"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." HOW TO BRING DOWN THE BAALS, PT 4 by late Pastor Mark Downey

Scripture reading: Judges 6:25-32

If it looks like a duck, swims like a duck and quacks like a duck, we have at least to consider the possibility that we have a small aquatic bird of the family anatidae on our hands. Can we say that it's probably a duck? Can we say with 100% certainty that it is indeed a duck? Someone might put forth the allegation that we in Christian Identity are duck hunters and they would be right. But, it's not necessarily the small aquatic bird variety. If it looks like the 12 elements of Baal worship given in Part 3, we can not only say it probably is the worship of Baal, but that it is also a perfect match. There is no reason not to believe that it is alive and well in the churches and synagogues from which churchianity gets its cues. This begs the question for the true believer: could we bring down the Baals?; should we bring down the Baals? Would we dare bring down the Baals? If you are in the affirmative, then welcome to the duck club.

Before the holy quartermaster issues you your ammunition, let me emphasize that we are dealing with a particularly dirty and unclean bird. In Revelation 18:2, the depravity of Baal worship is described as "The habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird." The figurative language is conveying the idea of utter desolation, which begins with the words, "And is become," pointing to a complete destruction on par with ancient Babylon. But the modern prophetic allusion is made to an economic-religious consortium of papal Rome, jews and those crazy fundamentalist churches who want to jump on that bandwagon. Put together, it is a state of mind that has drawn all sorts of men and heathen into spiritual adultery; forsaking and making merchandise of the true God, by which the mixed multitude have lived deliciously in the self serving luxury of wickedness. Fair warning is given to all that expect mercy from God, that they should not only come out of this beast system, but assist in its destruction.

But the enemy has planted the field with mines in the psychology of false guilt, changing the names of the guilty to protect the guilty. Thomas Jefferson may have been a little cynical when postulating about this minefield saying, "Millions of innocent men, women, and children, since the introduction of Christianity, have been burned, tortured, fined, and imprisoned, yet we have not advanced one inch toward uniformity. What has been the effect of coercion? To make one half of the world fools and the other half hypocrites." I get a steady salvo of SIED's (spiritually improvised explosive devices), which Baal worshippers email me all the time, expecting me to repent of not being a Baal worshipper like them. For example, got this one the other day, "It greatly saddens me that not only are you incredibly ignorant, but feel the need to spread the hateful anti-Semitic ideology. You make me ashamed to be white and catholic. Luckily you'll be dead in the next few decades and hate mongers such as yourself seem to be disappearing at an almost exponential rate. Jesus was not only a Jew, but he loves you and will forgive you for your judgement and hatred, for judgement and punishment is the lords responsibility and not one of our own. I don't expect you to suddenly stop preaching hate and lies, I just wanted to remind you that it's never too late to have a loving relationship with the lord for he is almighty and forgiving. God is good and we should try our best [to be] good Catholics, not Jew haters." There must be a template where people like this insert a dime and get their 5 minutes of gratification for chastising someone like me. This is so stereotypical of the generation that has reached an apex of apostasy. It is a time where good and evil are reversed. When self righteousness exceeds the righteousness of God, the Land-Lord of the earth moves in to lawful action to evict those who insist upon the witchcraft of rebellion, who persecuted the prophets and who today speak all manner of evil against the saints falsely.

The gods of Baal want us to come out of true worship, to be drawn away from obedience to the God of Israel. They want people like us to keep our mouths shut, so that we're estranged from the power of God. But, our getting back in touch with God will change everything. We will bring down the Baals by coming out of her planned plagues. The preparations of the beast are many and varied in order to enslave the entire world, but God is in control and if you know what to look for, the Baals have already begun to fall like dominos in slow motion. What's going on in the world is priceless to the observant Christian. Unless one is completely amoral and brain dead, the following current events of Baal in the news should be self evident and a good reason to aid and abet in bringing down the gods of sin and death.

Unless one is living in a cave, the biggest story in the news is the Penn State scandal. Nothing could be more heinous and despicable than child rape, except perhaps 'trial by media' for such a crime, dispensing with 'innocent until proven guilty' and therefore a harbinger for a broader assault on our civil liberties. What is disturbing is what's not being said or reported. Let's go duck hunting. Who is Graham Spanier? Besides the names of Sandusky, Paterno and McQueary, did you know that the most powerful jew on campus and president of Penn State was also fired by the Trustees because of "public pressure." Spanier, whose parents escaped Nazi Germany, ran the state's largest academic institution with a $4.3 billion budget. There are 5,000 jewish students at Penn State. Spanier was a major broker for bringing in jewish money for academics and football. The American Jewish Committee honored Joe Paterno earlier this year for his philanthropic work and support of interfaith programming on campus. When he was fired, it caused riots on campus, giving a perplexing image of students as to whether they thought football was more important than child rape. It seems to me though that the worship of Baal and the worship of football are pretty much the same god.

Greek CI scholar William Finck made a visit to this area this year and wrote an article titled 'Philthadelphia' in which he observed, "There is in Philadelphia an area where the street signs have rainbow-colored bars along their bottom borders. This demarcates the so-called "gayborhood", as the locals often proudly call it: a municipal government's promotion of sexual deviancy in an apparently desperate attempt for more tourist dollars ... It is openly promoted as both a living area and a recreation center for such sexual deviants. This is the fulfillment of the jewish idea of liberty. This is the jewish concept of "freedom," freedom to be a perverted sexual deviant... These street signs amount to a government-approved promotion of sodomy, and they are a large black mark on the spiritual well-being of the nation just as horrible as the perverted idea of "gay marriage" and the realization of other deviant agendas. God is not mocked, and the jews, aliens and deviants who have made Philthadelphia the sewer that it is today shall not escape His wrath. He went on to say, "With a confluence of jews in Philadelphia from the earliest times, and with the importance which the city has to White American culture, it should be no surprise that the preponderance of new monuments in Philadelphia are jewish monuments. With wars both economic and military, White Christian America has been in a downward spiral ever since the jewish bankers have been allowed control of the American economy - and therefore of American politics... jews have come to dominate all American business, politics, and culture... jews have long dominated Philadelphia." I might add to this cultural stain upon our American heritage, that jews have an entirely different religious appreciation of child rape and sodomy as their holy book, the Talmud, puts forth the sanction as follows, "Intercourse with a boy nine years old is not considered a significant sexual act" (BT Ketubot 11b); "A child less nine years old cannot be [considered] the object of sodomy."

Why then didn't any adults at Penn State stand up to the accusations of pedophilia on their watch? It's because there were no Christian standards, only the gods of football and money. The Grand Jury has opened a Pandora's Box of what has started out as an embarrassing collegiate scandal, which is now escalating to a higher level of a possible pedophile ring similar to Sen. John de Camp's expose' in 'The Franklin Cover-up' and may be a thousand times worse if you have jews and/or their cohorts constantly covering up for an aristocracy of sexual perverts who live the Baal lifestyle. Universities are notorious left wing breeding grounds for sin, where the fruits of liberalism can more easily accommodate the cults of abominations. It should outrage the sensibilities of White Christian America. It should bring down the goalposts of deified sports for the sake of decency and social order. Is anyone in the media or the churches calling for what God prescribes for sodomites or pedophiles in His Law? If we don't bring these Baals down, they will bring us down. How do we bring the Baals down here? We ask the right questions and demand the truth, not a hysteria controlled by the media, who itself is engaged in a much more massive cover-up. We need an investigation. What? You say Penn State has hired former FBI Director Louis Freeh to uncover the truth about the horrific child abuse crimes there? Isn't he the same jew who supervised the Ruby Ridge assassination of Vickie Weaver, an unarmed Christian Identity mother holding a baby in her arms and her 14 year old boy, Sammy, shot dead? Wasn't the jew Louis Freeh responsible for the conflagration in Waco and told us they did it for the children, while 19 children were incinerated? We need to investigate those who cause their sons and daughters to pass through the fires of Molech.

Apparently Coach Joe Paterno and Louis Freeh have something in common: both are associated with the Knights of Columbus, a conduit for jews to enter the Jesuit's Opus Dei (a quasi secret organization known for political intrigue and intelligence gathering), which has been the object of many child sex abuse complaints. Victims of pedophile priests consider the Knights of Columbus an enemy in their struggle to hold the Catholic Church accountable. Although Freeh is a jew, he attended St. Catherine of Siena Opus Dei Parish and sends his son to the private Opus Dei school for boys, 'The Heights' in Potomac, Maryland. There is mounting suspicion that Jerry Sandusky is a crypto-jew, who has received a coach of the year award from the Knights of Columbus and as we already know, protected by Paterno. Thomas Doyle, who is recognized as one of the most experienced lawyers in the area of clerical sexual abuse, speaking about the Knights of Columbus and their financial support of catholic pedophile priests said, "They have supported priests and bishops in their moral bankruptcy and in their destruction of the bodies and souls of the victims of abuse." We need to biblically prosecute them and when found guilty, put a rope around their necks and hang them before they hang us... for hunting ducks without a license.

BABYLON

One of the most famous cities in the Bible, which was an empire that dominated the ancient world as a center of trade, military power, culture and religion. It was a symbol of decadence and corruption. Now, Babylon is rising again on the Mesopotamian plain, which has captured the attention of professors and Bible scholars alike. What significance has this for us today and why does the legacy of Babylon continue to fascinate us?

And why is it that another scandal is happening in Europe, but goes unreported in the US? In October (2011) the German press reported that the company Weltbild, the second largest bookselling company in Germany, 100% of the shares of which are owned by the German Catholic Bishops Conference and a dozen other dioceses have been outed for peddling over 2500 porn titles and additional books highly offensive to Christian principles, promoting Satanism, the occult, esoterism and anti-Christian atheist propaganda. Moreover, the bishops are also 50% owners in another company, which actually produces pornographic novels. The annual turnover in profits is $1.7 billion. The outrageous part of this scandal is that after 10 years of Catholics who knew what was going on and issued a 70 page dossier, sent to all of Germany's bishops in 2008, imploring them to end the porn business out of public view, were treated with silence and spiteful arrogance. Why didn't they listen? They are priests... yes, but the priests of Baal. They are attached to that same vulgar and rotten religious institution in Rome that paid out billions of dollars to silence the victims of child rape and to cover-up the extent of Baalism in the church. I can hear the priestcraft saying, "I'm not a duck!!!!!"

Now the best thing these faithful Catholics there and the love-filled judeo-Christians here can say about what to do with these sexual perverts, who have destroyed and scarred the innocent youth of our children, which can never be remedied with restitution, is to put them in prison for the rest of their miserable lives. [NSW is introducing legislation to jail serial child sex offenders for life] .And because they will not honor the pain and suffering of a child of true Israel, they cannot call themselves Christian. So how do we bring the practitioner of Baal, the sodomite, the pedophile to justice? We execute the Law of God as the law of the land. I know that's easier said than done, but we'll take a look at how Gideon fared in a bit for a better insight.

But, there's one more news item that supersedes the feeding of hogs with aborted fetuses. It looks like 'Soylent Green' was not just a movie, but a premonition. I know this sounds outrageous, but the high priests of Baal figure they are above suspicion if what they do is beyond belief and so horrific that those exposing them are viewed as deranged. A pro-life group called 'Children of God for Life', a watchdog organization that follows the use of aborted fetuses in commercial products, has claimed that the company Senomyx, specializing in the research and development of "artificial flavors", is using aborted fetus and human embryonic kidney cells to supposedly enhance the taste of food products. Many national name brands are Senomyx customers. When confronted with documentation, Campbell (Soups), to their credit, immediately stopped using their artificial flavors. For those Baal worshippers of judeo-churchianity who just cannot believe anybody could ever be so evil (except for maybe Hitler), then ask yourself why hasn't Senomyx sued the 'Children of God for Life' for libel? Surely such a Goliath corporation of wealth and power could shut them up if it wasn't true [although now, in many cases truth is not considered a defence]. Moreover, I find it just as disturbing that the mainstream media has been completely silent about it. I suppose it shouldn't come as any big surprise since there is a symbiotic relationship between media and its advertisers, the merchants of the earth. I did a little investigating on my own. I found out that Senomyx was founded by prominent jewish biochemist Lubert Stryer in 1999. In May 2001 Stryer returned to his professorship at Stanford University and resigned from Senomyx, but he remains Chairman of the Scientific Advisory Board. When the 'Children of God for Life' confronted Senomyx with the inhumane and unethical science which they were actively engaged in, the only response they got was silence. Baal, all sugar-coated for the lusts of the flesh, is being shoved down the throat of the prime target market: the White race. There is also a direct link between these biotech industries and Big Pharma, that puts a big push on vaccinating our children with concoctions from aborted babies. All the more reason to bring down these Baals.

The churches are real big on tolerance as most anti-christ things don't seem to be an immediate threat to their well being. But, they preach a 'Christianized' form of Hindu tolerance, a communion of light and darkness, which always makes life intolerable for the White man. We weren't created to tolerate the darkness of the world; we are children of the Light. The pied pipers of the 1960's sang 'all you need is love.' But, the dark secret is that they loved money more than the truth, and they're now running the show. The scales are dramatically imbalanced between materialism and spirituality. Why are the Baals so loved and venerated? Why don't more ministers preach about what the Bible has to say about Baal worship? Well, it would come too close to home; it's better for their 501k retirement fund - to just keep the sheep in ignorance. I use II Chron. 19:2 quite often to impress upon our adversaries in the church world, the hypocrisy of their position and the damnation they bring upon themselves i.e. "Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord."

The churches are full of these effeminate lovey-dovey Baal priests whom Paul describes in I Timothy 6:3-5, "If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmising, perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness; from such withdraw thyself." Good people shouldn't have to go to bad churches to listen to the trash about missionary outreach to God forsaken countries, feeding and clothing the ungodly savages and loving the enemies of God or fellowshiping with people who are proactive sinners during the other six days of the week. If you want to talk about love, keep the commandments of God (I John 5:3), for without the Law there is no judgment for the egregious sinner to repent. We judge the Baal worshipper so that they may stand corrected and not perish in their wanton conceit.

Paul is also telling us about the evil consequences of following the Baals in II Timothy 4:1-4, "I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His Kingdom; preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." Are we there yet? Most of the people who get a whiff of Christian Identity can't endure the uncompromising truth of the Word of God. We don't have any Joel Osteens in our movement. Our message is so non-conformist to the establishment church that they would rather hear sweet fairy tales. "They profess that they know God, but in works they deny Him, being abominable and disobedient and unto every good work reprobate" Titus 1:16. Do you think bad things are happening to America, because the Word is being denied and the elements of Baal are being glorified? Or do you think bad things are happening to us because we're such a God fearing and righteous nation?

I happened to catch a commercial the other day for ChristianMingle.com, which purported to have 5 million members and I thought this can't be good. I thought I saw a race mixed couple, but it went so fast I couldn't tell; maybe it was meant to be a subliminal. So I went to their website and couldn't find too many pictures because you had to subscribe. But I did find their commercial on YouTube and sure enough the first couple was Asian and Caucasian. This prompted further investigation to see who the CEO is. Christian Mingle is owned by Spark Networks and it's CEO is Greg Liberman, a Jew who is raking in about $40 million a year for the company. Doesn't "mingle" mean mix? In both the OT and NT that's exactly what it means. It's interesting that the universalist/catholic Douay-Rheims Bible uses this word mingle in Lev. 21:15 thusly, "Neither shall he mingle his seed among his people", which suggests mongrelization. The KJV renders it, "Neither shall he profane his seed." These are poor translations to understand the significance of race mixing ala Baal worship, but in Hosea 7:8 we find the same mixing/mingling, "Ephraim, he hath mixed [mingled] himself among the people." The New Living Translation does not mince words and gets to the main thrust of the sin thusly, "The people of Israel mingle with godless foreigners, making themselves... worthless." How do we know these foreigners are of another race? The next verse says, "Strangers have devoured his strength" which is the 'zuwr' stranger (H#2114 in Strong's) i.e. a racial alien. But a more obvious question is how do we mix our seed with our own race? It's impossible. Mingling is an element of Baal worship. How do we bring down these gods of Baal? We don't subscribe to judeo-churchianity dating services. We recognize that there is nothing Christian about miscegenation. (in the Law it's called Adultery, Ex. 20:14)

It's obvious from Scripture that the great whore of Babylon and her judeo churches of satanic influence are going to be destroyed by more than just a boycott, they're going down violently. Jesus said, "All they that take the sword shall perish with the sword" Mt. 26:52. Israel was entering the Promised Land just like we're going to enter the Kingdom, a land filled with Canaanites and Baal worshippers, and God did not tell them to go in there proselytizing the heathen. Our God, not the Baal god of effeminate phileo love, gave our race instructions in how to get rid of them.

"And when the Lord thy God shall deliver them before thee [in other words this was a joint venture]; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them; nor show mercy unto them" Deut. 7:2. We are confronted with the same enemy today that Baal worshippers have befriended and we know, according to James 4:4, "Friendship of the world is enmity with God." We are not the world, we are Israel. "But this is what you are to do to them, ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire" (mosques, synagogues, buddhist temples, sacred sites, rock painting, etc) Deut. 7:5. They don't want to recognize these kinds of verses that affect their bottom line, their modern equivalents of the tables in the temple that Jesus overthrew.

After reiterating these 7 sins of Canaan in Lev. 20, God says to put these people to death. This is God's way of destroying Baal worship. The NT churches say, "No, no, no, we're not under the OT law anymore... we don't put people to death because we're under grace... the only law is love." A pretty cool deal for a pedophile, getting to spend the rest of their life in prison with 3 meals a day and no rent. We read about the aftermath of Mystery Babylon's destruction (which was an institution of Baal worship) in Rev. 19:11 of Christ riding in on a white horse declaring, "In righteousness He doth judge and make war." In other words, doing what is right is military action; all other means of reconciliation have been exhausted. Would to God, our people get this through their head: there is a war! Jesus Christ is the commander-in-chief leading His obedient warriors to victory. It's not as the Rapture futurists lead people to believe that it's coming, when in fact the war is here now and will culminate with the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. The Second Coming or the return of Christ is not to convert Baal worshippers, but to kill them. Who is going to argue with Luke 19:27 (FF), "Then as to those enemies of Mine, who did not want Me to reign over them, bring them here and execute them in My presence." I can hear the Baal priest now, "Ahh, Jesus I don't think this is a very good idea" or "Jesus, this doesn't show much love."

Where would we be today if Abraham withheld his knife from Isaac? No covenant! Isaac was not an adversary of God and God spared his life. But Luke 19:27 is going to test our obedience; the life of the adversary will not be spared. The Bible says they're not going to get away with it; the gates of hell must surely prevail against the false church. When you come right down to it, the primary purpose of a Christian nation, such as America once was, is to execute judgment upon the inhabitants of the land who refuse to honor and obey the law of the land. This is NT theology. When did God tell us to surrender to the Baals? Where does the Bible command us to mingle? We have to get rid of the notion that just because somebody says they're a Christian minister, doesn't make it so. If they preach what Baal espouses, then they're dirty filthy unclean birds and it's open season on the bastards. "Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works, but thou shalt utterly overthrow them and break down their images" Ex. 23:24.

Newt Gingrich said at the GOP debate last week (11-22-11), "I don't see how the party that says it's the party of the family is going to adopt an immigration policy which destroys families that have been here a quarter-century." I guess this bleeding heart CFR stooge has never read God's Word that says these illegal or legal aliens, "Shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against Me; for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee" Ex.23:33. Hey Newt... the party's over; Baal politicians that bless the families of other races, curse the families of the White race and according to the Abrahamic Covenant, God will curse them who curse us (Gen. 12:3).

Why don't more Christians protect and defend the Faith? I don't believe pacifism establishes a civilized society. The church is pathetically sold on the idea of tolerance and religious freedom to the demise of our own Christian culture. Do you think our founding fathers would give credence to such absurdities as voodoo, Wicca or Satanism? Since Baal worship practices infanticide, cannibalism, perversions against nature etc, and it has become pervasive and normal, should it be a matter of religious freedom? They're getting bolder with that concept every day.

I know that what I propose in order to bring down the Baals is not an easy proposition and I'm not telling anyone to go out and start shooting. I'm well aware of someone saying, "OK Pastor Downey... you first." As many of you know I ran for the state legislature several times and my platform was to obey the Law of God and to undo the laws of man that were contrary to Scripture. I went so far to publicly call for the execution of sodomites. The newspaper headline read 'Downey calls for the gallows for gays.' Well, their agenda is just as radical in the eradication of the traditional nuclear family and a pogrom of genocide against the White race. We still have a modicum of free speech, but it is dissolving quickly. So there's nothing they can do to stop me from preaching the Bible or running for office, even though the system is rigged. The day the Baals start to come down is the day we run out of alternatives and have nothing to lose. It's somewhat like the confidence in Federal Reserve Notes; everybody wants it, but everybody knows it's funny money. The money bubble is going to pop and the con game will be over. The only thing left will be a Jubilee year. I have said for years that the shooting will begin when there is no doubt in the collective mind that it is time. The enemy is fighting hard to pacify stout Christian warriors. But, we have the descendants of Gideon in the world today and his spirit lives on. Let's take a closer look at today's Scripture reading in Judges 6:25-32.

The Lord called Gideon to fight the Midianites. I think God will call some of you listening to this message to fight the Jews or the Mexicans or black gangbangers or maybe a Chinese invasion. For 7 years the Midianites had been raiding the land of Israel and keeping them subdued by a scorched earth policy, so Gideon was called by God to deliver His people from the heathen. However, before he went out on a military campaign, his faith was to be tested. Some of us may be in a testing of sorts right now. God tested him to tear down his father's altar to Baal and build an altar to the Lord in its place. This was no small job. These altars were large stone constructions. Archaeological excavations have revealed a Canaanite altar to Baal measuring more than 25 feet across and 5 feet high. It took 10 men and a bull to pull down Gideon's father's altar to Baal. A huge wooden image of Ashteroth was also cut down. His test of faith was being a faithful witness to his own family and community before he could move on to bigger things.

Gideon was scared. I was trying to think of an analogy and I thought of that Martin Luther King memorial in Washington DC with a modern-day Gideon in one of those humongous Caterpillars, like the ones we send to IsraelIE that demolish Palestinian homes in 5 minutes. Gideon feared for his life. But, he found a way to obey God; he brought down the Baals at night instead of in broad daylight. Likewise, we should find a way. Where there is God's will, there's a way. God picked Gideon because he refused to worship the Baals of his father. He was threshing wheat in his hideout to keep it from the Midianites... he was a tax protestor, a tax evader! God choose a timid weak youngster to send a message throughout the land that he was about to rescue His people Israel. The next morning, the men of the city wanted to kill Gideon for what he did, but Joash (Gideon's father), as a result of his son's faith, realized that Baal was a powerless idol and he therefore defended his son's behavior before the community. Contrary to what the judeo-church believes, God is not going to use opulent mega-churches or a Christian Disneyland to feed the sheep of Israel with the true gospel of Jesus Christ. Instead he will handpick a few good people like Gideon. 144,000 servants who will not be arrogant fancy preachers, but ordinary Christians who know how to obey. Idols are anything that takes the place of God in a believer's life.

We will never be successful in spiritual warfare, in tearing down the altars of Baal if our priorities are in conflict with God's agenda. The lesson is that the idols of our heart must go before the Midianites can be fought. There can't be two altars in your life. Any altar to Baal must be torn down or you fail the test. The Lord will test your faith in an area that is close to your heart. Gideon not only tore down the altar to Baal, he replaced it with an altar to the Lord. When God called Jeremiah, He told him not only to pull down and destroy, but to also plant and build (Jer. 1:10). Are you tearing down all deceivableness of unrighteousness and also lifting up the love of truth? If you are, then you're more than a conqueror; you will be able to stand against Babylon and "Reward [retaliate] her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works... so much torment and sorrow give her" (Rev. 18:6-7). God promises those that stay with the Baals must receive of their plagues.

Christians will be involved in bringing down the Baals. Are you ready to punish evildoers? racial amalgamation in the name of religion will be subject to the sovereignty of Jesus the Christ our Kinsman Redeemer, the racial Savior of Israel, and our kinsmen will either "Come out of her", that bastard imposter of holiness, or those whose Christ's blood has cursed, upon their children forever, along with those churches who oppose and exalt themselves above all that is called God will be destroyed. These gods of 'self' would crucify Christ all over again in the name of Baal, if it infringed on their self gain.

Israel abandoned God and merged with the hedonistic gods of the racial alien, because the Baals, unlike the God of Heaven, gave people the freedom to do whatever the hell they wanted... and so the gates of hell prevailed. The ancient sports and entertainment and sensual pleasures of fertility cults are now the sophisticated Madison Avenue churches of Baal. When Gideon died, the next generation prostituted themselves to the Baals all over again. If Israel's history proves anything, it proves how quickly and how easily so many people can be manipulated to turn away from obeying God, because of their unbelief. The Baal priests have made sure that the Law and the prophets have been mistranslated, misinterpreted and purposefully misunderstood. We would do well to take note of this fact as we draw near to that Great Day of the Lord. I'm amused at the emails I get from these poor souls who are so badly misinformed, that tell me that I'm going to hell for being a racist, while I watch the integrity of God's Creation go down a sewer and life on earth becomes a living hell, thanks to the Baal worship of judeo-churchianity. There was a sign... on a church reader board I saw the other day that said, "Staying in bed, shouting oh God! Does not constitute going to church." The irony is that most people who go to a church without a racial consciousness, need to awaken from their slumber of carnal pleasures.

King Ahab got his come-uppance, his rewards for placing the Baals in the land. The prophets Elijah and Jehu killed about a thousand priests of Baal and slayed all the sons of Ahab. Bill and Hillary Clinton couldn't be a more perfect Ahab and Jezebel ministered by the Baal priest to presidents, Billy Graham. History repeats itself. Why should their fate be any different? The same pattern is repeated in the yet to be fulfilled prophecy of Gog and Magog, where God will not be pleading for their conversion, but rather their complete physical destruction. As the Kingdom of God approaches and Baal worship comes to an end, Zephaniah devotes his prophecy to the destroying of strongholds, those that never sought the Lord, those who proclaimed God is dead and will cut off a remnant of Baal (suggesting that an extermination of idols has already begun). Zeph. 1:5 refers to bipolar Israelites that worship and swear by the Lord and also swear by Malcham (Baal), just like the oxymoron 'judeo-Christian.'

Evidently, Jesus knew there were going to be these kind of people at the end of the age who profess to be Christian and brag about how great they are, but they're not going to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus will tell them, "Get away from Me, you evil people" Mt. 7:21-23. Yes, this day is coming for Baal worshippers; a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of waste and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, the mighty man

(the antichrists, plural) shall cry there bitterly (Zeph. 1:14-15). There will be no Rapture or pre-trib nonsense. The prosperity denominations will not purchase deliverance; their idols of gold and silver worship are cast to the moles and bats. There is no indication in Zephaniah or elsewhere in Scripture that the meek of earth, the saints of the Most High, the elect Remnant of Israel, the righteous and faithful believers in Jesus Christ are included in any of this destruction. I believe that our God delivers us from evil; from a godless New World Order, jewish communism, raging heathens, a perverse catholic hierarchy, elitists of Masonic-Illuminati conspiracies, the pagan occult and the monstrous permutations of Baal worship in judeo-churchianity. All of them are doomed for a final annihilation.

My wife heard a lady the other day speaking about Christmas and how she's just giving up on it this year, saying it's become so commercial, it's insanity, it's depressing, it's sick. The utter corruption and madness is what it's going to take for some people to come out of Babylon. The early church was the most powerful institution the world had ever seen! It exploded onto the world stage in the book of The Acts, chapter 2, and nothing had the power to stand against it. Pagan religions could not compete with it. Greek philosophy could not comprehend it. Persecution only made it grow. In 312AD, Constantine fighting for the throne of the empire prayed to the "supreme god" for help. This god was Mithras, the Persian sun god. He reportedly saw a vision of the Cross in the sky next to the sun, along with the words "conquer by this." He won this battle and then proclaimed he was a follower of Jesus, and now a Christian.

Constantine stopped all pagan sacrifices on pain of death, closed all pagan temples, destroyed many of them, and converted others to churches. He changed where the church worshipped from house churches to Basilicas. He changed when the church worshipped from Gods feasts and celebrations to pagan holidays and called them the new Christian holidays. He cut off the church from its Israelite roots and grafted it into the root of Greek paganism. Constantine claiming to be a Christian was a devoted follower of Mithras, the Persian sun god, the "unconquerable sun" i.e. Baal. When he saw the Cross in the sky next to the sun he apparently assumed that Jesus was a manifestation of Mithras. Though claiming to be a Christian, he worshipped pagan deities. He forced the church to follow his beliefs and practices. Mithras' birthday was celebrated December 25th.

Is this too hard to figure out? Let's tear down the Baal of Mithra and see if this god can do anything about it. Or are some people more interested in entertainment and feeling warm and fuzzy for the holidays? I pray that this Christmas season will be the reason for God to use the Midianites against the Baal worshippers for plunder, misery and chaos. The reason for the season is for the occult to operate in the shadows of darkness, orchestrating the worship of the Baals, the self-centered idols of the heart. God curses our nation for calling this evil good. Nothing hastens the ruin of our people, nor ripens them for judgment, more than their blatant disregard of the watchmen on the wall who implore them to have a change of heart and reformation.

ers could go to war. You have to fight the small battles before you can win the big war. Who will survive the final conflict of the ages before Christ returns to rule in His Kingdom? Zeph. 2:3 says, "Seek ye the Lord, all ye meek of the earth, who have kept His commands; seek righteousness and humility, so that you will be protected in the day of the Lord's anger." The principle that God will "Bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee" still holds true. It's just that it doesn't have anything to do with Jews. It pertains to the White race alone. Not only those who are against God, but those who hate the true Israel, will be slated for elimination. What's the end result of all this extermination? If there are no more usurpers of God's authority, the wicked of the world, who crown themselves and sit upon a throne as if they were God, what would you have left? You would have a rapture of the wicked, a removal of the Baals, and the only thing left behind on God's green earth would be the racially pure White man who only obeyed God, who did not bow the knee to Baal. The Gideon's militia will be rewarded. That is the purpose for which all of the events of this age are moving

I wonder with utter amazement at the length and breadth of institutional malevolence and the forbearance of God; the apostate church sinking lower than the godless third world and God's patience with so many partial calamities from earthquakes to floods to winds and not an entire end of the planet; for the sake of the elect, who do not turn to the traditions of man, but turn to God for their Salvation, which is a twofold blessing in the present time and for all eternity. It could be that no matter how much desolation God brings to a city or a nation, there will be some people who will not turn to the Lord. Perhaps, not until it's too late and God keeps His Word for the whole world. The harvest is upon us, the divisions between Christians and non-Christians, Whites and non-Whites increases with each passing day. It will be the end of Baalism. "The Son of Man shall send forth His messengers, and they shall gather up out of His Kingdom everything that causes people to sin and everyone who does evil" Mt. 13:41.

The message today is the same as it was 2000 years ago: "Repent, for the Kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Mt. 4:17). The enemies of God are in a quagmire. Their devious plans for controlling all the people of the world are being exposed. But, "We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose" Romans 8:28. The context and identity of 'the called' in this verse and chapter is found in verse 15, "For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear." This cannot mean all races, but rather the people of the Bible who go through generational cycles of apostasy to bondage to deliverance. History constantly repeats itself, because it is almost impossible for the next generation to possess the wisdom and experience of the former generation. The trappings of Baal have always had the ulterior motive to undermine God's chosen people. The global elitists thought they were going to reduce the world's population in half by the year 2000, but they do not control destiny. There is a divine timetable, however, that is on schedule.

God is going to pour out His indignation, with His voice will the earth shake terribly, to bring down the strongholds of Babylon... and those things which cannot be shaken will remain. Those who say there is no race, but only the human race, might as well say there is no God; for God is the Creator of 'kind after kind and there's some people who just aren't our kind of people. If Jesus was our example, then why weren't His 12 Disciples an example of multicultural diversity? They were all Benjaminites except for Judas and maybe his inclusion was to emphasize the man of perdition is not one of us.

In Deut. 30:19 we read, "I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curses, therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live forever." God makes things very plain and simple for our racial posterity, but our people are struck with this sense of foolishness to mix God with gods. Elijah called upon them to determine whether God or Baal was the one to follow. "How long will you hesitate between two opinions? If the Lord is God, follow Him; but if Baal, follow him. And the people answered him not a word" I Kings 18:21. At this juncture their minds seemed in equipoise and there was not a quack in the entire flock. However, such an opportunity presents itself now, through the mercy of God. Duck hunters... lock and load.

SATAN THE PRINCE OF THIS WORLD

By Pastor Ken Lent

There is nothing like time consuming distractions to prevent God's people from properly learning and teaching God's Laws for the family and nation. God's grace and Laws are the backbone of His Kingdom. If we are not focused on and dedicated to this Scriptural principle we lose most if not all of our calling to be stewards for righteousness in the Earth. Trying to repel supposed invisible devils, haunting ghosts, so called psychic fields or sci-fi lizard people is worse than a distraction. It is embracing false doctrine of which the Scriptures have much to warn against.

God's written Word tells us that there is no Big Devil Demon, Satanic Cosmic Mind, or King Serpent Lizard Man who is The Prince of This World. These ever popular but imaginary "trouble makers" are not taught anywhere in God's Word. Even when the Scriptures do mention 'satan' that word has to be correctly defined. This is the Hebrew word saw-tawn, which means adversary and it is used in many different Scripture applications and verses. It is merely a regular normal noun. However, when the translators of our English Bible capitalized this word from 'satan' (adversary) to "Satan" then a personal identity was thrust into the dictionary definition of that word. But nonetheless, there surely is an evil presence that has been an adverse force against Godly righteousness since recorded time.

Therefore, what is this adversary (satan) that is the god and 'prince of the world'? Centuries ago many people believed that vampires and werewolves were the "evil presence" that ruled the darkness of wickedness. Peculiar isn't it, that since we have come into the age of the space shuttle, home computers, and Captain Kirk, that vampires and werewolves have stopped their night attacks against the population at large. Now who has come out of the wood-work? Lizard serpents that can shape shift into human form, psychically dominate your sub-conscience, and are hundreds of years more technically advanced than the Earth people they are conquering by stealth. Yes, going "Hi-Tech" has produced some very worrisome adversaries. But, are these any more real than the now boring vampires and werewolves that have gone into hiding?

What does God's Word of truth tell us? Is the "evil prince" of this world a lizard god, a gigantic invisible psychic force, or a devil king? Let's open our Bibles to face the plain fact of what God has told us all along. The Scriptures clearly describe the adversary of righteousness as two things. 1) Sin in our flesh and 2) Wicked people who oppose God's government. God Himself can be "an adversary" if He is against us when we deserve it.

The word superstition is used only once in the Scriptures at Acts 25:19. It is when Paul is contending with the chief priests and elders of the jews, and those corrupt priests were interrogating Paul about "certain questions against him of their own superstition" (see verses 2, 5, 15, 25). In line with God's truth taught by Paul, that word we see as superstition here is the Greek word Dice-ee-daheee-mon-ee-ah, Strong's Greek Dictionary reference #1174 and 1175, which specifically means "fear of demons" (at 1169, 1142). 'Superstitious' is used only once as well in Acts 17:22; from the same Greek root words at #1169 (fearful) of #1142 (demons). Are we then to believe in that jewish doctrine? And why does God's Word in the original text refer to belief in evil spirit beings and/or entities and their forces as superstition, not to mention allowing this doctrine to evolve now into lizard psychic devil beings that are tailored to a 21st century sci-fi mindset?

For the truth seeking Christian, there is a great spiritual danger in letting one's understanding be overcome by this false judaic/papal/sci-fi teaching. That danger is a subtle but effective sabotage in one's heart, of the true reason why Christ came in the flesh, and of knowing the purpose of His salvation for us. God's Word consistently tells us that Jesus Christ came to destroy SIN that reigned in our flesh; and not to destroy an imaginary "serpent devil" or "psychic evil power."

It is upon this spiritual fact of being saved from sin that our salvation securely rests. When this truth is received, the door to defeating Christ's very real adversaries, ungodly people who hate His government, becomes unlocked as well. As the Scriptures teach, Jesus has enemies that actually are living beings, but these are mortal people with wicked dispositions who can be dealt with appropriately by lawful means. They are not spirit beings with mysterious powers and they are not controlled by a "cosmic vibratory influence" that makes them do bad things. They are simply carnal mortals who hate God and God's Laws and act accordingly.

Scriptures lay out the salvation truth and the 'Prince of this world' concisely. A very short review of exactly what sort of 'devil prince of darkness' it was that Christ destroyed by His crucifixion on the Cross, is as follows: (this is by no means a complete study)

Hebrews 2:14 "Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, He [Jesus] also Himself likewise took part of the same; that through death He might DESTROY HIM that had the power of death, that is, the devil."

Romans 6:6 "Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with Him [Jesus], that the body of SIN might be DESTROYED, that henceforth we should not serve sin."

Furthermore, what does the Bible teach concerning that which is the cause of death, the power of death, which entered into the world? A fallen angel devil, or maybe a New Age cosmic evil force, or an alien lizard god that entered the world? No, none of these are the cause of our death and problems. It's none other than sin:

Romans 5:12 "Wherefore, as by one man [Adam], sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned"

Romans 6:23 "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Master."

Plainly, as we see above, SIN (not an invisible devil entity) is the cause and power of death. But, "hold on" you might say, "my preacher says that The Devil is the Prince of this world". And just what is the 'prince of this world' that reigns in the evil of men's hearts? Is this prince a literal Devil called Satan as some teach? Again, no. God's Word itself explains its own symbolism. It is sin which is 'the prince who reigned' over the world:

John 12:27-31 (Jesus said) "Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour; but for this cause came I unto this hour. Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him. Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of Me, but for your sakes. Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the PRINCE OF THIS WORLD be cast out."

Praise God, the Scriptures teach that Christ came to cast out this "reigning prince", however this "prince" is the same thing that we just read in the verses above where Christ destroyed the "devil" at The Crucifixion, that is namely SIN.

Romans 5:21 "That as SIN HATH REIGNED unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Master."

Romans 6:16 "Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, HIS SERVANTS YE ARE to whom ye obey; WHETHER OF SIN unto death, or of obedi- ence unto righteousness?" (a really good example here of how the Bible personifies sin as a ruler, a reigning prince, and a "his").

Plus the Scriptures further explain that this "devil" who was condemned by the Cross of Jesus Christ, by which Cross that "devil" was destroyed and taken away from "his" rule, is actually sin itself. This is the salvation of the sacrifice of Jesus -- His triumph over sin, personified by the term we know as "the Devil". Christ didn't condemn and destroy a spirit Devil or a lizard invader, rather He condemned and defeated sin for us:

Romans 8:3 "For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh."

1 John 3:5 "And ye know that He was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin."

Yes, dear Christian brothers and sisters, Jesus the Christ was manifest in the flesh for the purpose of providing His kinsmen with the greatest of salvations: the destruction of sin in our flesh (the "devil") - by which destruction we are made pure unto eternal life in the eyes of our loving Heavenly Father. In that true salvation Christ has conquered SIN (the Prince of this world) for us, by which victory He has now set His servants free to teach His Kingdom government in the Earth with victory.

Adulterated doctrines about "Satan" and wasting valuable time in fighting an imaginary 'him/it' are obstructions to enforcing God's Kingdom Laws. The faithful ones in Christ have much to do at this time in history and need not be entangled with misdirecting influences of institutionalized church councils or internet opportunists pandering fear, rather "but speak thou the things which become sound doctrine" (Titus 2:1). As the Scriptures tell us, Christ destroyed sin's hold of death on us as He destroyed sin itself (the devil prince that reigned) on His Cross for all those whom He has chosen.

It is now our job to teach the Kingdom, God's government for the family and nation. Part of that teaching is to stand firm for sound doctrine, for unsound teachings can lead to a domino effect of many misdirected actions. The young people and the truly searching need your help in guidance. We are exhorted to earnestly contend for the faith once delivered to the saints (Jude 3). God declares that the 'prince of this world' is sin, and that it need not dominate our lives any longer. Sin is transgression of God's Law (1 John 3:4).

God bless in Jesus Christ our King,

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT RACISM

By Lawrence Blanchard, ND, MDiv

Since there is no word in the Bible such as "racism" or "racist," is there another word or concept that would be representative? To find out the answer, we must determine what "racism" means. So, let's do a little history lesson on this word.

History of "Racism"

In respect to the English language, "racism" or "racist" is a relatively new word. It did not exist until the 1930s. Interestingly, the Oxford English Dictionary did not even have an entry for the word until after 1971. The Second Edition, 1989, defined "racism" as "the theory that distinctive human characteristics and abilities are determined by race." Pretty benign compared to how it is used today.

Let's look at other definitions as an example of how the meaning of racism changed over time.

"A belief that race is the primary determinant of human traits and capacities and that racial differences produce inherent superiority of a particular race." (Webster's Seventh New Collegiate Dictionary, 1967)

This is a general definition, but unclear, as to the reasons why "race is the primary determinant of human traits . . ." Notice just twenty-one years later how the definition changed:

"1. A doctrine or teaching, without scientific support, that claims to find racial differences in character, intelligence, etc., that asserts the superiority of one race over another or others, and that seeks to maintain the supposed purity of a race or the races; 2. Any program or practice of racial discrimination, segregation, etc. based on such beliefs." (Webster's New World Dictionary, 1988) This definition of "racism" has changed from the earlier one by adding a qualifier of "without scientific support." In other words, if there is no scientific support for claims of "racial differences" or the assertion of "superiority of one race over another," or if one holds to the "practice of racial discrimination," and so forth, then one is engaged in racism and is a racist. But what if there is scientific support for racial differences? Would one be a "racist?" No, not according to this definition. In this case, one could assert the superiority of one race over another and practice racial discrimination and not be called a "racist" as long as he could show scientific support for conclusions about racial differences.

Yet another definition adds to the notion of "racism" by including "a policy of government" and the vagueness of "hatred or intolerance:"

"1. A belief or doctrine that inherent differences among the various human races determine cultural or individual achievement usually involving the idea that one's own race is superior. 2. A policy, a system of government, etc. based on such doctrine. 3. Hatred or intolerance of another race or other races." (Webster's College Dictionary, 1991)

This definition has dropped the qualifier of "scientific support" from the previous one and added some broader based, but subjective, qualifiers. What is "hatred" or "intolerance?" These have become arbitrary words of impression rather than definition.

What if one believed there were "inherent differences" between the races and, therefore, practiced racial discrimination and segregation for the benefit of his own race, but did not hate other races? Would he be a racist? No, not in the full sense of this definition. But then again, what does "hate" mean? Even this cursory review of dictionary definitions reveals a lack of consistency or exactness of definition of the word "racism." And without a more exact definition, the terms of "racism" or "racist" may not properly identify or categorize an individual who may be a racial separatist or segregationist for very good religious or scientific reasons.

Religion on "Racism"

Today, "racism" and "racist" are used and perceived as downright evil. For example, Southern Baptist Convention President Ronnie Floyd said,

"I believe that the issue of racism is from Satan and the demonic forces of hell. Racism is completely opposite from the message of Jesus Christ; it is completely opposite of the message of love, it is completely opposite of the message of dignity, value and the sanctity of human life. It is completely opposite of the message of reconciliation." – Nov. 5, 2015

Pretty strong words here. But it may represent the sentiments of Catholic and Protestant religions today.

Many pastors and scholars who believe that the Bible is the written word of God stand in defiance of "racism" because of one primary presumption: that all races originated from Adam. They have concluded that the Bible is a universally-applied book. It's about all races, they say. So, it only stands to reason that racism is to be hated and opposed – whatever "racism" means.

Theology Rules

But is it true that the Bible is about, and for, all races?

I used to believe that, but I asked the hard questions and then tried to be as objective as possible when I searched for the answers in the Bible. My conclusion: there is no evidence that all races came from Adam, nor is the Bible – the key people, historical events or covenants – inclusive of all races. No evidence. None.

That being said, I would also conclude that unless there is a definite and agreed upon meaning of "racism" or "racist" (since there are obviously many different ideas about it), we cannot determine if the Bible discusses the issue.

If, on the other hand, I am assigned the racism or racist label because I believe that the Bible is about one race of people among many, and that the Bible is not inclusive of all races, then call me what you will. But remember what Jesus said:

"You have heard that the ancients were told, 'You shall not commit murder' and 'Whoever commits murder shall be liable to the court.' But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be guilty before the court; and whoever says to his brother, 'You good-for-nothing,' shall be guilty before the supreme court; and whoever says, 'You fool,' shall be guilty enough to go into the fiery hell." – Matthew 5:21-22

You good-for-nothing, you fool – you racist! Be careful.

Let's be honest. "Racism" and "racist" are created words used against the White people to shame and blame them. They are used by unthinking people who basically don't know what they so confidently accuse another of.

Just stick with what the Bible says and means.

In the meantime, may I suggest another, more accurate definition of "racist":

"One who realizes that there are inherent differences between the races and makes choices about his life based on those differences."

CHRISTIANS CAVE TO A CONFUSED, CORRUPT CULTURE!

by Don Boys, Ph. D.

The early Christian churches captured and transformed the Roman Empire with the Gospel! Famous historian Will Durant wrote: "Caesar and Christ had met in the area and Christ had won." That would not be an accurate statement of contemporary Christianity in view of the major mischief of the U.S. Supreme Court recently, the Congress, and the President. It appears that the churches have lost their power, Christians have lost their purity, and the culture is in the pits. Christians have caved to the confused, corrupt culture and the reason is massive pulpit failure.

Many loosey-goosey preachers teach that Christians should be deeply involved with the culture: sing all the popular songs, attend all the vile Hollywood movies, watch the most popular television shows, wear the newest clothes (however seductive, ugly, and revealing they may be), and be able to "jive" with the most ungodly people even if normal listeners have no comprehension of what is said.

However, that is not the way it is supposed to be. Christians are not to be moved by the culture; they are to move the culture. That is not happening to day. Professing Christians, even membership of Bible-preaching churches, are among the most worldly, weird, even wicked people in town! Most show no shame at their ungodly life and even defend it! They rarely pray before and after meals, and even more rarely read the bible out loud to the family!

NOT AT ALL ASHAMED

The prophet asked in Jeremiah 6:15, "Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush." As years have passed, I have been surprised then shocked and stunned at what I have observed in good churches: the general worldly attitude, the aping of the world's dress standards, the use of four-letter words, the loose handling of the opposite sex even in public. I wonder if parents have tried to instill in their children any kind of character. When reproved, they usually are offended and hardly ever are ashamed. Is shame passé like guilt, gratitude, and grace?

Those who declare that "It's always been this way" are wrong. While there have always been some people without character, it has not been general until recent years. Early Christians influenced society by treating slaves, children, and women compassionately. Christians picked up abandoned babies as their own even when it was illegal to do so! Jesus placed women on a high pedestal and Paul continued to move the culture of his day. The early Christians "turned the world upside down!" (actually, they turned it the right way up) Pagan religions had the Empire by the throat and Christians broke that hold and destroyed the pagan religions with the truth. Jesus' birth even designates the date (BC/AD).

Jesus established the Good Samaritan ethic to sacrifice so as to help others who were suffering. He also told us to treat others the way we want to be treated. He taught His followers to be gracious and generous to less fortunate kinsmen. Moreover, He taught us to pray for our enemies (not His enemies) and do good to those who despitely

WHAT HAPPENED TO ISRAEL?

a study by Bob Hallstrom

"Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more... " 2 Sam. 7:10, 1042 BC.

use us. Such teachings changed the culture and set the tone for two thousand years. The emphasis on doing one's best, striving for success, developed into the university system of the Middle Ages; and the major left-leaning, anti-Christian, socialist, anything-goes universities were begun by the sacrificial giving of Bible-believing Christians. Such institutions today are without shame, spirituality, and little scholarship.

High standards of justice going back to the Old Testament and continuing into the New were unknown in Egypt, Ur, Nineveh, Greece, and Rome. Our world has been influenced far more by Jerusalem than Rome or Athens. But today the influence is Hollywood, New York, and Paris. Few Christians choose to be numbered as a "peculiar" people so they are just odd instead.

DR. JAMES DOBSON WAS TOO CONFRONTATIONAL

Jim Daley of Focus on the Family told the media it would be "foolhardy not to recognize that the culture is moving more" in the direction of support for same-sex marriage. He also signaled a willingness to work with abortion-rights groups to find common ground on adoption. Such is the successor of Dr. James Dobson who was forced out of Focus for being too confrontational with the culture. Daley doesn't understand that Christians are supposed to challenge, confront, and change the culture!

Recently the head of Exodus International apologized for his stand against homosexuality and their attempt to help sodomites become normal, decent people. He and his board closed down their work (1976 - 2013) and faded into the corrupt culture. One reason given for the shutdown is that the culture is changing. Sure it is because of people like him who have no anchor and no chart to guide them. Most Christians are mental zombies gorging junk food in front of the television set. Seeking liberty, such carnal Christians bounce from liberty to license to licentiousness.

H.L. Hastings, in 1844, visited the Fiji Islands and was shocked to find that a human could be bought for $7.00 (or a musket), less than the price of a cow! Moreover, the purchased human could be beaten, worked to death then eaten. Then, the Gospel came to the islands and about 1200 churches were established and no human could be bought for any price. The true Gospel changes the culture.

During WWII, on a remote Pacific Island, an American soldier met an English-speaking native carrying a Bible. The G.I. pointed to the Bible and sneered, "We educated people don't put much faith in that Book anymore." The islander grinned, patted his own belly saying, Well, it's a good thing for you that we do, or else you'd be in here by now." Jesus changes the culture but modern Christians have been moved by the culture into a corrupt, cowardly, compromising life.

Christians should not only be right when the world is right but be right when the world is wrong. We don't want or need a church that moves with the world but a church that moves the world. There is movement today but movement is not always progress. All movement seems to be in the wrong direction. At least in the U.S.A. ♦

THE NAME OF THE LORD IN VAIN

Late Ed Sommerville

Most people, including Christians have been led to believe that this commandment is referring to one that curses and uses the name of God or Jesus Christ in doing so. That however, is not what this commandment is about, as that comes under the term blasphemy.

This commandment is all about someone that takes an oath under God either to tell the truth or abide by the oath he swore to keep. Every politician has placed his hand on the Bible and swore to uphold and defend the Constitution. This also applies to those in the military and law enforcement. Needless to say, it includes the oaths taken at the marriage contract.

The problem that exists today is, the oaths taken by our politicians, our military and many times in law enforcement are quickly forgotten and ignored the minute they take office. In the last 100 years almost every bill passed has been unconstitutional, as we can see our freedoms gradually taken away by our domestic enemies, as they are only concerned about our foreign "enemies," which we are at war with now, that pose no threat to our freedom or safety.

Because of the ungodly Patriot Act and Homeland Security, our patriots, Christians and former military men are regarded by this government as potential terrorists. These people are in no way a threat to our nation or people, but a threat to the plans of the Neo-cons, the military industrial complex and the Zionist Jews, who are making billions from our endless wars.

We now have a congressman that lives in my district that attends that same church that I left 35 years ago. His parents and family were a big name in that church. Just after he was sworn in to his first term, the first bill that came up was the renewal of the Patriot Act, the most unconstitutional bill ever passed. The Patriot Act was a much needed law necessary to bring us into a police state by eliminating many of our rights and privacy. He voted for it with no regards for the oath he took under God, and took His name in vain.

Breaking that oath is worse than breaking his wedding vows, as it affects millions of our people including the ones that voted for him, yet if someone would have taken a snapshot of him entering a motel room with another woman it could cost him the next election. It seems like no one knows or even cares that he took the Lord's name in vain.

It is rather evident that our politicians, military and law enforcement have no regard for the oath they took under God when they took His name in vain. Much of the blame for this can be put on our pastors for not bringing this to light from their pulpits. Cursing by using the Lord's name is not the Christian thing to do (although many do it), but it pales in comparison to taking His name in vain.

(Ed posted several articles to me, which arrived shortly before our departure to Brisbane on 11th April. I found out a short time later that he had passed away by the time I received them. He was 89 years of age. CIM)

HIS LAST SERMON

by pastor Don Elmore

Our pastor, Mark Downey, died Monday morning, March 26, 2018. He had been stricken with cancer that started in his lungs and spread to his lymph nodes, liver, and other places throughout his body. He and his wife Debbi never once complained about their situation. They kept their faith up to the last day. What a great testimony they both demonstrated to our church.

Mark had followed good health practices since becoming a covenant believer, eating healthy organic food, getting proper exercise, etc. and was following natural health practices until the cancer appeared last fall. He had served with the Army in Vietnam and was most probably exposed to agent orange. I don't know for sure but this likely played a part in the cause of his cancer.

The Veterans Administration doctors gave him the option of chemotherapy, radiation and the traditional cancer treatments, but he and Debbi decided quickly they wanted to be healed by their God in His own way with prayer and using natural God-given means.

Although Mark went down hill very fast, he suffered very little pain. Mark kept his humor, positive attitude and unwavering faith and trust in his God until the end. Debbi did the same and was his perfect wife. She provided all of his care at home with little help and was blessed with a workplace that enabled her to care for him as her priority to spend his last days home with her, his best friend.

In case you are not aware, Mark was a wonderful artist and he created and sold many beautiful paintings throughout his life. If you are interested in viewing his art, which is of museum caliber, you can visit his website at:

<http://markdowneyart.com>.

Mark received a lot of letters, cards and monetary gifts. They would like to thank each and everyone who sent them. In addition, Mark had a prison ministry. Many prisoners sent encouraging letters, cards and offered many prayers on his behalf.

Mark became very involved with several of the prisoners in his ministry. One wrote a poem and sent it to him a couple of days before he died. All of the letters and cards were read to him and he enjoyed listening to them all.

Mark's last sermon was written for the benefit of a group of prisoners who had been petitioning the state of Michigan to allow them to have a Christian-Identity study group at the prison. The Muslims can have a time of worship, so can the Jews, so can the Judeo-Christians, so can the Mormons, etc. But Christian-Identity was not allowed to worship or meet in the prison. They issued a petition to the state of Michigan and a trial is set to occur this summer.

They asked Mark if he would serve as their expert witness in this case. He agreed and even planned to go to the trial. This sermon is what he wrote to the lawyers regarding why Christian-Identity should be allowed to have services in the prison. Mark wanted to give our church the opportunity to hear what he had written. He was having difficulty with his breathing and stamina, along with his speaking voice, at the time, so he asked me if I would read the sermon for him. - to be continued.....

a letter to the Longreach Leader:

Dear Editor,

May I please submit this letter for publication.

Is Australia now a "Terra Nullius"? The Indigenous Australians couldn't build cars, Modern Australians cannot build cars either.

The Indigenous Australians couldn't build aeroplanes, Modern Australians cannot build aeroplanes either.

The Indigenous Australians lacked the will and organization to prevent European settlement of Australia. Modern Australia lacks the will and organisation to stop the dictatorial World Government from flooding Australia with foreign migrants. In my lifetime young Australians could and did stop foreign migration at Kokoda and Milne Bay.

To retain our Christian civilisation any immigration should be on quality instead of quantity, and one that does not lower Australians' living standards. Multi-culturalism is a plan to turn a free people into a slave population.

The Christian Aboriginal pastor, the Reverend Cedric Jacobs, M.B.E. himself said, "The multicultural experiment in Australia has failed and should be abandoned before any further damage occurs."

When our Christian God created the various peoples and animals in our world, each was expected to live with its own kind: lambs have to live separately from lions.

With our "Terra Nullius," Australians no longer have the will or ability even to create and issue our own interest-free money again. Were we to do so - again this interest-free money should be issued from a separate organisation with accounting skills, and independent of our parliaments.

A.B.- Longreach.

(One of the curses for disobeying our God's laws was: "I will set my face against you, and you shall be slain before your enemies: They that hate you shall reign over you; and you shall flee when none pursueth you" Lev. 26:17. No one will be able to make any changes, unless and until we as a nation recognise who are God's people - (it's NOT the Jews) - and we repent and return to obeying God's Law. CIM)

IODINE

Iodine is an essential trace element. Iodine is critical for production of adequate thyroid hormones which are vital for normal growth and development of the body. Around 60% of the iodine in the human body is stored in the thyroid gland. The function of the thyroid gland is to take iodine and convert it into thyroid hormones, thyroxine (T4) and triiodothyronine (T3). Thyroid cells are the only cells in the body which can absorb iodine. Iodine helps in the optimum utilization of calories, thereby preventing the storage as excess fat. Other iodine-rich areas of the body are the salivary glands, cerebrospinal fluid, brain, ovaries, breasts, prostate and areas of the eyes.

In fact, you need three iodine molecules to produce the T3 hormone and four iodine molecules to produce the T4 thyroid hormone. T3 and T4 are the two key hormones produced by the thyroid gland, and they are absolutely critical for hundreds of body functions, including your heart, brain, and immune system.

Radioactive iodine is used in medical testing and therapy procedures and can be especially dangerous if natural iodine storage is low. Radioactive iodine is also released by nuclear power plant contamination and can lead to thyroid cancers and other rare cancers.

There is a large body of evidence suggesting that low cancer rates in Japan are a result of their substantially higher iodine levels. Iodine has documented antioxidant properties. If you are exposed to a lot of bromine, your body will not hold on to the iodine that it needs. Remember, iodine affects every tissue in your body, not just your thyroid.

Avoid all sources of bromine as much as possible, as this appears to play a large role in the rising levels of iodine deficiency. Bromides are a common endocrine disruptor. If you are like most people, you probably haven't spent much time thinking about how much bromine you're absorbing from your car upholstery or your soda pop. But bromine toxicity is a definite danger from some surprising sources, and it can wreak havoc on your health.

You are already exposed to far too much chlorine and bromine. Bromine can be found in several places in your everyday world, including, pesticides (specifically methyl bromide, used mainly on strawberries, predominantly in California, soft drinks, citrus-flavoured sodas, in the form of brominated vegetable oils (BVOs), plastics, like those used to make computers. Bakery goods and some flours often contain a "dough conditioner" called potassium bromate.

When you ingest or absorb bromine (found in baked goods, plastics, soft drinks, medications, pesticides and more), it displaces iodine. This iodine deficiency leads to an increased risk for cancer of the breast, thyroid gland, ovary and prostate cancers that we see at alarmingly high rates today. Iodine actually induces apoptosis as well, meaning it causes cancer cells to self-destruct. Several doctors believe the absence of iodine in a cell is what causes cancer, and statistics tend to support this view. A well-known doctor who has been working with iodine for the last two decades says over 96% of the patients in his clinic are iodine deficient.

The National Institute of Health reported that the average iodine intake in the 1960s from bakery products alone was 726mcg/day. Today it is zero. With declining consumption of iodine-rich foods such as from fresh eggs, fish, raw milk and sea vegetables, less use of iodine in the food and agricultural industry, soil depletion and fluoridated drinking water, we must ensure our diets contain adequate levels of beneficial fatty acids, as found in oily fish (salmon, sardines, tuna, anchovies, mackerel), raw nuts and seeds, cold pressed olive oil, avocados and organic coconut oil. These fats can reduce inflammation in autoimmune thyroid disease and improve the health of thyroid cells.

Eat organic as often as possible. Wash all produce thoroughly to minimize your pesticide exposure. Avoid eating or drinking from (or storing food and water in) plastic containers. Use glass and safe ceramic vessels. Look for organic whole-grain breads and flour. Grind your own grain, if possible. Look for the "no bromine" or "bromine-free" label on commercial baked goods. Avoid sodas, soft drink, and drink filtered water instead. If you own a hot tub, look into an ozone purification system. Such systems make it possible to keep the water clean with minimal chemical treatments. Look for personal care products that aren't laced with toxic chemicals. Remember, anything going on you, goes in you.

Example: World's Healthiest Foods ranked as quality sources of iodine:

Food	Serving Size	Amount (mcg)
Raw Cow's milk	4 oz	28.06
Eggs	1 each	27.00
Sardines	3.20 oz	36.000
Salmon	4 oz	32.00
Tuna	4 oz	2

According to the American Thyroid Association, approximately 40% of the world's population remains at risk for iodine deficiency.

The recommended dosage of Lugol's Iodine depends on a person's condition and how the person responds to treatment, explains WebMD. For dietary purposes, about two to six drops daily suffices, according to the U.S.F.D.A.

Taking a large dose iodine supplement in the event of some type of nuclear fallout is recommended. In this case, if you're iodine deficient, taking a potassium iodide (a stable form of iodine) supplement can protect your thyroid by "flooding" your system with iodine so your thyroid has no need to take in the radioactive form. ♦

Since the word Lucifer is only mentioned once in the entire Bible, I think we should take the time to find out how this being came about. It is found in Isaiah 14:4 when it says, "Thou shalt take up this proverb against the King of Babylon..." This proverb was not directed to anyone but the late king of Babylon and not to a supernatural being. If one were to read this without the presupposition programmed into his mind that this Lucifer was a person or spirit being, he would be able to discern that this was something other than the Lucifer promoted by the churches. One thing that helped to promote it was the putting of a capital 'L' on Lucifer making it appear as a proper noun, instead of the sarcasm as was clearly intended.

The original words used for it means to flash, or bright star. In today's language it would be like calling the King of Babylon a 'flash-in-the-pan.' Years ago the word Lucifer had a different meaning. An example of this is a song from WWII, "Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag and smile, smile, smile. While you've a lucifer [match] to light your fag [cigarette] smile boys that's the style." How can a spirit god be a synonym for matches? Yes the word Lucifer was another word for matches (it is the word for matches in Holland) and it fits this passage far more accurately than the meaning we have been told to believe to be true. For those of you that truly believe this is referring to a spirit or a god, and don't take the time to read or completely ignore verse 16 where it says, "Is this the man that made the earth to tremble and shake kingdoms?" That does not mean that the earth did actually tremble, but it does mean it was done by a mortal man and not another god, as Isa. 44:6 clearly states, "I am the first and the last, and beside me there is no God."

I for one seem to have quite a problem with the other gods that were (supposedly) created by the God of the Bible that seem to be causing all the problems in the world and have the power to enter our minds and lead us into sin. The first on the list is Satan with a capital 'S'. The word actually means 'adversary' or 'opponent.' When translated in the plural it was properly translated as 'adversaries,' as it would not be beneficial to have more than one Satan. With all the terrible and ungodly things that happened in the Old Testament, the only time 'Satan' was ever mentioned was in the book of Job. It's an interesting thing about the word SATAN, if you change the letters around you get SANTA, the one that now dominates the old pagan holiday.

There is one thing that I have never been able to accept and I know I'm not alone on this, is the idea that there is a singular entity called Satan that defies logic and reason. We are to believe that God created him immortal and has been here from the foundation of the world. That he/it is a spirit being like God that can enter and tempt the minds of every one on earth. Because of these erroneous teachings we now have millions of Satan worshippers world-wide. By definition, Satan has all the attributes of a god, but today's Christians do not accept Satan as one. Yet, many Christians, to avoid consequences, lay blame for their troubles on this entity.

There are 3 verses in the Book of James that run contrary to some church doctrines of today. Found in chapter 1:13-19, "Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted by God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth He any man: but every man is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust and enticed. Then when lust has conceived, it bringeth forth sin, and sin when it is finished, bringeth forth death."

I find it extremely odd that James who was so close to Jesus and His Apostles was not aware of Satan as this would have been the perfect time to tell us that Satan is our tempter and the cause of our sins, as well as our national sins we are facing today, and not by the enemies within our gates. By putting the blame on Satan, the Christians feel they have no control over him, and it takes the heat off the real perpetrators responsible for our national decline into sin and debt.

Thousands of years ago our people had the same problem with another god called Baal. They had their own priests that controlled and deceived the people and helped to keep them from following the God of the Bible. This worked out great for them until their faith was put to the test. It was a bad day for them when Elijah ended their ministry and their lives. There are doctrines today that are preached from our pulpits that originated from ancient Baal worship.

Then we have the word devil with a small 'd' The only time we see the word Devil it is always prefixed with the word 'the,' when the Bible never says Devil did this or Devil did that. Why is that? We are also told that 'the' devil has the power of death (Heb. 2:14).

Another awesome power has also been attributed to the devil; that he/it was able to physically take Jesus and put Him on a high pinnacle along with other implied powers and temptations that would corrupt Jesus' testing, tests ordained by God, tests that were intended to confirm His humanity, His manhood - temptations which He overcame. This false view ignores vs 1 of Luke 4 that clearly states that Jesus was led about by the Spirit (of God) into the wilderness. This assumed "power" assigned to their "devil" is an ancient Catholic Church promotion that was intended to instill a great "fear" in their naive parishioners; a fear that would increase reliance on the Church and its dictatorial edicts

Consider these words from the late Lloyd Palmer's book, "The Two Creations"-p8. (#423 @ $22.45):

"To prove that this 'devil' (diabolos: Greek-meaning false accuser/adversary) was nothing more than Christ's own flesh tempting Him to do His own will instead of the Fathers will, we must read on. But first let's look up the word 'devil' in the Greek Concordance, and see if our English translators had a choice of words to choose from. Devil (diabolos) meaning 'false accuser/slanderer/adversary.' Now let's see the application.

"And when He had fasted forty days and forty nights, He was afterwards hungered. And coming near to him the tempter said, If you are the Son of God, speak that these stones may become bread." (Matt 4:2-3).

The word 'tempter' by the way comes from the Greek word 'peirazo' meaning: test, scrutinize, entice, to assay, examine, prove, tempt. Now if you had not eaten for 40 days and 40 nights, would you be hungry? And if you had the elevated position of being the anointed Son of God would this not tempt you to succumb to turning the stones in the wilderness into bread? A very tempting solution to his hunger.

Two more attempts by the misnamed 'Devil' are recorded in Matt. 4. Each time Jesus rebuked the temptation with the written Word of God. Assuming this assessment is correct, we can explain also what 'Satan' is. For in rebuking His temptation to exalt Himself as ruler over the world in vs 8-10 Jesus calls His nemesis 'satan.' After overcoming these temptations, and, in effect, rebuking the fleshly desire to do His own will, Jesus was ready to begin His mission of doing the will of His Father and preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom..

Then again, we have the deceptively translated and capitalized word Lucifer. Are we to assume that these are three powerful immortal gods working as a "Trinity?" were created by God to be His and our adversaries? Or are they three separate gods?

Due to the 20th Century Christian's belief in this "trinity" it has helped the Illuminati and the cabal to destroy the Christian West in every possible way, while also destroying many nations that stood in their way, by blaming all our problems on the "trinity" instead of the men responsible. The Satans or adversaries of today wear three-piece suits and possess over 90% of our wealth. They are the ones referred to in Eph. 6:12; depicted as: The principalities and powers that the rulers in high places control. They now feel that their New World Order is imminent. Do I feel that this "trinity" is real? Yes I do, as it occupies the minds of men as the god Baal once occupied and deceived the minds of our ancestors. ♦

The end of another eventful month again. And I only had one heart 'episode' during the 9 days we were away from home. We thank the Lord for travelling mercies and having protected us on the road and brought us safely home again. We left early on Wed. 11th and drove down the inland road through Charters Towers, Clermont, Emerald (where we filled up again with petrol) and continued to Injune where we spent the night. Next morning we continued through Roma, Dalby and Toowoomba to Gatton where we arrived at about 2pm (Thursday). We caught up with a number of the family on Thursday and Friday - and of course the wedding of our oldest granddaughter on Sat. 14th. All the stress and excitement must have caught up with me, and perhaps a lapse in diet, and my 'episode' was Saturday night/Sunday morning. On Sunday the family all came together for a combined Brunch. On Tuesday we left Gatton to return via the coastal road, spending a couple of nights with family on the way back, and visiting some "Messenger" readers. Thursday night we got as far as Miriam Vale Motel where we spent the night, arriving home Friday about 11pm.

We thank you for all the mail that was waiting for us on our return, and we hope to have most of it dealt with by the time you get this newsletter. Thank you for your continued support. May the God of our forefathers bless you and keep you, make His face shine on you and be gracious to you, and give you His comfort and peace,
