

Christian Identity Ministries

A member of the Congregations of Israel

PO Box 146, CARDWELL QLD 4849, Australia

Ph: 07-4066 0146 (International 61-7 instead of 07) www.christianidentityministries.com - hr_cim@bigpond.com

“Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives.” Luke 1:68-75; the Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Germanic-Scandinavian & Kindred people are ISRAEL!

#395

Covenant Messenger

June AD2019

(a publication of N.Q. Fellowship of God’s Covenant People)

FALL OF THE ANGELIC ESTATE

(Lessons from the Book of Jude)

Angels, or messengers and ambassadors?

What the Word of God tells us!

by Kenneth W. Lent

Thesis topic: (Jude 1:6)

Correctly identifying the “angels which kept not their first estate”
What saith the Scriptures about past recorded events concerning the nation of our Saxon Israel ancestors? 1 Corinthians 10:11 “Now all these things happened to them for examples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.”

(Revised Webster Translation, 1995)

Yes, the Bible stands by the tried and true maxim – “Learn from your mistakes – and repent”. In hindsight, as a people we could have done a better job. However it is not too late for a remnant of a faithful few to learn what the various churches have failed to teach. One such lesson of admonition for our benefit that needs a more accurate review is contained in the Book of Jude. How does Jude apply to our national situation today? One thing is for sure – it certainly is not about “devils and angels” as viewed from the entrenched doctrinal beliefs of traditional denominationalism. Since the vast majority of clergy have utterly failed to realize that Jesus the Christ’s Kingdom is about government and not about “religion” (as we see it today), church doctrines have completely missed the boat with respect to the Book of Jude. Accordingly, the incorrect belief that “fallen angels” are invisible demonic beings has done our family of Saxon people exceedingly great harm concerning our national situation by failing to grasp the mistakes of our past ancestors as recorded in the Scriptures. The “Fallen Angel” story is about past governmental failures of ancient Israel, and never was about any supposed “angel spirit being race” that God kicked out of heaven.

In becoming subservient to the modern corrupt unlawful and adulterated Constitutional State of government and how we perceive that State today, we have lost what both the Scriptures have taught about our “Estate”, as well as the fact that the law in America under the 1787 original Constitution viewed a true “State” as an “Estate” in terms of its proper meaning. The War of Northern Aggression in 1861 (The “Civil War”) forever changed the meaning of a “State” in America, but we will leave those details for another essay. Suffice it to say that up until that War, the USA States fell under the category of divinely recognized “Estates” ultimately given to us as Christian heirs of our Father in Heaven.

The importance of knowing about our lawful Commonwealth 1787 Constitutional States, their long lost connection to the Saxon Scriptural word “Estate”, and the famous “Angel Estate lost” mentioned in the Book of Jude, is an understanding that has sadly been deleted from white racial Christian history. This Scriptural/governmental topic is worthy of truthful investigation and study, considering that we have all but lost our nation today. Sometimes the distant past reveals timely solutions for today.

Rebellion and insubordination by high-minded men and women against God’s chosen leaders of the Scriptures is an evil within the land that has plagued Saxon Israel since before the days of Moses. King David had also referred to this problem of contention in II Samuel 22:44 as “the strivings of the people”.

There will always be malcontents that will complain excessively about everything, and cause division within the faithful “body of Christ [anointed]”, just as was the case within the “body of Moses,” that is “those who followed Moses.” Moses and Aaron dealt with egocentric trouble makers, David dealt with them, Solomon dealt with the same problem, pastors in modern assemblies deal with it, and the first century Ecclesia (Greek for “church,” better is Congregation) during the time of the writing of the New Testament most certainly had its share of having to contend

IN THIS ISSUE:

Fall of the Angelic Estate,	1
The Bible is Only to Israel,	10
Pay Attention to History,	10
The Devil Made Me Do It,	12
Scripturally Understanding Life’s Circumstances, ..	13
Why Read the Holy Scriptures?	14

The views and opinions expressed in the articles herein or herewith are those of the authors and not necessarily those of CIM. They are written by fallible men. You must ask Jesus to guide your studies!

CIM reserves the right to edit submitted or reprinted material in line with CIM editorial policy. CIM does the utmost to ensure that the spirit of articles remains intact at all times.

with those teaching a false gospel.

What does this have to do with “devils” and “demons” and “fallen angels”? There is a section in the New Testament concerning rebels, false teachers, and malcontents within Israel which was written as a reminder to help us avoid national problems which earlier cropped up in the days of our Saxon ancestors when they were first set up by God as a nation under the leadership of Moses. Learning from past experiences of national problems within society can be a great benefit so that we don’t repeat old mistakes. But there is one particular Scripture message which has been derailed by a “spiritist occult slant” that totally negates its true message concerning agitators within the body of believers. I am referring to the book of Jude and its oft misquoted source of false teachings that have been force-fed to Christians to convince church goers that “The Devil” argued with the archangel “Michael” over the dead body of Moses. Thereby this interpretation of Jude is used to claim a “proof” of the literal Fallen Angel Devil doctrine presented as Christian teaching by a great number of clergy. From thence it is further taught that our utmost social problems are caused by a supposed “Fallen Wicked Angel Being” named Satan, and not by the failure of our duty to uphold God’s righteous laws for our families and nation. Jude has but one chapter, and we’ll start with verse 9, in order to point out the controversy we shall unravel in this essay.

Jude: 9 “Yet Michael the Archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, Yahweh rebuke thee.”

Now, from this, we find many “spiritists” who isolate that verse and quickly conclude that a heavenly angel named Michael had a vehement argument with Satan the devil about what was going to happen to the dead body of Moses. However, this is not what the Book of Jude is telling us at all.

If, as the literal Satan/Devil doctrine assumes, this is talking about Moses having died and it is thus about his corpse, what use would his rotting carcass be to Satan anyhow? Did Satan want to get inside of it and possess it for some strange reason, or take it somewhere, or abuse it in some manner of necrophilism? --- all wild speculations aside, we are simply never told in Jude what “Satan” wanted to do with Moses’ dead body. But nobody seems to ever ask this question. On the contrary, this is just more irrational confusion being spun into a Bible chapter that makes a mockery of God’s real and very important national message to His people of Saxon Israel.

Regretfully, in nearly every denominational church, Jude 9 has been interpreted with an automatic mental bias toward “spiritism” and its promotion of invisible ghosts roaming the Earth to do wickedness. (For the record – “spiritism” is not the same as being spiritual which primarily denotes divine obedience) This New Testament book says nothing so off-the-wall as the constant blathering from the pulpits which has been driven into the psyche of numerous congregations concerning this matter. This section of God’s Word is about regular mortal people who have a horribly rebellious attitude, and are always complaining about Yahweh God’s chosen leaders. We are warned that these rebellious people bring in false doctrines and attempt to undermine the leadership of the congregation and nation, and ultimately cause much harm to the Faith. [By way of explanation, “Yahweh” in this essay simply means “The Everliving,” having been based on the Hebrew verb “havah” – “to breathe, to exist”]

Verse 8 tells us that the scope of this message is to those who defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities. So called “spirit beings,” if they existed, would not have flesh to defile to begin with. We will have to dig into a chapter in the book of Numbers for some applicable spiritual gems in order to comprehend what verse 9 of Jude is about. First, let’s back up and start from the beginning of Jude.

Jude 1 “Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified (means “set apart”) by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: vs 2 Mercy unto you, and peace and love, be multiplied. vs 3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. vs 4 For there are certain men who crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Yahweh God, and our Master Jesus Christ.”

What is the focal point of Jude’s opening statement? He is commenting on those certain men who entered the body of Christian believers and were teaching false and erroneous things about the grace of God Almighty. They turned the “grace of God into lasciviousness”; that is, immorality. That particular teaching declares and upholds the doctrine of men who teach that once we are under the grace of Jesus Christ, we can do what we want without regard to the Old Testament Laws, Statutes, Judgments, and Commandments. In other words, they are claiming grace over Law as an excuse to ignore the Laws of Yahweh God Almighty! Transgression of God’s Law is sin (1 Jn.3:4) and these sort justify sinning in the name of “grace”.

That same doctrine of men is alive and well in the swelling ranks of “lawless” Christendom even today, though Jude, as well as Paul, and the other faithful teachers, gave us stern warnings of this kind of doctrinal misleading and lawlessness. Christians are taught from nearly every pulpit that they merely have to “accept Christ, then don’t worry about God’s Laws any more, because they no longer apply.” They are told that they can do whatever they feel is right in their hearts without searching the Scriptures as we are commanded to do in order to be learning and obeying the Laws of the Almighty. Jude tells us plainly that this misinformed viewpoint about grace is tantamount to the denial of Jesus, and that those who teach this doctrine are ungodly men, being already condemned.

Jude: 5 “I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that Yahweh, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed

New Video:

- 1. How to Get Well & Stay Well (82 min);
 - 2. Acid-Alkaline Balance, Barbara O’Neill (56 min);
 - 3. Heart Health & High Blood pressure, O’Neill (56 min);
 - 4. Cancer Screening is a Scam (25 min).
- 4 items with a total time of 3-1/2 hrs of very important health information
#CI-1097 @ sug don $9

them that believed not. vs 6 And the angels (“messengers, envoy” –Greek ‘ang-el-os’, Strong’s #32) which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, He hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.”

So Jude is reminding Christians that God saved the entire house of Israel from bondage to the Egyptians, but, afterward they turned against him, and not a single one of that generation noted in Exodus was allowed to enter the Promised Land, except Joshua and Caleb, who diligently followed after Yahweh, The Everliving. Our unfaithful Israelite ancestors all died in the wilderness.

In effect, Jude is saying to us today (paraphrased) “just because you have discovered that God has presented you with salvation and you have accepted that fact, doesn’t mean that you can indulge yourself in false doctrines and the lasciviousness of “grace over law”, and expect to escape the judgment of the Living God.”

The entire theme of Jude is comparing old Israel to the new church, properly called the “ecclesia” in first century Greek. Both these “bodies” being governmental and jurisdictional, and not esoteric spiritist.

Verses 5 & 6 are about Israel (at that time God’s “angels”) coming out of Egypt, dying in the wilderness because of their disobedience to God’s Laws, and are now dead bound fast by the chains of death, under the darkness of the eternal judgment, which is death as per Romans 6:23 “for the wages of sin is death”. (only remedied in Christ by the hope of resurrection). Their souls (also misunderstood) are not in some underground spirit holding pen, or in a nether world under the ground somewhere being roasted over a Roman Catholic never-ending fire.

If this verse refers to some heavenly rebellious angels who revolted with a so called “chief bad angel,” and they are now loose on the Earth as demon spirits who possess people, how do we rectify the fact that the Scriptures say here that these “fallen angels” are somewhere securely bound by God’s great power in everlasting chains under darkness? If they are “chained” by The Almighty, which is a fairly descriptive term, and held there in darkness, how can these demonic fallen angels bother you anyway? The only thing anyone could (mis)interpret from this verse is, that he might have to worry about the big one, the Satan of church doctrine, but at least all his demon devil angels are held captive chained up somewhere in a dark place, so they could not possibly pose a threat to anyone today. Yet at the same time, the spiritists in the pulpits tell their followers repeatedly that they (demons) do bother us all extensively by “demon possession” of our bodies or by causing other troubles. Which is it? Are supposed demons held captive by the chains of God Almighty, or are they loose to roam the earth, having somehow overpowered God’s will and the statements of His Scriptures?

The whole idea of demons and what has been fantastically hypothesized in Jude 6 has no place in the light of the Gospel. True to God’s Word, verse 6 is still in the context of the same subject matter being discussed by Jude, and it refers to national Israel so that we may learn today. It is not talking about demon beings.

vs 6 And the angels (“messengers, envoy” –Greek ‘ang-el-os’, Strong’s #32) which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, He hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.”

The term “angels” has been a stumbling block to many Christians as well. “Angel” is the Hebrew word “Malak,” and in the Greek it is “angelos,” both words meaning “messenger,” or “ambassador.” An angel (messenger) in the Bible can be a dream figure, a visionary image, the manifold appearances of God Himself, or mortal men ambassadors of a higher authority. Search as we might, we will never read in the Bible that God made a “spirit being creation” in some ethereal realm far beyond our galaxy long, long ago. Such a concept is born from the perverseness of Judaic Talmudism, Roman Catholic doctrines, and Hollywood sensationalism of the silver screen.

Strong’s Hebrew Dictionary lists “angel” or messenger in the Hebrew Concordance at reference number 4397 as “Malak”. It gives the definition as “an unused root”, to dispatch as a deputy, a messenger, especially of God, that is, an angel; also a prophet, priest, or teacher, ambassador, angel, king, messenger”.

The same meaning is given to “angelos” in the Greek New Testament. The terms “angels” and “messengers” are given the same meanings in the New Testament, and they are used interchangeably in the Scriptures. They can mean anything from preachers and teachers, to prophets, or men ambassadors, pastors, the various assemblies of believers themselves, or even nature’s fury itself.

Genesis 32:3 tells us that Jacob sent his “Malaks”, his men ambassadors, his “angels” to meet his brother Esau, and these “angels” were mortal men. Joshua sent messengers, angels, Malaks, into the tent of Achan in Joshua 7:22. The king of Tyre sent his Malaks, men angels, to David, to deliver lumber in I Chronicles 14:1. The disciples of John the Baptist were called his angelos, his messengers, or angels, in Luke 7:19,24. The men of Israel that visited Rahab the harlot were called messengers, angels, in James 2:25, and they were spies who were men, and not spirit beings.

Continuing on in Jude, we can now de-mystify the superstitious occult English mistranslation of verse 6, which is nothing more than an inaccurate opinion inserted by “spiritists” in the middle ages. Those translators then believed in ghosts, spirits, demons, devils, and fallen angels. These angels, or messengers in verse 6 are in reality men of Israel, eventually becoming the servant nation of God Almighty as set up by Moses.

Jude: 5 “I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that Yahweh, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. vs 6 And the angels (“messengers, envoy” –Greek ‘ang-el-os’, Strong’s #32) which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, He hath

Old Historic LOAN ONLY video: FLAME IN THE WIND

Set in the splendor and terror of the Spanish Inquisition, this movie (by Bob Jones University) is a gripping drama of heroic Christian faith. It tells the story of a young nobleman, who becomes involved in the age-old struggle between truth and error. Faced with a choice: the church system offers safety, protection and respectability - and the Scriptures offer Jesus and salvation from sin; and with these torture and death. This challenges all who trust Jesus to be willing to endure persecution and death reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.”

#CI-286 @ sug LOAN don $7

Verses 5 & 6 refer to the same people - - the nation of Israel, and it is a continual warning.

Jude continues on with his discourse, testifying that Israel was to be the keeper and holder of the Words of God, which they received at Mt. Sinai. In the King James Version, it says that these angels, more precisely messenger ambassadors of Yahweh God, eventually lost their first estate. The Ferrar Fenton Bible translation says that they “did not guard their own dominion”. The Concordant Literal New Testament reads they were “messengers who keep not their own sovereignty”.

The message to the nations of our people here in verse 6 is an everlasting memory; namely that God Almighty declares to Israel, “If you violate My Laws after I set you on high, you will lose your kingdom.” This theme is well known and repeatedly expressed throughout the entire Bible. So just where or what is the “estate” of God’s angels (representatives) once we correctly reject the fable of “God kicking angels out of heaven”? Scripturally, the Saxon divine jurisdictional Kingdom government is an “Estate”.

This understanding by definition firmly held until relatively modern times. When the original Constitution of the United States of America as written in 1787 the Saxon law at that time did not view an American “State” as we view the present corporate US States of today. The original USA States were, by law, Christian Commonwealth Estates which the Founders realized were bequeathed land areas given by gift of God, and the people (the body of Christians) were the heirs of their Heavenly Father, which “family trust” (The original Constitution) was only for “the posterity” of racial descendants to administer the Estate bequeathed to them in the Preamble.

This true American law is grounded firmly upon Yahweh’s Scriptural laws of descent and distribution. Constitutional “States” then actually meant Estates with the root meaning based in Scripture. Note the lawful American meaning of the word “Estate” in 1828. Unfortunately “Estate” became abbreviated to “State” and we lost the lawful intent of a real Constitutional State.

Definition of Estate: Webster’s Dictionary 1828

6. “The general business or interest of government; hence, a political body, a commonwealth; a republic. But in this sense, we now use State.” [note that Commonwealth and Republic mean the same thing. They fool you trying to make Australia ‘a Republic’]

Verse 6 of Jude tell us that these ambassadors of God, national Israel, left their own habitation, which happens to be the Greek word “oiketerion”, and it literally means “houses”. Why did Yahweh’s men angel messengers of national Israel at that time leave their first habitation, their houses? Why did they lose their sovereignty, their first estate (body politic) of national Israel first set up by Moses?

The Scriptures explain that they sinned and turned away from The Everliving God. They entered into idolatry, resulting in their captivity by Babylon and Assyria. The Scriptures emphatically teach that the term used here, “restraint of darkness,” is the judgment of Yahweh God Almighty upon “men,” (and not upon non-existent spirit floating beings) for their disobedience of His good Laws for the nation and family, His Kingdom Government - - the Estate He has given us.

Notice Psalm 107 which tells us that it is rebellious people among Saxon Israel who are held in bands of darkness, and not some evil demonic spirits that are trapped by God in some nether world under the Earth (but have somehow gotten out).

Psalm 107:1 “O give thanks unto Yahweh, for he is good: His mercy endureth forever. :2 Let the redeemed of Yahweh say so, whom He hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;”

So we see the obvious, that these inspired words are the testimony of men concerning themselves, and how their God has redeemed them from the hands of their enemies. It is not talking about some disembodied spirit beings, or fallen angels.

Psalm 107:3 - 10 “And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south. And they wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in. (The tribes of Israel were set up with three tribes each positioned on the east, west, north and south sides.)

Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. Then they cried unto Yahweh in their trouble, and He delivered them out of their distresses. And He led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

(This, of course, refers to the sovereignty of their nation that was eventually set up at Jerusalem.)

Oh that men would praise Yahweh for his goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men!

(So we are still talking about men here, not spirits, as it is about men on the Earth.)

For He satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness. Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron;

(There are the ‘darkness and the chains’. Here we see the shadow of death and the bondage of affliction due to the loss of a sovereign nation. Why did this happen? Verse eleven next tells why.)

Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the Most High.”

Heavenly angels? Fallen angels here? Not so. This is about men of the first kingdom of Israel, THEIR FIRST ESTATE, who continually violated his Laws, and turned away from Yahweh God Almighty. We know the story of what happened. God raised up Assyria and Babylon who took the Israelites out of their habitation and placed them into a captive sentence of endless gloom and labor and loss of their sovereignty and freedom.

In fact, Jude verse 6 says they were in chains of darkness, and that word for darkness is specifically the word “gloom” in the Greek language in which Jude wrote. It is the word “zophos” at Strong’s Greek dictionary at reference number 2217. It is not a word primarily used to

CDs of The Month:

J-398 The Biblical Doctrine of Self Defense, pt 2

J-399 Adorning the Doctrine of God

J-400 What is Coming to Christ?

J-401 Bushwacker Johnston

J-402 Trembling at the Word of God

J-403 Manson Jolly, The South Carolina Avenger

J-404 When Sacrifice is Sin

all pastor John Weaver mean “absence of light”. There is no more gloom and darkness in one’s life, than the loss of their freedom and liberty.

Psalm 107:12 -14 Therefore He brought down their heart with labor; they fell down, and there was none to help. - (But, eventually comes a “conditional” reprieve; if and only when we “repent” God will bring us out of the darkness of any current captivity).

Psalm 107:13 Then they cried unto Yahweh in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses.:14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

The story that God’s Written Word tells is that the first inhabitants of national Israel did not repent, and they fell under judgment. Therefore, their story is an everlasting example to us as Jude tells us in verse six. Their acts of rebellion and the judgment that followed became immortalized in their everlasting darkness according to Scripture poetic terminology. They never repented to come back into the light; they died in their sins of rebellion, and were forbidden entry into the promised land. Later, those of this first nation estate fell to the darkness of the Assyrian and Babylonian captivity. Much later at another time, under Ezra and Nehemiah, certain of Judah did repent, and they were allowed to return to Jerusalem.

Psalm 107:15 - 16 “O that men would praise Yahweh for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! For He hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.”

The Psalmist tells us here that our own people were the rebellious “angels” against Yahweh, these the men and women of Israel, who were put in bondage of darkness, and it was on the Earth that this happened, because of their disobedience.

In fact, those who keep the Laws of Yahweh are called his “angels” in Malachi 2:7. It reads, “For the priests lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the Law at his mouth, for he is the “Malak”, (the angel, or messenger) of Yahweh of hosts”. This is the very same illustration that Jude is giving to “believing” Christians. He is “warning” the flock that they better remember what happened to the “congregation” of Israel, the “body” of Moses, the ambassadors of God, who lost their houses, or their “habitation,” through their own disobedience. They were cast down to suffer the darkness and the gloom of captivity and cruel and endless servile labor to an unmerciful captor. Jude is very specific that this was due to certain MEN turning the grace of God into lasciviousness, and we are to be weary of them, and guard against their poisons of man-made doctrines, and false superstitious religion, so that we don’t suffer the same fate.

Therefore having refreshed our memories of what happened to the first several generations of Israel, let’s read verses 5 and 6 of Jude again, in the correct context of a discussion about Israel, and in the “literal” Greek, in which Jude wrote in the first century.

Jude 5 – 7 : “I will therefore put you in remembrance, though you once knew this, how that Yahweh, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. And the “messengers” which kept not their first sovereignty, but left their own houses, He has reserved in everlasting chains under the darkness of gloom unto the judgment of the great day.”

(This is Israel’s captivity for national disobedience. Jude never broke the context of the paragraph as did the superstitious translators. In fact, Jude continues right on with more Earthly national and governmental history.)

“Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.” (God’s permanent judgments)

This does not say that the sins of ancient Israel and Sodom were exactly the same sins, but the example is what is the same – destruction.

We know that these cities are not still “literally” burning, but in the context of an everlasting example, they are “forever” burning in the written account of Genesis 19. Jude points out that their “example” is eternal.” The message of God’s destruction upon the sodomite cities lives on forever in the Bible as a warning to all generations of Israelite Christians. It also does not specifically say that ancient

Israel’s (Yahweh’s messengers) sins were only sodomite fornication, but the lesson herein states that Israel’s national various rebellions met the same “eternally remembered fate” as did Sodom and Gomorrah. Other notable sins are mentioned here too, not just illicit sexual sin, as we continue:

Jude verse 8 “Likewise also these filthy dreamers (1) defile the flesh, (2) despise dominion, and (3) speak evil of dignities.”

Now, if Jude was speaking of “fallen angels,” devils, demons and the like, how is it he says they defile the “flesh”? Disembodied spirits, devils and demons don’t have flesh, according to the commonly-held superstitions of modern “Judeo- Christian” doctrine. No - Jude is still talking here about wicked men who despise righteous dominion.

Those who teach that Jude decided, for some unknown impulsive reason, to switch the subject matter from national Israel to occult spiritism devil talk, have completely destroyed the important message of the chapter.

Jude 9 “Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses; durst not bring a railing accusation, but said, Yahweh rebuke thee.” - - What do we have here?

Let’s be aware that Jude laid the foundation in the beginning of his discourse by cautioning us against certain men who crept in unaware. Then, he further reminds them of what happened when God destroyed the people of

- New or Recently Listened to DVDs & CDs*
BD-111 Standing in the Faith, pt 8, Dave Barley
D-077 The Law of Love, Lawrence Blanchard
D-078 The Secret to Pleasing God, Blanchard
E-615 For Fear of the _____, Don Elmore
J-517 Death Holds no Fear for the Child of God,
John Weaver
K-681 How God Defeats Mystery Babylon, and How we Might be Involved, James Bruggeman
N-132 A Case Law on Inheritance,
William Einwechter
Q-010209 What Every Christian Should Know about the NWO, Chuck Baldwin
Q-270414 Romans 13 Preachers, Then and Now,
Chuck Baldwin
T-1513 Man’s Hewn Stone Altar, Charles Jennings

ancient Israel who refused to believe and follow His laws. Do we insist that Jude would for some inexplicable reason, randomly shift gears, and go off on a tangent about fallen angels and devils, with their “chief” devil wanting to take the dead body of Moses? On the contrary, Jude is telling us of an important history concerning national Israel and he thusly continues with what he is focusing upon.

When we understand the literal definition of a few terms in their original language, we can easily see that there was no sporadic deviating by Jude from the original context when he wrote this epistle. Jude opens the dialogue by comparing two bodies of believers. The first body is those who are preserved and sanctified in Christ, the congregation, or body of New Testament Christians, and secondly, the body of believers that was saved out of the land of Egypt, the congregational body of national Israel – the body of Moses.

The name Michael was not a name in the Hebrew, but a title from three Hebrew words that meant “who is like God”. The term archangel is the Greek term “arch-angelos”, and it simply means “chief messenger,” Strong’s Greek Concordance lists it at number 743 and 732. The various more literal translation Bibles don’t read “archangel” in this verse, rather they all read “chief messenger,” which is literal and correct.

The man called out by Yahweh to be his “chief messenger,” the archangel Michael, in the days when he delivered Israel out of Egypt, was none other than Moses. He was the chief messenger between God Almighty and Israel; Moses was “like God” to Israel, and we can learn of his duties as the Divine mediator in Exodus 18:19-22.

The term “Michael”, Mi Cha Eli, “who is like God”, can be a different person at different places in the Bible. In this verse it is Moses. Moses was also a prototype of Christ as head of the body of the congregation of Israel. Moses sat as head judge over the people, he spoke the words of Yahweh to the people, he communed with Yahweh for days at a time, and he worked the miraculous power of the Holy Spirit to do the mighty works of Yahweh. From the viewpoint of Israel, Moses operated under the title and authority of Michael, which means, “who is like God”. Moses was both the Michael, like God, and God’s chief messenger, or archangel, to the body of the congregation.

We are going to read from the Scriptures exactly where this was the case. Christians of this age are now baptized, or immersed, into the “body of Christ”, or the congregation of Christ, and when we are baptized into the power of His name, this takes place. This is not talking about a water baptism. This baptism is a total immersion into Christ.

Let’s refer to First Corinthians chapter twelve verse twelve. I Cor. 12:12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so also is the Christ.

I Cor. 12:13 For by one spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Judeans or of the nations, (the KJV translations say Jew or Gentile, which is incorrect in the original language) whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

This is the Scriptural explanation of the body of the assembly of Anointed, called the “body” of Christ. Chapter 10 of I Corinthians tells us plainly that Moses also had a “body” of believers, the assembly of Moses, the congregation of Moses, and the people were then baptized into his leadership as a type of Christ to the people. Again – this is not water baptism but a complete dedication to follow Moses.

I Cor. 10:1 Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; I Cor. 10:2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; I Cor. 10:3 And did all eat the same spiritual meat; I Cor. 10:4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was [anointed]Christ.

This refers to those baptized unto Moses, or immersed in Moses, not in (or into) sea water, but into national Israel. In fact, the Israelites did not get wet at all by passing through the sea. Rather they walked across safely to land dry-shod as God held back the waters. This “baptized” congregation was the “body of Moses”. They followed Moses in their baptismal immersion into that congregation, just as we today follow Christ when we are baptized into the “congregation,” the “body” of Christ. Thus we have a clear picture of two bodies spoken of by Jude being compared to one another. One is the “body” of the congregation of national Israel under Moses, and the other is the “congregation,” the “body” of Christ in the days of Jude.

So, let’s go back to Jude in conclusion of this matter, and dispel the “spiritist occult” slant placed within the Scripture record concerning the “body of Moses” due to doctrinal misunderstandings. We can easily unravel this ball of “spiritist” yarn by discerning the truth. It is quite easy to see that Jude is comparing the body of believers under Moses to that of the body of believers unto Christ.

Also, the word devil in Jude 9 is the Greek word “diabolos” at Strong’s Greek reference number 1228. There we read that it means “traducer,” especially Satan, saw-tawn, compared to the Hebrew at 7854, which is “adversary, false accuser, devil, slanderer”. So “devil” in the Greek is the same thing as saw-tawn in the Hebrew, and Jude is telling us that a “false accuser” makes a very substantial and highly disturbing adversary. Keeping this in mind will help to grasp the true intended message found in Jude.

It is best at this point to slow down a bit, and put aside a lifetime of mistranslations and spiritist interpretation which we so easily entertain in our thought processes when we think about “religion” and Christianity, which all too often are blended to appear the same when in truth they are not. Instead of impulsively thinking of mythical “devils, demons, guardian angels”, let’s remain Scripturally solid with Jude as he is plainly teaching us important matters

Videos You May Have Missed:
THE MEDICAL CONSPIRACY
by Bill Schnoebelen
The church was originally in charge of health and healing. Here, Bill reveals the conspiratorial origins of medicine; how the ruling elite stole medicine from the church and set up an evil cabal medical establishment to reduce population by withholding cures. How the FDA, the drug companies and the medical schools collude together to control and destroy your health. Very Good!- time 2:40:00 #CI-721 @ sug LOAN don $7 about the “body of believers” of our race; namely the congregation of the Israel people, but in two comparatively different time periods - - that of the Old Testament and that of the New Testament.

In the Greek text Jude 9 is telling us that Michael the archangel, literally the “one with authority like unto God”, the chief messenger, is actually describing the position of authority held by Moses. It would be similar to respectfully addressing our nation’s leader as Mr. President, meaning our “chief executive,” but without naming him directly. We hear this title at presidential news conferences routinely. It is a common practice in diplomacy. In early ancient Israel, Moses held the office of “Michael, Mr. President, chief executive, archangel/high messenger,” - - appointed to that office by God Almighty.

Most importantly for us to grasp is that “The devil” in verse 9 is a mortal man adversary, a false accuser, and that the “body of Moses” is quite simply describing nationally what it literally was - - the national “body of Moses,” that is, the congregation of Israel. Isn’t it peculiar that this verse never mentions a “dead” body of Moses? It says nothing about anyone being dead, or their bones, or their death. The very reason for this omission is simply that this has nothing to do with a supernatural devil fallen angel fighting with another angelic being over the dead rotting carcass of Moses. That is purely the dogmatic doctrinal superstition of a “spiritist occult religion” handed to Protestantism by the works of ignorant Catholic clerics who had combined parts of western Christian theology with that of Eastern Roman Empire religions of heathen populations.

As the truth unfolds in accord with the original text and the concerns about jurisdictional national Israel, Verse 9 refers to a specific historic incident that took place while Moses, the chief messenger of Yahweh, had some serious trouble with a “man” adversary.

Additionally, Jude’s account tells us of certain troubles within a particular group of people in the camp of Israel, that is, in the congregation, a.k.a. body of Moses. This is clearly and plainly explained to us if we simply understand the story of a man named Korah in Jude 11. Jude called this man Core, but that is the modern Greek name of this Old Testament “devil/accuser” here -- Korah, a Levite who was quite simply a mortal adversary against Moses, God’s messenger. These are the sort who have “crept in unawares – ordained to condemnation” (Jude 4) and they are self ambitious men of the House of Israel. They are not descendants of any type of spirit angel race gone bad eons ago. “And a man’s foes shall be they of his own household.” (Mat.10:36). The Bible lists these who tried to creep into Moses’ authority as being of the family line of the Levite tribe. (Numbers 16:1,2 & 8) Jude warns us that this type of individual will be found in the Christian assembly as well.

Jude 10 “But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. Jude 11 Woe unto them! For they have gone the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core (Korah).”

Korah plotted against Moses in Numbers 16, where we find that he was an adversary, saw-tawn, satan, “devil” who disputed with Moses as being Michael the archangel, (“he who is like God” the “chief messenger” of Yahweh to the body of the congregation of Israel) over things concerning the “body of Moses,” the “congregation” of Israel.

Nowhere in Jude or the Book of Numbers do we read anything about a battle between two members of a supposed angelic host of heaven to see which one would get to carry off the rotting corpse of a deceased man who once led the children of Israel as God’s chosen leader.

When “spiritist” translators manipulated the Scriptures and inserted their own faulty understanding into the verse of Jude 9, plus also set forth to explain the verse away with further external sources, it totally debauched the entire original message and context, as well as serving to confuse the reader. In order to regain some sanity we need to refer back to the original Hebrew Scriptures and the original pure language meanings of Hebrew and Greek to relearn the basic stories, and lay a solid foundation that does not shift and move with every wind of doctrine.

We have all been fooled by the churches on so many subjects, that we have to relearn the basics that we should have been truthfully taught as children in Bible School, and by our parents and teachers in our early years. Instead, we have been raised on a steady diet of superstition, occult spiritism, fear of devils and demons, verse-picking doctrines, and careless and outright false mistranslations. These things are also very harmful in petitioning our Heavenly Father for outright full fledged divine interventions in the times of our most drastic need for His help. Unsound doctrines on major issues stand as an impediment to prayer showers of blessings, while our people have gotten through by the skin of their teeth merely out of God’s drops of mercy for His children.

So, let’s go to Numbers 16 and start exposing these false teachings of supposed “devils and demons” and “spirit angels” fighting over Moses’ decayed carcass. The rebellion of Korah, the adversary of Moses (was also his first cousin), who was Yahweh’s chief messenger archangel, is the topic of Jude’s message. We’ll condense this chapter a bit from its fifty verses, but you can read the entire chapter on your own to get the full story. We are only concerned at this time with the verses to which Jude refers us, in order to discern the truth about devils and demons and satans and Moses’ body.

Num. 16:1 “Now Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the sons of Peleth, sons of Rueben, took men: (2) And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown: (3) And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and Yahweh is among them: wherefore then lift ye up

Library Builders:

THE BOOK OF JUBILEES

A translation from the Ethiopic by George H. Schodde. It gives a better understanding of the work and teachings of both Jesus and His disciples, as also the writings of the latter, their doctrines, beliefs and the spirit of New Testament Judaism. There is an impassable gulf fixed between the theological system of the Jews and of Jesus & His disciples.

#318 @ sug don $8.55

yourselves above the congregation of Yahweh?"

(Korah and his fellow rebellious complainers failed to perceive that rebelling against Moses was rebellion against Yahweh their God. Moses was the Michael, Yahweh's chief messenger to Israel, and Korah stood up as a satan, saw-tawn, adversary, false accuser against Moses.)

Num. 16:4 "And when Moses heard it, he fell upon his face: (5) And he spake unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, Even tomorrow Yahweh will shew who are his, and who is holy; and will cause him to come near unto him: even him whom he hath chosen will he cause to come near unto him. (6) This do; take you censers, Korah, and all his company; (7) And put fire therein, and put incense in them before Yahweh tomorrow: and it shall be that the man whom Yahweh doth choose, he shall be holy: ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi. (8) And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi: (9) Seemeth it but a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near unto himself to do the service of the tabernacle of Yahweh, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them? (10) And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also? (11) For which cause both thou and all thy company are gathered against Yahweh: and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him? (12) And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab: which said, We will not come up: (13) Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of the land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself altogether a prince over us? (14) Moreover thou hast not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up. (15) And Moses was very wroth, and said unto Yahweh, Respect not their offering: I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them. (16) And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company before Yahweh, thou, and they, and Aaron, tomorrow: (17) And take every man his censor, and put incense in them, and bring ye before Yahweh every man and his censor, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, each of you his censor. (18) And they took every man his censor, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron. (19) And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of Yahweh appeared unto all the congregation."

The word "satan" is simply "opponent or adversary" in Hebrew. Here in Jude we see a certain adversary saw-tawn Korah, disputing with Moses about the congregation, namely, the "body" of Moses, who were all "baptized (immersed) unto Moses," having come through the sea untouched by water, and delivered from Egypt at the hand of Moses by the power of God, as mentioned in First Corinthians chapter ten.

Num. 16:20 "And Yahweh spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, (21) Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment. (22) And they fell upon their faces, and said, O Yahweh, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation? (23) And Yahweh spake unto Moses, saying, (24) Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. (25) And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him. (26) And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins."

What we see at this point is the dispute over the body of believers continuing between Korah and Moses and Aaron. The congregation had gathered against Moses and Aaron, and had migrated over to the tents, or tabernacle of Korah the Levite priest. Moses, Aaron, and the elders of Israel went to Korah's house to give the "body" (people) of Moses one last warning and a chance to repent and get away from Korah's house that was about to be consumed by some calamity of Yahweh.

Fearing Yahweh, and Moses (the Michael) at this point, they decide in favor of Moses, and moved away from Korah, fearing the judgment about to fall upon those satans/devils, that is, those adversaries of Moses, the mere mortals who were nothing but wicked men.

Num. 16:27 "So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children."

(Next we have Moses, Yahweh's Michael archangel, giving a "rebuke" to the adversary, Korah and those with him, in the name of Yahweh, precisely as Jude tells us that he did.)

(28) "And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that Yahweh hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of mine own mind. (29) If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then Yahweh hath not sent me. (30) But if Yahweh make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked Yahweh."

(Next, we are told what happened to those wicked men who were adversaries against Moses concerning the congregation, the "body" of Moses.)

Num. 16:31 "And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them: (32) And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods. (33) they, and all that appertained unto them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation. (34) And all Israel that were round about fled at the cry of them; for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also. (35) And there came out a fire from Yahweh, and consumed the two

Library Builder;

THE GLORY OF THE STARS

E. Raymond Capt, M.A.,

A.I.AQ., F.S.A. Scot.

Ps. 19:1-4, having declared that the heavens reveal God's glory, the Psalmist informs us that the heavens declare a message in a language that is understood by all peoples. The Zodiac is found in religious faiths and pagan superstitions.

#341 @ sug don $21.55

hundred and fifty men that offered incense.”

Clearly, Korah, the satan, (saw-tawn, the false accuser, the devil in this instance), was killed after he attempted to disrupt the congregation, the “body” of Moses. Here is the exact story related by Jude of what happened in the congregation of Moses when Korah, the “devil”, disputed about whom he thought should be doing what service within the “body of Moses”. Korah didn’t like the way Moses, the Michael, Yahweh’s “chief messenger” was running things. Korah was a complainer, a back talker, a divider of the people against Moses, and he was a false accuser, a devil.

We have an absolute warning by Jude that we will always have these types of people within the “new” “body of believers” too, and they will always have slippery divisive ways with their words. Jude never mentions anything about spirit beings, or Talmudic type angels and devils arguing and fighting over the dead personal body of Moses as such is simply not germane to the subject matter of the chapter. (And worse, it’s not a Scriptural concept)

If verse 9 of Jude had been translated correctly without the pre-conceived bias of the superstitious false translators, it would simply have read, “He who was like God to Israel, the chief messenger, contended with an adversary about the congregation of Moses.” That is how the Greek text is written, and that fits as it should within the whole context of Jude’s message and Numbers chapter 16. Let’s look at verse 16 of Jude.

Jude 16 “These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men’s persons in admiration because of advantage. (17) But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Master Jesus Christ; (18) How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.”

Jude is not giving this message only to the body of believers of his day. He is warning us of this time, the prophetic “last time” that began when Jesus came, in which time we are living today.

The New Testament Law concerning habitual complainers and divisive rebels within the body, is found in Romans 16:17, which commands Christians to mark these sort, and avoid them. Jude agrees. He says that these walk after their own lusts.

Jude 19 “These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit. (20) But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, (21) Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Master Jesus the Christ unto eternal life.”

Jude is teaching that a mature Christian keeps himself busy building up the members of the body of [Anointed] Christ, and not tearing it down with complaining, and internal dissension. Such would be detrimental to the security and strength of the Kingdom government of the Ecclesia, the New Testament Commonwealth taught by Paul in Ephesians chapter two. We could add to that list gossip, lies, false teachings, spiritism, superstition, occultism, and fear of demons, devils, evil spirits making mischief, such as we hear preached and taught by men who stand in the pulpits. Additionally, the fire mentioned in Jude 23 is not a hell fire of eternal torment.

Jude 22 “And some have compassion, making a difference: Jude 23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.”

This is in the same context of going back to the writings of Moses as well. It is the fire of the judgment of The Almighty, and we can read about that in Deuteronomy 32:19-28. The two hundred and fifty princes that sided with Korah in the previous account in Numbers suffered the fire of judgment when they were destroyed by the fire that came out from Yahweh after the ground opened up and swallowed Korah and all that appertained unto him. It is the fire of the wrath of the God, burning with destruction, mischief, hunger, wars, and numerous calamities and catastrophes visited upon his people in judgment of their rebellion against his Laws, which in I John 3:4 we are told that sin is transgression of the Law. Disobedience to the Laws of Yahweh brings judgment upon the nation and family, while obedience to the Law brings peace, happiness, security, and strength to our people.

Jude 24 “Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, Jude 25 To the only wise God our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.”

Who fell, from what did they fall, and what did they not keep? Does this mean that “angels fell from heaven”? No. Jude means to keep (prevent) us from our “falling into sin”, thus disowning the love of God. (“Keep yourselves in the love of God” - v.21) It does not refer to some sort of “falling” from heaven which we are told that so called “angelic spirits” reportedly have done. As verse 24 straight-forwardly states “to keep you from falling” is to present us before God on the great day called Resurrection Day as promised. The phrase is in reference to the falling mentioned in verse 6, “those which could not keep their estate.” Most emphatically, it wasn’t angels that fell from heaven; it was national Israel that received the message of Yahweh’s Laws, and fell into sin by their disobedience to those laws. They lost their houses; they lost their freedom, their liberties, and their everlasting account is with us to this very day. They lost their estate, --- their national dominion.

Saxon Christian Israel today, called to be God’s angels (His messengers), are in extreme danger of losing their second Estate (white Christian homelands) which we possessed in the 19th – 21st centuries. To the harm of the people, the clergy have hidden the real lesson to be found in the Book of Jude as it is more lucrative to teach spiritism

Library Builder:

KING SOLOMON’S TEMPLE
E. Raymond Capt, M.A., A.I.A., F.S.A.
Scot.

Known as the House of God, this Temple was, in some respects, the most wonderful building constructed by human craft. The biblical reference of the Temple conveys to the reader its grandeur and holiness, but reveals so few details that little hope was held of ever producing an accurate reconstruction.

#344 @ sug don $13.95

to the masses instead of governmental righteousness.

The “falling” of Jude 6 is the entering into the sin of disobedience to Yahweh’s laws by his Saxon Israel race. Jude is attempting to convey sound doctrine to those of us living today in order that we might avoid that kind of unstoppable “falling” into sin. Christian friends, there was never any type of battle for a “dead Moses corpse” between some winged high angel named Michael and a so-called “Evil Fallen Angel Devil.” But, praise Yahweh, when we read Jude in light of the rest of the Scripture’s history of Israel, the devil in Jude 9 is seen for what he truly is: a mere mortal man named Korah. He is the adversary, the satan, a man of personal self-interest, a rebel against the authority of Moses. Consistent with the rest of the Scriptures, there is no supernatural Fallen Angel Luciferian Devil in the book of Jude. Some may try to extrapolate that belief from other Scripture verses, but it most certainly is not to be found in Jude, and the “fallen angels” didn’t fall from celestial realms to roam the Earth.

The Book of Jude is about accountability – our own individual and national accountability in obeying our Divine King, guarding our divine jurisdiction, and not losing our Estate to those who would undermine God’s sovereignty. Our epic struggle is not a fable about a “spirit realm tug-of-war”. The battle is in the “here and now”, and we are God’s angels (messengers).

The Scriptural cross referenced accounts of the story in Jude, along with the original word meanings, tell us plainly that “the angels which kept not their first estate” were the ancient Israelites who resided in their mid east land area nation from the days of Moses until their captivity by Assyria and Babylon. Endlessly trying God’s patience, they lost their jurisdiction along with their homes due to “falling” into disobedience of Yahweh’s national laws, and eventually having been taken northward into their dispersion and the dark gloom of their loss of liberty.

The original racial USA Constitutional “States” were Estates of Christian Commonwealths taught by Paul in Ephesians chapter 2:12 & 20 and implemented as such by the Christian American Founding Fathers. As never before in Saxon Israel, today many varieties of modern day “Korahs” have suddenly appeared, great oratory adversaries who hate our Estates, who live within our camp and have crept in unaware to lead many astray.

George Washington’s Vision was most certainly correct. America is hanging by a thread, yet Christ will move to save our Republic and our Saxon inheritance. It is time to decide by which tent we shall stand. That of the “many Korah’s” among us, or the tent of our family Inheritance of the original USA Christian Republic -- our second chance Estate. Christians, what “the devil” will we do in these end times? This is the true story of Jude. History certainly does repeat itself, as Jude’s account of our ancestors’ “First Estate” is nearly our story of America as well. Let us learn from the mistakes of our ancestors and keep our Estate this time around.

Daniel 7:18 But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

Courtesy Faith of the Covenant

THE BIBLE IS ONLY TO ISRAEL

Ken Lent

God’s Word (The Scriptures) itself says that the Bible is only for one family of people on the earth. It never was written to everybody or to all people. If you are a racial Israelite the Bible is strictly for you. Nobody was more clear about this that Jesus the Anointed Himself. Here is what Jesus said:

“I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the House of Israel” (Matt 15:24).

The reason Jesus said this was that He was repeating (upholding) what God had already set forth in the Old Testament Scriptures. Look at what God said about who He knows as a family:

“O children of Israel, you only have I known of all the families of the earth” (Amos 3:2).

The name “Jacob” was another term used for “Israel” because the man Jacob was renamed “Israel” by God. Here is what God says about Jacob/Israel and God’s Word:

“He (God) shows His Word unto Jacob, His statutes and His judgments unto Israel. He has not dealt so with any nation: and as for His judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the ever-living God.” (Psalm 147:19-20).

The idea that the Bible is for all people on the planet comes from the doctrines of God’s enemies who are basically known as “Communists” because they see the entire world as a big commune run by what they feel should be “social justice.” (today, we call them “Watermelon Greens” Green on the outside, to deceive the people, but thoroughly Red on the inside). That system is highly perverted and it hates God’s order of differences in creation and His Laws of how things are to be run. The “world system” is a system of wars, disease, poverty, and death. Only God’s people Israel have His Laws in their hearts to understand how to rule in righteousness and to make the Earth a place of peace and safety for God’s created races. By “Israel” it is not meant to refer to today’s so called “Jews” because the Jews are not the Israelites of the Bible. They are a different people altogether than the Israelites. The true Israelites are the white Christians who have totally forgotten who they are — God’s chosen Israel.

Courtesy Faith of the Covenant Fellowship, PO Box 832
PEMBROKE VA 24136

PAY ATTENTION TO HISTORY...

To the Fight Between America and Islam

Not many people are aware of this Nor are many aware that Muslims from North Africa regularly raided the south coast of England (as well as Ireland, France, Holland, and even Denmark) for slaves and women for sale in the markets of North Africa.

When President Thomas Jefferson saw there was no negotiating with Muslims, he formed what is now the Marines (sea going soldiers). These Marines, were attached to American Merchant vessels. When the Muslims attacked these vessels they were repulsed by armed soldiers (that’s what is needed to day to deal with African/Somali pirates).

But There is More...

The Marines followed the Muslims back to their villages and killed every man, woman, and child in the village. It didn't take long for the Muslims to leave American Merchant vessels alone. English and French merchant vessels started running up the US flag when entering the Mediterranean to secure safe travel. Do you know why the Marine Hymn contains the line

"To the Shores of Tripoli..?"

This part of our history points out where we may be heading. Most people are unaware that over two hundred years ago America declared war on Islam, and President Thomas Jefferson led the charge!

At the height of the 18th century, Muslim pirates (the "Barbary Pirates") were the terror of the Mediterranean and a large area of the North Atlantic.

They attacked every ship in sight and held the crews for exorbitant ransoms. Those taken hostage were subjected to barbaric treatment and wrote heartbreaking letters home, begging their governments and families to pay whatever their Mohammedan captors demanded.

These extortionists of the high seas represented the North African Islamic nations of Tripoli, Tunis, Morocco, and Algiers - collectively referred to as the Barbary Coast — and presented a dangerous and unprovoked threat to our new American Republic.

Before the Revolutionary War, American merchant ships had been under the protection of Great Britain. When America declared its independence and entered into the war, the ships of America were protected by France. However, once the war was won, America had to protect its own fleets. This is the birth of the American Navy.

In 1784, 17 years before he would become president, Thomas Jefferson became America's Minister to France. That same year, Congress sought to appease its Muslim adversaries by following in the footsteps of European nations who paid bribes to the Barbary States rather than engaging them in war.

In July of 1785, Algerian pirates captured American ships, and the Dye of Algiers demanded an unheard-of ransom of $60,000. It was a plain and simple case of extortion, and Thomas Jefferson was vehemently opposed to any further payments.

Instead, he proposed to Congress the formation of a coalition of allied nations who together could force the Islamic states into peace. A disinterested Congress decided to pay the ransom.

In 1786, Thomas Jefferson and John Adams met with Tripoli's ambassador to Great Britain to ask by what right his nation attacked American ships and enslaved American citizens, and why Muslims held so much hostility towards America, a nation with which they had no previous contacts.

The two future presidents reported that Ambassador Sidi Haji Abdul Rahman Adja answered that:

"Islam was founded on the Laws of their Prophet, That it was written in their Quran that all nations who would not acknowledge their authority were sinners, that it was their right and duty to make war upon them wherever they could be found, and to make slaves of all they could take as prisoners, and that every Musselman (Muslim) who should be slain in battle was sure to go to Paradise."

Despite this stunning admission of premeditated violence on non-Muslim nations, as well as the objections of many notable American leaders — including George Washington, who warned that caving in was both wrong and would only further embolden the enemy — for the following fifteen years, the un-American government paid the Muslims millions of dollars for the safe passage of American ships or the return of American hostages.

The payments in ransom and tribute amounted to over 20 percent of America's government annual revenues in 1800.

Thomas Jefferson was disgusted. Shortly after being sworn in as the third President of America in 1801, the Pasha of Tripoli sent him a note demanding the immediate payment of $225,000 plus $25,000 a year for every year forthcoming.

That Changed Everything

Thomas Jefferson let the Pasha know, in no uncertain terms, what he could do with his demand. The Pasha responded by cutting down the flagpole at the American consulate and declared war on America. Tunis, Morocco, and Algiers immediately followed suit.

Jefferson, until now, had been against America raising a naval force for anything beyond coastal defense ... but, having watched his nation be cowed by Islamic thuggery for long enough, he decided it was finally time to meet force with force.

Jefferson dispatched a squadron of frigates to the Mediterranean and taught the Muslim nations of the Barbary Coast a lesson he hoped they would never forget. Congress authorized Jefferson to empower American ships to seize all vessels and goods of the Pasha of Tripoli and to cause to be done all other acts of precaution or hostility as the state of war would justify.

When Algiers and Tunis, who were both accustomed to American cowardice and acquiescence, saw the newly independent America had both the will and the right to strike back, they quickly abandoned their allegiance to Tripoli.

The war with Tripoli lasted for four more years, and raged up again in 1815. The bravery of America's Marine Corps in these wars led to the line to the shores of Tripoli in the Marine Hymn, and they would forever be known as "leathernecks" because of the leather collars of their uniforms which were designed to prevent their heads from being cut off by the Muslim scimitars when boarding enemy ships.

Islam — and what its Barbary followers justified doing in the name of their prophet and their god — disturbed Thomas Jefferson deeply.

America had a tradition of religious tolerance. In fact Jefferson, himself, had co-authored the Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom, but fundamentalist Islam was like no other religion the world had ever known — a religion based on supremacy, whose holy book not only condoned but mandated violence against unbelievers, was unacceptable to him.

Thomas Jefferson's greatest fear was that someday this brand of Islam would return and pose an even greater threat to America.

This Should Concern Everyone

Muslims have brought about women-only classes and swimming times at taxpayer-funded universities and public

Library Builder: THE TRADITIONS OF GLASTONBURY

E. Raymond Capt, M.A., A.I.A., F.S.A.
Scot.

It was rumored that Joseph of Arimathea owned many of the merchant ships that came to England from Rome and Phoenicia to barter for metal and other goods.

Did Jesus accompany his uncle to this isle of the west? Mr Capt reveals that there is substantial evidence to support that he did.

#345 @ sug don $17.85

schools. Christians, Jews, and Hindus have been banned from serving on juries where Muslim defendants are being judged. Piggy-banks and Porky-pig tissue dispensers have been banned from workplaces because they offend Islamist sensibilities. Ice cream has been discontinued at certain Burger King locations because the picture on the wrapper looks similar to the Arabic script for Allah — and on and on and on!

By not fighting back, by allowing groups to obfuscate what is really happening, and not insisting that the Islamists adapt to our culture, we are cutting our own throat with a “Politically Correct” knife, and helping to further the Islamists’ agenda.

Sadly, it appears that today the leaders would rather be Politically Correct than victorious!

If you do not Remember the Past, You are Doomed to Repeat it!

Contributed article

a Watchman to the House of Israel

Around 1970, comedian “Flip” Wilson popularized the phrase “The Devil Made Me Do It,” through one of his characters, a floozy named “Geraldine.” It was funny when Wilson said it, being obvious who the “Devil” really was (Geraldine). When professing Christians use this excuse, it loses its humor and, in fact, profanes God’s name, sovereignty and authority.

The nature of Cause and Effect can be confusing. We treat effects as if they were causes, often ignoring causes altogether. Webster’s Dictionary defines Cause: To be the cause of, to effect by agency; to bring about. As a noun, it means: One who, or that which produces effect. For effect, we find (in part): which is produced by some agency or cause; a result; a consequence.

The medical profession is a classic example of confusing Cause with Effect. Physical illness is generally caused by wrong diet, stress, lack of moral virtue, etc. While physicians have come to accept this probability by the establishment of health maintenance clinics, the ‘big money’ is still in remedial medicine which does not cure the patient, but alleviates or masks the symptoms (effects). This differs little from getting drunk to avoid responsibility.

The legal profession is another example. The rising crime rate is an Effect of the innumerable laws seeking to regulate behaviour, creating jobs in the legal profession, presenting even greater opportunities for the graft and corruption characteristic of law in America since the War for Independence.

Confusion about Cause and Effect exists because a cause can set off a chain reaction of effects... War grips a nation. Production and transportation are disrupted and diverted. Expenditure of public energy increases while food production decreases. The populace loses resistance to disease as stress mounts. Illness reduces productivity, and shortages of food and supplies result. Hunger and famine strike, then greater plagues and diseases, then more starvation.

It’s easy enough to think of war as a cause — but it isn’t, since war itself has a cause. Not hearing or caring about your fellow men and women. This lack of hearing or caring also has a cause—not hearing the Word of God (The Holy Bible).

Finally, not hearing the Word of God has a cause—God’s withholding it from people who are not worthy of wisdom and understanding, who would hold His divine self-revelation in low esteem, or ignore it. The Bible is readily available, but who hears or heeds it?

Anyone who chooses can see cause and effect at work in Genesis 1:3, And God said, Let there be light. God spoke, and it was accomplished. We have another witness in Psalm 33. Cause and effect in Genesis 3 is summarized: Obey and live—or Disobey and die. Adam and Eve chose death. The cause was/is disobedience. The effect was/is death.

The Genesis 3 testimony tells us a few more things we ought to heed: 1) Any influence which distracts from the simplicity which is Jesus (the) Christ clouds our perception and complicates our understanding; 2) Our first thought, when we err and are caught, is to make excuses and shift the blame. Today, many deny the principle of cause and effect, or confuse it by saying some character called “Satan” caused the error. Eve didn’t even go this far in shifting blame. 3) We are skeptical people who prefer scientific method over Faith. We, like our ancestors, love the excitement of the challenge (regardless of consequences), not hesitating to test the Lord our God. We check this tendency in relationships with our children, yet ignore it with adults who ought to know better.

The Natural Law

Physics, dealing with natural laws, tells us that for every action there is an equal and opposite reaction. So it is with men. The Bible testifies of actions, and the reactions they produce, but being irresponsible, we seek “scape-goats,” ignoring our actions which cause the reactions. This is our “carnal nature.” Christians overcoming means conquering this nature, not the effects of it. We will be right when we act right.

There Is No Other Way!

Deuteronomy 28 is a long list of causes and effects. It is God’s natural law for His people, simply stated:

Know now that God hath overthrown me and compassed me with this net. Behold, I cry out of a wrong (margin: violence), but I am not heard; I cry aloud, but there is no judgment. He (God) hath fenced up my way and He hath set darkness in my paths. (Job 19:6-8).

Darkness is not cause, but effect. We have darkness, deception and ignorance because we hate light, and love darkness (John 3:19-21). When are most sins committed? Daytime or at night?

I form the light and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil. I the Lord do all these things (Isaiah 45:7).

Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place and upon the inhabitants thereof, all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah (II Chron. 34:24).

Note, the king heard the Word of God and chose to ignore it, as many do today. Rulers are no exception to the rule. God calls Himself the Author of Evil and men deny it because they won't hear His Word.

Many passing as patriots bewail the laws of the nation, which they claim are wicked and not of God. Certainly they are wicked laws, created and enforced by wicked men, but they are indirectly from God—for a wicked people who despise and reject His Law.

Because they had not executed My judgments, but had despised My statutes and profaned My sabbaths, and their eyes were after their father's idols, wherefore I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live. (Ezekiel 20:24-25).

Cause and Effect—life and death. Bad laws, and those who make, approve and enforce them, are a rod of correction from God. If we miss this point by blaming law-makers and enforcers, the situation can only worsen as it is now — but the Root Cause is, and shall be, the Will of God Almighty, and our reaction to it.

Who Is The God Of This World?

Contrary to those who discredit the Apostle Paul, and his assertion that governments (beasts) are ordained of God, the prophet Daniel said:

Let his (Nebuchadnezzar's) heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times (years) pass over him. This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men and giveth it to whosoever He will, and setteth up over it the basest of Men. -Daniel 4:16-17).

Can it be any clearer who is the God of This World and what His purpose is? Saying that evil government and bad laws are the “Satan” whitewashes man's carnal nature. Christendom readily buys the lie about “Satan” beCause she regards appearances as more important than truth, and escapism more highly than Biblical solutions.

Natural pride and arrogance cause us to point the finger of blame. If we think the blame lies elsewhere, we think responsibility lies elsewhere as well. As long as we can find some liar to tell us it's not our fault, we pay them well to do so.

We question why we are here. We ask: Why, God? Why my son? My daughter? Why must they die? Not knowing (or being taught) cause and effect, our youth die by the hundreds of thousands — in wars on foreign soil, on our highways, and even in our homes. Many commit suicide. Granted, death comes to us all (Romans 5:12-13), but it doesn't have to come prematurely! The answer is simple: Obey and Live; Disobey and Die! The father's sins are visited upon the children.

We labor under the delusion that if we “only get enough money,” we can have a better life for ourselves and our children. When we fail, we turn to the government we despise for handouts, which is theft.

In error, we believe “might makes right,” and that the power of numbers will save us. Yet, does a large flock of sheep drive out lions? We pay dearly for our delusions, and not we only, but the world for which We Are Responsible. When things don't please us, we target “Satan,” that scapegoat of mythological proportions. How convenient!

I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; beCause when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not. (Isaiah 66:4).

We won't listen to the Word of God, so He sends us delusions and we believe lies, being damned in our unbelief. II Thessalonians 2 is a witness of this. We say we hate the wicked, and expect to be “raptured” away from them. How far must we go to escape our own wickedness?!

For they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the Lord. They would (do) none of My counsel: they despised all My reproof. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices - Proverbs 1:29-31.

Figures may not lie, but liars can figure, saying God's counsel is null and void, for another people in another place and time. They figure as long as we are “in Christ” (in anointing) we can still “do our own thing.” The Bible says the opposite, yet we despise His correction.

God has no pleasure in the death of the wicked (Ezekiel 18:32), so He appoints watchmen to warn them of the consequences of their actions. God's watchmen also warn us of wicked men, confusing Cause and Effect!

Who Will Warn the Watchmen???

Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the House of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them ... As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways, for why will you die, O House of Israel? Ezekiel 33:10-11.

Except you repent, ye shall likewise perish. Luke 13:3.

The Bible is clear that we suffer the effects of our own wickedness. Many Bible examples support this. God's watchmen need to hear, believe and do the Word. Then, Israel (Christendom) will live!

We will, 'till the end of this age have enemies who insist we fear this or that, rather than (respect) God Almighty alone (Exodus 20:3). Many will be fellow Israelites and professing Christians, but we say: Whoever points here or there, saying “this is the cause of the problem,” and fails to point to the sins of God's servant people, is a liar and deceiver. Hear him at your own risk, and at the peril of all you hold dear, beCause:

Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God and that MY fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of Hosts (Jeremiah 2:19).

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Revere God, and keep His commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. (Ecclesiastes 12:13).

[found in the ruins of the Christian Research Library, formerly run by Dan Gentry]

SCRIPTURALLY UNDERSTANDING LIFE'S CIRCUMSTANCES

by Kenneth W. Lent

Circumstances that we never planned on happening can result in our lives becoming a series of “peaks and valleys” over which we seem to have no control. A particular situation in life can either be a welcomed blessing or a nagging difficulty. Nobody ever complains about “something unexpectedly good” happening to them, so these events are almost never in need of dealing with on a mental or emotional level. Finding out that your rich uncle left you a sizeable inheritance upon his demise is hardly a cause for worry. Nobody minds “good things” coming their way out of the blue. It is the other end of the circumstantial spectrum, the “curve balls of life” that people have trouble with, and of which there seems to be no shortage. What of these problematic circumstances? How does a Christian best handle some situation in life that can produce a range of anxieties from mild emotional discomfort to downright agonizing frustration? God’s Word does offer great help in understanding how we are to view and deal with challenging circumstances. Whatever the circumstance, and whatever it brings, a Christian who loves God knows that his/her relationship to all happenings in their life has a great purpose: “And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose.” (Rom. 8:28). We are headed to a rendezvous with Jesus the Christ, and life’s tests purify us in a spiritual refinement for that day: “Wherein ye greatly rejoice... ye are in heaviness through manifold testings: - - the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold - - tried with fire - - unto praise and honor and glory at the appearing of Jesus the Christ.” (1 Peter 1:5-7).

Difficult circumstances are like hurdles that God sometimes places before us to teach us how to jump or climb over them, and meet even more demanding obstacles as our faith increases. Whoever said that training was easy? Training to be victorious over the world requires patience: “And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience.” (Romans 5:3). For this reason the mature and experienced Christian realizes that trying circumstances should be met with thanksgiving just as are easier circumstances: “Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of Jesus the Christ.” (Eph. 5:20).

Most likely none of us will ever suffer the way the apostle Paul did for the faith. Yet with all that Paul endured for the King of kings, look at his solid attitude which he said that he learned from his life in Jesus: “Not that I speak in respect of want; for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content, I know both how to be abased, and know how to abound: everywhere and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I can do all things through the Anointed which strengtheneth me.” (Phil. 4:11-13). Paul indeed concluded that hard times are not a cause for anxiety (Phil. 4:6-7).

God’s plans for victory over life’s rough times can be seen repeatedly in the Scriptures. Let us read about these personal victories over impossible circumstances and be encouraged by God’s living Word which He has given to us:

Moses (Exodus 14:10-31) - Israel saved from Pharaoh’s army.

Shamgar (Judges 3:31) - 600 enemy killed with an ox goad

Hannah (I Samuel 1:1-20) - barren in her womb, gives birth to Samuel

David (I Samuel 17:19-51) - David as a lad defeats the giant Goliath

Widow of Zarephath (I Kings 17:8-16) - the widow in extreme poverty rescued

Peter (Acts 12:5-17) - Peter freed from prison

Paul (Acts 14:19-20; 16:19-26) - survives being stoned by Jews. -- Courtesy Faith of the Covenant Fellowship PO Box 832

PEMBROKE VA 24136

WHY READ THE HOLY SCRIPTURES?

by Kenneth W. Lent

Praying to God, loving and helping the brethren, or caring for the infirm are all fine duties that a Christian does to show an inward guidance of holy ghost. But let us forever remember that we are blessed indeed by God (and therefore can be a blessing to others) by remaining diligent readers of the Holy Scriptures. Daily reading of God’s Word can transform not only a person, but an entire nation as well. When all is said and done, we need to read the Word - daily and aloud to the family.

Reading God’s Word effects changes that nothing else has the power to do. The nation of Judah under the reigns of both King Manasseh and King Amon had for a long time fallen into idolatry and had incurred the wrath of God. They had forgotten obedience to Yahweh God to the extent that they even misplaced the books of the Law through non use of them. But with the reign of the next king, Josiah, a change was in the making that actually brought an exemption of divine judgment to those who simply read the Word and humbled themselves in their actions. In Josiah’s days the High Priest Hilkiah found the Law Book and had a scribe tell King Josiah about it. Upon reading God’s Word in those Scripture books, King Josiah “rent his clothes” in contrite repentance at how far Judah had strayed from God’s Commands (I Kings 22:8-11). And although God later brought His wrathful judgment against that corrupt nation, Yahweh told King Josiah that the nation would not be sent captive in Josiah’s days, but that judgment would be forestalled until after Josiah had died. This was done by God because of Josiah reading the Holy Scriptures of the Law (I Kings ch 22 & 23). and restoring true worship. It was in the reign of the next king, Jehoaahaz (who did evil) that national divine judgment came against Judah. [and what can we expect with the rulers we have today!]

Reading God’s Word can remind us of our duties to God. When the people of Judah returned to Jerusalem from Babylon after their captivity punishment, Nehemiah read from the Book of the Law of God to the gathered people and “gave them to understand the reading” (Neh. 8:8). The Feast Days were reinstated by the nation and the people immediately celebrated the Feast of Tabernacles (Neh. 8:7-18) “and there was very great gladness.” (v.17). Nehemiah’s readings also reminded the people of the evils of interracial marriage (13:24-30).

Holy spirit is close by those who read the Word of God with others. When an Adamite from Ethiopia was reading from the book of Isaiah, the spirit spoke to Philip and told Philip to go close to the man and read more Scriptures with him until a conversion to the faith was achieved (Acts 8:27-37). God so cherishes when people read the Bible that He becomes personally attentive.

Finally, reading the Scriptures gives the believer a blessed advantage over the non-believing world by making future events knowledgeable. This is done by reading God’s prophecies in His Word. “Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.” (Revelation 1:1-3).

Remember to read from God’s Word daily for it is a lamp that lights our life’s path (Psalm 119:105) and is quick to help us discern the very thoughts and intents of our hearts (Heb. 4:12).

Courtesy Faith of the Covenant Fellowship,

Greetings once again. May this Messenger be a blessing to you and your family. Thank you for your continued support and letters/orders. May our God and Father bless and keep you in His care,

