting pot. But wait ...Jesus said He was to divide the melting pot ...hmmm ...does that makes him a monster? That is a Jesus which Judeo-Christians can not stomach.

It is this Jesus, non-church going Saxons also can not hack. Yet Revelation tells us, "it is done". Then it talks of great earthquakes and so on after Armageddon is done. Indeed, Revelation is speaking in symbolism when it speaks of earthquakes and so on, but as it is in spirit, it is also in the world and flesh. Since the boat people and hordes of beast 'refos' (refugees) stream into former Christendom, our weather has been changing. But Babylon tries to hide the truth. It knows God is still in control, it is God doing it. Yet it claims it is all at the hand of Mother Nature. The tune changes from the Ozone Hole, to Global Warming, to Climate Change, now to Global Freezing.

Armageddon is basically the last great phase of Babylon. It is not a nuke war, it is not a meteor strike or any other catastrophic blitz type, load of tripe as brewed up in Hollywood or the Edomite media. Rather, it is a slow stealth war, hidden from blind-eyed and deaf-eared Saxons. It is the most catastrophic war against Saxons ...EVER. It is called in a modern catch-cry as, multi-racialism, and we are in it bloomin' deep. That my Saxon Israelite kin, is Armageddon!

Lastly:

In this realm of the gathered throngs, Saxon men are taught to be self haters, they are the bottom of the heap; painted as dumb and violent and they have turned to self harm, self-killing, booze, porn, drugs and mindless sport to flee the pain of being down trodden. Saxon women are brash and aggressive but very unhappy. Thinking they are happy shopping and with feminism, but feminism is controlled by alien males in high places and shopping only enriches the 'traders of the earth' (an ancient saying for, multi-nationals, or as Revelation calls them, the Shipmasters of Babylon).

In this Armageddon, Saxon children are the oppressors of Saxon dads, never chastised by parents and thrown into a world run by 'wolves' and allied predators. In this realm the Saxon culture is dead, music is voodoo, news is anti-Saxon slander, fashion is homosexual and Jewish made, architecture is Jewish from the Bauhaus movement, art is Jewish and African tribal, top jobs go to the whores of the Edomites. But the very top are in Edomite hands only.

Environmentalism is about making the world a better place for hunters and gatherers dressed up as lambs (beasts of the field). In such an environment the Social Stress on Saxons will cause them to stop breeding. Indeed, Saxons have all but stopped breeding, believing the world is not a place to raise children and the world is over-populated. But while White Saxons are having 1.8 children per family, the strangers among them are having 8.1 children per family. This environment fetters farming, furthering the death throes of the Saxons; as Saxons were made to survive only by farming, they can not live as beasts of the field.

Saxon men need causes to stand up for, yet the only causes on offer are made by Saxon haters, thus these are pointless causes; saving native plants and whales whilst untold Saxon babies are slaughtered every day in aborticide clinics. Even silent protests outside abortion clinics are now banned in Victoria, within 150 metres. With no truth taught from the Bible, our light has gone out. We, the stars and lights of the world, have fallen to earth and have been snuffed, to be replaced by fake Edomite stars, tv, film and sport whores.

This is truly our darkest hour!

The night is at its darkest as Saxons do not know what to fight for; they do not know that multi-racialism IS a war. Those Saxons who do say anything at all, are quashed by brain-smutted Saxons who will die fighting to uphold the right to be a mob of heathen twits. Indeed, the Saxons were all too keen to smash Germany, drain Zuid Afrika, end segregation in the U.S., end the White Australia Policy in Australia, ridicule Rhodesia, slander former Belgian Congo, and dump all former colonies in an effort to keep playing international sport, have international Voodoo music, and international Talmudic entertainment, and have Multi-national (read 'Asian') sold goods, while our manufacturing died and went off-shore. A small country like Holland can build cars and trucks (DAF), but Australia cannot sustain its Holden.

But my Saxon kin, so far, all of history has been unfolding as Revelation tells it. Only the last part, that follows Armageddon, is yet to unfold, and unfold it will as Revelation tells it. There is no other script that the true history follows, regardless of the Edomite script that is rammed down our throats. And the true script tells us that the next phase is the unraveling of Neo-Babylon and the rise of the Saxon; Saxons in rule with 'Their father', yes, Our Father. Amen. Hail Jesus!

notes:

*Study to shew thyself approved:
study God's Law, 2nd Commandment.*
THOU SHALT NOT MAKE UNTO THEE ANY GRAVEN IMAGE

Ted R. Weiland

Because the 1st and 2nd Commandments both relate to worshipping false gods, it is sometimes difficult to distinguish between them. A simple rule of thumb can determine whether a passage is addressing 1st or 2nd Commandment disobedience.....

#821 @ sug don $12.65

1. <http://bibletranslation.ws/trans/revwgrk.pdf>
2. <http://scripturetext.com/revelation/16-16.htm>
3. Collins English Dictionary, Harper Collins, 3rd ed., p.81

HEAVEN, A LITERAL PLACE OR AN ADJECTIVE?

by Ed Sommerville

In most Evangelical churches of today, their theology is centered around salvation and how they can go to heaven when they die. Most of them have their own visions stored in their minds over the years of what it's like, as there is no description given in the Bible. Many of their ideas have been derived from hymns, as it has become a hymnbook theology.

They actually feel that they will be up there in a place that they can walk around and talk to the people that have gone before them, including family, Old Testament saints, the apostles and Jesus Himself. No one seems to know where this heaven is located in the universe. Is it a planet similar to earth or is it a large flat round platform suspended in air, that has oxygen, water and trees? Some even believe that the streets will be paved with gold and they will all have mansions.

Some will be quick to say that heaven is mentioned many times in the New Testament, so there must be one some place. Heaven is not mentioned as a place in the Bible. The Bible refers to the kingdom of or from heaven many times and the word kingdom is the primary word, and the word heaven tells us where it comes from. The kingdom is not in heaven, it's from heaven. It also mentions the kingdom from God. Again, the kingdom is not in God, it is from God.

At the time of the apostles, false doctrines from the Eastern religions from Babylon and Greek mythology started to creep into the early church, including the immortal soul doctrine. They deceived many people at that time like the tempter did in the Garden of Eden, by telling them, thou shalt not surely die. With an ungodly doctrine like that, they had to find a place to put them since they never die, even though the Bible says in Hebrews 9:27, It is appointed unto man once to die, and after that the judgment. I find it odd that we are told that the dead immediately after death go either to heaven or hell before the judgment.

In Acts 2:29, Peter told the people regarding that belief, Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day. Then he clarified it by saying in verse 34, For David is not ascended into the heavens. That is in keeping with what the Psalmist said in 115:16, The heaven, even the heavens are the Lord's; but the earth hath he given to the children of men. That is referring to us, as we are to inherit the earth (Ps. 25).

Don't you think it would be a good idea to see that the Bible has to say about the state of the dead instead of what passes as truth today? All go to one place, all are of the dust, and all turn to the dust again. Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth. Eccl. 3:20-21. It is the spirit [the breath of life] that goes back to God. Not a conscious spirit or soul. This is what Paul committed unto Him, against that day, the resurrection.

This is what David had to say about death. On that very day his thoughts perish. Psalms 146:4. I have heard preachers that don't believe that for a minute when they say "you'll be more alive than you are now" and the one's in hell will remember every time they refused to walk down the aisle. They have even made a movie called, The First 5 Minutes in Hell, so as to get people "saved" and into the church. They feel that the end justifies the means with no concern for truth.

There are several verses that are used at funerals to condone the idea that the departed is now in heaven. One verse is the thief on the cross, which is not translated well, to say the least. First of all he was told that he would be with Jesus that very day in the paradise. Wouldn't that have been a good place to use the word heaven instead of paradise?

Isn't it strange that you never read in the Bible that anyone had gone to heaven or he is with the Lord? No one stops to think that Jesus never went to heaven that day as He was in hell or the grave for three days and never ascended to heaven till some time later.

There are other verses to promote the idea that they are now with the Lord, but since God is not the author of confusion, these verses are not to be used to verify a belief that is contrary to the scorer of verses that tell the story of the resurrection from the dead. Even the verses in 1st Thessalonians, the very ones used to promote the rapture theory, expose the lie of people alive in heaven at the resurrection. "...even so they also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him. we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent [precede] them which are asleep. and the dead in Christ shall rise first." (1 Thes. 4:14-16) How can they be both dead or asleep and in heaven at the same time?

If you were to go to New England and visit the cemeteries of early America you will find thousands of tombstones with the letters R.I.P. - Rest In Peace, on them. They believed the last verses I mentioned as well as Jesus' kingdom message. His gospel of the Kingdom took center stage over anything else he said to us. It was important enough to mention it two times in His short model prayer. Some say the Kingdom is within us, meaning it is something that is spiritual pertaining to being a Christian. If so, why would he say that to the Jewish Pharisees? Do you think they were Christians? There is nothing spiritual about His Kingdom as it is a literal place and it is not off in the sky.

There is one thing that separates Christianity from all the other religions of the world. Since the beginning, man has always wanted to be immortal and believed that when he died he would go to a better place immediately after his death. Even the American Indians had their happy hunting grounds (the Norsemen had Valhalla). The heaven of the pagan religions is just as real as the heaven of most churches today, as it only exists in their minds, because we are all mortal.

keep studying:

3rd Commandment

THOU SHALT NOT TAKE THE NAME OF YAHWEH THY GOD IN VAIN

Ted R. Weiland

In general blasphemy may be described as consisting in speaking evil of the Deity with an impious purpose to derogate from the divine majesty, and to alienate the minds of others from the love and reverence of God. ... (or from Webster's, attributing to God things contrary to His nature)... It is a willful and malicious attempt to lessen men's reverence for God by denying his existence, or his attributes as an intelligent creator, governor, and judge of men, and to prevent their having confidence in him as such.

#822 @ sug don $10.35

For those who feel that this is some new idea to challenge the doctrines of the 20th century church, I will mention a few quotes from our reformers. John Wesley: Although it is assumed that at the moment of one's death, his soul goes directly to heaven. This idea does not have the least foundation in the oracles of God. William Tyndale: And ye, in putting them [the departed souls] in heaven, hell and purgatory, destroy the arguments for the resurrection. And now from the greatest reformer, Martin Luther, in his defense of proposition 27 in 1520, said in part: That he [the Pope] is emperor of the world and king of heaven and earthly God; that the soul is immortal; and all these endless monstrosities in the dunghill of decretals. The strongest rebuke of spirit life was made by Justin Martyr, 100-150AD, who said: If you meet men that tell you they are going to heaven when they die, beware you do not look on these as Christians.

Any pastor with an IQ higher than room temperature, that studies his Bible, has to be aware of what I have written, as there are scores of other verses that verify what I wrote, that I did not take the time to list. We are now faced with the question of why there is such a concerted effort by our pastors to promote a tangible heaven that does not exist. Even the antichrist Jews that control Hollywood and the TV networks promote it.

This has all been done by design to take the Christian minds off His Kingdom on earth. How long has it been since you have heard a good sermon on God's kingdom? I have listened to many sermons on TV and the radio and they all center around the gospel of salvation (or the 'plan of salvation') and never mention the gospel of the Kingdom which Jesus talked so much more about. By keeping the Christian's mind only on heaven they are no earthly good, as it gives our enemies the opportunity to rule the kingdom, as Matt. 11:12 says, The kingdom of heaven suffereth violence and the violent take it by force. This is not happening somewhere off in the sky, but right here on earth - and it is happening now.

The results of the heaven and hell doctrines that came from Babylon, has been one of the major reasons that so many of our young people want nothing to do with Christianity. They cannot believe that a God of love, that knows the end from the beginning, had a plan from the foundations of the world to burn over 90% of his creation in hell. Nor can they buy the idea that somewhere in outer space, people are walking around in a place much better than His creation called earth. Today's Christians fail to see the beauty and the bounty contained on this planet. The very planet that we will inherit. Some have the idea that the earth is not good enough for them as they prefer to go to heaven.

Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, John 15:16, and verse 19, I have chosen you out of the world. I feel blessed to have been chosen to know things too numerous to mention, that have been deliberately and deceitfully kept from today's Christians. For years I've wondered why our nation was on a rapid slide into enslavement and moral depravity and who was behind it. How was it possible to enlist the Christians into their plans without them being aware of what they were doing? All of these problems we are now facing are addressed in His Word as well as the solutions. The fact that He knows the end from the beginning does not give us reason to ignore or condone our problems by our silence.

Be not deceived: God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. Gal. 6:7. We have sown the wind and we are now reaping the whirlwind.

CELEBRATE GOD'S DELIVERANCE:
 REMEMBER THE BATTLE OF BLOOD
 RIVER,
 DECEMBER 16, 1838.

"I am a 27-year-old Afrikaner (White South African), having just read your page on the Battle of Blood River (www.kinsmanredeemer.com/BloodRiverText.htm). Several of my ancestors took part in that very battle. I would like to confirm that what you wrote is absolutely correct and happened just as you wrote.

I would like to add that my great-great-grandmother, Anna Amit, who was married to Jacob Smit was in the laager aiding them men by ensuring that their ammunition was supplied at the correct rate. She has written in her diary a very interesting event, which I would like to share with you.

Women were not allowed to fire weapons or actively participate in battle unless their husbands were killed. Anna, in angst, prayed openly as the battle progressed. She asked God to use her as He saw fit to ensure His will was done.

As she prayed, she saw a great mist above the laager with a searing light shining through. She immediately knew that although she could not fire a weapon, she could supply the men with the ammo they needed as supplies of ammo were not evenly distributed around the laager. As she moved around, she was quite open and a target for spears from the Zulu warriors. However, every time a spear was thrown towards her, the shining Presence above the laager would protect her. Not a single spear even landed within 10 feet of her. This, despite the fact the Zulus could throw a spear and impale an animal from 100 feet away.

What touches me about this is what happened next.

As she moved the ammo around, she prayed over the ammo. She writes in her diary that (translated), "I could move the crates and boxes of ammunition but I could not open them for when they were opened by the men and the ammunition removed, I witnessed the blood of (the) Christ on it."

Anna lived to the good age of 97 (in 1899 when she died, that was an exceptional age). She had 13 children - all of whom were raised in a strong Christian home in the middle of a savage continent. It shows that nothing, NOTHING, can stand in the way of God's will. I will always honour her.

Thank you for reading my email. I pray that God blesses your ministry. Johan van den Berg.

(Courtesy: kinsmanredeemer.com/BloodRiverText.htm)

and further:

4th Commandment

REMEMBER THE SABBATH DAY TO KEEP IT HOLY

Ted R. Weiland

Almost without exception, the divisions over this commandment concern the timing of the seventh-day Sabbath. There are proponents for a Friday, Saturday, Sunday, rotating, and an any-day-one-chooses Sabbath. Different people advocate observing the Sabbath from sunset to sunset, midnight to midnight, dawn to dawn and noon to noon, and most of them provide plausible arguments for their beliefs. There are five principal statutes of the 4th Commandment: • Preceded by six days of labor; • Cessation of labor, occupation and business; • Cessation of buying and selling; • Cessation of one's own pleasure; • Gathering together to worship Yahweh and study His Word.

#823 @ sug don $7.35

ALLOYED LOYALTIES

by Andrea Schwartz

*Every time you hear a lie, and every time you hear the truth, you yourself are tested. Is it the lie or the truth which commands your attention?*¹ - R.J. Rushdoony

When you fail to make the Bible the starting point of thought, you end up constructing a worldview built on a faulty foundation. Couple that with man's sinful nature and the wiles of adversaries, you have a recipe for a cultural malignancy that chokes the life out of people. When the Bible is not the focal point of life and the basis for instruction and behaviour, the curses outlined in Deuteronomy 28:15-68 result.²

There was a time in our nation's history when the Bible was the presuppositional foundation of culture, even if it was not consistently followed. The Bible served to create a context of life, because it was recognized as the text of life. Webster's 1828 Dictionary reflects this fact.

TEXT, noun [Latin, textus, woven]

1. A discourse or composition on which a note or commentary is written. Thus we speak of the text or original of the Scripture, in relation to the comments upon it. Infinite pains have been taken to ascertain and establish the genuine original text.

2. A verse or passage of Scripture which a preacher selects as the subject of a discourse.

3. Any particular passage of Scripture, used as an authority in argument for proof of a doctrine. In modern sermons, texts of Scripture are not as frequently cited as they were formerly.

4. In ancient law authors, the four Gospels, by way of eminence.

Phrases such as, "do unto others," and "follow the Golden Rule," were part of the vernacular because Jesus (the) Christ had yet to be systematically removed from the public square. While faithfulness to the Word of God was not practiced flawlessly, it was most often preached, sometimes fervently, sometimes nominally.

Today we face a different situation. Because many pastors strive not to offend their congregations or visitors, many who profess belief in (the) Christ merely know some things about the Bible rather than having made it a priority to understand it and its implications. They fail to comprehend or embrace it as the command word from God given as the instruction for holiness in day-to-day living. Biblical literacy is at such a low point that erroneous phrases that have no root in Scripture have become entrenched in "Christian talk." To name a few: "Hate the sin; but love the sinner," "We are not under law but under grace," "Isn't it good that God is patient with us even though we fail to obey?" "I can always repent right before I die," "God's Word says not to judge," "God will never give me more than I can handle," etc.³

These are not gleaned from the text of Scripture. They fall into the category of pretexts and end up being justification for not following God's Law-Word. God's gift of the Scriptures is for the express purpose of communicating His intent for mankind. Thus, any deviation from the Creator's blueprint amounts to a pretext, as man determines for himself what is right and what is not (Gen. 3:5). Webster's definition is to the point, Pretext, noun [Latin proetextus.] Pretense; false appearance; ostensible reason or motive assigned or assumed as a color or cover for the real reason or motive.

Fallen man is full of pretextual living. The first chapter of Romans clearly delineates that this is not due to ignorance, but rather the suppression of the truth in unrighteousness (Rom. 1:18).

teousness (Rom. 1:18).

When the church, entrusted with preaching the full counsel of God, and families, commissioned to raise and educate their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, fail to exercise their God-ordained jurisdictions, generations grow up without the necessary framework from which to order and conduct their lives. When the commandments of God are not taught and internalized, relativism rules the day and faulty presuppositions become the basis for life and action. When God's watchmen neglect their duties, the walls are easily scaled, and lies replace truth.

Deuteronomy 11:19 specifies the comprehensive manner with which the commandments of God are to be taught:

"You shall teach them to your children, talking of them when you are sitting in your house, and when you are walking by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise."

The Bible does more than present God's commandments and statutes; it contains detailed stories that demonstrate the positive consequences of faithful living and the negative penalties for disobedience⁴. The Bible must be the text from which standards of right and wrong are established, thereby creating a context in which we are to live and move and have our being (Acts 17:28).

HALF TRUTH — WHOLE LIE

We have moved past the token Christianity of the last century, and now with ridicule and caricature of things Christian, we are presented stories where the context of life within the Biblical framework is never considered. What does the context of life look like when the Word of God and the Law of God are absent from a culture's literature, film, music, and professing believers continue to consume counterfeits? The result is a form of religion without the power thereof (2 Tim. 3:5).

Many parents judge modern media based on the rating scale of G, PG, PG-13, M-15+, R, and X. Because an orthodox Christian worldview is absent among most churchgoers, foul language, nudity, and sexual innuendo end up being the only disqualifiers for what is acceptable for Christians and their children to view.⁴ Rarely do Christians examine the storyline, characters, and underlying ethics of a story on the basis of God's Law-Word.

Some of the biggest box-office successes for both children and adults, while they may not contain abusive language or immodesty, suffer fatally because they eliminate the premise that man's chief end is to glorify God and worship Him alone. In fact, God is completely absent from the lives of the characters, who sin without negative consequences and manage quite well without a fear of the Lord. In other words, these films dish out lies, and if some aspect of truth is communicated, it is not attributed to Jesus (the) Christ as the source of truth. Even well-meaning attempts at depicting Christianity favorably are hindered because they do not do so straightforwardly.⁵ The net result is that the consumers of such media end up being double-minded in their orientation to life and their responsibilities to the Kingdom of God. R.J. Rushdoony notes:

To be "double-minded" (or, literally, two-souled, or two-minded) means to be "unstable in all (our) ways" (James 1:8); it means an inability to function, and it prevents us from receiving anything from the Lord (James 1:7). The double-minded man is one who halts between two opinions, who wants the advantages of both but the liability of neither. The problem with the double-minded is not that he has two substances, mind and body, making up his being, but that he is unwilling to commit himself openly to either one or the other of two moral decisions. He wants sin without the consequences of sin, and virtue without the responsibilities of virtue. Double-mindedness is a moral, not a metaphysical, fact.⁶

Some justify their consumption of modern media as a harmless diversion during one's leisure time. They argue that they are able to separate the wheat from the chaff—the good from the bad in film, music and television. More often than not, this is a pretext for failing to submit the totality of their life (including their off time) to the Word of God. Indeed, the very concept of leisure itself is not Biblical in its orientation. As Rushdoony points out, leisure is not the same as rest.

Leisure is thus an attempt to escape from God's world of law and grace. It is an attempt to ground man in his supposed autonomy. Leisure activity becomes more and more imaginative in its lawlessness, and man seeks to build his Great Community around the principle of man's freedom from the Kingdom of Necessity, i.e. from God's world of law. Man's dream of rest is thus total leisure, totally free and autonomous activity outside of God, with a world of slave-machinery doing all the work. Perfect automation and perfect leisure is the goal.⁷

By allowing those at war with God to provide the entertainment and diversions of life (be they sports, music, film, or television), believers are participating in their own enslavement. (It is common today to view the Sabbath as a day of leisure, rather than the day for gathering for worship and Bible study). The seeds sown in their thinking transfer into their speech (learning to be silent about their beliefs in the public square), and eventually they are all too willing to blindly obey despotic, statist mandates in areas such as health, education and commerce. Would statist overreaches such as mandated vaccinations, enforced health insurance coverage, and the coercion of business owners to violate their consciences be possible if the populace had not been groomed with heavy doses of relativistic humanism? As a culture, our consumption of relativism and our rejection of the absolutes of Scripture have left us vulnerable to tyranny and content with living in a world of escape and unreality. Rushdoony points out:

As a culture declines, it begins to lose its sense of reality and begins to seek refuge in various forms of escapism. This era of humanism is no exception. By its very dedication to modernity, to the present moment, it abandons a long-range view and that historical perspective which is so essential to balance. The self-absorption that marks a decaying culture is especially in evidence today. Metaphysics, the worldview, has given way to psychology, the inner view. As a discipline, metaphysics is in disrepute; as a faith, psychology has conquered even the pulpit, once the stronghold of theology and the comic view.

The roots of this change are in modern philosophy... [The starting point of philosophy (is) the ostensible autonomous mind of man ... a new center to the universe.]⁸

REPLACEMENT STORIES

There was a time when the stories most were familiar with during their growing up years included names like: Adam and Eve, Noah, David, and Goliath, Jonah, and Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. In addition, the blasphemous practice of using the name Jesus (the) Christ in vain was heavily frowned upon. Today, even youngsters from Christian families know more about Captain America, Batman, Superman, Spiderman, Wolverine, and other superheroes, than they know about their forebears in the faith. Moreover, the disrespect that starts with the abuse of the Lord's name, (so prevalent in all forms of media), filters down to disrespecting parents and other godly authorities. When the Creator of the universe is disregarded, is it any wonder that His earthly representatives are as well?

Biblical law demands specific penalties for certain behaviours. Murder, fornications (including adultery, incest, and homosexuality), kidnapping, theft, slander, etc., all have clearly prescribed penalties. A godly society will deal with these offences against God and man by applying the law faithfully. In a humanistic, relativistic society, more attention is given to a law-breaker's motives and environmental circumstances to justify overriding God's Law. God's Law is then put on trial and pronounced guilty!

The problem with a heavy dose of humanistic entertainment, when viewed uncritically, is that the viewer ends up thinking humanistically rather than Biblically. Consider some of your favorite movies or television programs and assess whether or not God's Law is the basis for how people deal with each other or how justice is administered. When all that is posited is another law and another god, the resultant pretexts replace God's text with ungodly alternatives. It, in essence, becomes a negation of God.

The negation of God means that because the grave and justice are denied their ultimacy, then law too is denigrated. Law ceases to represent God's Law order and becomes simply the arbitrary will of the State. The State as a law institution gives way to the state as a bureaucracy that sets its own rules and bends men to them.⁹

Humanistic media saturation coupled with statist education, breeds a culture of ostensibly Christian people who think, speak, and behave contrary to their profession of faith. The steady dose of lies (no God, no Law) inevitably places them in the enemy camp, despite how saved they may consider themselves. They have missed the call to holiness and their fruits mark them as reprobates.

In Revelation 22:15, we are told that those outside God's eternal Kingdom, those who are denied access to the tree of life, are "whosoever loveth and maketh a lie." A preference for the lie is a mark of reprobation and of, at the very least, a strong disposition to evil.

Scripture, however, summons us to see things differently and to be different. "Ye that love the LORD, hate evil" (Ps. 97:10)...

Every time you hear a lie, and every time you hear the truth, you yourself are tested. Is it the lie or the truth which commands your attention?¹⁰

Philippians 4:8-9 gives us both a command and a promise. If we focus on what is true, noble, right, pure, lovely, admirable, excellent, and praiseworthy, we can expect God's peace. This is the path to undivided loyalty and cultural victory.

Notes:

1. R.J. Rushdoony, A Word in Season, vol.1 (Vallecito, CA: Ross House Books, 2010), p.56.

2. U.S. presidents used to take their oath of office with their hand on the Bible opened to Deuteronomy 28 acknowledging that their actions would bring God's blessings for obedience and His cursings for disobedience.

3. These "Christian talk" expressions amount to perversions of Scripture to satisfy a humanistic framework. [the fragment of Romans 6:14 appearing in the list might seem like legitimately-quoted scripture, but denuded of its context the phrase is made to war against what precedes and follows it, thereby embodying the principle that a text out of context becomes a pretext].

4. How many actually live by this diminished standard is questionable.

5. There are some notable exceptions from brothers Alex and Stephen Kendrick. Their films Flywheel, Facing the Giants, Fireproof, and Courageous have storylines that are deliberately Christian. Their main characters are unashamedly followers of Jesus (the) Christ, and the films demonstrate the consequences of sin.

6. R.J. Rushdoony, Institutes of Biblical Law, vol.2 (Vallecito, CA: Ross House Books, [1982] 2001), p.485.

7. Ibid., p.556.

8. R.J. Rushdoony, Noble Savages (Vallecito, CA: Ross House Books, 2005), p.93.

9. R.J. Rushdoony, To Be As God (Vallecito, CA: Ross House Books, 2003), p.210.

10. R.J. Rushdoony, A Word in Season, vol. 1 (Vallecito, CA: Ross House Books, 2010). p.56.

Courtesy Faith for all of Life, Box 158Vallecito CA 95251

BENEFITS OF TURMERIC

by Holly Mills

"If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God: But that which beareth thorns and briars is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned." (Heb. 6:6-8).

There are so many wonderful herbs out there that can benefit us greatly by simply adding them to our everyday diet. The more I have learned about turmeric and its health benefits I realize that it appears to be one of the best. Turmeric is a member of the ginger plant and is a versatile herb that can be used as an addition to almost any food dish we prepare. Of course it is one of the main ingredients in curry dishes but can also be added by itself to soups, meat dishes, and any vegetable dish including stir-frys. I have been adding a sprinkle of turmeric to my salads and it is amazing how it livens up the taste. I have now tried to add turmeric to almost any food item that I make and it seems to work with any dish. It seems to work especially well in egg dishes.

There are so many health benefits to turmeric it is worth a try. The most beneficial compound within turmeric is curcumin which is very powerful. "Curcumin helps to detoxify and rejuvenate the liver, reduces negative effects of iron overload (and this is important because iron with sweet wormwood is a powerful cancer killer, too), increases antioxidant capacity in the body, regenerates brain cells and improves cognitive function, reduces likelihood of and treats Alzheimer's, is anti-inflammatory, reduces heart disease risk, reduces depression, and fights premature aging." More info on naturalnews.com (search: Turmeric). Research has also found that consuming turmeric with black pepper helps increase the absorption of curcumin and curcumin is fat soluble, so consuming turmeric along with healthy fats such as avocado, olive oil, and coconut oil will help dissolve it and allow it to get into our digestive system easier.

Turmeric has been used for over 2000 years and its anti-inflammatory properties have long been recognized, but there are also many other benefits. Some of these are: Cancer, Alzheimer's Prevention, Eye Health - A study at the UC San Diego found that curcumin may be able to treat some types of retinitis pigmentosa, and another study found that it may be helpful in the treatment of macular degeneration; Weight Loss; Natural Pain Killer & Anti-Inflammatory - One study compared curcumin to ibuprofen for pain relief in knee osteoarthritis patients and found that curcumin has potent anti-inflammatory properties; Liver

Detoxifier; Parkinson's Disease - According to Michigan State University researchers, curcumin can prevent clumping of a protein that leads to Parkinson's; Multiple Sclerosis - Curcumin has shown promise in slowing the progression of multiple sclerosis. MS is rare in India and China where turmeric is widely used in the food. Psoriasis - The National Psoriasis Foundation recommends turmeric as a natural remedy for psoriasis. Better Sleep - Curcumin may protect against the effects of sleep deprivation. A study found that it prevented anxiety, oxidative damage, and other impairment in mice deprived of sleep for 72 hours. Antibacterial - Several studies have found that curcumin has antibacterial properties and is useful in disinfecting cuts and burns. More info at

<http://www.healthdiaries.com>

As I see it, there appears to be so many benefits in adding this wonderful herb to our diet that isn't it worth giving it a try? You may find all sorts of ways to use it in your recipes.

Contra-indications: Turmeric should not be used by people with gallstones or bile obstruction. Though Turmeric is often used by pregnant women, it is important to consult with a medical practitioner before doing so as turmeric can be a uterine stimulant.

"Better is a little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble therewith. Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith." (Prov, 15:16-17). **

Courtesy Thy Kingdom Come, Box 1478, Ferndale WA 98248

No need for gas chambers when vaccines will do the job slowly & quietly instead. --- look at:

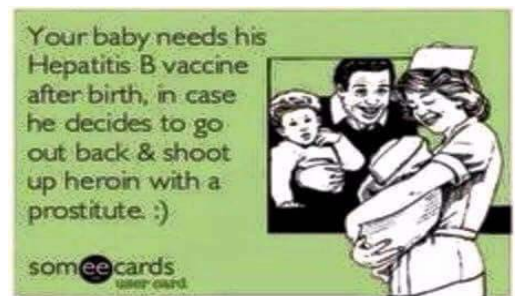

http://www.disclose.tv/news/murdered_holistic_doctors_discovered_cancercausing_enzyme_being_added_to_all_vaccines/124734?utm_content=bufferb8bc7&utm_medium=social&utm_source=facebook.com&utm_campaign=buffer

-- see also:

<http://soda-cans.beforeitsnews.com/alternative/2015/11murdered-holistic-drs-had-discovered-autismcancer-causing-protein-intentionally-being-added-to-all-vaccines-3246756.html> -- and be warned!

Depopulation 101 .. add poison to vaccines .. make it law that all children must be injected to attend school. Slow kill methods. They think they're being fair w/their "survival of the fittest" method. Only the best genes survive? These ppl. have no souls. (but you'll have medical bills)

Nagalese enzyme protein is intentionally added to vaccines. It stops vitamin D binding to the Gc protein. This strips a human being's body of its natural ability to kill cancer cells. Vitamin D is necessary to fight cancer and prevent autism. -----

Greetings and blessings to you all. Thank you for all your input and support. The Strauss heart drops seem to be helping with my A/F. May the God of our forefathers be with us and grant His protection to His people in these times of upheaval and displacement. God bless

