

Christian Identity Ministries

A member of the Congregations of Israel

PO Box 146, CARDWELL, QLD, 4849, Australia

Ph: 07-4066 0146 (International 61-7 instead of 07) www.christianidentityministries.com - hr\_cim@bigpond.com

"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." Luke 1:68-75; the Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Germanic-Scandinavian people are ISRAEL!

#367

Covenant Messenger

December AD2016

(a publication of N.Q. Fellowship of God's Covenant People)

THE WORD STRANGER AND THE STRANGE WAY IT IS USED

by Ed

The word stranger has created a seeming contradiction in the Bible when it comes to that one word, that contradiction being: be good to strangers, or have no dealings with strangers. That contradiction is due to a few verses telling us to be good to strangers and yet, many more verses telling us to make no treaties, pacts, marriage covenants, or deals with them and to banish them from the lands we have or take. So why the contradiction? Is God Bi-Polar? Or is man making mistakes when translating God's Word? Here follows one of the verses the churches of today use to justify their multi-cultural agenda of loving strangers.

"But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself, for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt. I am the LORD." Leviticus 19:34.

So it seems clear from the word that the churches are right. But then this...

"But I have said unto you, Ye (Israelites) shall inherit their land (of the aliens), and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land that floweth with milk and honey. I am the LORD your God, which have separated you from other people." Leviticus 20:24). Or this:

"Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go." Jeremiah 2:25.

So here it says there is no hope for the one who has loved strangers! Notice there the big contradiction in what the Bible says about dealing with strangers. But are we reading Bibles or Bible translations? Our modern translations do not solve the issue. To get to the root of the issue, we have no choice but to go to the Septuagint (LXX).

"The earliest version of the Old Testament Scriptures which is extant, or of which we possess any certain knowledge, is the translation executed at Alexandria in the third century before the Christian era: this version has been so habitually known by the name of the SEPTUAGINT, that the attempt of some learned men in modern times to introduce the designation of the Alexandrian version (as more correct) has been far from successful. The history of the origin of this translation was embellished with various fables at so early a period, that it has been a work of patient critical research in later times to bring to light the facts which may be regarded as well authenticated." Sir Lancelot C.L. Brenton, 1851.

HISTORY

The date of the 3rd century BC is supported (for the LAW Torah translation) by a number of factors, including the Greek being representative of early Koine, citations beginning as early as the 2nd century BC, and early manuscripts datable to the 2nd century.

After the LAW Books, other books were translated over the next two to three centuries. It is not altogether clear which was translated when, or where; some may even have been translated twice into different versions, and then revised. The quality and style of the different translators also varied considerably from book to book, from the literal to paraphrasing to interpretive.

The translation process of the Septuagint itself and from the Septuagint into other versions can be broken down into several distinct stages, during which the social milieu of the translators shifted from Hellenistic to Early Christianity. The translation of the Septuagint itself began in the 3rd century BC and was completed by 132 BC., initially in Alexandria, but in time elsewhere as well. The Septuagint is the basis for the Old Latin, Slavonic, Syriac, Old Armenian, Old Georgian and Coptic versions of the Christian Old Testament.

It was the very bible that Jesus and the apostles knew, used and quoted. If it is approved by Jesus, then it is approved by me. Therefore I will use the LXX.

The first step I will take to solve the riddle is to look at some of the 'pet' verses which the churches love to use to

IN THIS ISSUE:

The Word Stranger, .....	1
Until the Master Potter, .....	6
What Does it Mean to Love your Enemy? .....	8
The Expectation for Children, .....	9
Can I get an "Amen"? .....	12
This is Not a Battle over Race, but Culture, .....	14
By What Standard...? .....	14

The views and opinions expressed in the articles herein or herewith are those of the authors and not necessarily those of CIM. They are written by fallible men. You must ask Jesus to guide your studies!

CIM reserves the right to edit submitted or reprinted material in line with CIM editorial policy. CIM does the utmost to ensure that the spirit of articles remains intact at all times.

justify their love of multi-culturalism, when the whole theme of the bible is a mono-culture for one people only, the Israelites and graftable kinsfolk. So I will start with a word that is the most contentious, the very word the modern translations have translated as ‘strangers.’

προς λυτοσ

This is the word we find in the bible that Jesus used before the translators translated our modern bibles of the last 500 or so years. The Bible that Jesus used and therefore approved was the Greek Septuagint written in Koine Greek. I have of course the English translation of this Bible (by Brenton)—it holds the original Koine Greek text which Jesus and the apostles used and quoted which runs side by side, verse by verse, chapter by chapter, book by book with the English translation.

This word: προς λυτοσ has been translated in all modern bibles as the word, ‘stranger.’ Yet that is simply wrong. That word does not mean stranger AT ALL! It means, ‘Proselyte.’ PROSELYTE is defined as a person who has converted from one opinion, religion, or party to another. The biblical term “proselyte” is an Anglicization of the Koine Greek term προσηλυτοσ (proselutos used in the Septuagint. It means converted ones who were estranged to the Law. It means STRANGERS in the sense that they were as strangers because they fell outside the protection of the Covenant or were the ‘wild olives’ which could be grafted in to the “cultivated olives.” It was about olive with olives; not creating hybrids. Olives, being the national symbol of the Israelite folk—My people.

Olives the national symbol of one people only—as we see in Paul’s address to the Israelites who were scattered abroad:

“If the first part of the dough is holy, so is the whole batch; if the root is holy, so are the branches. Now if some branches have been broken off, and you a wild olive shoot, have been grafted in among the others to share in the nourishment of the olive root, do not boast over those branches. If you do, remember this: You do not support the root, but the root supports you.” Romans 11:16-18 Berean Study Bible.

It means this—Those of my people who do not know the Bible and live therefore as heathens, are the wild olive shoots who, when they are grafted into the cultivated root, are the proselytes, they were strangers to the Law, but by conversion became part of Israel (again).

This verse in Romans is one of many that teaches that we should be kind to those of our own kind even though they have become estranged to the Law, as they are strangers, they are heathens, but nevertheless, olives, albeit wild (i.e. estranged).

So in that verse given above, the translators used the word ‘stranger,’ yet they should have used either ‘estranged’ or ‘proselyte.’ Let us look at two Koine Greek words for strangers and aliens (there are several other words but these are the main ones).

ξενος, η, (on xenos), an alien λλογενης (allogenes), used in the Septuagint, meaning “[from a] different family/nation” a different race.

Yet neither of these words are used in the original text of the verse above, one of the ‘pet’ verses that the churches always love to use. So let us look at those ‘pet’ verses, in the most widely used English translations, followed by the Greek.

King James Version Exodus 22:21.

Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

Greek Septuagint Exodus 22:21

και προσηλυτον ου κακωσετε, ουδε μη θλιψητε λυτον ητε γαρ προσηλυτοι εν γη Αιγυπτω.

King James Version Leviticus 19:34

But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD.

Greek Septuagint Leviticus 19:34

Ως ο αυτοχθων εν υμιν εσται ο προσηλυτος ο προσπορευομενος προς, υμας και αγαπησεις αυτον ως σεαυτον οτι προσηλυτοι εγενηθητε εν γη Αιγυπτω εγω ειμι Κυριος ο θεος υμων.

King James Version Deuteronomy 10:19

Love ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt

Greek Septuagint Deuteronomy 10:19

Και αγαπησετε τον προσηλυτον προσηλυτοι γαρ ητε εν γη Αιγυπτω.

So if we were to rely only upon the translations, it would seem that the churches are right. But as you can see I have placed the Greek LXX original texts with each verse and in each case the word is not: ξενος or λλογενης (alien or racial alien) but is instead: προσηλυτοι to mean, proselyte — and not ‘stranger’ at all.

Indeed, we must begin to wonder what is, and was, in the minds of the translators as this next verse is a real twist of the translations, ... dodgy-work;

King James Version, Malachi 4:1

For behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

So the proud will be uprooted from the land, right? That’s what it says in our translations. But is that what the LXX says? Remember at all times, the LXX is the version that Jesus used and quoted from.

Greek Septuagint Malachi 4:1

Διοτι ιδου ημερα ερχεται καιομενη ως κλιβανος και φλεξει αυτους, και εσονται παντες οι αλλογενεις, και παντες οι ποιουντες ανομα, καλαμη, και αναψει αυτους η ημερα η ερχομενη, λεγει Κυριος παν τοκρατωρ, και ου μη υπολεφθη ες αυτων ριζα ουδε κλημα.

Hello! Is anybody out there? Does anyone see this? The LXX uses the word αλλογενεις.

That’s right: allogenes! That means racial alien. So why did the translators use the word ‘proud’? It is beginning to look like they are trying to cover something up. (Charles VanderPool’s Polyglot Bible uses “foreigner.”)

So let us now translate that word allogenes and read that very same verse again:

“For behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the racial aliens, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.”

Now before we think this means a Catholic style burning at the stake, burning as an oven means that the Law of

New Video:

GENESIS DEBATE

Reasons to Believe, by Hugh Ross.

Intelligent Design, by Michael Behe

Biblical Creationism,

by Terry Mortenson

Hugh Ross is an old earth advocate, and tries to show that of nature and theology must agree. Michael Behe is a professor of Biological sciences and talks about bridging the sacred and sciences. Terry is a young earth 7-day creationist.

CI-1045 @ sug don $9

God will go through the Saxon-Hebrew lands. It acts as a cleansing agent; it is also called God's fiery law (Deut 33:2KJV)

“And he said, The Lord came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them.” When that law is implemented, it means the reversing of the Laws of Babylon and all that then follows.

So could the translators be that wrong? Well maybe we should look at another great big mistake, or trick, by the translators. Well let us look at Isaiah 9:6 “For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, the Prince of peace.”

That is what all (Masoretic Text) translations say. All of them, so they must be right—right? Well there is a reason why I bolded the last sentence; because the LXX reads very differently

The Greek Septuagint (LXX) states, Isaiah 9:6:

Οτι παιδιον εγεννηθη ημιν, υιον και εδοθη ημιν, ον η αρχη εγεννηθη επι του ωμου αυτου, και καλειται το ονομα αυτου, Μεγαλης βουλης αγγελος αζω γαρ ειρηνην επι τους αρχοντας, και υγειαν αυτω.

When the LXX is translated as it actually reads, we get: “For a child is born to us, and a son is given to us, whose government is upon his shoulder: and his name is called the Messenger of great counsel: for I will bring peace upon the princes, and health to him.”

Notice the BIG difference. The last sentence in all modern translations is: “The mighty God, The everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace” is simply NOT THERE!

This added line implies that Jesus is God (the Father). And that causes great confusion; I mean, is he the Son of God or is he God? Tell me, is that honest or is that fraud?

The Septuagint which Jesus used does not have the sentence—and thus—there is no conflict, no confusion. (Check it out in your Brenton's LXX on page 844.) Surely, does that then not prove my point; that the translators have been translating with dishonesty? The real issue must then be why?

Well when we go to the Book of Revelation we are told why. In the very first of the 7 Church ages, “they” the Christians forsook their first love, that is to say, they disagreed with Jesus, and began to make a Jesus in their own image.—Revelation 2:4 Berean Study Bible:

*“Without growing weary, you have persevered and endured many things for the sake of My name. But I have this against you (Israelite Christians of the NT) You have forsaken (abandoned, dumped) your first love. Therefore, keep in mind how far you have fallen Repent and perform the deeds you did at first. But if you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place.” (undelining note by Ed)

The churches have another Jesus. 2 Corinthians 11:4 (Berean Literal Bible)

For if indeed the one coming proclaims another Jesus whom we did not proclaim, or you receive a different spirit (teaching) whom you did not receive, or a different gospel which you did not accept, you are bearing with it well. (bold notes by Ed)

And that has been the illness of the ages that followed and was a repeat of the ages in the Old Testament. The apple did not fall far from the tree; the NT Daughter of Zion did as her mother Zion. It is an illness that goes right back to the very first recorded multi-cultural project, the Tower of Babel. Let us see what Jesus says he will do with this new Tower of Babel that we as a people have been embracing since 1973. New International version (NIV):

Matthew 23:31-34 — The Sheep and the Goats.

When the Son of Man (Jesus) comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his glorious throne. All the nations will be gathered before him—

Well folks that is the age in which we now live. This is the time coming closer to the next Kingdom level where we are all hoping for the New Jerusalem and the fall of Babylon—right? This age is clear for all to see, all the races are come together—where? Well, in the nations that were Christian of course, because Jesus is not sitting on an Islamic Throne, or a Buddhist throne. And He comes in His glory—so with all might to do that which he is about to do. Simple. Well, All Christendom is now Multi-Cultural. Only Western Nations that were once Israelite, Saxon, Hebrews—are the nations that are multi-cultural because the churches have done this. THEY have brought all the nations before Jesus, that is to say, into the Christian nations.

So what does the Bible say of this ‘great achievement’ and all those Hebrew-Saxons who have helped the churches to do this?

“When the Son of Man (Jesus) comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his glorious throne. All the nations will be gathered before him. The Son of Man will bless this great commission and work to bring all to Jesus—” Does it say that in Matthew 25:31-34?

If you say “Yes,” then please show me because it does NOT say that. It says this:

“When the Son of Man (Jesus) comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his glorious throne. All the nations will be gathered before him and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world.’”

That verse is a New Testament version of:

“For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the racial alien, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.”

For those who call themselves Christian and have not worked for the folk Jesus came for, but have instead driven out imaginary demons or claimed to drive out false religions yet they never protected their own kind from invasions, instead welcoming in the invasion as a misguided form of help based on mistranslated verses to those people in that day of separation Jesus will say to them as Ezra did:

(bracketed notes by Ed) - Matthew 7:22-29 KJV

“Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name (authority as Christians)? and in thy name have cast out devils (false religions such as missionary work)? and in thy name done many wonderful works (converting or helping the allogenes)? And then will I (Jesus) profess unto them, I never knew you; depart from me, ye that work iniquity (Lawlessness).”

For Jesus said: “Then said Jesus to the woman, ‘I was sent only to help God’s lost sheep—the people of Israel.’”

Matthew 15:22-26 KJV

“And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us. But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

Galatians 4:3-6 KJV (bracketed, underlining and bold notes by Ed)

“Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world; But when the fullness of time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the Law, to redeem them that were under the Law, (only Israelites were under that Law) that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.”

Matthew 10:5-9 NKJV

Sending out the Twelve: “These twelve Jesus sent out and commanded them, saying, ‘Do not go into the way of the Gentiles (ethnos: nations), and do not enter a city of the Samaritans. But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And as you go, preach, saying, ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’”

Luke 1:32-33 KJV

“He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end”

Luke 1:68 KJV

“Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people.”

Galatians 3:16 KJV

“Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is anointed.” (i.e. Isaac)

Hebrews 9:15 KJV

“And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.”

Hebrews 8:8 KJV

“For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.”

Romans 11 KJV

“I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.”

Romans 9:1-26 KJV (Bracketed noted by Ed)

I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost, That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart. For I wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh: (so his kinsfolk—his people) Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; (so to who do these things belong—no prizes for guessing) Whose are the fathers and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen. Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel: Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, in Isaac shall thy seed be called. (The Persians called the Israelites, the Sakka Suni, the sons of Isaac, Sakka Suni>Saxons>Saxons). That is, They which are the children of the flesh (Ishmael, the sons of Keturah) these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise (Isaac) are counted for the seed. For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son. And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac; (whose father? OUR father!)[For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;] It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger. As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated. What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid. For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy. For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth. Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth. Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will? Nay but O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? (so we do not have the right to argue God’s choice of who he wants as his servant people, but he does not want us to destroy his plan by destroying our own people because we then destroy God’s people.... us)

Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction; And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory, Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Judeans only, but also of the Gentiles (nations; of lost Israelites, the proselytes to be Christians)?

As he saith also in Hosea, I will call them my people, which were not my people (God had divorced them, and sent them out of His land); and her beloved, which was not beloved (in other words, those who became ESTRANGED to the Law, same theme over and over again). And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people (the churches tell Christians, You are heathen Gentiles and not Israelites); there shall they be

New & Recently Listened to CDs & DVDs*

A-7010b Noah: A Time Of Rebellion, Punishment And Deliverance. Part 2. Sheldon Emry

*B-2840 Judaism is Guilty for which Islam is accused, Michael Hoffman II

D-053 Historical Influences Of Integration, Lawrence Blanchard

E-464 Judeo-christianity, Don Elmore

E-465 False Brethren, Mark Downey

G-981 Illicit Linage Mixing, Ted Weiland

G-982 May God Stir Your Spirit, Weiland

G-983 Yahweh’s Everlasting Righteousness, Ted Weiland

H-143a Woe Unto Your False Prophets, Bob Hallstrom

J-454 God’s Sovereignty over Nations, John Weaver

J-455 The Divine Advocate, John Weaver

J-456 Does Christ Trouble You? John Weaver

K-654 Wise as Serpents, James Bruggeman

L-117 Two Tests for Music, Steven Anderson

AC-739 Fascinating Girlhood, pt 3, Cheri Peters called the children of the living God (Because they were converted back to being under God's realm by way of the New Covenant. Made for who? Well, the House of Israel, and the House of Judah, Hebrews 8:8—same theme again)

Now these are only a few verses, I can find many more but the point is made. If not then more verses can be given.

Deuteronomy 7:1-2 KJV

“When the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than thou; And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant (marriage is a covenant) with them, nor shew mercy unto them (don't try and make Christians of them).

Judges 2:2 KJV

“And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars” but ye have not obeyed my voice: why have you done this?

So, there can be no doubt that MY People are called by God to be his own, and therefore we must respect that.

Isaiah 43 KJV

“But now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel; Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee. Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: Therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life. Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west; I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth; Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him: yea, I have made him (Here in these six verses the LORD God of Israel identifies himself and states the unique relationship between Him and the people of Jacob/Israel. All of the people of Jacob/Israel will be “gathered” from the places where they've been placed over the centuries. None will be left or forgotten!)

Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears. Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth. (Throughout scripture Jacob/Israel have been accused of having eyes and not seeing and having ears and not hearing and this is the time they are to be called out and returned. The “nations” here are the 12 tribes of the children of Israel as is the term “people.” No others are said to be “gathered.” Ed)

Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. I, even I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no Saviour. (I don't know how this can be misunderstood!) I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God. Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it? Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships. I am the LORD, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King. (in order to be redeemed the item has to have been in the possession previously, so their LORD God is telling Israel that they've been sent away but are now being brought back by him to be his possession once again!).

Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters; which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow. Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old (Israel is to forget the previous trials and destruction they earned by ignoring God and his commands).

Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen. This people have I formed for myself, they shall shew forth my praise. (Here again we're informed of the unique status of this the “real chosen people” or my people Israel “who I have formed for myself,” anyone else claiming to be the “chosen” are liars and deceivers).

22 But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel. Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense. Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities. I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified. Thy first father hath sinned and thy teachers have transgressed against me. Therefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches (Here from vs 22 on, the LORD God of Israel reminds them of why they were cast off and scattered. However, He is to forget and “blot out” Israel's sins and they shall not be remembered anymore, “for His own sake” — what a fantastic promise to a belligerent and stubborn people!). (bracketed notes by Ed).

Yet what do my people do? Do they want to be God's folk? No .... Unthankful and rebellious are they. They would rather mix with the other peoples and follow their gods and worse still ... THEY HAVE NO SHAME! They do this openly for all to see and they who speak against this sin, they attack! What an age we live in.

Isaiah 5:19-21, “Who say, ‘Let Him make speed, let Him hasten His work, that we may see it; and let the purpose of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come to pass, that we may know it!’ Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness; Who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter! Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, And clever in their own sight! ... (meaning, they don't need God's opinion, they make their own opinion and who are not willing to submit their opinion to God's Word, worse still, they submit their opinion to the words of their gods; politicians, school masters, university professors, media spokesmen ... and even other religions of the peoples they give their bodies to in lust believing it is love).

Clearly God is very much aware of the races because he created them all. Each one has its own calling in the scheme of God's creation.

Noah we are told, was "perfect in his generations" Genesis 9:6. What does that mean? No man is perfect. But he is perfect in what? His behaviour? His way of life? No ... in his generations. It means the same as ...

Psalms 139:14 KJV. "I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well."

What the Psalmist is telling us that when we are as God had created our species, that we are "very good" by the standard of his creation.

Genesis 1:31 KJV. "And God saw everything that he had made, and, behold, it was very good."

It has nothing to do with behaviour but instead with what God had created. That is "Perfect" or "very good." That means, as we were created, God says we are perfect in how we are created. There is a saying, "if it's not broken, don't fix it." It means; that which is perfect can only become less perfect when tampered with. To tamper with that which is very good or perfect, such as by hybridization, means we pollute the perfection. Noah was certainly not perfect in his behaviour, he was a man who drank too much, as we can see in the tale after the flood when he got drunk. His behaviour was so imperfect that he was not aware of the evil one of his sons had done until it was too late ... because he was drunk. But Noah was "perfect in his generation" τελειος ων εν τη γενεα αυτου.

He was perfect in his genes ... his people, his species, ... as God had created his species.

The land he lived in (that was flooded) was a multi-cultural society and was the system that saw the first great rejection of God's calling of his folk who were meant to be the Sons of God, but they rejected that high calling for a lower calling ... that is the actual meaning of the account in Genesis 6. That is a chapter I will not go into here as that is a study in itself. Nevertheless, it resulted in God having to deal with the situation and Noah and his clan were deemed perfect in their birth ... not in their deeds as such.

Today, just as in Genesis 6, our people have chosen to drop, forsake, abandon, their higher calling. They have said, "we are like all the other races on earth, we are one with them and we will mix with them, and we will call that: love." And those who as Noah, said, "No! It is wrong"—those who give this warning will be seen as haters of the 'love' the system has blessed. And those who speak out will be hated and locked up, even persecuted and the crowds cheer as if to say in their own way, "crucify him." They claim to be so tolerant, but are fanatically intolerant of those who bring this message.

My people have chosen to ignore the higher calling that God had called them to be, proving we are in the end days of the end of the ages of rebellion ... and on a massive scale as never before seen in history. And the priests in our modern day churches are chief in this sin. They will not wed a woman despite the bible telling us that a true priest MUST have a wife and family, and this lot of 'holier than thou' unwed, often homosexual and many child-molesting priests, encourage and embolden my people to hybridize under the false calling of peace and love. How dare these priests tell my people what is right or wrong? But they do, because they are chief in this sin—the sin of promoting that which God forbids by having their lusts and false imaginations translated into translations and telling the people it is the will of God. They are indeed chief in this sin.

Ezra 9:1-3 New American Standard Bible. "Now when these things had been completed, the princes approached me, saying, 'The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, according to their abominations, those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, and the Moabites, the Egyptians and the Amorites. For they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy race has intermingled (hybridized) with the peoples of the lands; indeed, the hands of the princes and the rulers have been foremost in this unfaithfulness.

When I heard about this matter, I tore my garment and my robe, and pulled some of the hair from my head and my beard, and sat down appalled..." (comments in brackets by Ed)

Therefore when the priests tell us to love the strangers we need to be very careful of what they say. The priests are nothing more than wolves in sheep's clothing, or sheep who have been converted to 'wolf-dog' (sheep who believe that being friends with wolves, allows them to survive side by side with the wolves without being eaten by wolves).

Just as a Shetland Pony or the Equus Ferus (from which we have bred our modern horses) differs from the Zebra; the Tiger differs from the Lion and the Lynx; or the Fairy Penguin differs from the King Penguin and the Emperor Penguin.; the Red Back Spider differs from the Funnel Web Spider and the Huntsman Spider; Oak differs from the Birch and the Red Gum Tree; the Herring differs from the Mackerel and the Atlantic Salmon; so too differs the Negroid from the Mongoloid and from the Caucasoid.

It is not about hating or liking, it is about obeying God to protect all his perfect and very good creations from hybridizing themselves into extinction and destroying the ways and culture of each species and destroying God's plan to have certain people to be his wife. Because, of all the species on the planet, God has chosen Israelites through Isaac's seed to be his bride company. To destroy this plan is nothing more than true hate or a hate crime in ignorance or by design against God and his creation. Those who partake in this fad that is taking hold of all Western Nations are working for the Genocide of the species which God called very good and perfect, - in a misguided sense of love and boredom for their own kind, their own kind, a folk who Jesus has died for—and thus, to put it bluntly; they are as good as being an ANTICHRIST. What else can we call it?

UNTIL THE MASTER POTTER.....!

by Lucien DeBruin

In Isaiah 45:9-12 in the O.T. of 'THE BOOK OF LIFE' (The Bible, N.I.V. translation), we find a masterful explanation of a potter and his clay! Yes, none other than THE MASTER POTTER (our Creator, and the Clay, those who believe in the MASTER POTTER).

Australia is NOT ruled by the MASTER POTTER (our Creator), but by foreign treaties, foreign laws, and foreign bankers, and should we not have a closer look at this foreign mess? Ruled by an EVIL SPIRIT!! "We the people" also known as "ordinary people" (mostly by the political fraternity) are asking questions such as: "What is going to happen next?" Does the CONspiracy we see all around us accomplish most of its purpose (One World Globalisation) under the "Judeo-Christian" cloak, and if so, where are the LAWS OF THE LORD? (Isaiah 33:22)

Does CONspiracy enlist the "patriots" (totally brainwashed) to promote the CONspiracy without their knowing it, because they have thrown THE BOOK OF LIFE (the Bible) in the trashcan? Globalisation is already a fact, and societies around the world have bowed their knees to BAAL (remember him?); the totally corrupt global system, and how long will it be before the penny drops?!

Baal has a universal religion (religion: from the word RELIGARE, to bind back [bondage] {Unger's Bible Dictionary}), and appears only three times in the N.T.: Acts 26:5, Galatians 1:13,14, James 1:26-27. Christianity is NOT a Religion, it is a WAY OF LIFE: John 14:6, "Jesus said unto him, 'I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE: no man comes unto the Father, but by Me.'" Find THE WAY wherever you can find it! And NEVER LET IT GO! When you find the way to the true KINGDOM MESSAGE, STICK TO IT!!

Baal has a world "money system" called monetized debt, and run by the banks. Why doesn't "Judeo-Christianity" expose it from the pulpit? You should know why! Because Judeo-Christianity is NOT Christian!

If the thought police, also known as the King Makers and King Breakers, the so-called "media" has changed our language to deceive us in our own minds and thoughts, haven't we as the clay walked away from the Master Potter? (Isaiah 45:9) "Woe to him who quarrels with his maker, to him who is a potsherd among the potsherds on the ground. Does the clay say to the potter 'What are you making?' Does your work say, 'He has no hands?'" (N.I.V.)

The CONstitution of the DISUnited States of Australia: an imaginary CON which CONstantly deceives the people into believing that they have freedom, and a part in ruling the nation! Why not go with the MASTER POTTER and His BOOK OF LIFE which is The BIBLE?

"Government" without the MASTER POTTER'S book (the BIBLE) is organized corruption and CONTinues "in power" because it has the support of the people (the Dumb Sheep), because they have been humanized through the influence of "secret societies" i.e. brainwashed from the cradle to the grave by "the church of their choice," finishing up suffering from TOXIC BRAIN SYNDROME! And not knowing where to find RENEWING OF THEIR MIND (Romans 12:3).

THE MONEY CHANGING VIPERS have stolen the wealth of the world with monopoly "money." Is it not high time we invoked THE REAL POWER of the MASTER POTTER (your Creator) through imprecatory prayer?

Is Australia still a sovereign nation? NO! Read Matthew 28:18, "And Jesus came and spake unto them saying, 'All power (authority) is given unto me in heaven and in earth.'" Doesn't Psalms 62:11 tell us that POWER BELONGS UNTO GOD? "God has spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongs unto God."

So called "power" of governments on earth is FAKE USURPED POWER. Humanity is totally ignoring the POWER of the MASTER POTTER! (The power of the potter in moulding the clay is used to illustrate the absolute power of God in moulding the destinies of men (Romans 9:21) to place one's self as clay in the hands of God, as the potter, is a striking figure of complete trust and surrender (Isaiah 64:8) - (Unger's Bible Dictionary).

It is interesting to note that the purest clay is white! But, still clay and must be malleable in the hands of the Master Potter! Our Globalized "Government" owes nothing and pays nothing, because it simply issues monetized debt (funny money) for all goods and services that it wants, and continues to roll over to expand debt. (USA-$23 MIL, BIL, TRILLION!!) Government debt is a hoax term for stealing from "we, the people." Read Matthew 28:18 again. We get the government we deserve! The Australian "Government" cannot really collect taxes from Joe Blow Citizen because the citizens cannot pay taxes with monetized debt called "Dollars."

Wouldn't the Master Potter answer a massive crying out for change: i.e. Institution of the Kingdom under King Jesus? (Yahshua Messiah).

The CRIME of the Taxation PLUNDER, including Ex P.M. Howard's GST (sooner or later 15% on everything you buy?) is to regulate and control consumption, and to gather information for "Big Brother"

(NOT the TV Circus!). Hasn't the whole mess already totally failed many times over since Adam was a boy?

If the "Government" wants to keep a nation of willing and stupid slaves (totally brainwashed), they must at least control "religion" and "education," but "ruling" humanity without the Master Potter is pipe-dreaming at best! "Governments" can't control and deceive all freedom lovers who barter, can they? NO! "Governments" around the world are utterly failing because they are not guided and ruled by the laws of the Master Potter, Your Creator!

WILL THE MASTER POTTER "DRAW A LINE IN THE SAND"?

Yes! and we will not have to wait long. what is happening on Planet Earth right this very moment is totally beyond words. Matthew 24:42 sounds more important than ever before. Let's face it, the banksters, the "rulers" and the corporate cowboys divide the loot around the globe, including the country under the Southern Cross!

2 Samuel 23:3 is utterly ignored by the "rulers" and has been for a very long time. But even if the global societies would read and obey the Ten Commandments, we would have a vastly more peaceful society than under the various CONstitutions and millions of man-made “laws” which have failed for thousands of years! Do you remember First Kings 18:21? Are the “Judeo-Christians” halting between two opinions? Are they listening to the Baal prophets (profits?!), many of the modern TV Televangelists? How many “rulers” and televangelists give the Master Potter the glory? The UNreconstituted Clay the Master Potter can do nothing with?

New Video: BETRAYAL - THE AUTOIMMUNE SOLUTION presented by Dr. Thomas O'Bryan episodes 1 - 4.

Dr. O'Bryan interviews many experts in the field of functional medicine to bring us this very informative series on the solutions to the 80 autoimmune diseases that are plaguing many people today. Modern medicine does not have the answers and are unable to give a holistic solution and only give drugs to mask the symptoms, which often cause more disease. 1. gives solutions for Arthritis, lupus, celiac, multiple sclerosis, inflammatory bowel, etc. 2. is about gut health and digestion, vitamin D. 3 is about micro biome, restoring gut bacteria and immune system. 4. is about a healthy diet and fermented foods - and which are good and which are not.

CI-1046 @ sug don $9

The Newsletter you are reading is called “COVENANT MESSENGER.” Sounds much better than CONstitutional messenger!!! A messenger is a person or a publication carrying a message: verbal or written communication. Our anointed Saviour and one and only messenger is the promised liberator of the IsraELites as prophesied in the Bible: Jesus the Christ—Yahshua-Messiah.

Are all Western Nations brainwashed by thousands of religious cults, including “Judeo-Christians” apart from a remnant also known as “Little flock” in Luke 12:32? Read also Isaiah 40:11 ... “feed his flock like a shepherd” ...!! How many preachers have you heard who are preaching “The way, the truth and the life” (John 14:6)? Have you seriously studied John 10:14-29? (Christ “the door” and the “Good Shepherd” ...!! Many “religious” people do not hear THE SHEPHERD’S voice because they are NOT HIS SHEEP!! (John 10:27-29). The Master Potter cannot work with them because they are not malleable (not called, not chosen).

Paul finished up in prison because he OBEYED YAHWEH (the Master Potter) rather than men! (Acts 5:29). Liberty and freedom are acknowledgement of Faith in our Master Potter (Our Creator); His Word and His Creation. Each of us (if we believe in Him) has an inalienable right from our Master Potter to defend self, our freedom (liberty) and our property. This is fundamental to a peaceful, healthy, prosperous society with SELF GOVERNMENT under the MASTER POTTER and His Anointed Son. Anything else has failed, is failing, and will fail in the future UNTIL the Second Coming of our King of kings, Lord of lords, our one and only Anointed Shepherd!!

SCOFF AT THE MASTER POTTER AND HIS ANOINTED KINSMAN REDEEMER’S SON AT YOUR OWN PERIL!

Yes, even the corrupt money system has always been a total failure, and do you think our returned Redeemer will leave the moneychangers alone? Please read Matthew 21:12 - Mark 11:15 - John 2:15. The modern moneychangers will no longer run - “dens of thieves” instead of “The House of Prayer.” He will no longer tolerate “My Father’s House (The Master Potter’s House) as a house of merchandise” (John 2:15).

“Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth” (Matthew 5:5). That’s right: “the earth” and not Heaven!! The arrogant corrupt “rulers” who “rule” the Nations (but NOT like 2 Samuel 23:3) will no longer be telling The Master Potter (The Creator) how it should be done!

There will be no “rulers” like we have today, destroying society and planet earth, nor will bankers lending the borrowers into oblivion (Prov. 28:8 - Prov. 22:7) and when things go wrong, ask corrupt “Governments” to “bail them out;” “Governments” in debt to the bankers to the tune of $Millions, $Billions and even $Trillions!! (USA $23 Trillion) UK $3 trillion, etc).

Proverbs 29:2 - “When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked bears rule, the people mourn.”

Aren’t you sick of the wicked? Read Numbers 23:19. The Master Potter is not a man that He should lie .... He will keep all His promises!!

UNTILL:

A bell is not a bell, until we ring,
A song is not a song until we sing,
A Kingdom is NOT a Kingdom, Until Yahshua Messia is OUR KING.

Lucien de Bruin, 2 Roma St, Cardwell qld 4849

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO ‘LOVE YOUR ENEMY’?

by Pastor John Weaver

Matthew 5:20-46 is a correction of the misinterpretation and application of God’s Law by the Pharisees. The Pharisees taught it was all right to hate your enemy—If your enemy hates you, hate him back—If your enemy steals from you, steal back from him.

Does what our Lord said conflict with imprecatory praying? No! When our Lord says we are to love our enemies, you have to ask yourself “How do you love your enemy?” Is God demanding some type of sentimental, emotional, gushy, humanistic feeling? No.

How do we do good to them that hate us? The answer is given to us in the Scripture. Romans 13:10 tells us:

“Love worketh no ill to his neighbour; therefore love is the ful- filling of the law”

Wait a minute. Did you hear that? What is love? It’s not a feeling; it’s not sentiment; it’s not gushy humanism—Love is obedience. Love is the fulfilling of the Law. What does 1 John 5:3 say?

“For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments: and His commandments are not grievous.”

How do I love my enemy? I love him by acting Biblically toward him. I do not react to his wickedness; I respond Biblically. I do not render evil for evil—I do not render hatred for hatred—I do not render strife for strife.

Rather, I obey God’s Law and I do that which is right, regardless of what he does and how much he does that which is wrong. Look in your Bibles to Romans 12:17, 18:21. Here’s a wonderful illustration of what it means to love your enemies—This is taken from the Old Testament, so here is love and grace complimenting each other:

“Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.”

If Henry cusses me, does that give me the right to cuss him back? No. Just because Henry does wrong doesn’t mean I have the right to do wrong. I can do what is right.

“Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, sayeth the Lord.”

Now look at the application:

“Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirsts, give him drink: for in doing so thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.”

Then God says:

“Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.”

What does it mean then to act Biblically towards my enemy? God does not require us to fawn over him. God does not require us to spend lavish amounts of money on him. God does not ask us to invite him into our house and pretend like everything is hunky dory. No! But God says if he comes to you and he's hungry, give him something to eat. You don't have to buy him a steak—you can give him peas, or Brussels sprouts.

All God is saying is this: You are not to have a vengeful, hateful attitude toward your enemy. You're not to be overcome with evil. In other words, you are not to let his evil attitude and evil acts affect you so that you're evil back toward him and have an evil mentality. No! You're required to do what's right and what's Biblical.

How do I love him? I love him by acting Biblically toward him. If he comes to me, I'll feed him; I'll give him water—because I'm not like him, and I don't want to be like him.

So when our Lord tells us in Matthew 5 to love your enemies, He's not saying buddy-up to him and put your arm around him and walk down the street like you're good friends. No, He's not saying that at all. He's saying "You do what's right, regardless of what they do to you." You respond in a Biblical manner, and in doing so, you're going to heap coals of fire upon their heads. So there is no contradiction between loving your enemies and praying Imprecatory Prayers for him—in fact we are praying for them.

Why Are We Given These Imprecatory Prayers in the Bible?

We are told very pointedly in 2 Timothy 3:16-17, "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, ... that the man of God may be perfect...."

And obviously those verses refer to the Imprecatory Prayers as well. Why did He give us these Imprecatory Prayers that are Divinely revealed in His Word? One answer is that we may use them to establish true and Biblical justice. There are so many injustices in our day and age. Men are so depraved and so wicked. And as long as they are depraved and wicked, there is going to be gross miscarriage of justice.

How then may we correct them? The truth of the matter is that we are weak and powerless and helpless in and of ourselves. We cannot overturn court decisions on our own; we cannot overturn legal precedence; we cannot overturn executive orders. We may be helpless and impotent in and of ourselves, but thank God, there is a Judge of all the earth.

When Abraham was appealing to God in Genesis, he asked: "Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?"

And I can assure you, dear friend, God is going to do what is Right, what is Righteous, and what is Justice. In other words, what these Imprecatory Prayers are teaching us is this:

That we, God's people, have a right to bring a Covenantal Lawsuit against the wicked, and we have a right, before God, to bring this lawsuit and ask Him to overthrow the gross injustices, rectify the perversions of justice and bring forth true justice.

You have to remember the Bible tells us in Psalm 89:14 God is going to do what's right.

Do you realize one of the reasons God sent His son, Jesus the Anointed was to establish justice? Jeremiah 23:5. Where is God going to execute judgment and justice? in the earth.

The Imprecatory Prayers Teach Us

We have the right, the duty, and the obligation to bring a Covenantal Lawsuit against the wicked and ask God to intervene on our behalf. We have a Biblical mandate to cry for justice. In fact, in Isaiah 59:4 here is what God charges Israel with: He says,

"None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; ..."

What did God say? None pleadeth for truth, and none calleth for justice.

Imprecatory Prayers are a call for Justice and Truth.

It's time for God's people to call out to Him for justice and for victory in time and in history. May I remind you of something?

This is God's World, and we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture. This world does not belong to the wicked. It does not belong to the One-worlders. It does not belong to the Council on Foreign Relations, etc. It belongs to God Almighty. It's time we learned. We're not going to give up. We're not going to give out, and we're going to learn to Pray like David.

You have to understand this: when we are harmed and when we are treated unjustly, God is not only concerned, He is involved. You cannot attack a child without involving the parent—He's our Father, and we're His children—He's involved. If we wish to be blessed by God, and if we wish to be able to prosecute a Covenantal Lawsuit we must be obedient, holy and Godly ourselves.

The Doctrine of Clean Hands

This is a doctrine not only taught in our legal system, but in the Word of God. It's called the Doctrine of Clean Hands. Clean Hands refers to the fact that we're innocent of the charges that we're pressing against others. Under the Clean Hands doctrine, a person who has acted wrongly, either morally or legally—that is, one who has unclean hands—will not be helped by a court. If that is true in the lower courts of this land, how much truer is it in the Divine Court of Heaven?

If we want to prosecute a Divine Lawsuit against the wicked, we have to have clean hands—we cannot be guilty of what they're guilty of.

If we want God to act on our behalf, if we want to pray these imprecatory Prayers and see the Hand of God against the wicked, then we need to live holy and Godly lives. We need to be Biblical so that we can truly and truthfully pray that the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and that the wicked be no more. — Praise ye the Lord!

Courtesy: Hear Ye! Hear Ye!, General Post Office, Lead Hill, AR 72644

THE EXPECTATION FOR CHILDREN

by Andrea Schwartz

(Faith for all of Life, note: In attempting to push the pendulum back from the feminist extremes it has reached under humanism's sway, Andrea often couches her argument in very strong terms. This provokes people to serious thought, even if Andrea overcompensates for the existing cultural bias (perhaps most obviously in the section entitled "Ready or Not"). The value of initiating a long-overdue reassessment outweighs the element of controversy. Such essays thus serve an important general purpose even if the Biblical position was arguably overshoot in some particulars. When iron sharpens iron, each piece of metal gives up something of itself in that process: namely, those assertions that don't pass scriptural muster. We would be blind to these issues entirely were it not for those like Andrea willing to take the heat in confronting them. Refining the Biblical parameters will inexorably follow as the pendulum shifts closer to its final position over time).

It is painful to witness a young child ordering his parents around. The only thing more painful is to witness the child's parents (many times professing Christians) awkwardly smile and give in to the child's demand. Sometimes you can hear parents negotiating with the child, attempting to get them to "speak politely" to them. I recall my children's faces when they would see this dynamic played out. They would appear conflicted, as though they wished they had such freedom to rule our household. They would, however, inevitably announce later, "That child really needed a spanking." I would point out to them that they were correct in their assessment that the boy or girl really needed disciplining, but I would add, "Truth be told, the parents need a spanking!!"

My children were taught that if a parent failed to discipline a child, that child had a parent who hated him because the Bible teaches: "He who spares his rod hates his son, But he who loves him disciplines him promptly" (Prov. 13:24 NKJV).

Why do modern parents tolerate the tantrums, rudeness, defiance, and rebellion of their children? Why do they pursue a policy of appeasement, often handling a defiant outburst with a piece of candy or a new toy? Blame can be laid at the doorstep of the anti-spanking experts who have polluted the culture by making corporal punishment synonymous with child abuse, thereby creating justifiable fear in parents that public disciplining may get them in trouble with the law or Child Protective Services. While there are a number of societal causes that contribute to the status quo, much needs to be laid at the doorsteps of the church that fails to teach God's Law-Word in its fullest application.

The Word of God warns us that foolishness is bound up in the hearts of children (Prov. 22:15), and those who fail to honor their God-given authority will reap the consequences of an undisciplined life (Deut. 5:16). Parents who ignore the Bible's instruction to identify, reprove, and correct rebellion and defiance in their children bear responsibility for the actions and outcomes of those children even into adulthood. Those who are not self-consciously submitted to the authority of God, who operate without a Biblical understanding of the family, and who approach parenthood as a make-up-the-rules-as-you-go activity, scandalize their children by being unfaithful representatives.<sup>1</sup> With all the excellent resources available to instruct how to discipline Biblically, parents are doubly without excuse!

The Root of the Problem

A warped understanding of the purpose of marriage contributes to our modern parenting failures. Sadly, many decide to marry without a Biblical understanding that the family is God's basic institution of society and that God's plan for disciplining the nations begins with the fruits of the womb. Couples and their parents often give more attention to the color scheme at the wedding and the favors the guests will receive, than what the Bible says about the creation of a new Christian family. They approach their marriage with the assumption that it will evolve and progress naturally without much direct instruction from the Word.

In Genesis 1:28 God instructs Adam and Eve to be fruitful and multiply—in other words, to have children. Many enter marriage with something other than this dominion mandate in mind and have elevated other priorities ahead of bringing children into the world: finishing school, establishing themselves in a career, buying a house, or travelling the world. The uncertainties of our day encourage the decision to wait on children as does the huge debt from student loans, coupled with little to no prospect of employment.<sup>2</sup>

Modern culture supports these decisions to wait because, although not stated outright, there is the prevailing opinion that once children arrive on the scene, freedom and autonomy cease. This is the foundation for abortion being a woman's right. A culture of death encourages divorcing sexual intimacy from marriage and marriage from the bearing of children. If a Christian man and woman do not consider themselves ready to become parents, they should reevaluate the purpose of getting married. Psalm 127 reads:

"Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

"It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

"Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.

"As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are the children of the youth.

"Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate."

Why would Christian couples not want to receive God's reward and blessing of children? People only refuse gifts they don't consider valuable. God does not describe children as a financial drain. In God's economy children are deemed a blessing. The Psalmist specifies the reward as God-given. Happiness and contentment to the man who has many children. The Psalmist describes offspring as having an important role in the defense against enemies at the gate (or perhaps IN the gate, referring to enemies in government?) We should view these enemies as God's enemies and the children as covenant soldiers advancing the work of the Kingdom in the face of opposition (v5).<sup>3</sup>

Ready Or Not?

Christian couples and their families need to re-examine what constitutes readiness for marriage. The Bible points to some necessary prerequisites: the man must be able to demonstrate his capacity to support his wife and future children, (the dowry demonstrated this),<sup>4</sup> the wife should be physically ready to bear children and be able to look well to the ways of her household (Ps. 128:3, Prov. 31).

In our culture, the first years of marriage have replaced the betrothal period of the past. This entire period was to complete the necessary prerequisites for marriage. Only after meeting the requirements would the couple be deemed ready to marry. Because we ignore the marital guidelines, Christian marriage is often reduced to a "legal" sexual relationship.

The Christian marriage contract has a third partner, God Almighty, who places a high premium on covenant children (Ruth 4:11).<sup>5</sup> A man should be established in his calling (if he was trained in the way he should go, he will not depart from it) and ready to support his wife and future children, so that there are no earthly impediments to "filling his quiver." The priority is such that a man was to

A 100-year-old classic THE TWO BABYLONS by Alexander Hislop

Proof that Roman Catholic beliefs came from Pagan Babylonian religion. Historically accurate book reveals the pagan origins of: The Mass; the Wafer; the Sovereign Pontiff; Prayers for the dead; the Rosary; the Sign of the Cross; the Confessional; Priests-Monks-Nuns; Relic worship; Extreme Unction and much more!

#907 @ sug don $44.45

refrain from starting a business or serving in the military within the first year of marriage to focus on his wife and the creation of his family. Deuteronomy 24:5 states:

“When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war neither shall he be charged with any business: but he shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer up his wife which he hath taken.”

Rushdoony points out,

The bridegroom cannot be involved in military or civil duties. This is a requirement of very great importance because it clearly indicates the priority of the family to the nation. Religious institutions are not mentioned, because crises in such spheres are a rarity, whereas crises in national life are commonplace. No national crises can take precedence over the new marriage. Because the family is most important in God’s sight, it must always be protected. The Vulgate gives an interesting reading: the groom shall “rejoice (or, take pleasure) with the wife of his youth.” He is free, literally, “for his own household.” He has a duty under God to establish a family as a physical and spiritual entity.<sup>5</sup>

In God’s economy, the first year of marriage is to establish the family, recognizing that this supersedes business or national defense. This is a far cry from the perspective that eschews and postpones the arrival of children. If children are not eagerly anticipated, within the context of a Biblical framework, it is not a surprise that child rearing problems arise when children arrive. With God’s authority being dismissed, is it any wonder that parental authority is diminished?

Who Says So?

Authority on the human scene is closely tied to status or position, but it cannot be equated with status. To illustrate, parenthood is a natural fact; giving birth to a child gives the status of a parent to the father and mother. Authority, however, is not derived from this natural fact but from God’s command. “Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee” (Ex. 20:12). This is a law from God which promises long life as a gift from God for obedience. Moreover the commandment here is to adults to honour, not to children, who are commanded more specifically to obey (Eph. 6:1). This law has no true analogue in the world of nature.

This means that parents who seek to command their children naturalistically deny they have religious authority. Such mothers will tell their children of the “trauma” of conception and birth, and all their “sacrifices” for their children, and the fathers will recount how much time and money their children have cost them. The children are unimpressed: they didn’t ask to be born, and none of these facts give the parents any true authority. Authority is a religious fact, and unless it is religiously grounded, it quickly disappears.<sup>7</sup>

Back to our tyrant-in-the-making child who has no healthy fear of his parents. Every child is born with this wickedness in his heart which manifests itself as he gains new abilities. If parents do not stand on the firm foundation of God’s Law, they either take the path of least resistance by submitting to the child’s dictates, or they can become heavy-handed and abusive.

When I informed my children that the parents who failed to correct their children hated them, I had Scriptural backing: Hebrews 12:6, “For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.” If this method of correction is good enough for God the Father, parents should not hesitate to apply such discipline when necessary. Furthermore, consistent application early on in a child’s life has the added benefit of becoming less and less necessary as the child matures.

Today’s explanations on the “bad” behaviours of children are manifold and have been dosed out to us by child psychologists with expressions/excuses such as the terrible twos, the teenage years, or boys will be boys. Charles Spurgeon does not agree.

The proverb is, “Boys will be boys,” but I do not think so. They will be men, if we let them have time; unless they learn self-restraint and habits of obedience while they are boys, they are not likely to make good men. He who cannot obey is not fit to rule; he who has never learnt to submit, will make a tyranny when he obtains the power. It is good that every child should be broken in, delivered from his foolish self-will, and made to feel that he has superiors, masters, and governors, and then, when it shall come to his turn to be a leader and a master he will have the more kindly fellow-feeling to those who are under him.<sup>8</sup>

Children pick up very early on if their parents’ profession of faith matches their actions. Parents who refuse God’s authority cannot lead their children to obey them or God. Irresponsible, self-indulgent adults come from somewhere; they don’t just develop from out of the blue. The fabric of society, whether functional or dysfunctional, comes out of the context of family life.

Training for Governing

Training for government in church, state, and other areas is in Scripture essentially within the family. This is apparent in two key texts. First, in every Passover service, beginning with the very first in Egypt, the instruction and participation of the sons was a requirement. Every religious festival had an element of instruction in it, and it was essential in all things that the children be reared in the essentials and fundamentals of the faith. God so requires it (Ex. 12:26-27; Ex. 13:8-14).<sup>9</sup>

The Hebrew child participated in the Passover Service. The Christian child took part in communion, for the first eight centuries everywhere, and the practice had some prevalence still into the fourteenth century. It was clearly seen as essential that the covenant child understand the meaning of salvation and that as early as possible share the responsibility of the redeemed. He was taught to ask the question, because it was his responsibility to give an answer for his faith. This kind of training appears also in Joshua 4:6 where the question, “What mean ye by these stones?” requires the answer of teaching God’s saving power.<sup>10</sup>

The question from child and resultant answer from the father is all part of the training that teaches the child that he/she has been born into a context, an already organized and ordered life. The significance of having the youngest child ask the question is so that all within the household of faith would learn, and be expected to know, the meaning behind the symbolism. To exclude children from a knowledgeable participation in the faith cripples them. How are they to understand that failing to obey will shorten their lives, if they have not been taught and then held accountable?

This theme repeats throughout the Scripture but is emphatically driven home in Psalm 78, especially verses 1-8:

“Give ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth. I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old” Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done. For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children: That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children: That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments: And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

Rushdoony comments:

This whole psalm cites the lessons of history which parents must teach their children; the history lessons are illustrations of God’s judgments and are to be a part of the teaching of God’s Law. Life must be built upon the law of God, the psalmist says, and the law must be taught to children: this is God’s requirement. Without the law, and the examples of God’s judgment on law-breakers in Scripture, history will be the continuing and weary round of judgment on unconfessed covenant-breakers. Even more, it is not merely knowledge of the law, but a life of faithfulness which is required. The goal is “that they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments” (v.7).<sup>11</sup>

Biblical Expectations

Question #104 in the Heidelberg Catechism reads, What does God require in the fifth Commandment? The answer: That I show all honor, love and faithfulness to my father and mother, and to all in authority over me; submit myself with due obedience to all their good instruction and correction, and also bear patiently with their infirmities, since it is God’s will to govern us by their hand.

Authority begins for us in the home. God places parents over children. All children are to show “honor, love and faithfulness” to their parents. Ephesians 6:1-3 gives the New Testament interpretation of this commandment. God’s promise of blessing to obedient children still stands! Disobedient children are wicked children who are preparing themselves for ungodly lives and eventually hell if they do not repent.<sup>12</sup>

Honor thy father and thy mother is the first commandment with a promise, and must be established early on in a child’s life, but does not carry an age-limit for when it ceases—because it continues life-long. Without doing so, children are trapped in a sinful cycle that promises to shorten their days and their parents become accomplices in their dire end. Conversely, when couples eagerly anticipate God’s blessing of children and steward these lives into obedient service, they will receive the mercy unto thousand of them that keep the commandments of God. This is how the Kingdom is forwarded.

Notes:

1. Thanks to Rev. Mike O’Donovan of Rock of Liberty Church in Forth Worth, TX (www.rockofliberty.com) in a recent exposition of Lord’s Day 39 from the Heidelberg Catechism.
2. Interestingly enough, many married couples would be astonished and possibly offended to discover that their reasons for holding off on having children mirror almost exactly the reasons offered by abortion-minded women who claim that abortion is their only option due to these same considerations.
3. Rev. Mike O’Donovan has an interesting view on v.3. His take is that the reward belongs to God as much as it is given by God. So, in essence, the decision to hold off on having children is depriving God of what is lawfully His.
4. Ex. 22:16 speaks of the bride-price as normative. This is not the purchase of a woman as chattel property, but an indication of the man’s commitment and ability to assume the role of husband.
5. The absence of children in a marriage is lamented by many prominent women of the Bible (e.g. Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Hannah), or in some cases presented as a sign of judgment (Michal).
6. R.J. Rushdoony, Deuteronomy (Vallecito, CA: Ross House Books, 2008), 372.

7. R.J. Rushdoony, Systematic Theology, Vol. 2 (Vallecito, CA: Ross House Books, 1994) 1140-1141.

8. The Metropolitan Tabernacle Pulpit: Sermons, Parts 249-260, by Charles Haddon Spurgeon.

9. R.J. Rushdoony, Systematic Theology, Vol 2 (Vallecito, CA: Ross House Books, 1994), 683-684.

10. Ibid.

11. Ibid.

12. Rev. Norman L. Jones, Study Helps on The Heidelberg Catechism (Reformed Church in the U.S., Publications Committee, 1981).

Courtesy Faith for All of Life, Box 158, Vallecito CA 95251

a limited number of copies only
The Administration of Abraham Lincoln,
excerpted from
The Political History of the U.S.A
during
THE GREAT REBELLION
1865
a classified summary of the legislation of the second session of the 36th Congress... be quick! @ $3.00 posted

CAN I GET AN “AMEN”?

by Robert McCurry

“But I can’t do that!”

This is the typical response of most Christians to the simple, clear biblical command that God’s people educate their children in an explicitly Christ-centered manner throughout each and every day (see: Deuteronomy 6:5-7).

This typical Christian response is enabled and promoted throughout our dying culture by way of our State-managed “education” systems, our corporate-managed pop-culture, and our negligent, State-licensed (tax-exempt) “church” leaders. Thanks to a State-centered view of life in general (and children’s education in particular) having been encouraged to metastasize throughout the culture over generations of abdication by the church, most professing Christians now actually believe — or pretend to believe — that they “can’t” do what God has commanded and equipped His people to do in the vital life- and culture-shaping realm of children’s education.

So when these people say that they can’t do it, what they really mean, whether they realize it or not, is that they won’t do it.

They can do it. They can obey God. But they won’t!

And since their local church leaders tend to merely echo rather than confront and correct what they hear from more overtly pagan sources sprinkled throughout the secular culture, they have grown up very comfortable in not doing what God has clearly and lovingly commanded them to do (which is, by definition, sin) where the shaping of children’s minds is concerned.

They’re so comfortable in their rebellion that they tend to lash out at those who dare attempt to confront and correct their anti-Christian approach to children's education in accordance with the Gospel (usually with full knowledge that their "church" leadership has their back on this, since most "churches" are openly committed to supporting State-controlled "education" of children in accordance with a philosophy of the pursuit of knowledge first introduced by the serpent in Genesis 3).

So what are these "Christians" really so afraid of? Well, many things, actually.

For one, they're afraid of losing many things that they hold dear. They're afraid of giving up things that our paganized culture, Corporations and churches tell them that they "deserve." Before we get into our list of ten examples of these things, let's be plain about two simple, obvious, yet often religiously ignored realities:

1. The economic factors often quickly cited (and included in the list below) as reasons why one "can't" do what God commands with regard to children's education are, 90+% of the time, a matter of choice (see Preferences or Convictions, in last month's Messenger, p.7), not necessity. The vast majority of those who claim that they can't obey God because of this or that economic constraint are, in fact, living in a way that does allow for the radical down-sizing or lowering of certain housing/auto/boat/vacation/cable television/large screen TV options in a way that would make all of the necessary "economic space" available.

...and...

2. In those instances where there is a real economic constraint beyond the ability of, say, a widow or similarly challenged person to navigate, then it is the duty and obligation of family and [*ahem*] the Church to step in, step up, and take care of business.

Obviously, I am referring to the LORD's true Church - the supernaturally saved and empowered LORD's true Church - in stark contrast with the weak/phony counterfeits littering the landscape, each of which tend to excuse, validate, and even support the satanic model of children's education, rather than confronting it as they are commanded to do in accordance with the Gospel and Great Commission.

Just think of how many so-called "churches" with gigantic facilities, ornate furnishings, and huge staffs of "professionals" are financing those buildings, furnishings, and salaries by enabling and promoting the "Australian Dream" model of success (which is built upon the modern pagan approach to children's education) over and above the Gospel and Great Commission of Jesus the Christ. The reason most of these "churches" won't confront this issue in accordance with the Word of God is that they are personally enriching themselves and building their little "Christian empires" through the promotion of a satanic model of the pursuit of knowledge.

Who needs the Aztecs or ISIS or a gang of Satanists to do the child sacrifice thing when we have a "church" like this? With those two clarifications noted, we go to:

10 Things People Won't Sacrifice To Save Their Children From Public Schools

1. Comfort - As people who've been raised in a State-centered, socialistic culture for generations now, we're very comfortable giving our children up to State-certified "pro-professionals" to do our work for us. It's the norm. Why rock the boat... especially when by just doing what our pagan State, Corporate, and church cultures tell us, we can have so much of what we so naturally and so selfishly desire, like ...

2. Ease - Oh yeah, this is a biggie. How much easier can it get than just handing off your kids to the State for "education"?

3. Time - We need our "me time," don'tcha know. And out hobby time. And our TV time our rest. The sheer amount of time that would be taken up in obeying the LORD and loving our children in educational practice is just not something that we are inclined to give up. - At all - And since our tax-exempt State-certified "pastors" won't push us to do so, why even think about it?

4. Nicer-Than-Necessary Car(s) - The vast majority of those who claim that they "can't" obey God and love their children in accordance with Scripture on the subject of education could get away with driving a much less luxurious car - or cars - than they are driving now.

5. Bigger and/or Better-Than-Necessary Home(s). The thought of voluntarily transitioning down from a nice home in the suburbs to maybe a mobile home or a humble rental elsewhere, or more rural for the sake of honoring God and loving our children in educational practice isn't something that we are known for. Quite the contrary. Even the proposition of such a material downgrade for the sake of educating children in accordance with Scripture is the sort of thing that will more often than not inspire shocked stares of incredulity from those on the State-sanctioned path of children's education.

6. More and/or Nicer-Than-Necessary Vacation(s) - We have to go to the beach, right? Or Disney World. Or the County Fair. Or the State Fair. These are necessities. But Christ-centered education for our children? Not so much!

7. More and/or Nicer-Than-Necessary Stuff - Gotta have HD-TV. And Video games. And motorcycles. And boats. And computers. And smartphones. And high quality clothes. And jewelry. And digital cable. And high-speed Internet. And decent food, grooming and vet access and insurance for our pets. But Christ-centered education for our children? Nah.

8. Career Advancement Opportunities - How else are we gonna get more and more cool stuff, bigger and better houses, and longer, more luxurious vacations if we don't sacrifice what we need to sacrifice - like our children's Christ-centered education - in order to advance our careers?

9. Social Perception - Have you seen the way most people view and treat those families crazy and/or dedicated enough to actually do what needs to be done to personally provide an explicitly Christ-centered education for their children? Even most churches tend to be made uneasy when these folks show up - which should be no surprise considering the way that most churches are openly opposed to Jesus' clear commands on the subject of children's education.

10. Effort - Doing hard and challenging things like educating your children requires effort. Lots of effort. Lots

something all parents should have CHILD TRAINING TIPS

Reb Bradley

What I wish I knew when my children were young - Helping parents identify their blind spots.

**Can children obey when spoken to calmly and only one time? *What is the most biblical way to raise well-adjusted children? *How do parents accidentally train their children to disobey? *Can different children be held to the same standard? *How can parents determine which discipline to choose? *Should children be required to eat and accept thankfully foods they don't enjoy? *What exactly is "sass" and how can it be stopped?*

#152 @ sug don $7.95

and lots of effort. Lots and lots and lots of effort is reason enough for it not fitting in with the modern people's approach to things. And in the fact in many instances you might have to give up the other nine things listed here too, and you can see why Christ-centered children's education is something that repulses most people and most churches.

Only the true, undiluted, everything-touching Gospel can change this ... which you will not find in or near most churches these days ... which seem to be on every other street corner in a culture rocketing to hell before our eyes.

I wonder if there could be a connection there.

Courtesy, Wake-Up Herald, 605 Moore Rd Newnan GA 30263

---

THIS IS NOT A BATTLE OVER RACE. IT IS A BATTLE OVER CULTURE.

by David Daubenmire: CoachDaveLive.com

There was a time when speaking the truth wasn't considered risky, but rather expected. Open and honest discussion was a fundamental exercise that helped shape the fabric of this nation. But that was before Political Correctness, Cultural Marxism, and Alinsky tactics put the kibosh on independent thought and speech.

A man is never really free if his speech is not free. Thoughts are not now, nor should they ever be, a crime. We are rapidly moving towards the time when men and women will be punished for merely expressing what they think. There can be no greater form of tyranny than that.

This country has always been multi-ethnic. But it has never been multicultural. By and large it was the WASP—White Anglo-Saxon Protestant—that built the greatest nation the world had ever seen. It was built by different ethnicities ... but different cultures? Never! It was White Anglo-Saxons of their common Christian heritage that molded the Unum out of the Pluribus.

A nation that has no common culture is not a nation. It is an amalgamation of various people-groups that tolerate one another. Balkanization is the term that they give to it ... to divide into mutually hostile states or groups. It is the direction into which we are rapidly moving.

And people are sick of it. Permit me to say—at the risk of ridicule and racial ramifications—that the only hope for this country is the bold return to the White Anglo-Saxon Protestant Male. Unless we arise and arise now, we will see the utter destruction of Western Civilization. Is there any people-group more under attack than the White Heterosexual Christian Male?

The single greatest migration in history was the White Anglo-Saxon-Protestants who took the Gospel of Jesus the Christ to the world. If you are a Black Christian today, thank a WASP. If you are an Asian Christian today, thank a WASP. If you are a Japanese, Korean, Filipino and you claim Jesus as Saviour ... thank a WASP.

Our Caucasian Christian ancestors evangelized the world; you have nothing to be ashamed of. Laugh if you like, but there is a New World Order, and their goal is world domination. The last thing standing between One World Government is a sovereign America, and the only thing holding America together is the remnant of Christians dotting the landscape. To conquer America they must destroy Christianity. Multi-Culturalism is the wrecking ball that they are using.

Let me ask you a question: Muslim hoards are flooding the world through "refugee resettlement." Can you explain to me why the "Anglo" nations are the ones being flooded with millions of refugees" who don't share their language, culture or religion? Is China receiving refugees? How about Japan, Korea or the African nations?

This is not a battle over Race, it is a battle over Culture.

The question facing the world today is 'Can anything stop the forced religious integration of the world?'

Christianity is under attack like no time in modern history, and the only thing holding back the death of Western Civilization is the White Heterosexual Christian Male.

Call me names. Label me a racist. Try to shame me into silence. But something big is happening around us. God is never doing what we think He is doing.

All over the world the WASPs are beginning to awaken and are beginning to push back. Multi-Culture is societal AIDS. Western Civilization hangs in the balance. Let's pray it is not too late.

---

BY WHAT STANDARDS....?

by Arnold Kennedy

It is a common perception that none of the Law existed before it was given through Moses on Mount Horeb, but God knew Abram would obey the Law. Reference to the requirement to obey the spoken words of God starts right back in Genesis.

From history we must agree that people are capable of believing anything and it is more common for people to believe just what they want to believe. Sometimes they believe and act out of fear or emotionalism. There are many motives for belief. There is culture; indoctrination; peer pressure; etc. But as far as the Bible is concerned, possibly the worst thing is tradition. Matt. 15:6 says:

"Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition."

We have traditional teachings today as well as we have things such as charismatic leaders; they go about trying to persuade people.... So we can see just why we are told to judge all things. But by what standard do we make these judgments?

We are to examine the Word to see if these things be so and to believe them accordingly. We are to dig deep, to seek and to search. This indicates the necessity of doing research, of comparing Scripture with Scripture and checking translations if necessary.

Every growing Christian will be taught about God during these activities. He will be refining his beliefs continually and some times he will freely admit that at times he has been wrong, mainly because of what he has been led to believe.

The Truth of God has always been,
but none of us know it all.

Courtesy, Hear Ye, Hear Ye, G.P.O. Lead Hill AR 72644

---

Here we are at the end of 2016 and approaching the time of the pagan mid-winter festival, with all its trimmings. If you have any doubts about this being a pagan festival, read THE TWO BABYLONS (mentioned on page 10). As mentioned last month, the spacing of newsletters may increase somewhat, as I have to slow down a bit, and have many things still to do.

My wife has changed my diet, and given up on all dairy and wheat products, and it seems to have helped my heart condition considerably, and has also helped me to lose some weight. I'm still taking Magnesium Citrate everyday, as well as COQ10, garlic, vitamin E, and a number of others.

Thanks again for your continued interest and support. Please try and get new people interested in signing up for our Messenger - especially family and relatives. Hope you appreciate this Messenger as much as previous ones. Thank you for your prayers, letters, orders and contributions - all are much appreciated. May the God of our Fathers, bless you and keep you safe in the coming year,

