BAAL WORSHIP IN JUDEO-CHURCHIANITY PART 1

by Pastor Mark Downey

Scripture reading: II Kings 17:7-17

Today there are many people who are advocating what is known in Scripture as 'Baal Worship' either knowingly or unwittingly, the latter being predominant. Our people don't know what it is, don't understand its ulterior motives or even recognize it when they see it. It's like a cancerous disease manifested in many different symptoms, which the average Christian cannot detect without trained eyes. Once our nation learns her identity and racial truths, we will understand why our nation has become a haven for abomination and occupied territory of the antichrists. As the Israelites of Scripture (not to be confused with those who call themselves Jews today) served the Baals and thus bringing divine judgment in the form of national hardships, plunder and other calamities upon themselves, so too, in more recent history has the White race once again turned from the God of their fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

This constant forsaking of God to serve Baal and thus triggering misery and sorrow is continually repeated throughout Scripture. One would think a people could look at the historical patterns and learn from their mistakes. However, it's complicated and history itself has often-times been a reflection of the spoils of war and subterfuge, and therefore to the victor goes the spoils of writing their own version of history.

The word 'baal' (Strong's #1168; pronounced baw-al) means master or owner, but most often refers to a deity (either singular or plural). It is not the name of one god, but rather a collective of gods in a given locality and time. When Israel entered the land of Canaan, the worship of the Baals was much the same everywhere in the land; thus it came to represent the idea of one god. Baalism demonstrates an array of doctrines and beliefs. There are 6 names for Baal: Baalim, Molech, Moloch, Malcham, and Milcom (the last 4 being Moabite and Ammonite names for Baal).

The first use of the word Baal is in Numbers 22, which is very significant considering what is going on. This is the story of the Moabite king, Balak, who hired the Baal priest Balaam, who apparently had a reputation of having some sort of power to bless or curse people, and the king paid him to curse the children of Israel. Do you think that's going on today? There are some very wealthy televangelists out there, laughing all the way to the bank, (and clergy promoting race-mixing and perversion). The conspiracy to spy upon and curse Israel was intended to destroy Israel and rid them from the land. As you know, God prevented that initial attack from the religious leaders of that day. Can we see a parallel today with political forces out to destroy our White Christian Nations through a priesthood of Baalism? The answer is yes.

The next time the term Baal is mentioned is in Numbers 25 where we find Israel has begun to miscegenate with non-Israelites and verse 3 says, "Israel joined in the worship of Baalpeor, and the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel." Sexual intercourse with non-Whites is a primary objective of Baal worship. (Although the Moabites may not have been coloured, having sprung from Lot, Abraham's nephew; they were still a forbidden lineage, due to incest). This is verified in Rev. 2:14 where Jesus said, "I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel... to commit fornication." Strong's Concordance and most Bible dictionaries have poor to misleading translations of the Greek word 'porneia' (#4202) as simply 'fornication', which can inadvertently lead our people to the sin of race mixing. The Seventh Commandment is really about adulterating one's lineage. It has nothing to do with the neighbour's wife, which is covered in the Tenth Commandment.

This can be proven with the exchange Jesus had with the Jews in John 8:41, "We be not born of fornication; we have one father, God." Our first impression is that this is a misuse of the word 'fornication' as simply sexual intercourse, however, as Jesus explains further on, it's a difference in genetic background. "Jesus said unto them [Jews], if God were your father, you would love Me" v.42. A better word than fornication would have been whoredom, and an allusion to Deut. 23:2, "A bastard [i.e. a mongrel, half breed; not an illegitimate child out of wedlock] shall not enter the congregation"; the NIV says, "No one born of a forbidden marriage..." Who were the Israelites forbidden to marry? It would be people like the Ammonites or Moabites mentioned in verse 3 who were mongrels. The Hebrew word for bastard is 'mamzer' and those concordances that do not provide the definition of 'mongrel' give the word 'bastard', which was a 19th century equivalent meaning mixed blood.

Why do modern Bible dictionaries exclude any reference to half-breeds, mongrels or miscegenation? Obviously, it is to eliminate the sin of marrying those races whom God had forbidden the Israelites to marry. Jesus goes on to accuse these Jews of having both Abraham and diabolos as their father. The Jews were a mixed race people who could not identify with the truth of God, they were natural born liars. 'Diabolos' (#1225) means false accuser, slanderer, devil and these Jews lied about their ancestry just as they do today; they are neither Judahites or Semites. We can conclude then that this scriptural distortion is not only a stumbling block to White people today, but a sanction for Baal worship to incur the wrath of God against us just as Balac caused Israel to commit fornication or marrying forbidden races.

Fornication in Numbers 25 is a clear example of interracial marriage. "And Israel... began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab" v.1. Baal worshippers try to separate the stranger from their strange gods and justify today's Israelite marrying someone of another race as long as they're both Christians. Leading the charge with this concept is none other than the Grand Poobah to the Presidents, Billy Graham. But interracial marriage is never how it works in God's jurisdiction. The first manifestations of Baal worship in the Bible are in the capacity of alien enemies to our race. "And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods... and bowed down to their gods. And Israel joined himself unto Baal-peor; and the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel" v.2-3. We are dealing with two distinct peoples here, not of the same bloodline. It was so serious that two race mixers were brought before Moses and the congregation and Phinehas, the grandson of Aaron, ran a javelin through both of them and halted the developing plague from God. Up to that point in time, 24,000 Israelites had died in this plague because of the race mixing sin of Baal worship. God was so impressed with this one Israelite who knew when it was 'a time to kill', that the Lord made a "Covenant of an everlasting priesthood" with his seed after him, because he was "Zealous for his God, and made atonement for the children of Israel" (Nu. 25:13). No doubt there are many Baal worshippers who would emasculate the spirit of God's decree in denouncing such actions in our ultra-modern society.

Baal worship is a multiplicity of gods, it is not monotheistic. Elizabeth Dilling, in her book 'The Jewish Religion - Its Influence Today' (also known as The Plot Against Christianity, 395 @ $30.45) states, "To many Christians, Judaism is a monotheistic religion, based on belief in one Supreme Being and adherence to the Old Testament, with the Messiah still to come. This is not so. Double-talk is the trade mark of Talmudic Judaism, called by Christ the "Synagogue of Satan." Talmudists sanctimoniously declare that their devotion to "pure monotheism," or the "unity of God," precludes their belief in His Personality being in Jesus Christ, His Son, and we Christians keep silent. The Unity of God to which they refer is actually the oneness of the Pantheistic "en sof," a mass without a "Chief Engineer." This is the "unity of nature" in which the Pagans believed. For every form of spirit invocation, and for the deification of man, that is Judaistic Talmudism, a religion of polytheism, or many gods. Slyly, the polytheists say what they mean. We do not understand them. Take any of the modern heresies, the "new" religions our tired Christians like to think were just evolved; you will find them all in Talmudism and its collection of ancient Old Testament paganism. The Jewish Cabala with its non-existence of evil, its deification of man, is a source book for modern "isms," the sources of which are largely unknown in modern times."

Serving Baalim also meant serving Ashtaroth (Judges 10:6) his goddess wife, representing fertility in nature; the Greek and Roman spin-off being Astarte, from which we get the word 'Easter' and a reproductive multitude of cute little bunny rabbits and dyeing multi-colored eggs. Maybe the church has more in common with Hugh Hefner's bunnies and Jesse Jackson's 'Rainbow Coalition' than we thought. The followers of Ashtoreth danced around a sacred pole on May 1st, which has also become a high holy day for world communism. From Halley's Bible handbook we read that the temples of Baal and Ashtoreth were centers of vice and extravagant orgies; priestesses and sodomites were temple prostitutes.

The book of Jasher explains the extent that non-Israelites went to, to tempt the men of Israel into sin (this is also known as the 'doctrine of Balaam', referred to in Rev. 2:14): "The elders of Moab and Midian took all their daughters and their wives of beautiful aspect and dressed them in gold and silver and costly garments, seating them at the door of their tents, so that the Israelite turns to them and coveted them and would not fight against Moab. Then they enticed him with flattery and gave him wine and he became intoxicated, and he did with the damsel as he pleased, for he knew not what he was doing. And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel on account of this matter and He sent a pestilence amongst them, and there died of the Israelites 24,000 men."

The Canaanites worshipped by way of immoral indulgence and debauchery as a religious rite or practice to Baal. Many people with eyes to see, witness these things happening around us and think these people are just sinners. Yes, but it's much more. These abominations are actually part of the religion of Canaan. They did then and they do now, these things as a religious exercise. Can you appreciate why God commanded Joshua to go in there and do some ethnic cleansing? In archaeological excavations of this area, which preceded Joshua's campaign in 1500BC, the ruins of the 'high places' found great numbers of jars containing the remains of children who had been sacrificed to Baal. The whole temple area proved to be a cemetery for newborn babies. This nation used to believe in the sanctity of life, but now abortions have sky rocketed into the millions. The religion of Baal included the murder of innocent little children. It was not just something they did; it was a religious pageant that was done in the name of their god Baal. Today, they just sanitize the murder of innocents by calling it pro-choice.

To further this abomination, we are told by the Baal priests of today that humanity is destined to form a one world brotherhood, a united nations per se. The enemies of Israel are motivated to reduce the number of White children. They do this through their teaching and preaching of infanticide and women's rights. Abortion has become a tremendous growth industry. Church parking lots are host to blood drives and a bloodmobile to suck the life out of you. At the same time, these enemies of the White race promote premarital promiscuity in public schools so they can in turn force-vaccinate our children against STD's as Bilderberger governor Rick Perry of Texas has done. Ever since sex education has been deemed as important as the three R's, it has expedited pregnancies in the young girls of our race who then opt out for an abortion, and what pray tell is that? It is the murder of our future posterity, which is a doctrine of Baal worship. (Beware of the 'safe-schools' program which has nothing to do with being safe from bullies, but everything to do with promoting pro-sodomite and transgender agendas, in children as young as 7)

If these murderer-abortionists just wanted to reduce the number of our race, they would simply inculcate in these young minds abstinence. Instead, our young people are being brainwashed in the liberal public schools and Jewish controlled media. Parents don't realize the grave danger their children are being subjected to. The educational system and Hollywood are chock full of the trappings of Baal. Anyone who professes to be a White Christian needs to ask themselves if we are doing the same things in here and now that caused the northern house of Israel to go into Assyrian captivity thousands of years ago.

From today's Scripture reading in II Kings 17:7-17 we can find some definite parallels: our race sinned against God; walked in the statutes of the heathen; did unrighteous things in secret; were warned by the prophets; they wouldn't listen to or believe in God; they accepted astrology as the norm (as today, just look in any paper or magazine and you'll find the horoscopes, and ads for fortune-tellers); they burned their children in fires; they consulted with fortune tellers; they wore bracelets and trinkets for blessings; they made molten idols; they were as much the servants of sin as if they had sold themselves to be in bondage to the same thing; they served this alien Baal god and provoked the Creator-God of our race to anger. The modern Baal worshipper is as oblivious as in times past to the gravity of the sin brought into a family or nation and the subsequent plague that comes with it. They will be held accountable. Without turning from every evil way and turning back to God's Law, there can be no godliness or peace in the church. With Baal being in good standing with the churches, it is inevitable that the churches who do so willingly will be removed just as the ancients were. The pattern is all too clear, get out of them now!

Our race is turning away from God to learn all of the things of the adversaries of God: the stranger and his strange gods. The so called great commission of missionaries has wasted millions of dollars on the non-White foreigner that cannot and will not grasp the Spirit of Christianity, but know a freebie handout when they see it. We feed – they breed. I know you love to hear the hate emails I get from judeo-Christians and so here's one I got recently from a smug female missionary with the Anglican Church of Rwanda. She said, "Dear Mark: I recently came across your site in the midst of researching a paper I am writing on Kinsman redeemer = Jesus as OUR Kinsman Redeemer by that I mean ALL of us who name the name Jesus as Lord and Savior. I disagree with ALL you believe but would be keen to engage with you on this issue if no other reason than to understand your approach to Scripture and the teachings of Christianity as held by Christians around the world. I look forward to hearing back from you." I told her that her misunderstanding comes from what she thinks the word "all" means and sent her Arnold Kennedy's scholarly article on 'The Misuse of the Word "All", "Every" and "Whosoever" Etc'. I told her I didn't want to debate with her and that I hoped she could learn something new. This is how she responded, "I did learn from your site. I learned that some people don't have the right to the title pastor. I learned you know neither Scripture or Christianity. I learned you are a racist and will be held accountable for false teaching. I learned that any one can give themselves the title pastor. I learned more about arrogance. I learned about sloppy Biblical interpretation. You are treading dangerous ground. May God have mercy on your soul and protect others from your false teaching." Well, wasn't that special? She appears to be keen on engaging in diatribe, more so than theology.

This is the mind of a Baal worshipper that we must deal with or they will deal with us the way John 16:2 reports, "They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time is coming when whoever puts you to death will have the belief that he is doing a service to God." If that's going to be the case, then we are in good company with Jesus Christ. In fact, I always know I'm on the right track when I fulfill Mt. 5:11, "Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you.... and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for My sake." Even if we are more righteous and bear the fruits of the Holy Spirit, their utter contempt for those who dare call it race, are not just excommunicated, but deprived of our godly character through slanderous gossip, our influence to do good and stripped of every necessity of life. An advocate of God's 'kind after kind' is relegated to a dunghill of gehenna. Real nice folks, these Baal worshippers of judeo-Churchianity.

And now the self righteous pious fad is to adopt expendable kids from China and other 3rd world countries with the cute appellation of 'blended families'; all with the blessings of their local Baal priest.

Since the Christian Identity truth has come on the scene, the Baal churches have increasingly masterminded the Big Lie that the jews are Israel and that the jews who died in a so called 'Holocaust' is more precious than Jesus the Christ who died on the Cross. The Baal thinking goes that if you don't believe the sacrifice of jewry, that we must 'never forget' lest another one happen, then we are anti-Semitic [sic], as if that's the worst thing in the world next to the malevolent hate of Adolf Hitler. Of course the Baal churches are the exclusive custodians of love and if you don't have their brand of love, you're a serial terrorist unto their corporate works. They've got so much love, they would put a Talmudic pawnbroker in charge of the church treasury and budget; would appoint a pedophile beast of the field as the youth pastor; they would assign the pierced and tattooed barfly to the Halloween party committee. ... ad nauseam.

They've got so much Baal love (the Bible calls it fornication), that when they force our people to mix with other races and we resist, we are considered mentally ill. However, there is absolutely no scientific or biblical proof that such an accusation is true. In fact, nature proves just the opposite. Blue Jays do not mate with Cedar Waxwings. The Baal priest would have you believe that all bipeds are an exception to the rule and that Christianity should follow suit even though there is no admonition to do so in the Bible. Jer. 19:4-6 (NASV) says, "Because they have forsaken Me and have made this an alien place and have burned sacrifices in it to other gods, that neither they nor their forefathers nor the kings of Judah had ever known, and because they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent and have built the high places of Baal to burn their sons in the fire as burnt offerings to Baal, a thing which I never commanded or spoke of, nor did it ever enter My mind; therefore, behold, days are coming," declares the Lord, "when this place will no longer be called Topheth or the valley of Ben-hinnom, but rather the valley of Slaughter." The clock is ticking on Baal worshippers who infest Christian churches. Topheth is a word that suggests beating drums, which is what they did so that the cries and shrieks of infants burning in the fire might not be heard by their parents. Baal churches love to be loud so that primal emotions can drown out any intelligent thinking or cries of protest. It's entertainment to feel good, not spiritual instruction to be righteous.

If you've read Thomas Chittum's book 'Civil War II', you know that demographics have radically changed in just a few decades. What has transformed this country into this moral cesspool? It's Baal worship! Racial integration and immorality could not have flowered legally, had not the shepherds of Israel turned their pulpits into altars of Baal. The duty of a Christian pulpit is to have shepherds who will protect the flock and bring down the Baals. Ezek. 13:1-3, tells us, "And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say unto them that prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the Lord; Thus saith the Lord God; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing." Matthew Henry explains: "Where God gives a warrant to do anything, he gives wisdom.

What they delivered was not what they had seen or heard, as that is which the ministers of Christ deliver. They were not praying prophets, had no intercourse with Heaven; they contrived how to please people, not how to do them good; they stood not against sin. They flattered people into vain hopes. Such widen the breach, by causing men to think themselves deserving of eternal life, when the wrath of God abides upon them."

The Billy 'dead-man-walkin' Graham clones have done just the opposite of God's command to separate the races and enabled the defilement of a congregation with sodomites and pedophiles as equal participants in a worship service. Did you get the memo from the Pentagon last week (9-30-11)? Military chaplains will be allowed to preside over same-sex marriages on military bases. Land of the free? Maybe too free to do things contrary to God. Baal worship is basically a two-pronged abomination comprising race mixing and sexual perversions, although later we will investigate and identify some 12 elements to show conclusively that Baal Worship is in the judaized churches and as John's vision in Rev. 18:4 implores the White Christian to "Come out of her [the whorish church of Mystery Babylon] My people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues."

If you hear the word 'democracy' in a church, put in a favorable light, it should raise red flags that you're in the middle of a Baal service. Democracy is two foxes and a chicken voting on what to have for lunch. Democracy is a mob deciding to make a golden calf, while someone is up on a mountain getting instructions from God. Where was the church in 1964 with the passage of the Civil Rights Act, which really should have been called the Non-White Act? Our race is the custodian of God's Law, whether self-loathing Caucasians like it or not. God told His Covenant People in Isaiah 59:21, "My Spirit that is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your descendants, nor out of the mouth of your descendant's descendants, says the Lord, from this time forth and forever." There's been a myriad of unbiblical and anti-White legislation since 1964 from 'affirmative action' to hate crime laws to the proposed 'Dream Act' that would give amnesty to over 2 million illegal aliens that would virtually destroy White Christian America. Do we hear one cockadoodle doo from the churches? Not a peep. Just this last week, the scribes of the synagogue play musical deck chairs on the sinking Titanic ship of Republican presidential candidates, giving the rescue boat to a negro named Cain who has a plan called 999. Now if this inversion of the mark of the beast is not tongue in cheek, then I'll eat my hat. Are we to believe that a double whammy violation of Deut. 17:15 is in the works? "Thou may not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother." They have a dream that is our nightmare.

It was quite a different tone and behavior to the prelude of the early formations of this Christian Nation. Our descendants had gained an intelligence from the diligent study of the Bible, and all were honest and believers in the Jesus of the New Testament. Such were men and women who were thus driven out of their native England, yet hunted and intercepted in their flight, as if they were criminals escaping from justice. Why did they suffer the spoiling of their goods, arrest, imprisonment and exile? They had caught from the Bible the idea of a church independent of Popes, monarchies and independent of Parliament and dependant only on Jesus. It was their mission to work out and organize that idea. They got an exhilarating whiff of liberty in Anointing, breathing a new delightful religious freedom that was intoxicating. Suddenly, their obligations to antagonistic authority found themselves at length utterly free. It wasn't that action was freed from the restraint of fear, as much as their thinking was freed from the necessity of the body politic to compromise with ecclesiastical repressions. We face a similar leviathan today in the priestcraft of Baal supplanting the higher powers of God with the idols of the heart and having the audacity to call themselves Christian. We will recognize them by their fruits (Mt. 7:16) i.e. what is produced through their beliefs and conduct. In other words, we can identify the teachings and teachers of Baal through their attitude or spirit, which will be contrary to the mind of Jesus and lead the sheep to sin. Are grapes gathered from prickly thorns? How pleasant is it to learn something by being stuck with a needle?

The Baals are safe and secure for the time being. So were the Pharisees. Ignorance is bliss; if we learn very little in this life, it is a very dangerous thing. Baal worship depends on people being kept in the dark. Conversely, Christianity is predicated on intelligence. Proverbs 4:7 assures us that, "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding." Judeo-churchianity on the other hand, by their doctrines, are destroying the race that has loved and followed Jesus Christ more than any other people. I don't know of a teaching that is more destructive, deceitful, manipulating and treacherous than the misidentification of who Israel is in the Bible. It is not the jews or a spiritual melting pot church. If our people are convinced in their minds that they are not the descendants of Israel, then it is much easier for the Baal priests to persuade our people to learn the ways of the heathen. Karl Marx said, "Take away the heritage of a people, and they are easily persuaded." I'd say, take away our past and we can look forward to a future of incessant mind control.

They say children are our future. But what kind of children? Hybrids like Obama? That would be a very dark future indeed. Unfortunately, some of our Aryan youth emulate aborigines with drooping baggy pants, facial piercings and staining their skin with black ink; they even talk ebonics and walk like a lower primate. They might as well be a mamzer, having forsaken their racial heritage. But, who can blame them entirely when they've been raised by color blind parents in an exponential maelstrom of exceeding tolerance and compromise within politically-correct schools and churches to brainwash them in the ways of Baal.

I have been told so many times by mothers and fathers (and not just Christian Identity), that they told their sons and daughters, if they ever married outside their race, they could forget about ever seeing or talking to their parents again, and forget their inheritance. The parents who shudder at such an exhortation to their own offspring are the ones who don't necessarily bow down to carved idols of wood and stone, but acquiesce to the mentality of Baal worship. They are a threat to the rest of us. I'm sure that thought was not lost on Elijah when he stood up to the 400 priests of Baal. "What communion hath light with darkness?" (II Cor. 6:14) even if the odds are 400 to 1. How can a Christian yoke themselves together with those who are not allowed into the congregation and then pray 'Lead us not into temptation'? They willingly plunge into it head first on their own accord. The Anointed can have no concord with Baal. "Jesus is the head of the church" (Eph. 5:23), but the church has lost its mind.

What prompted this message is something outrageous that happened to a friend of mine recently who lost his livelihood because of Baal worshippers. I will relate the story next time as there will be a Part 2. The Baals must come down and I will do everything I can to bust this monstrous charade that poses as Christian. The Bible warns us that there will be 'another gospel' and 'another Christ' impersonating the Word of God. I believe that John's Revelation of Mystery Babylon constitutes Baal Worship in Judeo-Churchianity and by the grace of God, they will be routed out in order for the Kingdom of Heaven to usher in a new era, a New Jerusalem totally unlike that snake pit in the Middle East. I pray, Lord may the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, and may these messages be an eye opener for our kindred to separate themselves from the dark and unrighteous spirit of Baal and come out of it, so that they be not "Partakers of her sins and receive not of her plagues" (Rev. 18:4).

Ladies and gentlemen the plague is here now and many shall be deceived. The plague is a famine of hearing the Word of God, but we who hold the sacred truth (can truth be anything but sacred?) have the fountain of living waters and a tree of life that swallows up death in victory. Lord, heal our land of the Baals and may our names be written in the Book of Life. Amen.

CHRISTIANITY'S DILEMMA?

by Pastor Don Elmore

"In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of Him who worketh all things after the counsel of His own will." (Eph. 1:11).

I have quoted our President many times in these sermon notes, when he said that Israel, meaning the Jews, are our great friend. That statement alone turns my stomach. It convinced me how I feel about our leader. It is the same as Pastor Ken Kemble felt of our last President, "He isn't my President."

But for the average Christian, Mr. Trump's comments about this one subject don't bother them. Why is this? It seems that very few Judeo-Christians will change their opinion about the Jews, even when they are told what Jews have said about the situation. Elizabeth Dilling is one of the rare ones. When she read in the Talmud about what the Jews believe about Jesus the Messiah, she was horrified and shocked. She changed her theology completely and spent her life in trying to get the message out to her fellow Christians. (It seems there are more who are aware about Jews, as John Weaver, Steven Anderson and now also Chuck Baldwin are speaking out).

But there are many Christians who put down the importance of doctrine. Some say, "I have the Holy Spirit, why should I worry about correct doctrine?" The word "doctrine" is simply another word for "teaching." The doctrines of Christianity are the teachings that define Christianity. If you claim to believe in Jesus and to be filled with the Holy Spirit, you are speaking in doctrinal terms. "Who is Jesus?" and "What does it mean to be filled with the Holy Spirit?" are doctrinal issues. And who chooses whom for salvation is another very important, fundamental Christian doctrine, isn't it?

There are four basic positions in Christianity regarding who chooses whom for salvation:

1. The Calvinistic position; Predestination by God.
2. The Universal position; everyone who has ever lived are saved.
3. The Arminian position, man chooses.
4. The Christian-Identity position

And they all can't be correct! The doctrine of predestination, or election, has confused and separated Christians for generations. When the United States began as colonies, most of these original colonies had Calvinistic and Lutheran type churches and the doctrine that their reformation leaders believed was reflected in their preaching. They believed that God was sovereign, not man. It was God who chose a person to salvation, not the other way around.

So, in early America, it was mostly predestination that was taught in the land. When they said that they believed that we were "saved" or "born-again," or brought to faith in Jesus the Anointed, it was because God had chosen us for salvation. Both Martin Luther and John Calvin believed in predestination.

But if this doctrine of predestination is logically "pushed," many difficult questions arise:

- Does God choose individuals for damnation into hell?
- Can the grace of God be resisted?
- Did Jesus die for all sinners or only for the elect?
- Can a Christian fall away from the faith?
- Are missionaries needed?

These questions have caused major debates, even arguments, within Protestant Christianity. Denominations were formed because they held one position, and they left their previous denomination because of a conflict between the two or more positions.

This happened to me, too. I left one church and went to another after I discovered the Calvinistic view. The positions are so different that a person cannot hold two of the views at the same time. Did God choose or did man choose? That is the basic question.

Let us consider the participants and the particulars of the doctrines.

1. Calvinism

The French theologian John Calvin (1509-1564) was, after Martin Luther, the key figure in the Protestant Reformation. "Reformed" churches follow Calvin's interpretation of Scripture. His massive Institutes of the Christian Religion set forth his systematic theology. Other Protestant predestination positions, except for the Lutheran position, were formulated out of reaction to Calvinism. Calvin's understanding of predestination is summarized by five points. Each of the five letters in the word "TULIP" provides the first letter of the main doctrine of Calvinist theology. It is an easy way to remember what Calvinism teaches

• "T" is for Total Depravity: Because of the fall, man is unable of himself to believe the gospel for salvation. The sinner is "deaf, blind, and dead" to the things of God; his heart is deceitful and desperately corrupt. His will is not free, it is in bondage to his evil nature, therefore, he will not—indeed he cannot—choose good over evil in the spiritual realm.

• "U" is for Unconditional Election: God's choice of certain individuals unto salvation before the foundation of the world rested solely in His own sovereign will. His choice of sinners was not based on any foreseen responses or obedience on their part, such as faith, repentance, etc. On the contrary, God gives faith and repentance to everyone who He elects.

• "L" is for Limited Atonement: Jesus' redeeming work was intended to save the elect only and secured salvation for them. His death was a substitutionary endurance of the penalty of sin in the place of certain specified sinners. The gift of faith is infallibly applied by the Spirit to all for whom Jesus died, therefore guaranteeing their salvation.

• “I” is for Irresistible Grace: In addition to the outward general call to salvation which is made to everyone who hears the Gospel, the Holy Spirit extends to the elect a special inward call that inevitably brings them to salvation. The external call (which is made to all without distinction) can be, and often is, rejected; whereas the internal call (which is made only to the elect) cannot be rejected; it always results in conversion. By means of this special call the Spirit irresistibly draws sinners to Jesus.

• “P” is for the Perseverance of the Saints: All who are chosen by God, redeemed by Jesus, and given faith by the spirit are eternally saved. They are kept in faith by the power of Almighty God and thus persevere to the end.

John Calvin’s system of theology, built upon the doctrine of election or predestination, has resulted in two primary reactions against it. Universalism and Arminianism.

2. Universalism

The major criticism of Calvin’s understanding of predestination was: It is not fair! Would God simply choose to send people to hell without offering them any opportunity for salvation? Some reacted against Calvin by the extreme teaching of “universal salvation.”

John Murray (1741-1815) believed that every individual shall in due time be separated from sin. Of Calvinist background, he was influenced by the Methodism of John Wesley but was converted to Universalism, the doctrine of universal redemption. He organized the first American Universalist Church in 1779 at Gloucester, Massachusetts.

Hosea Ballou (1771-1852), a New England theologian and clergyman, formulated the basic tenets of Universalism. Upon reacting against the Calvinist position on salvation of the elect only, he began teaching that all people are saved (universal salvation) and that there is no eternal punishment.

The Universalist Church of America and the American Unitarian Association merged in 1961 to form a single denomination—the Unitarian Universalist Association—which currently has about 173,000 members. Unitarian Universalists, because of their rejection of the doctrine of the Trinity and distortion of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, are not regarded as a Christian denomination by most mainstream Christians, although that is drastically changing.

3. Arminianism

Arminianism, which takes its name from Jacobus Arminius (Jacob Harmensen), is the theological opposite of Calvinism that limits the significance of the doctrine of predestination. Arminius (1560-1609) was a Dutch Reformed theologian who taught that God’s sovereign will and human free-will are compatible. The name Remonstrates was given to his followers who in 1610 drew up a document known as the Remonstrance.

This document set forth a major opposing view of Calvinism:

- Man is not totally depraved;
- Man chooses God, God does not choose man for salvation;
- Jesus died for all, not only for the elect;
- Divine grace is resistible;
- Christians can fall from grace, through free will, and be lost.

These affirmations constituted a rejection of the Calvinist interpretation of predestination. The Remonstrates were condemned by the Dutch Reformed Church at the Synod of Dordrecht (1618-19). Modern Protestant Arminianism, greatly influenced by 19th century Revivalism, counters the five points of Calvinism by declaring:

Although human nature was seriously affected by the fall, man has not been left in a state of total spiritual helplessness. Each sinner possesses a free will, and his eternal destiny depends on how he uses it.

1. Satan casts his vote against you,
2. God casts His vote for you,
3. It is your decision of how you will vote that will break the tie.

But that makes salvation like the democratic process. But the big question is if a person has never heard about the God of the Bible how can he vote for God to be in his life!

- God’s choice of certain individuals unto salvation before the foundation of the world was based upon His foreseeing that they would respond to His call. He selected only those whom He knew would of themselves freely believe the Gospel.

- Jesus’ redeeming work made it possible for everyone to be saved but did not actually secure the salvation of anyone.

• The Spirit calls inwardly all those who are called outwardly by the Gospel invitation. He does all that He can to bring every sinner to salvation, but since man is free, he can successfully resist the Spirit’s call. The Spirit cannot regenerate the sinner until he believes. Faith (which is man’s contribution) precedes and makes possible the new birth.

• Those who believe and are truly saved can lose their salvation by failing to keep up their faith, etc. All Arminians have not been in agreement on this point; some have held that believers are eternally secure in Jesus, that once a sinner is regenerated, he can never be lost.

- This is the conflict. What does the Bible say about

Why have we had naked statuary, followed by ornate crucifixes, followed by grand landscapes, followed by impressionism and cubism - all the way down to your local “sculpture” made from random pieces of scrap iron? The answer is that each of these is an expression of the priorities of a religious worldview. The leaders of the Protestant Reformation recognized this principle and spearheaded a biblically-based revival of arts and music, one which we would do well to understand as we press forward toward ever more biblical manifestations of culture.*

these issues? What is Christian-Identity's position? In this the Remonstrants were the first Christian church in the world to bless same-sex relationships similar to other relations.- Wikipedia]

4. Christian - Identity

When I first came to the belief that Christian Identity Churches held, I was surprised by what they taught on these issues. Some that go by the name of Christian-Identity hold to views that cover all three of the above positions:

1. Calvinism
2. Universalism, and
3. Arminianism.

But I have found that most of the Christian-Identity churches do not preach on this subject very much. It is just sort of an unspoken teaching. But this presents a major problem:

- The modern Christian church does not have the true knowledge of the covenant people, so they have no chance of the true solution.

- The Christian-Identity churches have the knowledge of who the correct covenant people are, so they are the only ones that have the possibility of an accurate solution.

(so which of the above churches do you attend and support? 1, 2, 3, or 4?)

I was reared in an American Baptist Church, which is historically wrong to begin with. How can you have any "Baptist" church that accepts individuals into their membership of people of other denominations without baptizing them with a "Baptist" baptism? Our church accepted Lutherans, Presbyterians, Amish, Episcopalians, Methodists, Pentecostals and even Roman Catholics. No one was rejected. No one had to be baptized again, as it was in the old days. They were accepted by a letter from their former non-Baptist church if they had been baptized by their former church. They could have been sprinkled, dipped, or immersed.

The Community American Baptist Church I was raised in was also an Arminian church. When I was 21 years old, I joined another Arminian Baptist church. But this church had a historic fundamental church position, for they taught that they were neither Catholic nor Protestant. They believed they were descended from the original churches that Jesus Christ's disciples had started. Just like we are descended from someone in that time, so was their church.

Then I read in a church newsletter about the Calvinistic doctrine. I had never heard of it before. I was confused. I ordered the newsletter from the respective church that published the Calvinistic teaching and read and read and read. Then one day I asked a visiting preacher about some of the questions that arose from the Calvinistic position. He graciously answered my questions the way any Arminian would. But my pastor heard me asking the visiting preacher the questions, and immediately he considered me an enemy. He was wrong, but that is what he did. I was soon gone from that church.

So, I went to the church that printed the newsletter. It was about a four-hour drive, one way. I went every Sunday. They had a Sunday morning service and a Sunday night service. I stayed for both and drove back home. At the end of the year I quit my teaching job and then looked for a job where that church was located.

Seven years later, I repeated the process—although I found a teaching job first and then quit my job. I went to Eastern Tennessee and became a member of a very small church in Southwestern Virginia. It had a pot-belly stove and an out-house. It was an Independent Baptist Church that taught Calvinism too. It knew that Christmas and Easter were wrong, but it taught what most churches teach—that the covenant people were the Jews. I left after six years.

I had read in the Spotlight newsletter about a Arnold Murray. It was a sermon that dealt with the two seedline in the Bible. I knew nothing about this, I had never heard of this before. So, I ordered the two-set tapes and played them on my tape recorder while going to bed. I stayed awake, playing the tapes repeatedly. This was my introduction to (seedline) Christian Identity.

I visited Arnold's church on several feast day occasions, and asked him if he knew of any church that was close to where I lived. He knew of none.

For one time in my life, I didn't go anywhere to church on Sunday. But my mother got cancer in her eye, and I came home to Cincinnati where she lived. She had to have her eye quickly removed before the cancer had spread to her liver, and she was given an artificial eye. She lived for about 13 more years.

While I was living in Cincinnati, I met my future wife. She was reared as a Lutheran and was of Swedish heritage as her grandparents both immigrated from Sweden

She, later in life, was going to the Presbyterian Church in our area, that had the reputation as being very conservative. I went a couple of times to her church while we were dating.

Later, I also found a very small Episcopal church that we went to. It taught that Jesus had gone to England when He was a young man. Could you imagine that! They even had books on that subject. They had broken off from the main Episcopal Church over several issues ... I don't recall now what they were exactly, but only that they were very liberal ideas. But I remember where we had meetings. It was in the basement of the Masonic Lodge in Norwood. How crazy is that!

And the rest of the story is that I eventually met John Norton. He had a Bible study at his home every weekend. He invited me and I came. He was the teacher, and he taught Christian Identity material, and that was okay with me. But within six months, he was dead and he had passed the mantle to me.

On his death bed, he made me promise to continue the Bible study. He had said that he always wanted to have a church. I told him that I would teach as “long as at least one person showed up.” Well, there has always been at least one person show up (we have listened to messages here, with only two people present, CIM).

There were four main families that were left after he died. We decided to meet, on a rotating basis, in each other’s place of residence, once each week. One person of these four is still left. That is how we met for about a year and a half.

Harrison and his wife, who was one of the four families, said to me one day, “Have you heard of Dan Gayman who pastors the “Church of Israel?” I hadn’t and he explained to me that he had a large feast day celebration at his church. So, off we went. We went there for the feast day celebrations for several years.

Eventually, Pastor Gayman asked me: “Why don’t you get ordained?” So, I asked the Bible study group about the situation and they agreed. It took me two years to become ordained.

From meeting in each other’s homes and apartments, to renting a motel room, to renting a room over a pet shop, to buying the building on Camo Ernst; and once the state bought that from us, we are now meeting in a very small room once again. What a journey! Many people have come and gone.

We learned of a church in Indiana that we fellowshiped with. It was Jerry Wickey’s church. After he left the Amish faith, which was the belief that he grew up with, he went to Herbert Armstrong’s church, and then when that church fell apart, he started the church in Indiana. He taught me many wonderful Biblical facts about the world of pre-flood days that I had never even thought of, let alone ever taught. We still, after all these years, consider his church to be friends with us.

But our church had one terrible split. It split us almost right down the middle. Some people left over some minor doctrines; others left over some major doctrines. But they left a church that teaches the one doctrine that no other church teaches!

Some of the former members have gone to the Presbyterian church that teaches the Calvinistic position. But that church doesn’t teach this doctrine.

Some have returned to the Roman Catholic church or the Baptist church, and their Arminian position. But they don’t teach this doctrine.

Some have gone to mega-churches, which teach the Arminian position, or universalist position. But that church doesn’t teach this doctrine.

What is so special about what Christian-Identity teaches that no other church teaches? Why does the prison system fight so hard against this teaching? They allow just about any other strange, deranged, anti-Christian religion, but fight against the one that has some truth in it. Here are a couple of doctrines that the modern church world does not address but Christian-Identity does:

1. What about Israel in the Bible?

God made everlasting covenants with only Israel; He gave His laws, statutes and ordinances to only Israel; He loves only Israel; He commissioned the Messiah to help Him redeem only both houses of Israel; He had His temple built by only Israel; He married only Israel at Mt Sinai; His Son died only for Israel; His Son was resurrected only for Israel; His Son will be King over only the Kingdom of Israel.

So, who is Israel? Does Israel mean anything different in the New Testament than it did in the Old Testament? Is it special in the New Testament, too? “And many of the children of Israel shall He (the Messiah) turn to the LORD their God.” “And He (the Messiah) shall reign over the House of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.” Luke 1:16, 33.

The Scriptures show that the total law—namely the Commandments, Statutes and Judgments—were given exclusively to Israel as part of a covenant. There were promises made and responsibilities given to Israel that were not made to other races. Can you provide any Scripture which shows that the other races were given the Laws of God?

“He showeth His word unto Jacob, His statutes and His judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for His judgments, they [that is the other nations] have not known”

them. Praise ye the Lord.” Psa 147:19-20.

These many (from the House of Jacob), that the Messiah reigns over in His “forever” Kingdom are totally restrictive and are impossible to generalize. However, could “the House of Jacob” refer to all races of the world? It is only a small part of the world’s population. The “House of Jacob” does not refer to the other nations of the world, but is exclusively the Israel nations.

In our introductory verse, it said who “obtained an inheritance.” I received an inheritance when my father passed away. You probably did too when your father died. It is racial. Why wouldn’t it be racial in this verse. It was predestined by God that His children would receive the inheritance [Rom 4:13; 8:17].

Now let us look at a second question that the Judeo-Christian churches [Judeo-Christian churches, are those who wrongly hold that the Jews are Israel, and that Christians are non-Israelite people] have wrongly interpreted and misused:

2. The popular churches in Christendom(dumb) teach that after any individual becomes “saved” he then becomes one of God’s people.

But is this what it says in the Scripture? Does a person become saved first, and then become one of God’s people; or is it the other way around—a person is one of God’s people and then he becomes saved. It is “His people” [i.e. Israel] whom the Messiah came to save who were His Father’s people, but who were in a state of total depravity.

“And you shall call his name JESUS, for he shall save His people from their sins.” Matt. 1:21.

PRISONS: SHUT THEM ALL DOWN

Ted R. Weiland

In God’s Law there is no provision for prisons as we know them. Suspects could be confined temporarily while being investigated, but could not be incarcerated as a form of punishment. Property crime requires restitution, while capital crimes require capital punishment. God’s ideas about dealing with crime are better than man’s ideas.

#809 @ sug don $7.55

“Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, for He hath visited and redeemed His people.” Luke 1:68.

Most of apostate Christianity uses quotes from the book of Ephesians to disprove this concept in their own eyes. The Scriptures clearly teach that fallen man is not capable of cooperating with God in spiritual matters. He is spiritually dead and an enemy of God. For example:

“And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins.” Eph. 2:1.

“Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart.” Eph. 4:18.

I once heard a preacher say that pronouns are very important in the study of the Scriptures. He was so very correct. For example, what do the pronouns: “you,” “who,” “them,” and “their” mean in these two verses? Do these pronouns refer to everyone who has ever lived? Or do these pronouns refer to everyone who has ever lived since the death and resurrection of Jesus the Anointed?

For example: Does Ephesians 2:1 mean, “And everyone who has ever lived in the days of the New Testament hath He quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins.” This is what the modern Christianity believes it says. But who was the author of this book, Paul, through the Holy Spirit, writing to?

“Paul, and apostle of Jesus Anointed by the will of God to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus. According as He hath chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love: Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Anointed to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will.” Eph. 1:1,4,5.

Could we say that the pronoun “you” in the 2nd chapter of Ephesians was not talking about any New Guinea native? And if that is true, it isn’t saying that the New Guinea natives were chosen and predestinated. It was addressed to the church at Ephesus, Turkey, not to everyone in the world with no exceptions. And then we eventually come to chapter 2 verse 11:

“Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past (gentiles) people in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands:”

Who is the “ye” in this verse? Remember, the church world claims that the “ye” means everyone who has lived in the New Testament days. To be more specific, they mean everyone who was alive three years after the death of their Saviour.

New Guinea

And this verse says that the Gentiles (who the church world believes is non-Jews) were called uncircumcision by the Jews (the church world believe this is the Jews). That means that they were called “uncircumcision” by the “Circumcision.” Did the Jews even know where New Guinea was located, let alone did they know any of its natives? When did this happen?

Who are the “Circumcision”? Most of the clergy of the church would say that the “Circumcision” would refer to the Jews. They would be incorrect, but that is what they would reply. But that wouldn’t fit either. When did a Jew call a New Guinea native, “Uncircumcision”? They never even saw these strange natives.

“That at that time ye were without Christ (anointing), being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:” Eph. 2:12.

This is who the Apostle Paul was writing to. He wasn’t writing to everyone in the world, he was writing to the saints who were living in Ephesus, who at one time were called “Gentiles” who were aliens from the Commonwealth of Israel. Now, were the New Guinea natives “aliens from the Commonwealth of Israel?” They weren’t then and shall never be, for the Commonwealth of Israel is racial.

Were the natives of New Guinea “strangers from the covenants of promise”? Yes, they were and they still are. They are not a part of the covenant of promise that our Father made with our forefathers: Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. They had a different group of fathers. In other words, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob are not in their family line.

The covenant made with Abraham was a one-sided covenant. Abraham was in a deep sleep when God walked between the two rows of the slaughtered three-year-old heifer, the three-year-old goat, the three-year-old ram, and the turtledove and the young pigeon. God made the covenant with only Abraham. And it was passed on to his seed. It is racial.

So, who are the Gentiles that the Apostle Paul is writing to? There is only one group of people that it could be. And that is what Christian-Identity has that the world hates and most preachers don’t know. The “gentiles” or “nations” that the Apostle Paul was writing to in Ephesus was the Israelites who were part of the covenant promises, but lost it when they were divorced from God.

The “lost tribes of the house of Israel” were at one time married to their God at Mount Sinai. Once divorced they lost all the promise of the inheritance. Except God was faithful to His covenant, and kept His covenant when Israel had not, and been scattered. (read Hosea). The Apostle Paul is informing the divorced Israelites, that after seven hundred years they can be adopted back into the Commonwealth of Israel once more and receive the covenant of promises. Those that were once “far off” are made “near” by the blood of Jesus.

And what could a divorced Israelite do at this time? Was there anything that he could do that could change the mind of his Sovereign God? He was truly “dead in trespasses and sins.” He was the only one in that terrible condition. He was totally depraved.

If Jesus had not come, if He was not born of a pure Israelite woman, if He did not live a sinless life, if He was not sacrificed at the right time, if He was not resurrected, then all the Israelites would have been like all the non-Israelites, and would have been doomed forever. Not one of them ever would be saved. There was nothing they could do to earn the righteousness of God.

3. Who was saved in the Old Testament?

The main-stream churches all teach that it was mainly Israel who was saved in the Old Testament writings. Some will add that there were a few, very few, people from other races who experienced salvation. They give as examples:

- Ruth, the Moabitess,
- The wife of Joseph
- Tamar,
- Rahab,
- Bathsheba,
- Naaman,
- King Nebuchadnezzar,
- the city of Nineveh,
- etc.

But even these names do not hold up under some study in the Scriptures, but even if they did, they would be a very, very small number of people who were saved in the Old Testament compared to the whole population of the world.

And what about the natives of New Guinea? Were any of them ever saved in the Old Testament? And what about the giants? Were any of them saved? Were any of the Canaanites saved? Were any of the Edomites saved? The main-stream Christian churches totally ignore this question, because they have no answer that will satisfy their position on the salvation of the New Testament.

Besides the natives of New Guinea, what about the Indians of South America, the Orientals of Japan, China and Korea, the Polynesians in the Pacific Islands, the Negroes of Africa, the Aborigines of Australia, etc. None of these millions of inhabitants were saved because most of them never heard of Israel, Jesus the Anointed, God's Law, etc.

So, let us repeat the same question: Were any of these people ever saved in the Old Testament? The answer is, NO! And the reason we know this is because they never even heard of Jesus at all. Almost all of them in the Old Testament days, and most of them in the New Testament days until the last 200 years never had the opportunity to be saved. The only exception were the people who were living in the vicinity of the middle east.

But they have a new doctrine in the last 100 or so years. Like the Southern Baptists, they have changed completely their doctrine and now teach racial reconciliation.

CONCLUSION

There are just so many things that are taught in the modern-day churches that simply are not true. Much of what most people believe is based on half-truths and sentimentality that has been passed down over the years. Yet, the origin of many doctrinal problems can be traced back to Rome.

Rome, or Babylon is described in Scripture as "the mother of harlots" who seeks to deceive the whole earth. Belief must be the right belief. Rome believes she has the right to rule not only "The Church," but also to rule over all the world. Why would you want to support these churches through your presence and your offerings, thereby helping to promote error and false doctrine?

The truth is that it is the pure seed of Israel, as the seed of Abraham through Isaac and Jacob, that is to rule with God (Prov. 16:32, 25:28) — NOT the church of Rome. The battle between the pure, holy seed of Israel versus the mongrel seed of the universal church will fight until one of them is no longer here. Who will win? Hasn't the God of Israel already decided. And if He has already decided, doesn't that prove that He chooses?

PARTHIA

The Forgotten ancient superpower and its role in Biblical History

Steven M. Collins

Although little-known to modern readers, the ancient kingdom of Parthia played a key role in historical and Biblical events. It boasted one of the greatest kingdoms of the ancient world, and was one empire that Rome actually feared. Just decades before the birth of Jesus, it's armies drove the Romans completely out of Palestine, Syria and Asia Minor, forcing the reigning king Herod to flee for his life.

the angelic little girl. The fortunes of war propelled the oddly-matched couple in different directions.

After emigrating to America, Herman, now a lonesome young man in search of his soulmate, decided to sign on with a dating agency. It was a blind date. It took place on Long Island at a bar or restaurant which the couple decided would be a convenient place to meet. The girl who showed up was all that Herman could desire, a mysterious dark-eyed beauty whom Herman recognized at once as his nine-year-old “angel at the fence”—Roma—but now grown up and ready for rapture.

Wild with enthusiasm, Herman proposed at once, without hesitation. His blushing bride-to-be accepted at once. The knot was tied in due course — and the rest is history.

Herman’s Holocaust memoir was to create a sensation in 2009 even before it could be published. The film rights to the book were purchased for $24 million by Harris Salomon of Atlantic Overseas Pictures. Oprah Winfrey went crazy over the book on television, giving it advance publicity and describing it as “the single greatest love story she had ever encountered in over 22 years of hosting her show.”

It was all one big lie. It was all made up. None of it was true. Why do we believe the people who our Saviour called “Liars” - John 8:44.

WHAT ARE SIGNS OF THE END TIMES?

by Don Boys, Ph.D.

Everyone wants to know about the end times so this should be one of my most popular columns. There is often discussion as to the indications of the final days of a languishing nation and the signs of the end times are three: anarchy in the country, apostasy in the churches, and apathy in Christians.

Anarchy is obvious when any newspaper is read or any television news is watched. Anarchy is a word that comes from the Greek, and signifies, strictly speaking, without government: the state of a people without any constituted authority. That seems to be our destination.

Anarchy is obvious in our community, our cottages, our churches, our colleges, and our culture. In our towns and cities, anarchy is obvious. When a minority group is offended, they go to the streets, protest, march, throw rocks, turn over cars, burn cars and buildings and sometimes kill others. Some racists insist that “Black Lives Matter” but all lives don’t matter and they try to justify such irrational thinking because of slavery in the 19th century! Racists come in all colors.

I’m not sure what is more irrational, irritating, and insane: the facts of the illegal protests or the shallow, vocal defense by minority spokesmen and whores in the media.

When a black teenage thug refuses to obey police, resists, and indicates he is reaching for a weapon, the officer does the thing he is trained to do: he shoots the idiot. Then the dead idiot’s friends and family try to transform him into a “gentle giant” or a “good boy” and he’s often touted to be a composite of Nelson Mandela (a thug and terrorist), Martin Luther King, Jr., (a Racist and Integrationist), and Oprah Winfrey (a media whore). No one suggests that if the parents had properly trained him, he would still be alive. Of course, someone is sued and the parents (almost always divorced) reap a few million dollars to compensate for their loss of a brain surgeon, actor, author, community organizer, and Nobel Prize winner.

Delusion, Deception, and Dishonesty Reign!

When the “victim” is black and the officer is white, the stage is set for a major riot with help from Rent-a-Thug, Inc (www.zerohedge.com/news/2017-08-16/why-was-crowd-hire-company-recruiting-25-hour-political-activists-charlotte-last-week?). Of course, honest people know 93% of Blacks killed in the U.S. are killed by Blacks. Race should be totally irrelevant. If the teen (black or white) was a thug resisting arrest then the officer (black or white) should be praised not punished. If the shooting was not justified as determined by the evidence then the officer (black or white) should be punished as any other offender.

Weak-minded and bigoted people are encouraged in their anarchy by mayors and other officials who repeat their stupid and racist slogans! Moreover, some officials proclaim that they will not enforce laws that they think are unfair! A few years ago, the sheriff in Chicago announced he would not foreclose on houses on which payments had not been made! Other officials refused to hand over illegal aliens to federal authorities! When elected leaders are anarchists you can be sure there will be youth with big mouths and little brains who will follow their leaders into anarchy.

Anarchy in the cottages is obvious as many fathers are missing and moms have given up trying to maintain some order out of chaos. Kids are permitted to sass parents, eat what they choose, go to school when they want, go to bed when they feel like it, watch any television shows they want and basically tell the parents where to go.

Anarchy in the churches can be observed almost any Sunday in any mainline church. Most pastors no longer preach, “Thus Saith the Lord” and never challenge, contradict, or confront sinning members. Moreover, pastors never want to offend anyone so abortion, perversion, same-sex “marriage,” adultery (race-mixing), and fornication (unlawful sexual encounters) can be (if not justified) at least ignored. Such cowardly pastors are hirelings, not faithful shepherds. Those quisling church leaders give cover, not for a flock of sheep, but a pack of wolves (in sheep’s clothing) and both shepherd and flock are contributing to the nation’s demise. (many may say, we have a nice church and a good pastor, but the denomination itself still fits the above - get out now, that you receive not of her plagues!)

Religious leaders are supposed to be manning the “lighthouse” for the salvation of the helpless and lost, but they have permitted the light to be extinguished. Often the light of the Gospel has become political and is only flickering. These denominational churches are almost empty (as are the offering plates): The ship is listing to starboard; the sails are ripped; the mast is broken; and the captain wonders why the ship is going down! Even when the “light-house” is crowded, the light is very dim or already dark. Might as well tear the old lighthouse down!

The colleges where study, scholarship, and stability are supposed to reign have experienced a coup d’etat by leftist professors and students. The lack of scholarship among professors is shocking and is only paralleled by the priests of the early middle ages who often could not write their own names! Not only are the professors so stupid, they are without character, civility, or comprehension. They have no knowledge that they have no knowledge! Jerks with PhDs. The blind leading the blind. Sad.

What is even more shocking is that they are usually defended by school administrators and trustees. Moreover, the students are snowflakes who demand safe places where they will not be offended by a challenge from someone who disagrees with them! It would be helpful if about half of the students would drop out of school and pursue the work of a carpenter, plumber, roofer, etc. That way, many of the leftist professors could be fired and they too could seek a useful trade where they can make a positive contribution to our nation. Maybe then, college and university status would rise to the level of the Jerry Springer Show.

The anarchy in our culture can be seen and heard any hour of the day by turning on the television. Watch the sitcoms where immorality is accepted as normal, decency is sneered at, fathers are idiots, and moms are the heroines. Listen to the wild ‘music’ that glorifies sex, drugs, violence, theft, and rebellion. Of course, anarchy in our culture is a given when the community, the cottages, the churches, and the colleges are controlled by mob mentality.

Anarchy in our country is a clear indication of the last days. Outside our walls are hordes of enemy that have vowed to take our country down. They are colluding and planning our destruction as you read these words.

Apostasy of the churches, another sign of the last days, has been obvious for two generations. Apostasy is a departure from clearly defined biblical truth. Dr. Charles Woodbridge spoke about the four M’s: mood, methods, message, and morals. A new generation wants to put its stamp on the day using the four M’s as a vehicle of deliverance

Their mood for change is an attitude of wanting something new because it is not old; however, something should not be discarded because it is old nor should it be accepted because it is new.

Next change is a change in methods. We are told if we want to win the world, reach the youth, impact society, engage the culture, etc., we must meet people where they are, and realizing the old ways are obsolete, we must seek new approaches. After all, methods are not sacrosanct, are they? The end justifies the means, doesn’t it? God is only interested in the end results, isn’t He? Consequently, church leaders have dispensed with door-to-door visitation, revival meetings, church discipline, and verse-by-verse preaching/teaching. However, those methods are not working today only because they are not being worked.

Then comes the change in message. After all, we must rid ourselves of the non-essentials—those things that date us and hold us back. We must not offend people with a hard-sell of the Gospel. Slip it in. Preaching about sin is offensive so we must get up to date and never confront people with personal sin. The modern approach is conversation and compromise, not confrontation.

The next change is in morals. Since we are only interested in the end result, we must make our message and morals comport. Abortion, while not desirable, is now acceptable. And for sure, homosexuality is accepted because we know so many “nice” people who are perverts, we are not averse to rubbing shoulders with them in church. We are told we can’t expect people of our day to live according to a book written thousands of years ago. However, the Author of that Book demands just that.

Therefore, church leaders have adjusted their mood, methods, message, and morals and the churches are more like social clubs for friendly get-togethers, rather than lighthouses.

It is not melodramatic to say that the streets will become dark, deserted, and dangerous places as anarchy reigns.

Apathy of Christians is the final indication of the last days. Ask the average church member what his responsibilities are about living godly and reaching a world for Jesus and he replies, “I don’t know and I don’t care.” I just discovered there is a song with that title and while it does not achieve the level of mediocrity, it does highlight the attitude of millions of people.

Most Christians are concerned with non-essentials such as appearance, achievement, approval and affluence! They care about their appearance, yet often look like hobos, asking, “How do I look?” But how can one be more self-centered than that? Of course, after the basics are taken care of such as bathing, shaving, and reasonable dress, surely there are far more things more important than how one looks.

The second concern is achievement or what I have done. While that is more important than appearance, it is still about self.

The next concern is with approval or how people like me. This is probably one of the most time-wasting, nonsensical thoughts in the human brain. For generations this has been a major drive in the lives of people, especially young people. This is the reason teens pierce their bodies with silver, have silly tattoos, wear outrageous hair, wear skimpy clothes, talk nonsense, and frequent “the” places to be seen. It screams “insecurity because they want approval.

The fourth concern of modern church-goers is affluence or what I own. But then, most are so far in debt and spending more than they earn, they don’t really own much. The average family would be in disaster if they had to have a thousand dollars this week. They “owe their souls to the company store.”

If younger people have the latest gadget or phone or computer or a “cool” pair of shoes then they think they are affluent. And it helps to have mom and dad’s credit card. Mom and dad are fools and are destroying their children whom they profess to love.

Final days are approaching like an out-of-control juggernaut in a crowded street in Calcutta. Someone will get

DESTINED FOR DESTRUCTION

by Ray Smyth

“Those whom the gods would destroy they first make mad,” Enoch Powell.

That quote is very appropriate for the current Australian scene. Why? Because our society is actually contemplating the establishment of what is being touted as “marriage equality.”

If our society should abandon the God-given template of ordered marriage, should rip from God the power to define His own basic building block of society, then we have opened the door to the abyss. Once we have turned our back on that moral platform, we have no other moral foundation to restrict paedophilia, polygamy, polyandry, and all the other fleshly indulgences that human depravity can conceive. All that would be needed to justify such activities would be the cry “we want it,” from a significant number of activists.

Homosexual ‘marriage,’ even if it is hypocritically sanitized by terms such as “marriage equality,” can never produce anything beneficial for our society, on the contrary, it will draw our society down to the basest level where predators are protected by government fiat. Already children can be murdered in the womb, can be educated to believe that gender is fluid and can be adopted by homosexual couples, which deprives them of either a mother or a father and leave them vulnerable to debilitating unstable homes. The chaos that would ensue in the fields of heritage, judiciary and inheritance would be catastrophic.

Those who promote homosexual ‘marriage’ guarantee that anyone who speaks against ‘gay marriage’ is vilified, denigrated, belittled and hounded from employment.

If people believe that a vote can put this issue to bed, they are fooling themselves. If the vote goes against the homosexuals, they will continue to ask the question again and again, until they get what they want (the destruction of the traditional family), they care nothing for any opposing view and are determined to tread such a view into the dust. (the media is complicit in that they are opposed to anything vaguely Christian, and support all anti-christian ideals). Indeed, this is a war for the soul of our society, which cannot be won by appeasement and compromise [“No man escapes when freedom fails, The best men rot in filthy jails, And those who cried ‘appease, appease,’ Are hanged by those they tried to please.” Hiram Mann]

“This, then, I say, and I testify in the Lord, ye are no more to walk, as also the other nations walk, in the vanity of their mind, being darkened in the understanding, being alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their heart, who, having ceased to feel, themselves did give up to lasciviousness, for the working of all uncleanness in greediness.” Eph. 4:17-19.

Our politicians, who crave only power, are easily turned by popular opinions, can not be relied on to do anything that would make them appear to stand with Jesus the Anointed against the evil forces of destruction. Either we make a stand now, or we put ourselves (and our children) in the hands of the homosexuals to do with as they will.

The Canadian scene has proved that; where businesses have been bankrupted because they refused to bake cakes for gay marriages; people have been fired for stray comments, and others have applied to marry their dogs or cats. There is a rumour that one woman applied to marry her house.

This is not the ordered society that brings peace and prosperity. God is not mocked! As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord!.**

[Just because the government will supposedly build in safeguards for businesses and clergy in the legislation in dealing with homosexuals, once this ‘marriage equality’ has been passed, those safeguards will soon be gone when court battles begin for “discrimination” which they surely will. CIM]

CHILDREN NEED BOTH A FATHER AND MOTHER

Marriage was designed to connect children to a loving relationship with their (biological) mother and father, offering stability for them and society at large. Studies show that children from a stable marriage with both father and mother in the home have a better opportunity for a successful life and creating a stable family life of their own when they get married.

God seeks Godly offspring (Malachi 2:15-16). That is why He hates putting away or any other violation of the sacred covenant of marriage, like same-sex relationships.

There is strong evidence that children need both a mother and a father. It seems that the absence of fathers is particularly damaging to children.

In the book Life Without Father: Compelling New Evidence That Fatherhood and Marriage Are Indispensable for the Good of Children and Society (1996), researcher David Popenoe noted that the absence of fathers was strongly linked to many societal ills—from crime to academic failure.

“Marriage must be reestablished as a strong social institution,” he argued. He went on to say that “the father’s role must be redefined ... [it] must relate to the unique attributes of modern societies, to the new roles for women, and to the special qualities that men bring to childrearing.” (1996, pp. 198-199).

Later he gave some of the statistics demonstrating the importance of fathers in the lives and proper social development of their children:

- 60% of rapists come from fatherless homes.
- 72% of adolescent murderers grew up without a father.
- 70% of long-term prison inmates are fatherless.
