"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." BAAL WORSHIP IN JUDEO-CHURCHIANITY PART 2

by Pastor Mark Downey

Scripture Reading: Judges 3:5-8

How would you feel if you spent years working on a degree to enter a certain profession, spent more time and energy on materials and promotion of this business and built up a clientele that was helped immensely and within a couple of weeks you lost 80% of your customer base through no fault of your service to the community or malfeasance or adverse side effects, but rather for what you believed in? How would you feel about that? I would feel that there was a great travesty and injustice. This is what happened to a Christian Identity friend of mine who wishes to remain anonymous who is now forced to move and restart his business elsewhere. As his business grew, word of mouth spread how beneficial his business was.

What was unique about this situation is that the recipients of this benefit had something in common. They were not only judeo-Christians, but were associated with a group that Pastor Elmore talked about recently. They are a multi-million dollar corporation that has a radical and twisted focus on the Creation of Genesis, which has as its main agenda the thesis that all races came from Adam and Eve and after a global flood at the time of Noah, a repeat performance of fast track evolution happening again. Their mission statement says they "Generously give Christian love," unless they are challenged with uncompromising integrity, which they say they have also. They are uncompromising, but they have very little integrity. Their answers in Genesis aren't answers at all.

Mad magazine even gave honorable mention to this weird Christian cult as one of the dumbest things in 2007 by saying, "They don't merely challenge science, they ignore it completely. It's the only place in the world you can see man riding bareback on a dinosaur — except, of course, in an old episode of The Flintstones." Whatever this fantasy organization lacks in harmonizing science with the Word of God, it makes up for with lots of money to play a shell game allegedly to fight the evils of Darwinian evolution, but in reality is nothing but a propaganda tool for race mixing. In fact, its hierarchy is riddled with the sin of miscegenation and therefore tries to justify what the Bible calls 'fornication' or interracial marriage, which was explained in Part 1.

My Christian Identity friend gets a call one day from one of these Creationist ministers (who extols the virtues of fornication) and point blank asks him, "Are you a White Supremacist?" (as if that's the worst thing in the world) and that was the beginning of the end for my friend's business. The cascade of cancellations began. I have to ask myself, is this the kind of country we live in, where political correctness can ruin a White man's means to earn an honest living?

There is a biblical argument for a boycott, but it is always the idea of separation from evil, avoiding any activity that God would not approve of. In Christian societies of the past, White people knew that separation of the races was commanded by God, but in modern times the church has concocted the idea of loving the sinner, but hating the sin. Well, what changed? Who changed the truth of God into a lie and worshipped the creature more than the Creator (Romans 1:25)? To put it another way, who changed the truth of Creation to include all creatures or races into God's plan for the ages? "You only have I [God] known of all the families [races] of the earth" Amos 3:2. God is saying there's only one race of people who are "A chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light: Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy” (I Peter 2:9-10). This, of course, is alluding to Hosea’s exclusive prophetic discourse to Israel.

What we have here is a case of cognitive dissonance where two opposing ideas coexist to usher in the worship of Baal. “You cannot serve two masters” (Mt. 6:24) means you will either be loyal to God or be getting rich with false gods. You can’t be opposed to evolution and then say all races evolved from one parent in a shorter period of time than even Darwin would imagine. Only the institution of Baal worship would or could castigate a nonconformist to their illicit doctrines as a racist. It is Baal worship that should be condemned and boycotted, not those of us who obey God and separate our-selves from the heathen, meaning non-White aliens. One of the Creationist spokesmen said, “What Darwinian evolution did, I would say, is provide what people thought was a scientific justification for separation of races.” No, the justification for separation of the races comes from God. “They shall not dwell in thy land [is that separate enough for you?], lest they make thee sin against Me; for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee” Ex. 23:33. These gods are Baal, and the Baal worshippers justify fornication. In I Cor. 5:9 Paul gives an explicit admonition which he exhorted before in letters, “Not to associate with fornicators.” This is the same context of Israel whoring after the strange gods of strangers that led them into bondage. The whoredom is race mixing. In verse 13, “Therefore, expel the wicked from among yourselves.” This is telling us who is boycotting who, but the Baal worshippers of judeo-churchianity don’t realize, because they can’t recognize that they are the wicked purveyors of whoredom.

My friend has no hard feelings, having come out of the Babylonian church himself. He exemplifies “A workman that need not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (II Tim. 2:15). But, he’s gotten a taste of the cruelty and brutal authority that modern Pharisees exert over their followers. They offered him no due process as Matthew 18 requires Christian men in resolving disputes. But, maybe they’re not really Christians. I suggested that he sue them for defamation, but he cited that brethren are not to go at law with each other, lest we go to court before unbelievers (I Cor. 6:6). It would be rather difficult to go into today’s courtroom arguing against multiculturalism even if the judge were White. That’s how far removed we are from God’s jurisdiction. The Baal priestcraft afforded my friend no biblical justice other than a phone call demanding whether he was a White Supremacist. There was no ‘come and let us reason together.’ As God’s chosen, Saxon Israel has the received Word; no other race has known them (Ps. 147:20); and if my friend were given the opportunity to “Prove all things” (I Thes, 5:21), they would not be well received by those who cannot hear the Good Shepherd. Jesus said, “My sheep hear My voice, I know them, and they follow Me” John 10:27. Which means there will be those who purport to be Christians, to whom Christ will say, “I never knew you; depart from Me” (Mt. 7:23).

When many are called, but few are chosen, it may imply that we are called to understand the Creator better than the creatures and that God is dealing with only one race to have the ears to hear Him. The Lord said, “I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel” Mt. 15:24. To the Baal-orientated mindset this proposition is absolutely repugnant. They would go so far as to deprive a fellow believer in Jesus Christ his livelihood and run a righteous man out of town. These churches don’t even want to use the word ‘race’ as they don’t think that the Bible could ever be ‘racist.’ In fact, these churches would be more in line with equal opportunity deities as they celebrate diversity through interfaith counsels. This is straight out of the Baal playbook entertaining pantheism, not the Bible

— REST IN PEACE —

Dear Friends: August 31st at 8:00pm, Mrs. Sheldon (Elaine) Emry fell asleep in the Lord. She was 89 years old and she died peacefully in her sleep. She was preceded in death by her parents, her siblings, her husband - Sheldon Emry - and her 2nd son Gregory Gene. Elaine was a tireless worker alongside her husband and she greatly missed him when he died in 1985 at the age of 58. She is survived by my wife, Martha, her twin brother, Mark Emry, and her oldest brother Brian Emry. She is also survived by 23 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren

Pastor Emry and Elaine were high school sweethearts and married in 1946 when Pastor Emry was discharged from the Army after serving in WWII. They made their home in Minneapolis where all four of their children were born. Pastor Emry entered the ministry in 1967. He and Elaine moved to Phoenix at that time with their four children who were 17, 15, and 9 at the time. Elaine worked full time so that Pastor Emry could do the work of the ministry. Even though she worked a forty hour week, she made sure the children and Sheldon had wonderful home-cooked meals and a very clean home. In 1975, she was able to quit working at her job and worked alongside Sheldon until his death. In 1987 Elaine suffered a cerebral aneurism which left her with left side paralysis. Through my wife’s care and Elaine’s perseverance she was able to get well enough to live in a senior apartment and lived a full life.

In 2004, she suffered two heart attacks and Martha and I moved her from Phoenix to our home until her care became more than we were capable of doing. We praise the Lord for the wonderful nurses and aids that took care of her in her last years. They are truly angels on earth. We will be having a memorial service in a few weeks. Elaine will be buried next to her husband and son in Scottsdale, AZ. —in His Service, Pastor Dave Barley.

that has no other deity beside the Lord God Almighty. And so they train their children in the ways of Baal and when they get old, they will not depart from it and can marry outside their race and have mongrel children.

Baal worship is as pervasive and innocuous as Christmas and Easter. We don’t react violently to the religious arsenic that is a slow subversion of faith and history. We don’t have revolutionary pulpits to keep government in check. When an enemy can slander Washington and Jefferson saying they sired mongrel half-breeds, where is the outrage? After it’s proven wrong, a retraction might be found on the back page. Where are the Elijah’s protesting a 30 foot rock monolith in Washington DC, adorned with hundreds of trees competing with the best groves of ancient Baal, memorializing and deifying the negro communist agitator Martin Luther King? “Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image” Ex. 20:4. This will become a popular magnet for those who would bow down at the feet of a black god. It’s all because Baal worship has changed White Christian America into an alien cesspool. Our society is infected with an uncivilized virus that comes in the name of religion, which has no respect for life or property and maligns the liberty our founders intended. All you have to do is look at the demographic hellholes in major American cities like Detroit or St. Louis and ask yourself what religion are they following.

In Bouvier's Law Dictionary, Christianity is defined as: "The religion established by Jesus Christ... [It] has been judicially declared to be a part of the common law [in several states]... to write or speak contemptuously and maliciously against it, is an indictable offense." There's some objection, especially from Christian Identity, to the oxymoron 'judeo-Christian', for lack of a better term to describe the emasculated and decadent state of the American church. Christianity does not need to be hyphenated with anything unless it is masquerading as Christian. Well, the better term should be Baal worship; but isn't used because most people don't know what it is and if they knew the real Jesus as a racial Kinsman Redeemer, they would switch in a heartbeat to Hinduism or Baal that corresponds to their religion of tolerance and equality. Unless, they decide to turn to the truth and change their thinking; in a word: repent.

Most churchgoers are either Republicans or Democrats, liberals or conservatives, but most of them have been charmed into the trappings of Baal worship. Liberalism is by and large a sanitized retreat of an antiquated mythology, one that predates the primitive church of Christianity. It aims its faith towards the rituals of convenience with the intent to produce economic prosperity by prompting their god into action. The fertility gods have been replaced by 'reproductive freedom' or 'choice'. Child sacrifice via burnt offering has been modernized by way of abortion. The ritualistic promotion of sexual immorality has been whitewashed through 'comprehensive sex education'. And, the pantheistic worship of 'mother earth' has been substituted for radical environmentalism. This is liberalism all dolled up and gratuitously labeled "Christian," in the guise of social justice; the kind of Marxist socialism that Obama would be proud to wear on his sleeve. They send their color blind missionaries to third world nations giving that which is holy to the dogs (Mt. 7:6) as they mimic the catholic strategy to adopt indigenous pagan concepts into Christianity. The liberal media is quick to elevate the World Council of Churches and their ilk to catching up with the times. This does not absolve any other Christian leaders from their duty to renounce these anti-biblical heretics who have a pro-gay, pro-abortion and global warming agenda pushed by the modern day Baal worshippers. The gods of liberalism have a new high priest in Barack Obama and will vote for him again in spite of peeling back the mask of Baal.

"Conservatives" are not off the hook either. They gravitate to the worship of wealth and materialism and prefer the mega-church, preaching a gospel of prosperity. Or perhaps a religious couch potato can stay at home and covet the golden opulence of a TBN world on TV. They go to the other extreme turning to a false Christ who would sanction greed and selfishness. Christ implored His followers to be good stewards, to love and do mercy and justice, but that's hard to do if the god of self, Baal, gets behind the kind of government that has abandoned patriotism for want of the almighty dollar, supporting a system that pollutes and profits significantly from the destruction of God's Creation and the poisoning of His children. After 9/11 'God bless America' bumper stickers started showing up everywhere, but the desire for God to fill up their wallets with cash or killing every terrorist (which included home schoolers) as dictated by Bush or Obama, is not how God works when it comes to blessing. We are not blessed by murder or being rich, but according to Acts 3:26, "To you, first, God sent His servant, blessing you by turning every one of you from his sins." We can't buy or kill somebody to remove our iniquities can we? People can't build a multi-million dollar museum to Baal and then call it Christian and have the hope of being righteous.

How can any Christian be a part of the GOP that has a homosexual group known as 'Log Cabin Republicans'? Where were these conservatives when antichrists removed and carted off the Ten Commandments from public buildings? But the most egregious transgression of conservative Christians is their unfettered allegiance to the neocons who represent the pantheism of Judaism and bring one jewish war after another; eternal peace through eternal death and destruction. It is the worship of the Big Lie and its by-product 'Strong Delusion.'

From an ecumenical perspective, Baal worship is conducive to the idea of all denominations merging into a one world religion. This is what the catholic church did for a thousand years until its corruption was precipitated by a protestant reformation. We catch a peculiar revelation from the Pergamon Museum in Germany with ancient stone relics on display showing the pagan god Dagon (Baal is sometimes called the 'son of Dagon') who was half-fish and half-man (aka Neptune), whose priests would adorn themselves as Dagon upon their bodies. Without this clear evidence, the Pope of Rome wearing his episcopal miter, a truncated hooded hat split at the top is none other than Dagon, when viewed horizontally is an open-mouthed fish head, it would have remained nothing more than a quaint piece of headwear. Once secure in the ignorance of the masses, popes for centuries could officiate in whatever vestment they chose. In placing this version of Dagon's miter upon the pope's head, we are being told whom he really represents. And upon the miter are the Latin words 'Vicarius Filii Dei', which do not mean 'the vicar of Christ', but rather "substituting for or in place of the Son of God." And with this blasphemy begins the wholesale invasion of paganism and a parade of heathen deities enshrined within the very heart of the so called "Church." The gates of hell have prevailed against the many disguises of Baal worship, because God will not have it. The land of Canaan was devoted to the worship of Baal and the enemies of Israel were as evil as the Bible claims and there is no reason to believe that God's wrath will not wipe them out for good at the end of the age. This message is an appeal from heaven for our loved ones to come out of the Mystery Religions that permeate most churches today.

God's intention for the White race, Israel, was for them to be separated and faithful people, remaining undefiled by the heathen and their ways. God would not tolerate race mixing anymore than deity mixing and He hasn't changed one bit to this day in spite of the priestcraft that says otherwise. If 99% of the churches say mix, that doesn't mean they're right, it means they are in rebellion to what God says otherwise. The tragedy of our race is that much of our people's faith has been prostituted by admixture. Christ is returning to His bride and never once does the Scripture say that the church is the bride. The bride has always been the race of Israel. "And there came unto me one of the seven angels... saying, come hither, and I will show thee the bride, the Lamb's wife. And he... showed me that great city... and names written thereon which are the names of the twelve tribes of Israel" Rev. 21:9-12.

When a confused society is looking for answers, how can a mixed bag of Babylonian derivatives be a light unto the world? Calling upon the name of Jesus Christ and not doing what He says is following another Christ, another gospel and is the confusion of Baal. False gods cannot resolve perplexing questions or problems, but they can pander to the idols of the heart and generate millions of dollars. I'm sorry, but this small Fellowship of God's Covenant People does not cater to the lusts of the world nor can it if we have a love for the truth. This is the reason the Word forbids us to try and serve two masters at the same time. After all, Jesus only wants one faithful virgin, "clean and white" (Rev. 19:8), as His bride, not a whore arrayed in the filthy rags of unrighteousness, who disregard His commands. "What concord hath Christ with Belial [Baal]?" II Cor. 6:15.

Unless you're a completely brain dead universalist, Jesus and Mary in the RCC are Baal and Ashtaroth, making paganism both acceptable and profitable merchandise. Using Christian terminology means nothing if one is trying to establish a pagan foundation. Is it Jesus or Baal that encourages race mixing? That gives away God's promises to everybody? That refuses to crucify the flesh on the Cross? That is spending $170 million on a recreation of Noah's Ark while the poor are getting poorer, losing their jobs and homes? This can only be the insanity of self-aggrandizement, the epitome of apostasy having no concern for the words of Christ. Their spiritual drunkenness builds upon the whoredoms of Baal.

I think it's important to mention how our knowledge of the Baal system has evolved over time. There are several sources for understanding the social and religious life of the Canaanites which include the Old Testament, several Greek writers and the archaeological discoveries at Ras Shamra. There are a total of 139 references to these pagan deities in the OT. In these passages, such things are noted as the high places where they practiced Baal worship, Israel's preoccupation with Baal worship at certain points in her history and the cultic practices of the Baal priests and prophets. While this information is helpful, the Bible does not provide a complete picture, but rather makes it a direct controversy worthy of denunciation. Although accurate and justified, it lacks the raw academics of a 'blow by blow' description. There have been tremendous archaeological excavations all around the Mediterranean region since the early part of the last century identifying places of worship, temples, smaller shrines and open-air sanctuaries.

They have found cult objects, idols and other artifacts related to Baal. But, the real value of this evidence is realized when written records accompany the unwritten sources. We had no clear firsthand knowledge of the Canaanites, but that changed dramatically in 1929 with the discovery of the Ras Shamra texts. From that time of discovery to the present, the finds have been well documented. There are literally thousands of texts that have been found in Ugarit, an ancient port city in northern Syria, which was destroyed around 1190BC and rediscovered by a peasant farmer plowing a field, dislodging an entrance to a burial chamber. Ugarit was a flourishing city carrying on business at an international level, and these texts, as one piece of the grand puzzle, tend to confirm and corroborate the witness of the OT writers. It is from these texts that the depravity and decadence concerning the Canaanite pantheon and cult of Baal is ultimately derived. The descriptions of sexual immorality are consistent with what we know from Moses writing about the grievous sin of Israel bowing the knee to Baal in Numbers 25:1-3.

It would appear then, that the Canaanite worshippers sunk to the moral levels of the deities they worshipped. And isn't that the testimony of history, that one becomes what one worships. We become what we are committed to. It's interesting to note that the many centers of Baal were culturally advanced and highly educated and yet its most notable feature was the high incidence of child sacrifice. Entire burial grounds full of clay jars used to hold the remains of slaughtered children have been found by modern archaeological digs. As barbaric as this sounds, it is not much different than modern day abortions, with the exception that our society doesn't honor or bury the children that are aborted. These highly civilized people, abounding in refinements and luxuries, met together to invoke the blessing of heaven on their empire by throwing hundreds of infants into a large furnace. The frequency of child sacrifice, even in the face of considerable intellectual advances, actually increased until it suddenly stopped altogether. And how did it stop? It came to a screeching halt when God judged these centers of pathological vice and horror. The Roman armies easily invaded lethargic and cowardly societies, destroying the entire Baal civilization. The stark ruins are a testimony that God is not mocked. We must ask ourselves: how far are we from our own well deserved judgment from the God of wrath (e.g. Katrina, Harvey, Irma)? It would seem that the parable of the tares would be an appropriate payback, gathering them who offend and casting them in a furnace of fire. Who is living in the lap of luxury today at the expense of those poor in the spirit, living from paycheck to paycheck? Do you believe the President is going to tax the millionaires and billionaires to pay their fair share? They bought him, he's their boy. He might as well be an android.

I love the timing of God's Providence. In 1929, the Canaanites of Wall Street engineered the crash of our economy as archaeologists were discovering ancient secrets of the Canaanite religion at Ras Shamra. Leading up to 1929, from the 19th century, was a traitorous priestcraft of occultic luminaries that would incorporate Baal worship into the Christian church: Cyrus Scofield, John Darby, Joseph Smith, Ellen G. White, Charles Taze Russell and many more. As these wolves in sheep's clothing began to rise, God likewise gave an increase in our knowledge of Baal worship to equip the saints to fight it and the rising tide of color, the browning of America and the indelible stain of darkness upon those Saxon Israelites once again bowing the knee to Baal. Roe vs. Wade, the Civil Rights Act of 1965, the Cultural Revolution of the 60's, the 501c3 state-sanctioned church, the legalization of same sex marriage, the Noahide Laws, the ethic of 'greed is good', the Bohemian Grove, the insanity of Christmas and Easter, Genetically Modified Organisms, on and on it goes, but I think you get the idea that Christianity is under attack. It's a Jewish conspiracy to brainwash our people to commit racial suicide and even that contention is a well guarded secret cushioned with Talmudic sophistry.

Our nation-race is being destroyed from within. Have you noticed the increasing decline in American politics? Every president since Woodrow Wilson should have been impeached. The worst president ever now occupies the White House and is probably behind "Occupy Wall Street"; yet another Marxist dialectic to control the opposition. I believe that is why God is raising up a Remnant to defy the Baal industry. The Christian Identity movement is moving against the bold liars of Mystery Babylon, a religious-economic consortium of judeo-churchianity and we are moving against them with the truth of Jesus Christ. God will again bring a reprobate apostasy to a sudden end; the high places of Baals will be brought down. The Genesis usurpers of rampant universalism better start shopping for good asbestos choir robes as their world begins to crumble around them and things begin to heat up.

It's going to get worse, but not for us, because we're looking at it from God's perspective. We are going to get through the darkness and into His marvelous Light. I don't want to leave this message hanging on a negative note. Someone asked me, why is your Identity thing so negative about everything. And the answer is... "Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil." The cup of iniquity is full of abominations. The valley is full of Baals. A dutiful watchman warns his kindred of the approaching storm. Do you kill the weatherman because you don't like the dark clouds on the horizon? Look at the two following passages together: "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" Gal. 4:16. And then John 8:32, "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." We know who our enemies are when seemingly well educated and prosperous church goers turn their minds off to the mention of "race" as if it didn't exist and then have the audacity to play this head game of guilt for being White. Tell these same liberal and/or conservative integrationists in South Africa that race has nothing to do with their once great White Christian nation turning into a gutted wasteland. America is catching up with their murder and mayhem; you can almost smell the smoke of burning cities. I become their enemy because I refuse to roll over and play dead.

VP Joe Biden said last week (10-20-11) that if Congress didn't spend $35 billion on a jobs bill, to allegedly hire more thugs for an encroaching police state, that there would be more murders, rapes and crimes. An upstart media scribe asked the VP if it was appropriate for his office to blackmail Congress under the threat or promise of increasing murders and rape. And Joe's response was, "Don't screw around with me." All of these Baal-outs are a last ditch effort to save the Baals and to screw the last vestiges of true Christianity.

But, the good news is that they will fail and if you're a Christian, the fall of Babylon is a positive thing. Jesus told His disciples to, "Feed My sheep." The sheep in that valley of toxic Baal worship are malnourished, some are diseased with dementia and others might as well be brain-dead. Perhaps some of the lost sheep of the house of Israel will hear this message or a ripple effect from it and "Work out our own salvation with fear and trembling" (Phil. 2:12). We're not saved by osmosis, but by making ourselves a new heart, by entering the straight gate, to repent or change. Don't think this work can't happen because the Lord ascended unto heaven, for it is God that works in you and we will be held accountable.

Don't think that you can build a museum or build a replica of Noah's Ark and also think that you can bear false witness against a righteous man of God. The Identity truth or if you want to call it God's 'White Supremacy' policy will always be superior to the inferior trappings of Baal worship that changes the truth of God into a lie where Creation's 'kind after kind' no longer exists. That idea of mongrelization was as repugnant to Ezra and Nehemiah, who commanded God's people to put away the strange wives and children, even as it is today: a curse, actually in contempt of God's Law. The Bible tells us that God married Israel alone, got divorced because she committed adultery with the gods of other races (the Baals), but that there is going to be a remarriage. The principle that the Bible believing Christian should never forget is that, “What God hath joined together, let no man put asunder” (Mt. 19:6). But, that is exactly what Baal worship does.

And guess what? When we rid our land of the evil, there’s nothing more negative to talk about. Baal worship is evil in that it breaks in pieces, it spoils and decays what should be otherwise whole as God intended. Our race is held together by separation and being torn apart by integration. You can either rid the land of “the head” i.e. the mind of Christ in which nothing will change except a further deterioration of society or you can rid the land of “the tail”, which is symbolic of mindlessness. “Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he” Prov. 29:18. The Kingdom of Heaven will not be integrated, because God does not violate His own Law; we will be able to walk down any street safely, have our children at playgrounds without the trepidation of pedophiles lurking about, our doors unlocked and open for friends. What vision do Baal worshippers offer? A homogenized brotherhood of man in which no pure race remains? Maybe they should build an Ark, because the same things that preceded the Flood are repeating themselves today: rampant race mixing and gross immorality. But, Noah was perfect in his generations, meaning that he didn’t mix. I think this new Ark will not float if God has anything do with it and is more akin to the RMS Titanic.

Don’t fear for our Kingdom, let the Baal priests fear for theirs. I pray that White Christian America stops serving the Baals; if they can’t even see them, I pray that their eyes be opened so that they can. I pray that our people come out of institutional Baalism, start serving the God of Israel... and live. “The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly” John 10:10.

Well, let’s do what Christian Identity does best and identify, which is why we’re so hated by those whose finger-prints are matched to the crime scene. One does not necessarily know that they’re a Baal Worshipper unless someone can show them that the elements correspond to what they practice. I wish it were as easy as someone praying to a piece of carved wood or rock, but it’s much more complicated than that. The idols of the heart are from within and that sets the stage for what comes out of a man and defiles him (Mt. 15:11). “Are you a White Supremacist?” is the kind of loaded question that can’t wait to level the charge of “racist”, irrespective of a proper Bible study. It’s a polluted communication coming out of the mouth of a Baal worshipper calling good evil and evil good and renders men loathsome to God, and liable to His perfect judgment. There are 12 elements to Baal worship and I will proceed, through lawful discovery, to provide you the jury with a preponderance of exhibits in the next installment of this short series. There will be no doubt as to who is right in the eyes of God, just like it was thousands of years ago.

WHO CHOOSES?

by Don Elmore

“And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed: it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.” Gen.3:15.

President Donald Trump, in a speech given at the National Day of Remembrance of the Holocaust, said that “I will always stand with the Jewish people and I will always stand with our great friend and partner, the state of Israel.”

Who does the President of the United States say that we are being a great friend and partner to? The answer is: The State of Israel. What Trump really means when he says, “The State of Israel” is the Jews! That is who he means when he says that we are being a great friend and partner to the Jews—the people who were the victims of the great holocaust, the descendants of the Christ-killers and haters of Christianity.

But who is a Jew anyway? Where do they come from? Does it make a difference? Who are all those people in the Bible? There are Canaanites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, Hittites, Hivites, Jebusites, Egyptians, Ammonites, Moabites, Persians, Assyrians, Syrians, Cushites, Greeks, Romans, Ishmaelites, Israelites, Edomites, Phoenicians, Turks, Hamites, Mizraimites, Ethiopians, House of Israel, House of Judah, and there are many other peoples who are not talked about very much in the Bible: like the Negroes, Chinese, Japanese, Tibetans, Ashkenazim, Aztecs, Zulus, etc.

Who are these people today? Do they still have descendants who are alive? Do you have any of their blood flowing in yours?

Most of the world, including many deceived or fake “Christians,” believe that all races of people come from the same beginning—Adam and Eve or Noah and Naamath, his wife. When asked, “What race was Adam or Noah?” The most common answer by people who advocate that Adam and Noah were not White people is that they were brownish. They believe that all races came from these two brown representatives of all the races.

In my first sermon on this topic, I talked about the origins of many of the false Christian rituals and holidays and where they originated. Most people who call themselves “Christian” celebrate many similar events that began from the Nimrod—Semiramis—Tammuz double incest story. It provides for today’s Christian almost all the ritual for both the birth and death of their god. Christmas trees, Christmas mistletoe, Christmas exchange gifts, Christmas lights, Easter ham dinners, Easter bunny eggs, Easter decorated hard-boiled eggs, Easter egg hunts, etc. are all from the story of the son and mother/wife relationship of Nimrod and Semiramis and are an abomination to God., as is their celebration.

In my second sermon, I traced who I thought the “beast of the field” were in scripture. They were pre-Adamites; that is they were here before Adam was placed on the earth. God gave Adam dominion over the beast of the field.

Eve was created from part of Adam's body. Adam's body was formed from the dust of the earth. They both had no earthly parents. They were both created mature. They were never in the womb; they were never an infant; they were never a little child; never an adolescent and never a young adult. They were created mature.

And after their sins, they lived almost one thousand years. How much could a person learn in one thousand years? How many children could a person have if he lived almost one millennium? How many people could a person have in his own family reunion, if he lived more than 900 years, which is around 1/6th of the time since Adam was created?

Truth is stranger than fiction. We practically are told nothing about this time in the life of Adam and his descendants, up to the flood of Noah (although some more details may be found in the writings of the historian, Josephus). But there were three generations that, no doubt, communicated with each other a lot, until the flood:

ADAM—lived 930 years.

METHUSELAH —born 687 years after Adam was placed in the Garden; died 1656; he lived 969 years.

NOAH—born 1056; died 2006; he lived 950 years.

Noah was born six hundred years before Methuselah died: Methuselah died 1656 (the year of the flood). Noah was born 1056. (all years are from Adam)

So, he could have had many conversations with him. According to the Book of Jasher (#314 @ $23.55), Noah married Naamah, the daughter of Enoch. Enoch was Methuselah's father. And Noah's three sons all married daughters of Eliakim, one of the sons of Methuselah (chapter 5). So, Noah married the Methuselah's sister and his sons married daughters of Methuselah's son (Methuselah's granddaughters). I think it is safe to say that Noah and the rest of his family saw Methuselah a great deal during his life.

How many people were alive when the flood occurred? I have seen estimates online of up to 10 trillion people. But the Bible doesn't tell us. It is truly speculation.

My third sermon: Western civilization at the present day is passing through a crisis which is essentially different from any thing that has been previously experienced. Other societies in the past have changed their social institutions or their religious beliefs under the influence of external forces or the slow development of internal growth. But none has ever consciously faced the prospect of a fundamental alteration of the beliefs and institutions on which the whole fabric of social life rests like our current society. Civilization is being uprooted from its foundations in nature and tradition and is being reconstituted in a new organization which is as artificial as a modern factory.

The communist form of government has been promoted by Jews who were run out of Germany when Hitler came to power. Nazis and communists hated each other. An avowed Marxist (communist), Carl Grunberg, was the director of the Communist Frankfurt School from 1923-1929. But in 1930 Max Horkheimer assumed control and led the school in much research. When Hitler was voted into power (1933), the Jews declared war against Germany and the school was closed and many of its members, by various routes, fled to the United States and migrated to major United States Universities—Columbia, Princeton, Brandeis and California at Berkeley.

To further the advance of their quiet cultural revolution—by keeping their plans secret from the Christian world—the Communist Frankfurt School recommended (among other things):

1. The creation of racism offences mainly against the White population.

2. Continual change to create confusion.

3. The teaching of tolerance of uninhibited sex, homosexuality and transgendered relationships to children and make these perversions natural (communism, being based on evolution, has no right and wrong and no justice or morals in their worldview, as these all stem from a biblical worldview based on the God of creation, which evolution denies)

4. The undermining of schools' and teachers' authority.

I remember when at the beginning of one school year, paddling was no longer allowed (caning was outlawed in Australia). In its place was a system of in-school or after-school suspensions. What a disaster. It is very rare for a child to go through life without a swat to correct them, at least one time. Now it is forbidden in the schools.

5. Huge immigration to destroy the identity of what this country used to be. Flood the nation with a population from the third world and the White race's identity will be remembered no longer. Take down the monuments representing the defeated South.

6. The promotion of excessive drinking. Broken homes, homicides, automobile accidents, uninhibited fornication, domestic abuses are some of the results of drunkenness.

7. Emptying of main-line churches. Change the composition of the congregation of the churches from all-White to an amalgamation of mixed and mongrel races. This would be accomplished by changing the doctrines of the mainline churches to the Freemason/Jewish/Talmud doctrine that every person on the earth is descended from Adam/Eve.

8. An unreliable legal system with bias against victims of crime.

9. Dependency on the state or state benefits.

10. Control and dumbing down of media.

11. Encouraging the breakdown of the family.

One of the main ideas of the Frankfurt School was to exploit Freud's idea of "pansexualism" which was the search for pleasure, the exploitation of the differences between the sexes, the overthrowing of traditional relationships between men and women. To further these aims, they would:

- Attack the authority of the father. Does a family need a father anyway? Let Lesbian lovers adopt children. Who has ever heard of courtship? The average father today has practically no say in who his daughter should marry.

- Deny the specific roles of father and mother. More women are now going to college than men. Women are expected to have a career in the business, trucking, educational, medical, military or other fields that used to be entirely for men. Soon, women will be put in the military draft (conscription).

- Wrest away from families their rights as primary educators of their children. Home school will eventually be eliminated or changed to the public schools propaganda (as a lot of private schools are already experiencing).

- Abolish differences in the education of boys and girls.

It used to be true that the girls took home economics class and the boys took wood or metal shop; but now anyone can take these classes. It also used to be true that boys and girls had different gym classes, but this has changed too. They are now both in the same gym class (helps promote fornication).

- Abolish all forms of male dominance—hence the presence of women in the armed forces and their availability to fight in the front lines.

- Declare women to be an “oppressed class” and men as “oppressors.” It is seldom if ever, mentioned that this is in opposition to what the Bible teaches. Why have there been no Presidents of the United States who are women? Why have there been no Vice-Presidents who are women? Why, until after the feminist’s movement that was successful about 100 years ago, were there practically no women senators, representatives, mayors, governors? Why were women teachers mandated by contract to quit their job as soon as they got married?

FRANKFURT SCHOOL’S PSYCHOLOGICAL THEORIES

The Communistic Frankfurt School believed there were two types of revolution:

- (a) Political and
- (b) Cultural

Cultural revolution demolishes from within. They saw it as a long-term project and kept their sights clearly focused on the family, education, media, sex and popular culture.

The psychological theories about human nature and the counseling based on these theories have vastly contributed to the ever-expanding fulfillment of 2 Timothy 3:1-2

“This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy. Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good. Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God: having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.”

The psychological theories and therapies of the Jewish communistic Frankfurt School have fueled inordinate self-love and thereby served as the seed-bed of the twentieth-century sexual revolution that has:

- Ripped apart families,
- Abolished sexual morality, and
- Led to a redefinition of marriage.

Humanistic psychology paved the way for a new concept of the self that needed to be freed from the restraints of repressive social institutions and moral codes, so that people would be free to develop their inborn goodness and build a society without hypocrisy, prejudice or exploitation. Marriages fail now at the rate of at least one out of two.

Of course, the church was viewed as a repressive social institution with moral codes rather than as Jesus’ anointed body of believers who are truly free in Him. Erroneous external views of Christianity have so overtaken our society that the church is the enemy to personal fulfillment and freedom when, in fact, this country has become more and more enslaved to sin with its many forms of so-called addiction.

But even before the development of humanistic psychology, the tares were preparing a poisonous dinner for God’s sheep. Sigmund Freud (1856-1939), considered the father of the psychotherapy movement, believed that morality, and particularly sexual morality, was much to be blamed for psychological disorders. He felt that fornication with any person for practically any reason would be a great preventive medicine and psychologically beneficial (the evolutionary worldview mindset, where anything goes - there are no laws of any kind - dog-eat-dog mentality - there is no god). In fact, he believed in a strong, direct relationship between a person’s sex life and mental emotional disorders.

He said that “factors arising in sexual life represent the nearest and practically the most momentous causes of every single case of nervous illness.” (Sigmund Freud, Sexuality in the Aetiology of the Neuroses, (1898) in Collected Papers, volume One, New York, Basic Books Inc., 1959, page 320).

Freud’s only objection to this unlimited fornication were the possibilities of venereal disease and pregnancy. (Sigmund Freud, The Origins of Psycho-analysis: Drafts and Notes to Wilhelm Fliess (1887-1902), Garden City: Anchor Books, 1957, page 67). Little did Freud anticipate our present permissive society, which has achieved his great therapeutic ideal of fornication. Little did he realize that the sexual revolution that followed his conjectures would not only cause more mental-emotional-behavioural disorders, but trip right into the fabric of society.

Abraham Maslow (1908-1970) followed many of Freud’s ideas regarding sexual freedom and belief in a powerful subconsciousness that motivates behaviour. Maslow, considered by many to be one of the founders of humanistic psychology, contended that people are innately good and possess “innate instincts” (Ibid, page 10) within them to enable them to find values within the self rather than needing a source outside of self.

Maslow thus fostered cultural relativism, which was originally conceived by Franz Boas (1858-1942), a highly influential anthropologist at Columbia University, where anthropology was studied from a Darwinian perspective.

Ruth Benedict (1887-1948) was a student under Boas and soon became a professor at Columbia University and popularized many of his teachings on cultural relativism. Benedict called for “redefining normality in a single generation,” and while that seemed a remote possibility, “her friend and sometime student Abraham Maslow would lay the groundwork for a new theory of personality that would do just that” (Ibid, page 39).

Maslow considered Benedict as being one of the few people who are self-actualized, even though she saw herself as a deviant. Benedict was bi-sexual and she blamed much of her homosexual behaviour on the restraints of society on homosexuals and others who do not conform to

Many of the most important changes throughout history were forged by a close knit cadre of friends who worked together in common cause toward shared goals. Put simply: Friendships have changed the world, both for good and evil. Over generations, the godly have used friendships to promote righteous ends, even as the enemy has used the power of friendships for great destruction. In this message Doug shows how this thesis is borne out powerfully through the lives and legacies of John Calvin and Charles Darwin. The lesson for us today: Choose friends wisely. the traditional norms. Benedict was a lesbian, Jewish, Boasian, cultural anthropologist who wrote several works proclaiming races are biologically equal. Ashley Montagu, a Jewish Boasian anthropologist later adopted race denialism. His real name was Israel Ehrenberg, but he changed his name to hide his Jewish heritage.

These Jewish intellectual movements desecrated the passivity, escapism, and conformity of American culture. White advocates are horrified that the clear majority of White people passively accept media messages filled with distorted images of Whites and their history. They are appalled that so many Whites are far more interested in escapist entertainment, ranging from sporting events to sci-fi thrillers, than they care about the future of their own people.

And they are dismayed by the conformity of the great mass of Whites who are terrified of being called a racist or in any way violating the current taboos of political correctness. They deplore the pathetic conformists striving to uphold the rules of a society deeply hostile to their own long-term interests.

Rather than see a culture controlled by the "late capitalist" media, White advocates see the culture of the West as controlled by a hostile media that advocates:

- Multiculturalism,
- The displacement of Whites, and
- The culture of Western suicide.

And many of today's true Christians believe that a very large influence on this culture stems not only from the influence of the Frankfurt School and the New York intellectuals, but also from Jewish ownership and production of the media.

Maslow's dream for a Utopia inhabited with self-actualized persons of high self-esteem was realized in the Haight-Ashbury district of San Francisco as the flower children of the sixties took his theories to heart and indulged in free 'love' and self-gratification. Maslow did not teach self-indulgence, but that can be the result of any system which emphasizes the self, pre-supposes the goodness of the human, and claims that people will develop their highest potential if so-called needs are met.

Each generation since the beginning of the sexual revolution has moved further away from chastity and marital fidelity and towards fornication with anyone (just like the dogs) with no ties to marriage or commitment. What used to be considered unnatural is now looked on as natural. For many, traditional sexual values and restraints are a thing of the past, and for those who still believe in them, there is a stretching of the meaning of chastity and fidelity and a widening of sexual activities. Nevertheless, in the midst of ever-increasing sexual freedom and affluence, many are dissatisfied. They never find what they are looking for. (the best gift you can give your children is a stable home life with a mother and father who love each other and stay together, then you can trace your family tree and history)

There are four schools of psychology:

1. Psychoanalysis: originated with Sigmund Freud. Explains human behaviour by looking at the subconscious mind. Freud suggested that the instinct to pursue pleasure, which he described as sexual in nature, lies at the root of human development.

2. Behaviourism: In the 1950s, B.F. Skinner carried out experiments with animals, such as rats and pigeons, demonstrating that they repeated certain behaviours if they associated them with rewards in the form of food. Behaviourists believe that observing behaviour, rather than attempting to analyze the inner workings of the mind itself, provides the key to psychology. This makes psychology open to experimental methods with results that can be replicated in the same way as any scientific experiment.

3. Humanism: Humanist psychologists teach that to understand psychology, we must look at individuals and their motivations. Abraham Maslow's "hierarchy of needs" exemplifies this approach: a system of needs, such as food, love, and self-esteem, determines a person's behaviour to various extents. Meeting these needs leads to a sense of self-satisfaction and solves psychological problems.

4. Cognitivism: Cognitive psychology follows behaviourism by understanding the mind through scientific experimentation, but it differs from it by accepting that psychologists can study and understand the internal workings of the mind and mental processes. It rejects psychoanalysis, as it regards psychoanalytic theories about the subconscious mind as subjective and not open to scientific analysis.

Do you catch that the fact that one school of psychology rejects one or more of the other schools? Mention the word psychology today, and few persons would fail to recall Sigmund Freud. Freud believed in studying covert behaviour, but unlike his predecessors, Freud was not content with examining only conscious thought: he dived head-first into the unconscious. Freud compared the human psyche to an iceberg — only a small portion is visible to others with most of it lying below the surface.

Freud also believed that many of the factors that influence our thoughts and actions lie outside of conscious awareness and operate entirely in our unconscious. Psychology therefore needed to study these unconscious drives, motives and impulses to arrive at a more complete understanding of the individual.

Not all modern psychologists subscribe to Freud's psychoanalytic theory but none can deny the significant impact that this man has had on psychology. He opened whole new frontiers in psychology and proposed one of the most comprehensive theories of personality ever written, complete with explanations of how the unconscious mind works and how personality develops in the early years of life.

Many later theorists were influenced directly and indirectly by Freud as they either built on, modified or reacted to his sometimes-controversial views. Freud's work led to the development of the first form of psychotherapy - one which has been modified and used by countless therapists throughout the history of psychology. Even all this, to use Freud's analogy, is just the very "tip of the iceberg" as far as his contributions are concerned.

No other psychological school of thought has received as much attention, admiration and criticism as Freud's psychoanalytical theory. One of the biggest criticisms is that his theory falls short of being scientific as many of his concepts are not testable. Freud also failed to recognize how experiences after childhood contribute to personality development and focused mainly on psychological disorders rather than more positive, adaptive behaviours.

What does a Jew believe? They hate Jesus the Christ. They hate all His followers. They hate His church and its doctrines. Why would a Christian want to learn from these haters of Christians? Why is psychology thought to be something that a Christian school would have in its curriculum?

Betty Friedan devoted almost a full chapter of The Feminine Mystique to Abraham Maslow's theory of self-actualization.

Maslow was a social psychologist who in his early years did research of female dominance and sexuality. Maslow was a friend of Herbert Marcuse at Brandeis University and had met Eric Fromm in 1936. He was strongly impressed by Fromm's Frankfurt School's communist ideology. He wrote an article, "The Authoritarian Character Structure," published in 1944, that reflected the personality theory of Critical Theory. Maslow was also impressed with the work of Wilhelm Reich, who was another Frankfurt School originator of personality theory.

The significance of the historical roots of Political Correctness cannot be fully appreciated unless Betty Friedan's revolution in sex roles is viewed for what it really was—a manifestation of the social revolutionary process begun by Karl Marx. Friedan's reliance on Abraham Maslow's reflection of Frankfurt School ideology is simply one indicator.

Other indicators include the correspondence of Friedan's revolution in sex roles with Georg Lukacs' annihilation of old values and the creation of new ones, and with Herbert Marcuse's transvaluation of values. But the idea of transforming a patriarchy into a matriarchy—which is what a sex-role inversion is designed to do—can be connected directly to Friedrich Engels' book The Origin of the Family, Private Property, and the State.

First published in 1884, this book popularized the now-accepted feminist belief that deep-rooted discrimination against the oppressed female sex was a function of patriarchy. The belief that matriarchy was the solution to patriarchy flows from Marx's comments in the German Ideology, published in 1845. In this work, Marx advanced the idea that wives and children were the first property of the patriarchal male. The Frankfurt School's matriarchal theory originated from these sources.

When addressing the public, advocates of Political Correctness or Cultural Marxism, to give it its true name—present their beliefs attractively. It's all just a matter of being "sensitive" to other people, they say. They use words such as "tolerance" and "diversity," asking "Why can't we all just get along?"

Political Correctness is Marxism, and all that implies:

- Loss of freedom of expression,
- Thought control,
- Inversion of the traditional social order and,
- Ultimately, a totalitarian state.

If anything, the cultural Marxism created by the Frankfurt School is more horrifying than the old, economic Marxism that ruined Russia. At least the economic Marxists did not exalt sexual perversion and attempt to create a matriarchy, as the Frankfurt School and its descendants have done.

All this anti-Christian mumbo-jumbo can be erased from the Christian mind by just remembering one of the many, many verses that teach Christians to avoid doing what all this new psychology tells us to do:

"But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you. Fear not little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom."
Luke 12:31-32.

CONCLUSION

Let's analyze what we have read so far. Sigmund Freud, Abraham Maslow and Franz Boas, Ruth Benedict, Israel Ehrenberg, Betty Freidan and others, like Margaret Mead, Georg Lukacs, Herbert Marcuse, Eric Fromm, Wilhelm Reich and Alfred Kinsey were leaders in the psychology movement that was promoted by the Frankfurt School located in America. Unknown to most Christians, psychology has been supported by the Frankfurt School, and several members of this pro-communist school were leaders in the teaching of this new pseudo-science. They were all connected to the communistic school in America—the Frankfurt School—that set up bases at Columbia, Brandeis, Princeton and Berkeley Universities.

What would people study if they had a personal behavior problem before there was any psychology? Their solution was found in the Bible which they could learn about in the local church or read themselves. The churches have failed in almost every case of helping their members because they use psychology and not the Bible to address the real problem—their sin.

Psychology is the study of how people are motivated to act without God's influence. The same is true with politics. How to govern without God's influence—separation of Church and State. In fact, in almost all areas, there is now no God. But what is missing is that they have ignored the God of the Bible.

There is a battle between what the many different psychologists think and say. Most people are not aware that psychologists have different views and they operate in very different manners. Most psychologists must reject one or more of the schools of psychology.

Sigmund Freud, Abraham Maslow and Franz Boas and many others were all brought up in Jewish families. Freud was the son of a rabbi. They had in their arteries and veins, remnants of blood from the line of Esau and Canaanites and Ashkenazi. Boas and Maslow were both professors at Columbia University, while Maslow was also a professor at Brandeis University and other universities. Boas died the year I (D.E.) was born, 1942.

What/who came to Brandeis, Princeton, Columbia and Berkeley Universities from Germany as Nazis took over and isolated the Jewish people in their country? The Jews fled that country and many came to America. Remember, Germany had re-awakened to what Martin Luther had discovered: The Jews had enmity in their heart against God's people. Martin Luther, near the end of his life, wrote the book, The Jews and Their Lies (now out of print to be made available in a PDF shortly). posed:

- To set fire to their synagogues and schools,
- To take away their homes,
- Forbidden them to pray or teach, or
- Even to utter God's name.

Luther wanted to "be rid of them" and requested that the government and ministers deal with the problem. He requested pastors and preachers to follow his example of issuing warnings against the Jews. He goes so far as to claim that, "We are at fault in not slaying them" for avenging the death of Jesus Christ. Hitler's Nazi government in the 1930s and 40s fit Luther's desires to a tee. So, if you hate Hitler, you must hate Martin Luther the great Reformer, about ten times as much too.

Few people today realize that Luther wrote a book that had so much hatred towards the murderers of Jesus the Anointed. Freethinkers should become aware of the anti-Jewish influence that Luther has brought on the world. His vehement attack on Jews and his powerful influence on the German faithful has brought a new hypothesis to mind: that the eliminationist form of anti-Jewish-ism in Nazi Germany may not have occurred without the influence from Luther's book, The Jews and Their Lies.

It was the communistic Frankfurt School that left Germany and came to America to do its work. Its work was to change first Germany, which it had failed to do and then America to a communistic state. It has now succeeded in both nations. (Jews control Germany and are responsible for the destruction caused by the mass muslim immigration)

President Trump is off on an eight-day foreign journey to Saudi Arabia, Israeli, Italy, the Vatican and Sicily with his Jewish son-in-law, Jared Kushner, and his daughter, Ivanka. They both received special permission from their orthodox rabbi to travel on the Sabbath on this trip. Jared has been under FBI surveillance regarding setting up a secret Russian communication regarding Syria in the transition period of the new president.

Jared's father, Charles Kushner, was sent to prison for tax fraud, witness tampering and illegal campaign donations. He is part of the Israeli mafia gang. They work together at 666 Fifth Avenue., a building Jared bought in 2007 for $1.8 billion. At the time, it was the most anyone had paid for a building in New York City. His father served time in Alabama where he was in jail for several years, sent by Chris Christy.

While in Israel(i), Benjamin Netanyahu said that he had known both President Trump and his son-in-law, Jared Kushner, for a long time. He even knew Jared when he was very young. What? What a disaster! Except it is our God who knows and controls all.

President Trump became the first sitting president to visit the western wall and make his prayers. (?? I thought others had previously done the same, CIM) First, it isn't the western wall of the Temple. All the stones were torn down. It is the remaining wall that was built by the Romans as part of their fort. And secondly, President Trump wasn't praying to the God of the Bible but to the feminine god of the Israel lies (Jews). While praying, the Jews thrust at their female god, to produce the offspring of the masculine god En Sof. What a racket. And our chief politicians are participating in the lewd satanic ritual.

"Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, and to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ [anointed]." Gal 3:16.

"And if ye be Christ's [anointed people],, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." Gal. 3:29.

If you believe what the translators wanted to deceive you with, "Christ" instead of "anointing," then you are believing the Jewish/Roman Catholics want you to believe. Historically, Rome brought in the teaching that she was the one true church and that anyone of any race could be converted into the Church by acceptance of that Church's dogmas, sacraments and traditions.

The Roman Church taught that she was Israel. Anyone who was not of the Holy Apostolic Roman Church was stated to be a Gentile. The present view held by most of the Protestant Churches has its origin with the Roman Mother of Harlots and is not in Scripture. Are you supporting a Harlot Daughter of Rome?

THE ROLE OF THE MIXED MULTITUDE

Mrs Edna G. Lake

notes by Robert Balaicius

A mixed marriage is unfair to the progeny springing from that union. The child does not know whether to imitate the mother or the father. This throws the child into an internal conflict it does not know how to deal with. He or she is at war inside themselves. The child is in a constant state of confusion as to who they are supposed to be. I understand the mulattoes in the Negro communities cause most of the trouble there. These are the ones the Communists work among.

AN UNCOMFORTABLE POSSIBILITY

by Philip Nice

WHAT if those bums in Washington aren't bums?

(you can substitute Canberra for Washington and Parliament for Congress, and learn from this)

Washington is broken. Congress is rotten. The president is a fool. politicians are bums. the government is incompetent. the country is incurable. Does this sound familiar? Millions of people from every ideology distrust their federal government. year after year, polls show that large majorities of people disapprove of Congress, the president and the government as a whole. They view it as bloated, out of control, ineffective, untrustworthy and destructive of the rights it exists to protect.

How can the nation fix its government?

Many people seem as convinced about the solution as they are about the problems. Get people in Washington who have common sense. Get people in there who can get things done.

No matter how negatively citizens view their government, many hold out hope that the next election will turn things around—that their candidate will fix everything, or at least show the country's slide toward oblivion. Disenchanted people always seem to believe that almost anyone will do a better job than those bums who are in there now.

But this is the uncomfortable part: What if "those bums in Washington" aren't bums? How did these reviled politicians get their power, after all? Four years ago, eight years ago, 32 years ago, the people elected them. Not because they were the crookedest and dumbest, but because they were the best and the brightest (at least that was the appearance they gave).

Despite the terrible reputations that politicians have, when you meet one in person, you know you are encountering an impressive human being. Some are millionaires' wastrels, devious manipulators or well-connected oafs, but most are formidable individuals with impressive qualities. They stood out in school, stood out in college, stood out in a profession, stood out in a city, stood out in a state, stood out from the entire country (and/or had freemasonry connections, CIM).

You vote for that policy-maker because he is the most impressive person you can find. You believe he is a better representative than even you yourself would be. Because in this country, if you can't find anyone better and brighter than you, you can run for that office yourself.

The citizens do not consistently elect the worst people in their society to become their leaders. They consistently elect the people they judge to be their very best. Yet yesterday's "common-sense, American values, fix-Washington" challenger is today's out-of-touch, corrupt, insider politician. And he is up for reelection against a new "common-sense, American values, fix Washington" challenger. Why aren't they sending their best people there? Maybe they are. And those people are still destroying the country.

It's comforting to think people can save the nation by electing brighter persons. But it's not true. The truth is more disconcerting, because if there is no hope in that, what hope is there? And if human beings can't create free government in America, can they create it anywhere?

This lesson of our leaders is a lesson about ourselves. We are directly responsible: We voted for them (or we elected them by our failure to vote against them). If they are ignorant, we have elected ignorant representatives. They represent our ignorance. If they are incompetent, we have elected incompetent representatives. They represent our incompetence. If they are corrupt, we have elected corrupt representatives. They represent our corruption.

If they are self-dealing, weak, petty, ineffective, detached, uninformed or dishonest, it is because they come from that kind of society, and voters could identify no better option. The pool of candidates we draw from is ourselves. Our leaders come from us. They are us. In office, they are what we ourselves would be. They become out-of-touch, ineffective and selfish, just as we ourselves would become out-of-touch, ineffective and selfish.

In this country, we deserve the leaders we get. And our leaders cannot make this country thrive or even survive. Our trial-and-error experiment in human government is about to expire. All that remains is for this precious republic/commonwealth that many of us love to succumb to its weakness, its indebtedness, its corruption and its depravity.

Where did we go wrong? We went wrong with something we barely clutched in 1776 and that we viciously slap away in 2016: "the laws of nature and of nature's God." We don't elect our most God-fearing, law-abiding, moral, humble, obedient individuals; we don't even want to. The nation's relative greatness and its imminent fate depend on our obedience to nature's God.

Of all mankind's miserable forms of government, free government has been the greatest. Yet even it is terminal. We have no hope, not even in elections. This leaves us one last resort. The government that we have rejected for millennia (since our forefathers asked Samuel for a king) is not only our last best hope, it is our only hope. We would never vote for it, but it's the only government that will make us truly free: the government of God.

GOD'S WORD

Is Our Only Defense Against the Anti-Christ's Weapons of Words

from a sermon by Pastor Sheldon Emry

'They' fear God Almighty's words, too! And we fear them when we back down and do what 'they' want us to do.

In Psalm 50:16 these enemies of Israel are described as people who claim God's covenant: But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare My statutes, or that thou shouldest take My covenant in thy mouth?

verse 17: they hate God's Word.

Verse 18: they are thieves, adulterers.

verse 19: they speak evil, deception verse 20: they speak against their own brother.

*In God I will praise His Word,
In God I have put my trust;
I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.- Ps.56:4*

I would to God that our people would begin to understand that it is His Word which we must believe, not some doctrine that all you have to do is come down to the altar and that He will enter your heart and that will take care of you and change your life. He will change your life, if you believe His Word.

And that doesn't constitute John 3:16. It constitutes the whole Bible. We have a whole nation ignorant of God's Word. And God's Word is our only defense against these wicked deceivers who use not guns and bullets against us, but Words. And that is what is destroying Christendom, the evil words of the wicked ones.

When I cry unto Thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: This I know; for God is for me. In God will I praise His Word: in the Lord will I praise His Word. In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me. Psa. 56:9-11. (people today would rather put their trust in insurance companies than in God).

Why isn't he afraid? Because he believes God's Word. The enemy is also afraid that you will believe God's Word.

If you believe what Jesus the Anointed said of the Pharisees - - they have reason to be afraid. Of course they fear a Christian nation! A Christian nation would be a nation that believes God's Word.

Because of their lying propaganda -- words against which we have no defense because we don't know God's Word -- 'they' are able to fool and deceive us into following 'their' route to our destruction.

They are always doing that which they have been ordained to do. Jude 3 writes about the wicked: Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should EARNESTLY CONTEND FOR THE FAITH which was once delivered unto the saints.

You have to earnestly contend for the faith. You don't just sit down and wait. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condem- nation, ungodly men, turning the grace of God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. Jude 4.

And that is what is happening in Christendom today. We are being told, "Well, if you're Christians, then you have to allow anyone to do anything. You can't hate wicked, evil people. You must l-o-v-e everyone. Everyone must have liberty and freedom to do whatever they want because, after all, the only thing that is important is that we l-o-v-e them as Jesus loved the sinners and the wicked"—and so on.

And what have they done? They have turned the grace of God Almighty into an excuse to do wicked and evil, and we have been fooled into going along with them.

But notice here he says before of old ordained to this condemnation. How about that? God actually chose them for these wicked purposes. These are people in Christendom, but they are anti-Christians. Vs 11 says Woe unto them! .. they have gone in the way of Cain (that would be murder), and run greedily after the error of Balaam (inter-racial marriages) for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Cora (violence & rebellion against Moses as the ordained leader of Israel) ... in other words, Rejection of God Almighty's Authority

They certainly are anti-Christians, but they are of old ordained to this condemnation. That is one thing we must never forget. They are chosen for this purpose. This is in God's plan. He has created and chosen a special people to be in effect, our enemy! That doesn't mean we ignore them and forget them. It does mean that we obey what Jude told us to do and contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

If we had everyone on God's side and everyone was a Christian, there would be no reason for us to contend for the faith. Jude says, These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water [in other words, without the Word of God]; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots. Raging waves of the sea, forming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever. 12-13

In other words, these people have actually been chosen and allowed to do that which we see them doing — But we must know. We must have God's Word as our defense against them.

Jude talks about when He returns To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him. These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage. 15-16

And here Jude also recognizes what the psalmist did -- the main method of wickedness is words -- it's their tongue -- it's their lying deception! And the only shield we have against that is God's Word!

We are locked in mortal combat with a race of people Jesus the Christ identified in the Scripture as of their father the devil [false accuser] and their main weapon against us is words. Our only defense is His Word, and we better understand that.

God has given us a battle He has given us an enemy, and we must understand that this enemy is also the enemy of God Almighty. He is allowed to fight against us so that we have something that we can do . . . we can fight for our God. God is actually using us as His weapons of war. He is using us to carry out His Word and His plan.

We are reminded that there are some Jews converted to Christians. They call themselves Christian Jews or converted Jews. But if you would listen to them and read their writings, you would find that a major part of their writing is an apology, a promotion, and exultation of the Jews themselves. Is he really a Christian, or is he a man who uses his words against Christendom and protects the enemies of Jesus and the Christians? (anyone who appends or prefixes anything with Jew or Judeo-, is not talking about Christians or Christianity!).

The Lord hath made all things for Himself. Yea, even the wicked for the day of evil. - Proverbs 16:4.

The end of the wicked is prophesied in all of the Bible. How dare we say we can convert the wicked when God says they are born estranged from God. He says in Proverbs 4:16, For they sleep not, except to have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

God here is speaking of a people who are so wicked that they lie in their bed and cannot sleep unless they can find some way to do evil and wicked upon someone else.

We better get this straight. Much of the evil that is falling upon us is because we believe the lie that everyone can be converted and become a Christian—so therefore we don't oppose them. No! God Almighty says He created the wicked and the waster (Isaiah 54:16) to destroy—and He says they were born that way.

We know from Scripture (from Psalm 68) that when God is present in Israel, and Israel convicted of sin, Israel turns to God. But here He says the wicked will actually perish—not be converted—but destroyed.

Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross. Psa. 119:119. and verse 155 says, Salvation is far from the wicked.

This false doctrine of 'love' is taught in so many of the churches—and we see it in the news media, and so on—that Christians are supposed to be meek and mild and love everyone, and turn the other cheek and never do anything against anybody. Who is telling us that? False Christians! The enemy! The wicked! Because the Bible says David said of God's enemies (Psalm 139:22) I hate them with a perfect hatred. I count them mine enemies, and David had the audacity to say in the next verses, Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. Apparently David considered his hatred of God's enemies as righteousness.

We must be eternally opposed to the enemies of God—Psalm 145:20—Proverbs 2:21-22. (as in those who blatantly show their despising of God's Law with Mardis Gras, and Gay Pride parades)

Remember what God told Rebecca: Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; (Gen. 25:23).

And we know that our people, in spite of how wicked we become, seem to have a conscience and will sometime confess their sins. We would hardly know that those kind of people exist on the earth unless we read God's Word.

All the way through Psalms and Proverbs and the rest of the Bible you will find the same thing: the mouth, the word, the lying tongue of the wicked is their destructive force (Proverbs 11:11, etc), it overthrows families, nations, - it is the propaganda they use.

When the Christian people turn away from what they are supposed to do, what happens? The wicked come along and with 'their' words they destroy them/Christians.

We Christians are the ones God has given the responsibility to maintain and uplift society... Most of the preaching you hear in (Judeo-)Christian churches today is that the world is not their home, they are going off to heaven (but they can't tell you where that is).

That is the most destructive doctrine to place in the minds and hearts of Christian people. It forces them to abdicate their Christian responsibility, and instead of building and exulting Christian society, the wicked come in and destroy it with their lying words. The Christian has been neutralized, he's been taken out of the battle. By what? By doctrines taught in the name of Jesus and claimed to be of the Bible,

The teaching in the church pulpits is the main negative destructive force that is destroying Christian civilization. It is the wicked doctrines that are taught as if they are Bible doctrines, that neutralizes and destroys the effect of our Christian people for the good in the land.

That is why I believe Jude 3 said It was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. (not go along to get along)

What is God's answer for us to overcome the destruction of the wicked? CONTEND FOR THE FAITH. Preach God's Word. God's Word is the answer to all of these words of the enemy which are destructive.

Think we can destroy them by only preaching God's Word? No, the Bible says His Word will wound them. God's Word is primarily for our strengthening, for our shield, protecting us from their words. They will actually be destroyed by their own tongue falling upon themselves. I believe that literally, this is what's going to happen.

Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.-Psalm 5:10.

God will destroy the wicked by the things they do themselves. Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood. He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made. His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealings shall come down upon his own pate. - Psalm 7:14-16.

That which they intend to do to God's people will actually come back and fall on themselves. The Lord is known by the judgment which He executeth; the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Psalm 9:16.

I believe the wicked will be exposed and destroyed because of their own words—these swords and arrows they are now using against us.

But God shall shoot at them with an arrow [arrow is His word]; suddenly shall they be wounded. So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves; all that see them shall flee away. - Psalm 64:7-8.

The will expose themselves more than we ever would. The enemy is going to continue to live among us, to overcome us, to destroy us, and to blaspheme our Anointed King, as long as we hide God's Word.

Once we expose God's Word as Gideon did, by destroying the vessels, false doctrines, that hide God's Word, we break the false doctrine, expose God's Word, and the enemy will be wounded. Then he will turn literally upon himself.

I think God is going to disarm them by causing their words to injure themselves instead of Israel. Their own words will destroy them.

So let's not fear their words, let's not fear the enemy, let's preach God's Word, Let's believe God. And God will take care of this in His time. Let us do our job. Let the waster God has created to do his job until God is through with him.

Our Father, we thank you for the hope in Thy Word. The end is coming upon the wicked. Father, we pray for strength, we pray as David did that you will help us not be afraid of the enemy, to speak Thy Word in truth and righteousness and tell Israel Thy truths and to believe that You will bring these things to pass. We thank you in Jesus' name, Amen.

Please note that because of declining book sales, as titles are sold out, they will not be restocked. Many books have been on the shelves for too long, and some are suffering from age, as the glue in the binding starts letting go. If you wish to get books for yourself or as gifts, I would suggest acting quickly. Some books, as they are sold out, we would like to put into PDF format, so they can still be read. But availability of time will be a constraint.

Also, remember that there are many excellent messages available on discs, and are more suitable for study purposes than having a physical preacher to listen to, as you can't pause, rewind, and go over portions again, and don't miss anything if you have to pause for interruptions. There are many different speakers and many topics covered, and you can pick what you want to listen to. A very good recent disc was by Gary DeMar, 'Why it Might Be Okay to Eat Your Neighbour,' U-405, as listed on page 4. Yes, we know that some of the material contains errors false doctrines, but we have tried to have as little of that as possible, and you can't go tear pages out of an otherwise useful book. We trust that you have been enlightened enough to be able to discern the good from the bad, and skip over parts that aren't appropriate. Never, ever, take what anyone tells you as "the truth," without checking it against other known sources. The quickest way to be deceived is to believe everything that you are told. Preachers lie, teachers lie, schools lie, university professors lie, even the news media lie - maybe not all intentionally, because they too, were lied to when they were educated. But it is on you to verify the information given you. Recently the media in America portrayed a criminal as white, but they had coloured his face, because he was actually black. But to portray him as black was not politically correct.

Marriage is not something that was instituted by government, so government has no right to usurp authority over the concept of marriage, or of the definition, as both are biblically-based. In fact, in a society that bases most of its beliefs on evolution, there is really no need for government, as that also is a biblical concept. They can't have it both ways, either follow the Bible as God's Word in all that it says, or follow evolution - no government, no courts, no police, no right and wrong, no justice, no morals, just the survival of the fittest, dog-eat-dog.

My health fluctuates from day to day, good days and bad days. We thank and praise the Lord for every day we are given. May He continue to bless, guide and protect you,
